Item 1.03 Bankruptcy or Receivership.

As previously disclosed, on November 17, 2017, Real Industry, Inc. (the “Company”), Real Alloy Intermediate Holding, LLC (“RAIH”), Real Alloy Holding, Inc. (“Real Alloy”) and certain of Real Alloy’s wholly-owned U.S. subsidiaries (collectively with RAIH and Real Alloy, the “Real Alloy Debtors,” and the Real Alloy Debtors with the Company, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”) seeking relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered under the caption “In re Real Industry, Inc., et al.”, Case No. 17-12464, in the Bankruptcy Court (the “Chapter 11 Proceedings”). The Debtors continue to operate their business and manage their properties as “debtors-in-possession” under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions and orders of the Bankruptcy Code.

Real Alloy Stalking Horse Bid

Also as previously disclosed, in connection with the debtor-in-possession (DIP) financing obtained by the Real Alloy Debtors (the “RA DIP Financing”), the Real Alloy Debtors agreed to pursue a sale of substantially all of their assets pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (a “Section 363 Sale”) and to obtain approval of the Bankruptcy Court for certain auction and bidding procedures related to such Section 363 Sale (the “Bidding Procedures”), along with certain other Section 363 Sale milestones. On December 19, 2017, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order, Order (I) Establishing Bidding Procedures Relating to the Sale of Assets, (II) Establishing Procedures Relating to the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, including Notice of Proposed Cure Amounts, (III) Establishing Procedures in connection with the Selection and Protections Afforded to Any Stalking Horse Bidders, (IV) Approving Form and Manner of Notice relating thereto, (V) Scheduling a Hearing to Consider the Proposed Sale, and (IV) Granting Related Relief, approving, among other things, these Bidding Procedures.

The Bankruptcy Court’s final order related to the RA DIP Financing, Final Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing Pursuant to Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, (II) Authorizing the Use of Cash Collateral Pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties Pursuant to Sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, (IV) Granting Liens and Superpriority Claims, and Modifying the Automatic Stay (the “Final DIP Order”), places additional requirements on the Real Alloy Debtors related to the Section 363 Sale process. Among these is a requirement that the Real Alloy Debtors obtain the prior written consent of a majority of the Required Holders (as defined in the Amended and Restated Note Purchase Agreement, dated and effective as of January 19, 2018 and as filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K, filed January 25, 2018; the “Required DIP Noteholders”) and Bank of America, N.A. (as administrative agent and collateral agent under the Debtor-in-Possession Revolving Credit Agreement, dated as of November 20, 2017, and as filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K, filed November 27, 2017; the “DIP ABL Agent”) in order to sell, or enter into a binding agreement to sell, the assets of the Real Alloy Debtors, unless the obligations under the RA DIP Financing, the prepetition Real Alloy 10% senior secured notes and the prepetition obligations under the Real Alloy revolving credit facility (collectively, the “Required Obligations”) are repaid in full in cash upon the closing of such sale. Further, under the Final DIP Order, the Required DIP Noteholders, the DIP ABL Agent, and the collateral trustee/agent for the new money senior secured priming and superpriority postpetition notes

(“New Money DIP Notes”) issued as part of the RA DIP Financing must approve any stalking horse bid and bid protections for such stalking horse bid.

On February 5, 2018, the Real Alloy Debtors filed a Notice of Stalking Horse Proposal Deadline and Submission of Credit Bid Proposal from Prepetition Lenders with the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Proceedings (the “Stalking Horse Notice”), reiterating the above information and advising that on February 2, 2018, the Required DIP Noteholders notified the Real Alloy Debtors of their intention to provide a credit bid to purchase substantially all of the assets of the Real Alloy Debtors (the “Credit Bid Proposal”). The Real Alloy Debtors and Required DIP Noteholders intend to finalize the terms of the Credit Bid Proposal in a binding definitive agreement (the “Noteholder Credit Bid”), which shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Court once executed.

The Stalking Horse Notice states that the Real Alloy Debtors determined that each of the proposed bids from the three entities interested in serving as a stalking horse bidder would be insufficient to pay the Required Obligations in full in cash upon closing of such transaction. Further, the Stalking Horse Notice states that the Required DIP Noteholders, DIP ABL Agent, and trustees of the collateral under the New Money DIP Notes and Roll-Up Notes issued as part of the RA DIP Financing DIP Collateral Trustee (collectively, the “DIP Lender Consultation Parties”) do not believe the offers reflect the true value of the Real Alloy Debtors’ assets, and thus have informed the Real Alloy Debtors that the DIP Lender Consultation Parties would decline to consent to a sale on the terms in the proposed stalking horse bids, as well as bid protections in connection with such proposals.

Following entry into the Noteholder Credit Bid, the Debtors may no longer consult with the parties submitting the Noteholder Credit Bid with respect to a sale of the Real Alloy assets or the Noteholder Credit Bid unless and until the Noteholder Credit

Bid is revoked. Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures, in order to determine the highest and otherwise best offer for the assets of the Real Alloy Debtors and whether or not to conduct an auction for substantially all of the Real Alloy Debtors' assets, the Debtors will continue to consider and evaluate all bids meeting the requirements set forth in the Bidding Procedures for the assets of the Real Alloy Debtors.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 5, 2018, Real Alloy Holding, Inc. issued a press release announcing the receipt of stalking horse bids and selection of the stalking horse bidder, a copy of which is attached to this Item 8.01 as Exhibit 99.1.
