QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE EXCHANGE OFFER

Q: WHY IS PRIMEDIA PROPOSING THE EXCHANGE OFFER?

A: On October 24, 2000, PRIMEDIANET Inc., a subsidiary of PRIMEDIA entered into a preferred stock purchase agreement for the acquisition of 39,151,000 shares of Series E preferred stock from IGR. The preferred stock purchase agreement requires, PRIMEDIA to make this exchange offer.

Q: WHAT WILL I RECEIVE IN THE EXCHANGE OFFER?

A: Holders of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock will receive a number of shares of PRIMEDIA common stock determined pursuant to an exchange ratio for each share of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock they own. PRIMEDIA will pay cash in lieu of fractional shares of PRIMEDIA common stock.

IGR COMMON STOCK. IGR common stockholders will receive a number of shares of PRIMEDIA common stock calculated by dividing $0.80 by the average closing price of the PRIMEDIA common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty consecutive trading days ending July 11, 2001. For example, if the 30 consecutive trading day measuring period had ended on May 23, 2001, the PRIMEDIA common stock average closing price would have been $7.61. Therefore, if a holder tendered 1,000 shares of IGR common stock and was not prorated, the holder would have received 105 shares of PRIMEDIA common stock and $0.95 in cash in exchange for the IGR shares.

IGR SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK. IGR Series B preferred stockholders will receive a number of shares of PRIMEDIA common stock calculated by dividing $8.00 by the average closing price of the PRIMEDIA common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty consecutive trading days before the two trading days before this exchange offer expires. For example, if the 30 consecutive trading day measuring period had ended on May 23, 2001, the PRIMEDIA common stock average closing price would have been $7.61. Therefore, if a holder tendered 1,000 shares of IGR Series B preferred stock and was not prorated, the holder would have received 1,051 shares of PRIMEDIA common stock and $1.89 in cash in exchange for the IGR shares.

If you wish to ascertain the exact amount of consideration to be received prior to expiration of the exchange offer, you may call toll-free 1-800-507-9357.

Q: WILL I BE ABLE TO EXCHANGE ALL THE SHARES OF IGR SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK OR COMMON STOCK I OWN?

A: Maybe. PRIMEDIA is offering to exchange its common stock for up to 3,764,000 shares of IGR common stock and up to 556,088 shares of IGR Series B preferred stock. To the extent the aggregate number of shares elected to be exchanged exceeds 3,764,000, in the case of the IGR common stock, or 556,088, in the case of the Series B preferred stock, the number of shares you may be able to exchange will be limited on a PRO-RATA basis according to a proration formula contained in this prospectus. See "The Exchange Offer--Number of Shares of Common Stock and Series B Preferred Stock to be Exchanged; Proration" on page 18 of this prospectus.

Q: WHAT ARE THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER TO ME?

A: The exchange will be a taxable transaction for holders of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock who elect to participate in the exchange offer. Participating holders of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the fair market value of the PRIMEDIA common stock received in the exchange plus the amount of any cash received instead of fractional shares and the tax basis of the IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock exchanged. There will be no tax consequences for holders of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock who do not elect to participate in the exchange offer.

See "The Exchange Offer--Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Exchange Offer" on page 26 of this prospectus.

Q: WHEN DOES THE EXCHANGE OFFER EXPIRE?

A: The exchange offer will expire at 12:00 a.m., New York City time, on July 13, 2001 unless the exchange offer is extended by PRIMEDIA.

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO TO PARTICIPATE IN THE EXCHANGE OFFER?

A: You should mail or otherwise deliver the letter of transmittal, together with the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock you wish to exchange to the exchange agent at the address provided in this prospectus prior to the date the exchange offer expires. See "The Exchange Offer--Exchange Agent" on page 25 of this prospectus.

SUMMARY

THIS SUMMARY HIGHLIGHTS SELECTED INFORMATION IN THIS PROSPECTUS AND MAY NOT CONTAIN ALL OF THE INFORMATION THAT IS IMPORTANT TO YOU. YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY READ THIS ENTIRE PROSPECTUS AND THE OTHER DOCUMENTS WE REFER YOU TO FOR A MORE COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER. IN ADDITION, WE INCORPORATE BY REFERENCE IMPORTANT BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT PRIMEDIA INTO THIS PROSPECTUS. YOU MAY OBTAIN THE INFORMATION INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE INTO THIS PROSPECTUS WITHOUT CHARGE BY FOLLOWING THE INSTRUCTIONS IN THE SECTION ENTITLED "WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION" THAT BEGINS ON PAGE 44 OF THIS PROSPECTUS.

