ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On November 25, 2013, Tauriga Sciences, Inc., a Florida corporation, (the “Company”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) among the Company, Pilus Acquisition, LLC, an Ohio limited liability company (“Pilus Acquiror”), Bacterial Robotics, LLC, an Ohio limited liability company (“BR”), Pilus Energy, LLC, an Ohio limited liability company (“Pilus Energy”), Daniel J. Hassett, PhD, (“Hassett”) and Ian Cody Harrison (“Harrison”), and such other individuals who may join the Merger Agreement by execution of a joinder prior to the closing of the merger transaction.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the Company’s board of directors, upon the closing of the transactions (the “Closing”), Pilus Energy, will merge with and into Pilus Acquiror, with Pilus Energy being the surviving entity of the merger and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Each of the current members of Pilus Energy, which are BR, Hassett and Harrison, as well as any person who becomes a member of Pilus Energy and enters into a joinder to the Merger Agreement prior to Closing, will receive a cashless exercise warrant (“Warrant”) exercisable for a period of seven (7) years, at a conversion ratio of 1:100 (each unit of Pilus membership interest will be converted into a right to receive 100 shares of the Company’s Common Stock $0.00001 par value per share (the “Common Stock”) upon exercise of the Warrant in respect thereof). The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of all of the Warrants issued under the Merger Agreement will be 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock (plus an amount, if any, to cover a cashless exercise related to the strike price), as adjusted for the reverse stock split described below. The issuance of the Warrants and the shares of Common Stock upon exercise of the Warrants are intended to be conducted pursuant to the exemption for transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and/or Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. In addition, at the Closing, certain advisors of Pilus Energy will be incorporated into the existing management team of the Company and will report directly to the Company’s CEO, Seth M. Shaw, and COO, Dr. Stella M. Sung.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company will make an irrevocable and nonrefundable cash deposit of $50,000 to Pilus within 15 business days of signing of the Merger Agreement. It is a condition to Closing that the Company shall, within 180 days from the signing of the Merger Agreement, have raised and have available at the Closing, at least $2,250,000 in immediately available funds (including available in escrow pending the Closing of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement). As a condition to Closing, BR will enter into a License Agreement granting Pilus an exclusive license or sublicense to specified intellectual property (related to the technology described in the November 25, 2013 press release of the Company announcing the merger transaction, which is annexed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K). The Merger Agreement contains additional conditions to Closing, including a reverse stock split by the Company of its Common Stock, and satisfactory completion by the Company of its business, accounting, and legal due diligence review of Pilus and its business, its assets and liabilities.

At the Closing, BR, Jason E. Barkeloo, the Chief Executive Officer of BR, and each member of Pilus Energy will enter into a Release and Covenant Not to Sue in favor of the Company and Pilus Energy (“Release and Covenant Not to Sue”) and will enter into a Standstill and Voting Agreement with the Company (the “Standstill and Voting Agreement”), agreeing to restrictions on acquisition of additional Company capital stock, transactions involving Company or proxy solicitations. Such persons also agree to vote their Company Common Stock in order to elect to the Board of Directors of Company, the persons nominated by a majority of the incumbent directors at the date of the Merger Agreement or directors nominated by such incumbent directors. Each such person will grant a proxy to the Chief Executive Officer of Company or his nominee to vote or provide a written consent to give effect to the provisions of the Standstill and Voting Agreement, which proxy may be exercised in the event such person refuses or fails to vote or provide a written consent in accordance with the terms of the Standstill and Voting Agreement. The Standstill and Voting Agreement will expire on the later of: (i) such time as the Warrants collectively represent less than 5% of the fully-diluted common equity of the Company, and (ii) the 5th anniversary of the Closing. The restrictions contained in the Standstill and Voting Agreement will not bind or restrict any non-affiliated person to whom Warrants or shares of Tauriga Common Stock are transferred.

BR and the Company previously entered into a Strategic Alliance Agreement on October 29, 2013 (the “Strategic Alliance Agreement”), and, in connection with the entry into the Strategic Alliance Agreement, the Company issued to BR a warrant for up to 75,000,000 shares of Common Stock (plus an amount, if any, to cover a cashless exercise related to the strike price) and granted BR registration rights with respect to 35,000,000 of such shares of Common Stock. The foregoing descriptions of the Strategic Alliance Agreement and the warrant issued pursuant to the Strategic Alliance Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Strategic Alliance Agreement and warrant, as described in and attached to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K dated October 29, 2013, which are each incorporated herein by reference.
