Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On May 24, 2012, RealNetworks, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a consent decree with the Washington State Office of the Attorney General ("Washington AG"), filed in King County Superior Court. The consent decree resolved the Washington AG's investigation and accompanying Complaint relating to certain of the Company's consumer marketing practices. Under the terms of the consent decree, the Company will provide up to $2.0 million as a restitution fund for specified consumers in the U.S. who subscribed to the Company's SuperPass, GamePass and Rhapsody subscription products during the period from January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2009. Under the terms of the consent decree, eligible consumers are entitled to make claims against the restitution fund for a period of 90 days following the date of the consent decree. The Washington AG will be paid up to $500,000 of any balance remaining in the restitution fund following the processing of eligible claims, with any balance amount in excess of $500,000 to be returned to the Company. The Company will also pay $400,000 to the Washington AG as reimbursement for its legal expenses. In addition, the Company agreed to follow certain specified consumer practices, most of which the Company has already implemented. The Company had previously disclosed the Washington AG's investigation in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2012, and accrued $2.4 million within its consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2012 for potential amounts related to the investigation. The Company expects to complete payments of the amounts under the consent decree during the quarter ended September 30, 2012.

The Company's entry into the consent decree does not constitute evidence or an admission by the Company regarding the existence or non-existence of any issue, fact or violation alleged by the Washington AG. On May 24, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing the entry of the consent decree, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 99.1 attached to this report.
