(99) Press Release of REGAL-BELOIT Corporation dated August 10, 2004

Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On August 10, 2004, REGAL-BELOIT Corporation (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing the signing of a definitive agreement for REGAL-BELOIT Corporation to acquire GE’s Commercial AC motor business. The Company anticipates closing the acquisition in September. A copy of the Company’s press release is attached as Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this “Current Report”).

The Company intends that certain matters disclosed in this Current Report (including the exhibit hereto) are “forward-looking statements” intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors, some of which are beyond the Company’s control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated as of August 10, 2004. Factors that could cause such a variance include, but are not limited to, cyclical downturns affecting the markets for capital goods, substantial increases in interest rates which impact the cost of the Company’s outstanding debt, the success of the Company’s management in increasing sales and maintaining or improving the operating margins of its business, the availability of or material increases in the costs of select raw materials or parts, actions taken by competitors, and the Company’s ability to satisfy various covenant requirements under its credit facility. Shareholders, potential investors, and other readers are urged to consider these factors in evaluating the forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included in this Current Report (including the exhibit hereto) are made only as of August 10, 2004, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly such forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.

REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION to acquire Commercial AC Motor Business from General Electric Company

Beloit, WI & Fairfield, CT – August 10, 2004 – REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION (AMEX:RBC) and the General Electric Company (NYSE: GE) today announced that they have signed a definitive agreement for REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION to acquire GE’s Commercial AC motor business. The transaction is expected to close by September, following the completion of customary regulatory clearance. GE’s Commercial AC motor business includes a full line of AC motors for pump, compressor, equipment and commercial HVAC applications.

James L. Packard, CEO and Chairman of REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION commented, “We are extremely excited about the addition of the GE Commercial AC motor business. This acquisition significantly improves our position in the industrial motor channel through new products, applications and distribution. The Commercial AC business also provides us a significant manufacturing presence in Mexico and introduces us to outstanding technical resources in India. The business will add approximately $130 million in sales to the company and be financed through our existing credit facilities.”

According to Lloyd Trotter, President & CEO, GE Consumer & Industrial, “We’re pleased that this transaction will align the Commercial AC motors business with an organization who has both a core competency and a strategy for growth in the motors industry, and who will continue to deliver world-class technology for customers around the world.”

Robert W. Baird and Co. served as the financial advisor to REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION.

Additional terms will be disclosed upon closing of the transaction.