THE COMPANY

PRIMEDIA INC.
745 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10151
(212) 745-0100

GENERAL. PRIMEDIA is the "new tradition in media" combining traditional and new media. It is a targeted media company with leading positions in consumer and business-to-business markets. Its properties utilize the full media arsenal to deliver content via print (magazines and directories), video (digital broadband, satellite and cable), live events (trade and consumer shows) and the Internet. PRIMEDIA's products serve highly specialized niches and capitalize on the growing trend toward targeted rather than mass information distribution. PRIMEDIA believes that in 2000, PRIMEDIA sold the most ad pages of any magazine publisher in the U.S. and sold the third most magazine copies at the newsstand in the U.S.

Many of PRIMEDIA's products, such as those provided by PRIMEDIA's consumer magazines, business-to-business magazines, CHANNEL ONE NEWS, the apartments and homes guides and About's websites afford advertisers with an opportunity to directly reach niche market audiences. In 2000, 51% of PRIMEDIA's total revenues were from "lead generation" advertising, 14% were from brand awareness advertising and 35% were from non-advertising sources. Lead generation advertising is advertising focused on triggering a potential purchase decision by the reader or viewer as opposed to general brand awareness advertising. In 2000, PRIMEDIA had over 87,000 advertising customers and a salesforce of over 1,600 to serve them.

In 2000, PRIMEDIA embarked on an initiative to integrate its operating units. One aspect of the integration was to improve productivity through cost reduction as PRIMEDIA entered into a strategic sourcing initiative to leverage its purchasing power across all spending for certain manufacturing and non-manufacturing commodities. Significant cost savings were achieved through consolidating the procurement of goods and services such as paper and printing, and centralizing support services such as accounting and payroll. During 2000, the strategic sourcing initiative generated approximately $10.5 million in savings.

PRIMEDIA has formed the PRIMEDIA Integrated Sales and Marketing Group to sell integrated marketing packages across all PRIMEDIA's traditional and new media vehicles. PRIMEDIA has also formed PRIMEDIA Internet Resource and Technology Group to centralize and standardize its technology.

For the year ending December 31, 2000, PRIMEDIA's sales and net loss were $1.7 billion and $347 million, respectively.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS. On February 28, 2001, one of PRIMEDIA's wholly owned subsidiaries merged with About.com, Inc. About.com common stockholders received an aggregate of 45.0 million shares of PRIMEDIA's common stock, representing approximately 21% of the outstanding shares of PRIMEDIA's common stock as of March 31, 2001. About.com is a platform comprised of a network of more than 700 highly-targeted, topic-specific websites. Through the efforts of knowledgeable human guides who manage the sites, the sites provide high-quality original articles, moderated forums and chat rooms and links to related websites. The About network has been one of the fastest growing properties among the top 25 Internet properties ranked by MEDIA METRIX since the launch of the About.com brand in May 1999. In March 2001, the combined unique visitors to PRIMEDIA and About.com's web sites ranked fifth in the United States according to Media Metrix, a leading Internet tracking firm. PRIMEDIA believes that, through the merger with About.com:

- PRIMEDIA acquired a leading producer of original content on the Internet;
- PRIMEDIA can offer advertisers a complete marketing solution by reaching highly targeted users through both traditional and new media platforms;
- PRIMEDIA can attract lead generation advertising to About.com's niche content;
- PRIMEDIA has a marketing vehicle for reaching potential subscribers for our other products with lower direct marketing costs; and
- PRIMEDIA has more quickly obtained a way of reaching users and advertisers than if it had built a comparable network organically.

(4) During 2000, the Company increased its valuation allowance due to historical operating losses and the impairment of securities, resulting in a provision for income taxes of $41,200. At December 31, 1999, 1998 and 1997, PRIMEDIA's management determined that no adjustment to net deferred income tax assets was required. In prior years, management determined that a portion of the net deferred income tax assets would likely be realized and accordingly, PRIMEDIA recorded an income tax benefit of $53,300 in 1996. For the year ended December 31, 1997, PRIMEDIA recorded an income tax carryback claim of $1,685. In 1999, PRIMEDIA recorded income tax expense of $6,500 related to a provision for current state and local taxes incurred as a result of the gain on the sale of the supplemental education group. At December 31, 2000, PRIMEDIA had aggregate net operating and capital loss carryforwards of approximately $1,028,600 which will be available to reduce future taxable income.

preferred stock dividend accrual in the amount of $9,517. Of the total dividend accrual recorded in 1997, the amounts that relate to prior periods were not material.

