"Broker non-votes" refers to a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner not voting on a particular proposal because the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power regarding that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

The expenses of solicitation, including the cost of printing and mailing, will be paid by the Company. Proxies are being solicited principally by mail, by telephone, and by e-mail. MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Company has established an audit committee and a compensation committee. These committees are composed entirely of outside directors. The Board has also created other company-wide committees composed of officers of the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Company does not maintain any standing nominating committee. The entire Board performs the functions of a nominating committee, and considers and acts on all matters relating to the nomination of individuals for election as directors. The Board does not believe it needs a separate nominating committee because the Board has the time and resources to perform the function of selecting director nominees. Also, more than two-thirds of the directors satisfy the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. When the Board performs its nominating function, the Board acts in accordance with the Company's Certificate of Incorporation.

Stockholders entitled to vote for the election of directors may submit candidates for consideration by the Company if the Company receives timely written notice, in proper form, for each such director nominee. If the notice is not timely and in proper form, the nominee will not be considered by the Company. To be timely for the annual meeting, the notice generally must be received within the time frame set forth in "Notice Provisions For Stockholder Nominations of Directors" below. To be in proper form, each written nomination must set forth: (1) the name, age, business address and, if known, the residence address of the nominee, (2) the principal occupation or employment of the nominee for the past five years, and (3) the number of shares of stock of the Company beneficially owned by the nominee and by the nominating stockholder.

In the consideration of director nominees, including any nominee that a stockholder may submit, the Board of Directors considers, at a minimum, the following factors for new directors, or the continued service of existing directors: (a) the ability of the prospective nominee to represent the interests of the stockholders of the Company; (b) the prospective nominee's standards of integrity, commitment and independence of thought and judgment; (c) the prospective nominee's ability to dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to the diligent performance of his or her duties; and (d) the extent to which the prospective nominee contributes to the range of talent, skill and expertise appropriate for the Board.

Members of the audit committee are Messrs. Adams, Diepholz, Dively, Grissom, Marvin, Melvin, and Sparks, and Ms. Preston. The audit committee assists the Board of Directors in overseeing the corporate financial reporting process and the internal and the independent outside audits of the Company. The audit committee met eight times in 2004.

The members of the compensation committee are Messrs. Adams, Diepholz, Dively, Grissom, Lumpkin, Marvin, Melvin, and Sparks, and Ms. Preston. The compensation committee reports to the Board of Directors and has responsibility for all matters related to compensation of executive officers of the Company, including review and approval of base salaries, conducting a review of salaries of executive officers compared to other financial services companies in the region, fringe benefits, including modification of the retirement plan, and incentive compensation. The compensation committee met three times in 2004.

A total of 14 regularly scheduled and special meetings were held by the Board of Directors of the Company during 2004. During 2004, all directors attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the Board and the committees on which they served.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The members of the audit committee of the Company during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 were Messrs. Sparks (Chairman), Adams, Diepholz, Dively, Grissom, Marvin, and Melvin, and Ms. Preston. The Board of Directors determined that each member of the audit committee satisfies the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

The Securities and Exchange Commission requires that boards of directors determine whether any audit committee member qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert." The Board of Directors determined that Steven L. Grissom is an audit committee financial expert.

The audit committee acts pursuant to a written charter that was reviewed and reassessed for adequacy and reaffirmed by the Board of Directors on January 25, 2005. The audit committee will continue to review and reassess the charter from time to time but not less than annually. A copy of this Audit Committee Charter is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The audit committee reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements as of and for fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

Edgar Filing: FIRST MID ILLINOIS BANCSHARES INC - Form DEF 14A

The audit committee also discussed with the independent auditors, KPMG LLP, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The audit committee received the written disclosures from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, and discussed with KPMG LLP the independence of that firm.

Based on the review and discussion referred to above, the audit committee affirmed the determination of the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

In addition, the audit committee considered whether the provision of services by KPMG LLP not related to the audit of the financial statements referred to above and to the reviews of the interim financial statements included in the Company's Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004, and September 30, 2004 were compatible with maintaining the independence of KPMG LLP.

