RADVISION Files 2004 Annual Report on Form 20-F

Wednesday April 6, 7:00 am ET

Revised Accounting Treatment Shifts Restructuring Income to 2003

FAIR LAWN, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 6, 2005--RADVISION (Nasdaq: RVSN - News) announced today that it has filed its 2004 Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2004 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 20-F. As announced on March 14, 2005, the Company has begun reporting as a foreign private issuer effective with this 20-F filing.

The Company also noted that in the process of preparing its 2004 financial statements, it was determined that restructuring income of $1.1 million recorded in the first quarter of 2004 should be restated and recorded in 2003. Accordingly, the 2004 Annual Report on Form 20-F filed today reflects this restatement.

The restructuring income resulted from the resolution on February 12, 2004 of a previously reported arbitration proceeding. Originally, in the 2003 audited financial statements the resolution was treated as a "Type II" event as defined in AU 560 of the PCAOB auditing standards, meaning that the Company disclosed it in a note to the 2003 audited financial statements. The accounting treatment of this event was reconsidered and consequently it was determined to treat it as a "Type I" event pursuant to AU 560. Accordingly, the Company has reversed the accrual for the arbitration in the 2003 financial statements resulting in additional income of $1,061,000 for 2003 and decreased accrued expenses in that amount. Further details are available in the Company's 2004 20-F filing under the heading "Restatement of Previously-Issued Financial Statements."

The following table summarizes the effect of the restatement on full year 2003 and 2004 and first quarter 2004 results:
