PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To be held on June 7, 2005

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Lifetime Hoan Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the "Meeting") to be held on the date, at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Stockholders of record at the close of business on April 25, 2005 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy shall be mailed to stockholders on or about May 9, 2005.

THE MEETING

Voting at the Meeting

On April 25, 2005, there were 11,051,349 shares of the Company's common stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), issued and outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders at the Meeting.

A majority of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock represented at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. Assuming a quorum is present, (1) the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares so represented is necessary for the election of directors 2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares so represented is necessary to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company and 3) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Commons Stock is necessary for the amendment of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company (i) to change the name of the Company to "Lifetime Brands, Inc.", (ii) to delete no longer needed provisions regarding the reclassification of former shares of common stock, which reclassification took place on April 23, 1991 and (iii) to permit the Board of Directors to amend the By-Laws of the Company.

Proxies and Proxy Solicitation

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions marked on the proxies, unless such proxies have previously been revoked. If no directions are indicated on such proxies, they will be voted for the election of each nominee named below under "Election of Directors", for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of the Company and for the amendment of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company (i) to change the name of the Company to "Lifetime Brands, Inc.", (ii) to delete no longer needed provisions regarding the reclassification of former shares of common stock, which reclassification took place on April 23, 1991 and (iii) to permit the Board of Directors to amend the By-Laws of the Company. If any other matters are properly presented at the Meeting for action, the proxy holders will vote the proxies (which confer discretionary authority upon such holders to vote on such matters) in accordance with their best judgment. Each proxy executed and returned by a stockholder may be revoked at any time before it is voted by timely submission of a written notice of revocation or by submission of a duly executed proxy bearing a later date (in either case directed to the Secretary of the Company), or, if a stockholder is present at the Meeting, he may elect to revoke his proxy and vote his shares personally. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. If a stockholder, present in person or by proxy, abstains on any matter, such stockholder's shares of Common Stock will not be voted on such matter. Thus, an abstention from voting on any matter has the same legal effect as a vote "against" the matter, even though the stockholder may interpret such action differently. Except for determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, broker non-votes are not counted for any purpose in determining whether a matter has been approved.

The Company will bear the cost of preparing, printing, assembling and mailing the proxy, this Proxy Statement and other material which may be sent to stockholders in connection with this solicitation. It is contemplated that brokerage houses will forward the proxy materials to beneficial holders at the request of the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by the use of the mails, officers and other employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone without being paid any additional compensation. The Company will reimburse such persons for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in accordance with the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LIFETIME HOAN CORPORATION

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board Independence

The Board has determined that Messrs. Howard Bernstein, William Westerfield, Sheldon Misher and Leonard Florence (who is not standing for re-election to the Board of Directors) and Mrs. Cherrie Nanninga are independent directors and Michael Jeary (a nominee for election to the Board of Directors) when elected will be an independent director under the listing standards of the NASDAQ. Messrs. Jeffrey Siegel, Ronald Shiftan, Bruce Cohen and Craig Phillips are employees of the Company and are not considered independent directors.

Code of Conduct and Business Ethics

The Company has adopted a code of conduct that applies to all of its directors, officers (including its chief executive officer, chief financial officer and controller) and employees. On an annual basis, written acknowledgement of understanding and compliance is required of all directors, officers and employees.

Board Meetings

The Board of Directors held six meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

Board and Committee Attendance

Edgar Filing: LIFETIME HOAN CORP - Form PRE 14A

Each director attended every Board Meeting and every meeting of the committee(s) on which he/she served, with the exception of Leonard Florence, who missed three Board Meetings and three committee meetings during 2004. All of the directors attended the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders except for Mr. Florence. Directors are expected, but not required, to attend the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Board of Directors holds meetings on at least a quarterly basis, and more often if necessary to fulfill its responsibilities.

