PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously reported, Petroleum Development Corporation (the "Company") had determined that it was unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 ("2006 Form 10-K") by March 16, 2007, because it had not yet completed the preparation of its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006. The Company has completed this process and its independent auditors are currently in the process of completing their audit. Accordingly, the Company is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 ("March 31, 2007, Form 10-Q"), without unreasonable effort and expense, until after the Company has filed its 2006 Form 10-K and after such time as is reasonable to prepare its financial statements for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007, and after its auditors have completed their review of those quarterly statements. The Company is not able to represent that it will be able to file its March 31, 2007, Form 10-Q by May 15, 2007. Based on discussions with its auditors, the Company currently expects to file its 2006 Form 10-K with the SEC by no later than May 18, 2007; further, the Company currently expects to file its March 31, 2007, Form 10-Q by June 29, 2007.

(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No X

As indicated above, the Company has not filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes X No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously reported, during the quarter ended March 31, 2007, the Company completed several oil and gas property acquisitions. In January 2007, the Company acquired producing properties and undeveloped drilling locations and acreage in the Wattenberg Field area of the DJ Basin, Colorado, undeveloped leaseholds in Erath County, Texas, and purchased the remaining working interests in 44 Company-sponsored partnerships with wells located primarily in the Appalachian Basin and Michigan. In February 2007, the Company acquired 28 producing wells and associated undeveloped acreage located in the Wattenberg Field in Colorado. These acquisitions are expected to significantly impact the Company's reported results of operations for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007, as compared to its corresponding period in 2006. Until the Company completes its financial statements for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007, the Company is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of its results of operations or any significant changes thereto.
