PRESS RELEASE

MONARCH CASINO & RESORT, INC. ANNOUNCES SETTLEMENT OF ITS LAWSUIT AGAINST CITY OF RENO AND OTHER THIRD PARTIES

Reno, NV - February 5, 2004 - Monarch Casino & Resort, Inc. (Nasdaq: MCRI) (the "Company") today announced that the litigation commenced in April 2003 against the City of Reno and other interested parties petitioning the Second Judicial District Court of Nevada to review the City of Reno's decision to enter into an agreement for the acquisition and relocation of the Old Reno Casino in downtown Reno, to condemn the real property occupied by the Old Reno Casino, to declare the agreement null and void and to preclude the City of Reno from condemning the real property has been settled. The settlement is expected to become final on February 11, 2004, upon the consent of the Reno City Council. The terms of the settlement, by agreement, are confidential.

Monarch, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, owns and operates the tropically-themed Atlantis Casino Resort in Reno, Nevada. The Atlantis is the closest hotel-casino to, and is directly across the street from, the Reno-Sparks Convention Center, which completed a $105 million expansion and renovation in August 2002. The Atlantis is recognizable due to its Sky

Terrace, a unique structure rising approximately 55 feet from street level and spanning 160 feet across the street with no intermediate support pillars. The Sky Terrace connects the Atlantis to a 16-acre parcel of land owned by the Company that is compliant with all casino zoning requirements, and is suitable and available for future expansion of the Atlantis facilities, and is currently being used by the Company as additional paved parking for the Atlantis. The existing Atlantis site offers almost 1,000 guest rooms in three contiguous high-rise hotel towers and a motor lodge while featuring approximately 51,000 square feet of high-energy casino space with 37 table games and approximately 1,500 slot and video poker machines, a sports book, Keno and a poker room, and a variety of dining choices in the form of nine high-quality food outlets.

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which are subject to change, including, but not limited to, comments relating to the settlement of its lawsuit against the City of Reno and other third parties. The actual results may differ materially from those described in any forward-looking statements. Additional information concerning potential factors that could affect the Company's financial results are included in the Company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings, which are available on the Company's web site.
