Internet Gold Plans Expansion of 'Search' Activities Through Launch of MSN-Israel-Branded 'Index'

Friday January 14, 7:50 am ET

Expands Partnership With Netex, Developer of Leading Hebrew-Language Index/Search Engine

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, January 14 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold (NASDAQ: IGLD - News) today announced that its subsidiary MSN-Israel (50.1 Internet Gold. 49.9 Microsoft Corp.) has formed a strategic partnership with Netex-Express Ltd., a company that operates one of Israel's most popular Hebrew-language Internet search engines and index sites, to launch a new MSN-Israel-branded index site.

For several years, Internet Gold has been cooperating with Netex, selling paid placements and key words for Netex's index site on a revenue-sharing basis. Taking the cooperation to the next level, the two companies will now work together to launch a higher-profile site: an index with Netex's functionality but the "look and feel" of MSN-Israel. Through exposure to MSN-Israel's large user base, the site is expected to generate a higher level of traffic than currently delivered by netex.co.il, resulting in higher advertising revenues. In addition, the cooperation is also expected to increase the yield of MSN-Israel's sales force by giving them an expanded range of advertising opportunities to offer each business customer.

The new site is expected to be launched during the first few weeks of February 2005. Profits generated by the site will be split between MSN-Israel and Netex.

"The sale of paid placements and key words is becoming a significant business in Israel as it is in other regions throughout the world," said Mr. Eli Holtzman, Internet Gold's CEO. "We believe the combination of the MSN-Israel brand, Netex's unique Hebrew-language search functionality and the proven capabilities of our sales force that will generate a growing stream of revenues, establishing 'search' as a major engine of our future growth."