Stockholder Communication with Directors

Stockholders who wish to communicate with members of the Board of Directors, including the independent directors individually or as a group, may send correspondence to them in care of the Secretary at the Company's principal office, One Merrick Avenue, Westbury, New York 11590. Alternatively, the directors may be contacted via e-mail at BoardofDirectors@lifetime.hoan.com.

The Board Nomination Process

The Company does not have a standing nominating committee or committee performing similar functions. Instead, the Board of Directors as a whole acts as a nominating committee. The Board of Directors believes that it is appropriate for the Company not to have such a committee in view of the fact that the Board has adopted a policy that the Board will not nominate any nominee unless such nominee is approved by a majority of the independent directors of the Board.

The directors of the Company are elected annually by the stockholders of the Company. They will serve until the next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal.

Board Compensation

Directors who are not employees of the Company receive an annual fee of $15,000, plus $1,000 for each meeting of the Board attended and $500 for each committee meeting attended when held on a different day than a Board of Directors meeting. Independent directors that are committee chairs also receive an additional annual fee of $5,000. Directors, who are employees of the Company, do not receive compensation for such services. The officers and directors of the Company have entered into indemnification agreements with the Company. In June 2004, Cherrie Nanninga, Howard Bernstein, Leonard Florence and Ronald Shiftan each received options to purchase 1,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $20.09 per share. Also in June 2004, Sheldon Misher and William Westerfield, both of whom were then elected directors for the first time, each received options to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $20.09 per share. Annually each existing independent director receives an option to purchase 1,000 shares of Common Stock with the exercise price being the closing price on the date of the grant. First time independent directors receive an option to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock with the exercise price being the closing price on the date of the grant. The Compensation Committee is reviewing the adequacy of compensation for outside directors and committee members. This may also entail a recommendation of the allocation of such fees between cash and equity.

Audit Committee The Audit Committee is comprised of three directors, who are independent, as required by the Audit Committee charter and the listing requirements for The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. The current members are William Westerfield (Chairman), Howard Bernstein, and Cherrie Nanninga. In addition, the Company's Board of Directors has determined that William Westerfield is an "audit committee financial expert," as defined by SEC rules. The Audit Committee held six meetings during 2004.

The Audit Committee, among other things, regularly:

- reviews the activities of the Company's independent accountants.
- evaluates the Company's organization and its internal controls, policies, procedures and practices to determine whether they are reasonably designed to:
 - provide for the safekeeping of the Company's assets; and
 - assure the accuracy and adequacy of the Company's records and financial statements.
- reviews the Company's financial statements and reports.
- monitors compliance with the Company's internal controls, policies, procedures and practices.
- undertakes such other activities as the Board from time to time may delegate to it.
- considers the qualifications of and appoints the independent accountants of the Company.
- reviews and approves audit fees and fees for non-audit services rendered or to be rendered by the independent accountants, and reviews the audit plan and the services rendered or to be rendered by the independent accountants for each year and the results of their audit for the previous year.

The complete text of the Audit Committee charter is set forth at Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Policies and Practices

The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has delegated to the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Committee") primary responsibility for establishing and administering the compensation programs of the Company for its executive officers and other key personnel.

The Committee annually reviews the Company's executive compensation practices to determine whether the Company's executive compensation practices (a) enable the Company to attract and retain qualified and experienced executive officers and other key personnel, (b) will motivate executive officers and other key personnel to attain appropriate short-term and long-term performance goals and to manage the Company for sustained long-term growth, and (c) align the interests of executive officers and other key personnel with the interests of the stockholders.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") provides that compensation paid to a public company's chief executive officer and its four other highest paid executive officers in tax years 1994 and thereafter in excess of $1 million is not deductible unless such compensation is paid only upon the achievement of objective performance goals where certain procedural requirements have been satisfied. Alternatively, such compensation may be deferred until the executive officer is no longer a covered person under Section 162(m) of the Code. Any compensation subject to the Section 162(m) limitations will be automatically deferred until the payment of such compensation would be deductible by the Company except in those cases where the Committee determines that nondeductible payments would be consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Executive Officers' Disclosure

