Magal Announces a US$3.3 Million Follow-on Contract to Protect an International Airport in Eastern Europe Monday August 16, 11:12 am ET YAHUD, Israel, August 16 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ: MAGS; TASE: MAGS), today announced that it has signed a follow-on US$3.3 million contract to protect an international airport in Eastern Europe.

This comprehensive turnkey project is the second extension of a contract that Magal previously signed to protect this airport. The system will include various types of security systems which are all integrated by Fortis, Magal's computerized Command & Control System which supports real-time decision making and wide-area command and control. In addition, this project will include other sophisticated means for protection provided by Magal. Further details are restricted from being published.

Mr. Jacob Even-Ezra, Chairman of Magal, stated: "The fact that the customer again ordered Magal's products and systems for the third phase of the project, is further proof of the reliability and efficiency of our systems that keep on bringing customers back to us."

About Magal Security Systems, Ltd.
