Change in Control Agreement Amendments

On November 9, 2011, the Board of Directors of Kaman Corporation (the “Company”) approved amendments of existing change in control agreements between the following executive officers and the Company or a subsidiary thereof:

- Candace A. Clark Senior Vice President, Chief Legal Officer and Secretary, Kaman Corporation
- Ronald M. Galla Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer, Kaman Corporation
- Steven J. Smidler President, Kaman Industrial Technologies Corporation

The existing change in control agreements with Ms. Clark and Mr. Galla would have expired at the end of their original term on January 1, 2012. The amendments to the change in control agreements entered into with Ms. Clark and Mr. Galla on November 9, 2011, extend the terms of their individual agreements for a one-year period effective January 1, 2012 and provide for successive one-year renewals thereafter subject to the Company’s right of nonrenewal upon 90-days’ advance notice. In addition, the amendments implement the notice given by the Company to all executive officers in February 2010 that upon expiration of the original term of each individual’s change in control agreement, any renewal of the agreement would eliminate any potential for the executive to receive excise tax gross-up benefits from the Company in the event that Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code were to apply to receipt of benefits under the agreement. Under these amended change in control agreements, financial responsibility for such excise taxes would be borne personally by Ms. Clark and Mr. Galla, respectively. In addition, the amendments permit the Company to reduce such severance payments to levels so that no excise tax would be due, unless the individual would be in the same after-tax position if the full severance payment was made and the excise tax was imposed.

Mr. Smidler’s change in control agreement was amended on November 9, 2011, to provide that should there be a termination of employment following a change in control, Mr. Smidler’s severance payment under the agreement would include the transfer to Mr. Smidler of all rights and incidence of ownership of Company maintained insurance policies that insure Mr. Smidler’s life and the Company would establish and fund an irrevocable grantor trust to hold assets in an amount sufficient to pay the remaining premiums on any such life insurance policies. This amendment is consistent with the treatment of life insurance in the existing change in control agreements applicable to Messrs. Galla, Denninger and Ms. Clark.