Each of the executive officers of the Company receives a salary at a level which is commensurate with the responsibility of such individual, and his or her prior experience. In reviewing salaries, the Committee takes into consideration the operating responsibility of each individual, his or her experience in the housewares industry, his or her expertise in overseas purchasing and the amount of time spent abroad. The Committee also examines the impact each individual has on the profitability and future growth of the Company. Such salaries are intended to be comparable to the salaries of other companies of comparable size and nature. Each executive officer of the Company, except for Mr. Shiftan, is employed pursuant to an employment agreement which was entered into in 2001 (for Mr. Siegel) and in 2003 (for the others) and expire at various times through 2006. These agreements provide for annual compensation including annual bonuses. The Compensation Committee has engaged the services of an independent compensation consultant to assist in evaluating executive compensation.

The Company adopted the Lifetime Hoan Corporation 2000 Incentive Bonus Compensation Plan pursuant to which executive officers, and other designated participants, are entitled to bonuses based on performance criteria and targets that are established for an applicable period. The Company also adopted the Lifetime Hoan Corporation 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan, which permits the granting of options (and other stock based awards) to executive officers and other key personnel of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Chief Executive Officer Disclosure

The compensation of Jeffrey Siegel, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and President, is governed by the terms of an agreement dated April 6, 2001, which was approved by the Committee and provided, among other things, for an annual base salary of $700,000 in 2001 plus annual increments thereafter based on changes in the Consumer Price Index and an annual bonus. PROPOSAL NO. 2

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

Subject to stockholder ratification, the Audit Committee reappointed the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005. Ernst & Young LLP has audited the Company's financial statements since 1984.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy that requires advance approval of all audit, audit-related, tax services, and other services performed by the independent auditor. The policy provides for pre-approval by the Audit Committee of specifically defined audit and non-audit services. Unless the specific service has been previously pre-approved with respect to that year, the Audit Committee must approve the permitted service before the independent auditor is engaged to perform it. The Audit Committee has delegated to the Chair of the Audit Committee authority to approve permitted services provided that the Chair reports any decisions to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

In addition to rendering audit services during 2004 and 2003, Ernst & Young LLP performed other non-audit services for the Company and its subsidiaries. The following table sets for fees paid to Ernst & Young for services provided in the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 (in thousands).

Edgar Filing: LIFETIME HOAN CORP - Form PRE 14A

	2004	2003
Audit Fees	$606,000	$253,000
Tax Preparation and Consulting Services	68,291	84,940
Total	$674,291	$337,940

Included in 2004 audit fees are Sarbanes-Oxley compliance fees of approximately $280,000.

In making its appointment, the Audit Committee reviewed past audit results and other non-audit services performed during 2004. In selecting Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee carefully considered their independence. The Audit Committee has determined that the performance of such non-audit services did not impair the independence of Ernst & Young LLP.

Ernst & Young LLP has confirmed to the Audit Committee that it is in compliance with all rules, standards and policies of the Independence Standards Board and the Securities and Exchange Commission governing auditor independence.

If the stockholders do not ratify this appointment, other independent auditors will be considered by the Audit Committee.

Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire and to respond to appropriate questions of stockholders.

The Audit Committee recommends that stockholders vote FOR the approval and ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young, LLP.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT OF RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors has adopted resolutions declaring it advisable that, subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Company, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company be amended (i) to change the name of the Company to "Lifetime Brands, Inc.", (ii) to delete no longer needed provisions regarding the reclassification of former shares of common stock, which reclassification took place on April 23, 1991 and (iii) to permit the Board of Directors to amend the By-Laws of the Company. Attached as Appendix B is a copy of the proposed Certificate of Amendment of Restated Certificate of Incorporation that would be filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware assuming the approval of these amendments by the stockholders of the Company.

Change of Name

In 1983 the Company was incorporated under the name L C Acquisition Corp. and immediately thereafter changed its name to Lifetime Cutlery Corporation. In 1991 the Company then changed its name to Lifetime Hoan Corporation.

