Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

Edgar Filing: RCM TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 8-K

On April 30, 2008, management of RCM Technologies, Inc. (the "Registrant") concluded that the potential loss on a note receivable from a customer for which the Company has engaged in several significant projects will result in a material impairment.

In connection with the loss, the Registrant will take a charge during the first quarter of 2008, relating to the impairment of the note receivable from the customer, of approximately $6.1 million before estimated income tax benefit of $2.4 million, or $3.7 million net of the estimated income tax benefit. The loss will result in a reduction of earnings per share (diluted) for the three months ended March 29, 2008 of approximately $0.29 per share.

The Company does not expect at April 30, 2008, the impairment will result in any future cash expenditures by the Registrant.

On February 26, 2008, the Registrant had entered into a Repayment and Security Agreement with this customer, which was described on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Registrant on March 4, 2008. Under this agreement, the customer was to have paid in full its obligations to the Registrant over a period ending on July 1, 2011. The customer has failed to make certain interest payments to Registrant and the Registrant now expects the customer will default on its principal payment obligations. Under the repayment agreement and certain other agreements previously entered into with the customer, the Registrant also obtained a security interest in and lien upon the collateral described in those agreements, and now expects that recovery of the collateral is uncertain. The Registrant also obtained certain unconditional guarantees and surety under those agreements and now expects uncertainties as to recovery from the guarantees.
