Response to Dissident Arguments

In its letter dated April 30, 2010, the dissident group continues to misrepresent the facts and make false allegations. The following slides are intended to address those latest claims and correct the misrepresentations they contain.

Dissident Arguments:

a. Company is reducing franchise fees on Flying J units

* THERE IS NO REDUCTION OF ANYTHING *

Facts:

§ Denny's is NOT reducing any fees on the Flying J units

§ Denny's has partnered with franchisees to establish two programs that will enable for the rapid conversion of the Flying J restaurant sites:

§ Denny's has coordinated third party financing

§ Denny's will allow franchisees who are opening multiple sites to pay their front end fees over six to twelve months

Dissidents Misrepresent the Facts

b. Denny's has given a false impression of its

Free Cash Flow

§ Denny's has been consistent and transparent in how we present our EBITDA and Free Cash Flow metrics

§ Our reported EBITDA metric is explicitly defined in our credit facility and therefore of importance to investors as they evaluate our covenant requirements

§ The GAAP measure of Cash Flow from Operations includes the negative cash flow impact from balance sheet runoff associated with the sale of restaurants without the positive benefit of the restaurant sale proceeds; in our measure both are excluded and reflect the ongoing cash flow of our new business model

§ In fact, it is the dissidents' selective use of 2001 and 2002 as part of their measuring period that distorts the fact that Denny's has been a strong cash flow generator, regardless of which methodology one uses

* IT'S THE DEFINITION WE'VE USED IN ALL OUR PUBLIC RELEASES SINCE 2005 *

3

Dissident Arguments:

Facts:

d. Denny's management has rebuffed attempts for dialogue and cancelled a meeting with one of the Committee members at the Stifel Nicolaus Conference in March

c. Dissident activity has been the sole driver of our recent Stock Price appreciation

§ See attached pages in the appendix from our previously filed stockholder and proxy advisory presentations which highlight the positive trend following the Flying J announcement and our fourth quarter 2009 earnings release

§ Denny's did not attend the Stifel Nicolaus Conference where it was scheduled to meet with dissident group member, Soundpost Partners:

§ Denny's promptly sent a letter to Soundpost asking to reschedule and the following week management had a conference call with Jaime Lester of Soundpost Partners, a Committee member

§ The conversation focused on the Denny's IR presentation, with the exception of Mr. Lester asking if a change in control would trigger any debt covenants or executive compensation payment

§ Denny's management also returned Mr. Dash's 3/31/10 call and offered to set up a time to speak; but he never responded

Dissidents Misrepresent the Facts

 MAJORITY OF APPRECIATION OCCURRED AFTER FLYING J ANNOUNCEMENT AND Q4 2009 EARNINGS RELEASE ***

 WE ARE STILL WAITING FOR MR. DASH TO CALL US BACK ***

e. The dissidents criticize the fact that Mr. Langford serves as a paid consultant to Denny's

§ Mr. Langford's work as a paid consultant to Denny's is well known by the franchisee community and had the consent of the DFA Board

§ The agreement is strongly supported by franchisees and is a direct outcome of the conversations that the Company and its franchisees had over the course of 2009

§ Mr. Langford has exceptional experience in restaurant operations and marketing and has been instrumental in helping address system-wide issues and improve communications and partnership between the Company and franchisees

 THE FRANCHISEES WANTED THIS ARRANGEMENT AND IT HAS WORKED VERY WELL FOR THEM AND THE COMPANY ***

Dissident Arguments:

Facts:

Dissidents Misrepresent the Facts

f. The Chairman of the Denny's Franchisee Association (DFA) is not speaking on behalf of all franchisees

§ The Company and its franchisees have worked in a collaborative fashion to revitalize the Denny's brand and both parties agree that significant progress has been made

§ The dissidents continued misunderstanding of and lack of respect for the DFA demonstrates that they are ill-suited to serve on the Board of a company with a franchise-based business model

§ As with any association, it will never represent the exact views of every single member at every point in time, but it absolutely speaks on behalf of the Denny's franchisee community

* THE CHAIRMAN OF THE DFA, AND ITS 12 MEMBERS, REPRESENT 85% OF ALL FRANCHISED RESTAURANTS *

g. Mr. Marchioli and Mr. Barber have an agreement in the works for Mr. Barber to take over the supply chain purchasing arm of Denny's

§ This is patently false and inaccurate and further illustrates the dissidents' disruptive efforts to promote dissension among the Company's franchisees and their lack of understanding about how a heavily franchised business model works

§ The concept of a Purchasing Cooperative is a standard one within a franchised business and is always on the table as a viable option and it will be considered and implemented if and when it proves to be in the best interest of the company, its franchisees, and its shareholders

§ Absolutely no decisions have been made regarding the Company's purchasing program and none will be made in the context of this proxy contest

§ Any decision regarding a Purchasing Cooperative would be made by the Company in the normal course of business

* NO SUCH AGREEMENT EXISTS *