These names reflected the fact that the principal business of the Company was designing, developing and marketing primarily cutlery and related kitchenware products. Today, we are a leading designer, developer and marketer of a broad range of branded consumer products used in the home, including Kitchenware, Cutlery and Cutting Board, Bakeware, At-Home Entertaining Accessories, Pantryware and Spices, Functional Glassware and Bath Accessories. Our products are marketed under various tradenames, including Farberware, KitchenAid, Cuisinart, Hoffritz, Sabatierr, DBK-Daniel Boulud KitchenT, Joseph Abboud Environmentsr, Roshcor, Baker's Advantager, Kamensteinr, Casa-Modar, Hoanr, Gemcor and "USEr.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors has determined that it would be advisable to change the name of the Company to "Lifetime Brands, Inc." to better reflect the present business of the Company.

Deletion of Provisions regarding Reclassification of Former Common Stock

In 1991 the Company amended its Certificate of Incorporation to provide that the Company was authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the par value of One Cent ($.01) per share ("New Common Stock") instead of 2,400 shares of Common Stock of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) per share ("Old Common Stock"). At the same time the Company reclassified each of the 1,214 shares of Old Common Stock then outstanding into 2,471 shares of New Common Stock by further amending its Certificate of Incorporation to include a provision effecting such reclassification. At the same time the Company restated its Certificate of Incorporation and included within the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation the provision effecting such reclassification. Because such reclassification took effect in 1991 it is no longer necessary to include this provision in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company deems it advisable that the provision be deleted.

Provision permitting Board of Directors to Amend By-Laws

Section 109 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that any corporation may, in its Certificate of Incorporation, confer upon the Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws. Section 109 also provides that the fact that conferring such power upon the Directors does not divest the stockholders of the power, nor limit their power, to adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws.

The Board of Directors believes that it should have the power to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation and that the Board should not have to wait until the next annual meeting of stockholders of the Company or call a special meeting of stockholders of the Company if it determines that it is advisable for the By-Laws of the Company to be adopted, amended or repealed. Conferring the power to adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws upon the Directors will permit the Board of Directors to make any such changes promptly and without the added expense of a stockholder vote.

Conferring the power to adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws upon the Directors will not prevent the stockholders from acting in this regard as indicated above. The Delaware General Corporation Law specifically provides that the stockholders of the Company will continue to retain the power to do so.

The Board of Directors has no present plans to adopt, amend or repeal the present By-Laws of the Company.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR these amendments to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors, executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file with the Company, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the National Association of Securities Dealers initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of any equity securities of the Company. During Fiscal 2004, to the best of the Company's knowledge, all required reports were filed on a timely basis. In making this statement, the Company has relied on the written representations of its directors and executive officers and copies of Forms 3, 4 and 5 provided to the Company.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

A stockholder proposal intended to be presented at the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Company at its principal executive offices on or before January 7, 2006, to be included in the Company's proxy statement and proxy relating to that meeting.

OTHER MATTERS

The Management of the Company does not know of any matters other than those stated in this Proxy Statement which are to be presented for action at the Meeting. If any other matters should properly come before the Meeting, it is intended that proxies in the accompanying form will be voted on any such other matters in accordance with the judgement of the persons voting such proxies. Discretionary authority to vote on such matters is conferred by such proxies upon the persons voting them.

Financial statements for the Company are included in the Annual Report of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 which accompanies this Proxy Statement.

Upon the written request of any person who on the record date was a record owner of Common Stock of the Company, or who represents in good faith that he or she was on such date a beneficial owner of Common Stock of the Company, the Company will send to such person, without charge, a copy of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, including financial statements and schedules, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Requests for this report should be directed to Robert McNally, Vice President Finance, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, Lifetime Hoan Corporation, One Merrick Avenue, Westbury, New York 11590.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Craig Phillips, Secretary