This audit committee report is submitted by the audit committee of the Board of Directors:

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. The Company's supplemental executive retirement plan (the "SERP") applies to senior management employees recommended by the President and designated by the compensation committee. Mr. Rowland is the only member of current management which has been so designated. The SERP provides for Mr. Rowland to receive an annual benefit of a maximum of $50,000 for a 20 year period following his retirement. This benefit is subject to a vesting schedule with full benefit vesting at age 63. The Company serves as beneficiary of life insurance policies on Mr. Rowland with a death benefit of $750,000.

Employment Agreements. In January 2005, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with William S. Rowland. The employment agreement generally provides for an initial base salary, which may be increased but not decreased, and a bonus of up to 50% of base salary, as well as other benefits under the agreement. The agreement has an initial term of three years, which may be extended upon mutual agreement. In the event of termination of Mr. Rowland's employment by the Company without cause, the Company will be obligated to pay an amount equal to one year's salary. Under certain circumstances, if Mr. Rowland's employment discontinues following a change in control of the Company, the successor to the Company is obligated, among other things, to pay an amount equal to two years' base salary. The employment agreement includes a covenant which limits the ability of Mr. Rowland to compete with the Bank for a period of two years following the termination of his employment. In October 2002, the Company entered into a similar agreement with John W. Hedges, which provides for a bonus of up to 35% of base salary, and a payment in an amount equal to two years' base salary if employment discontinues following a change in control of the Company.

In August 2003, the Company entered into a similar agreement with Robert J. Swift, Jr., which provides for a bonus of up to 25% of base salary and a payment in an amount equal to one year's base salary if employment discontinues following a change in control of the Company. Compensation Committee Report. It is the compensation committee's responsibility to evaluate the performance of management, review total management compensation levels and consider management succession and other related matters. The committee reviews and approves in detail all aspects of compensation for the senior management of the Company.

Compensation for senior management generally includes base salary, annual performance-based incentives and long-term stock incentives. The committee uses a "peer group" of financial institutions, including Illinois banks, public banking companies in the general area and commercial banks in the Midwest region in assessing competitive compensation trends and pay levels.

Base Salaries. Base salaries for executive officers are reviewed annually and may be adjusted, when appropriate, to reflect competitive practices, changes in roles and responsibilities, and individual performance.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Annual incentive amounts are payable contingent upon the performance of the Company, as well as the individual contribution of each officer. As a result, a portion of each executive officer's annual compensation is based upon the officer's performance, the performance of the operating unit for which the officer has primary responsibility, and the performance of the Company as a whole. The formulas for measuring performance and awarding bonuses objectively link financial and individual performance with bonus amounts.

Long Term Stock Incentive Compensation. Stock incentive awards are made under the stockholder-approved First Mid-Illinois Bancshares, Inc. 1997 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is intended to provide a means whereby executive officers may sustain a sense of proprietorship and personal involvement in the continued success of the Company, and to encourage them to remain with and devote their best efforts to the business of the Company, thereby advancing the interest of the Company and its stockholders.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The compensation package for Mr. Rowland was determined in the same manner as for all other executive officers, except for Mr. Rowland's annual incentive compensation as described below. In December 2003, the compensation committee reviewed Mr. Rowland's base salary by evaluating the responsibilities of his position and his experience and performance. In addition, the compensation committee reviewed the comparison to base salaries for chief executive officers at peer group companies, and determined to increase Mr. Rowland's 2004 base salary from $200,000 in 2003 to $214,000 for 2004. Mr. Rowland's 2004 annual incentive compensation was based 100% on the Company's total performance without reference to any particular operating unit of the Company or personal objectives. The Company's total performance was measured by comparing the financial results of the Company to the 2004 earnings per share goal established by the compensation committee in November 2003. The compensation committee established $2.15 as the superior level of earnings per share in 2004 necessary for Mr. Rowland to receive a payout of 100% of his annual incentive compensation. Since earnings per share in 2004 were $2.13, Mr. Rowland received an 82% payout, amounting to 41% of his base salary. Finally, in 2004, Mr. Rowland was awarded 12,000 stock options under the Plan.

The 2004 earnings per share of $2.13 represented a $.25 or 13% improvement from 2003's level. Also, the Company's market share increased and various other improvements were made in the Company's operating and administrative functions. Accordingly, Messrs. Rowland, Hedges, Swift, Gilliland, and Taylor were awarded incentive bonuses of $87,740, $38,850, $27,562, $22,045, and $23,444, respectively.

The relationships between the base salaries and incentive compensation of
