Amendment of Loan and Security Agreement.

On April 17, 2019, IntriCon Corporation (the “Company”) and its domestic subsidiaries entered into a Thirteenth Amendment to the Loan and Security Agreement with CIBC Bank USA. The amendment, among other things:

Reduced the Company’s revolving loan borrowing capacity to $7.0 million from its current capacity of $11.0 million. On August 20, 2018, the Company completed the issuance and sale of 1,725,000 shares of its common stock. Proceeds from the sale were used, among other things, to pay off the Company’s term and revolving loans. As of December 31, 2018, the Company held approximately $46.1 million of the net proceeds from such offering in certain liquid investment securities; accordingly, as a result of the Company’s improved liquidity position, the Company has less need for availability under its credit facility. The Company does not have any balance outstanding under the credit facility at this time;

Lessened restrictions surrounding acquisitions, business investments, distributions and disposition of assets to better align with the Company’s improved liquidity position;

Eliminated the mandatory prepayment requirement with respect to proceeds from asset sales and capital and debt financings; and

Eliminated the annual capital expenditures covenant.

The foregoing description of the amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such document, which the Company expects to file as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2019.
