Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 22, 2017, H.R.1 “An Act to Provide for Reconciliation Pursuant to Titles II and V of the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal year 2018” (“tax reform”) was signed by the President of the United States and became enacted law. Tax reform is complex and includes various changes which will impact Allegion plc (the “Company”). Following the enactment, the Company performed a preliminary assessment of the tax reform impact and expects to take a $25 -$50 million non-cash write-down of deferred tax assets in the fourth quarter of 2017, due to the reduction in the US Federal statutory tax rate from 35% to 21%.

In addition, the Company’s preliminary estimate of its future effective tax rate attributable to tax reform is mid to high-teens. The Company continues to evaluate the impact of tax reform, and will update its estimates when it announces its 2017 year end results in early 2018.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements regarding the impact of tax reform, the Company’s expected non-cash write down of deferred tax assets and the Company’s future effective tax rate. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current available information and its current assumptions, expectations and projections about future events. They are subject to future events, risks and uncertainties - many of which are beyond the Company’s control - as well as potentially inaccurate assumptions, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Further information on these factors and other risks that may affect the Company's business is included in filings it makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time, including its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, Form 10-Q's for the quarters ended March 31, 2017, June 30, 2017, and September 30, 2017, and in its other SEC filings. The Company assumes no obligations to update these forward-looking statements.

SIGNATURE
