Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On April 28, 2015, the Company announced that the Board of Directors (the “Board”) approved the acceleration of certain profitability and liquidity improvement activities designed to right-size the business for the current market environment, reduce costs, and improve operating performance. The initial improvement actions include consolidation of up to ten facilities by first quarter 2016 and significant headcount reductions. The Company expects to complete the initial improvement activities by the end of the first quarter of 2016.

Based on current information, the Company expects the total gross pre-tax charge associated with the improvement actions to be approximately $49 to $64 million. Of this total, approximately $12.1 to $21.4 million is expected to be cash and be incurred by early 2016, including up to $6 million which, if realized, is payable in approximately level installments over 20 years. This gross total includes approximately $2.1 to $4.4 million of employee severance and retention-related benefits, approximately $8.5 million of facility-related expenses for lease terminations and moving costs, up to $6 million of other costs, professional fees of approximately $1.5 to $2.5 million, and a net non-cash charge for other assets of $12.8 to $14.5 million. The Company estimates it will received $28 to $32 million of cash proceeds from the sale of facilities and other assets.

The improvement actions are detailed in the Company’s April 28, 2015 press release, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective April 28, 2015, Mr. A. Jeffrey Zappone, a Senior Managing Director of Conway MacKenzie Management Services, LLC (“Conway”), will no longer serve as the Company's Interim Chief Operating Officer. Conway will remain engaged with the Company on a limited and as-needed basis moving forward to support implementation of the plan described herein.
