5.02(e)

Compensatory Arrangements

On February 11, 2009, the Compensation and Management Development Committee of Centex Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), recommended, and the Board of Directors of the Company approved, the amendment and restatement of the following equity plans:

- Centex Corporation 2003 Equity Incentive Plan;
- Amended and Restated Centex Corporation 2001 Stock Plan;
- Amended and Restated 1998 Centex Corporation Employee Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan; and
- Centex Corporation Amended and Restated 1987 Stock Option Plan.

Each restated plan listed above amends, restates and supersedes its respective prior plan in its entirety. These amendments will affect various participants in the plans or individuals holding outstanding award agreements, including each of the Company's named executive officers listed in the Company's proxy statement for its 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders: Timothy R. Eller (Chairman and Chief Executive Officer), Catherine R. Smith (Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer), David L. Barclay (President – Land Division of Centex Homes), Robert S. Stewart (Senior Vice President – Strategy, Marketing, Sales and Corporate Development), and Brian J. Woram (Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer). Stockholder approval was not required for any of the amendments.

The 2003 Equity Incentive Plan was modified to add, as a form of permitted award, stock appreciation rights, which may be settled in cash or in stock as determined by the Committee at the time of the award and in accordance with the terms of the applicable award agreement. The Committee adopted the amendments in order to provide flexibility for future equity compensation awards to eligible participants even though it has no present intention to issue any of the stock appreciation rights authorized by the amendment.

The definition of "Fair Market Value" was amended in the three other plans to provide that fair market value also includes, if applicable, the price per share as determined in accordance with the procedures of a third party administrator retained by the Company to administer the plans. This change was adopted to facilitate net exercises and other transactions that may occur "at the market" during trading days instead of at the end of the trading day. In accordance with their terms, no additional awards may be made under the 1998 or 1987 plans.

The above descriptions of the provisions of the amended and restated plans is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the plans, which have been filed as exhibits to this report.
