ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

On August 15, 2002, Dynegy Inc. ("Dynegy") announced that it reached a settlement of litigation brought against Dynegy by Enron Corp. ("Enron") arising from the failure of the November 2001 merger of the two companies. The settlement agreement has been approved by the boards of both companies.

Under the terms of the agreement, Dynegy will pay Enron $25 million to settle the lawsuit Enron had filed alleging breach of contract for wrongful termination of the merger. Enron has agreed to release Dynegy from any and all claims relating to the terminated merger and to dismiss such litigation.

In addition, Dynegy has agreed not to pursue any claims for working capital adjustments relating to its acquisition of Northern Natural Gas Company ("NNG") from Enron last February. This will result in the release of funds to Enron that had been escrowed in connection with the sale of NNG, pending a review of working capital as of the closing date. The settlement amount and the release of escrowed funds are subject to bankruptcy court approval.

Enron has agreed to continue providing transition services to NNG once MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company's purchase of the pipeline from Dynegy is completed. Enron has been providing services on a transition basis under an agreement established between the two companies when Dynegy acquired NNG. Enron has agreed to allow the assignment of that agreement, which runs until Jan. 31, 2003, to MidAmerican Energy.