- (7) Basic and diluted loss per common share, as well as the basic and diluted common shares outstanding, were computed as described in Note 15 of the notes to the December 31, 2000 consolidated financial statements and Note 10 of the notes to the March 31, 2001 unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

EBITDA is not intended to represent cash flow from operating activities and should not be considered as an alternative to net income (loss) (as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles) as an indicator of PRIMEDIA's operating performance or to cash flows as a measure of liquidity. PRIMEDIA believes EBITDA is a standard measure commonly reported and widely used by analysts, investors and other interested parties in the media industry. Accordingly, this information has been disclosed herein to permit a more complete comparative analysis of PRIMEDIA's operating performance relative to other companies in its industry. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for other measures of financial performance or liquidity. The primary difference between EBITDA and cash flows provided by operating activities relates to changes in working capital requirements and payments made for interest and income taxes. Additionally, EBITDA is not available for PRIMEDIA's discretionary use as there are legal requirements to pay preferred stock dividends and repay debt, among other payments. EBITDA as presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies, since not all companies necessarily calculate EBITDA in identical manners, and therefore, is not necessarily an accurate measure of comparison between companies.
- (9) Includes current maturities of long-term debt and net assets held for sale, where applicable. Consolidated working capital reflects certain industry working capital practices and accounting principles, including the expensing of certain editorial and product development costs when incurred and the recording of deferred revenue from subscriptions as a current liability. Advertising costs are expensed when the promotional activities occur except for certain direct-response advertising costs which are capitalized and amortized over the estimated period of future benefit.

(10) Excludes current maturities of long-term debt.

RISK FACTORS

The exchange offer involves a high degree of risk. By exchanging your shares in the exchange offer, you will be choosing to invest in PRIMEDIA common stock. An investment in PRIMEDIA common stock involves a high degree of risk. In addition to the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to participate in the exchange offer. In addition, if the exchange offer is not completed, you may face additional risks which are specified below under "Risks Related to the Failure to Exchange." Any of the following risks could seriously harm PRIMEDIA's business and financial results and cause the value of PRIMEDIA's securities to decline which, in turn, could cause you to lose all or part of your investment.

RISKS RELATED TO PRIMEDIA'S BUSINESS

PRIMEDIA HAS SUBSTANTIAL INDEBTEDNESS AND OTHER MONETARY OBLIGATIONS WHICH CONSUMES A SUBSTANTIAL PORTION OF THE CASH FLOW THAT IT GENERATES.

PRIMEDIA has substantial indebtedness and expects to incur additional indebtedness under its credit facilities or otherwise. As of March 31, 2001, PRIMEDIA had approximately $1644.9 million of outstanding indebtedness and $561.7 million of outstanding preferred stock. A substantial portion of PRIMEDIA's cash flow is dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on indebtedness and to the payment of dividends on PRIMEDIA's preferred stock, which reduces funds available for capital expenditures and business opportunities and may limit PRIMEDIA's ability to respond to adverse developments in its business or in the economy. For the year ended December 31, 2000, PRIMEDIA paid $117.7 million of principal and $141.9 million of interest and for the three months ended March 31, 2001, PRIMEDIA paid $28.4 million of interest. In addition, for the year ended December 31, 2000 and for the three months ended March 31, 2001, PRIMEDIA made cash dividend payments of $53.1 million and $13.3 million, respectively, on PRIMEDIA's outstanding preferred stock.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

At March 31, 2001, borrowings under PRIMEDIA's bank credit facilities were approximately $957.5 million. These borrowings bear interest at floating rates based on the federal funds rate, the prime lending rate or LIBOR. Increases in interest rates on indebtedness under PRIMEDIA's credit facilities would increase PRIMEDIA's interest payment obligations and could have an adverse effect on PRIMEDIA. The weighted average interest rate on PRIMEDIA's credit facilities was 6.69% at March 31, 2001.

PRIMEDIA'S DEBT INSTRUMENTS LIMIT ITS BUSINESS FLEXIBILITY BY IMPOSING OPERATING AND FINANCIAL RESTRICTIONS ON ITS OPERATIONS.

The agreements governing PRIMEDIA's indebtedness impose specific operating and financial restrictions on PRIMEDIA. These restrictions prohibit or limit PRIMEDIA from, among other things:

- changing the nature of its business;
- incurring additional indebtedness;
- creating liens on its assets;
- selling assets;
- engaging in mergers, consolidations or transactions with its affiliates;
- making investments in or loans to specific subsidiaries;
- making guarantees or specific restricted payments; and
- declaring or making dividend payments on its common or preferred stock.

As of March 31, 2001, under PRIMEDIA's most restrictive debt covenants, PRIMEDIA must maintain a minimum interest coverage ratio of 2.0 to 1 and a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio of 1.05 to 1. PRIMEDIA's maximum allowable debt leverage ratio is 5.5 to 1. The minimum interest coverage ratio and maximum debt coverage ratio PRIMEDIA must maintain become more restrictive over time. After December 31, 2001, PRIMEDIA must maintain a maximum leverage ratio of 5.0 to 1, and after December 31, 2002, PRIMEDIA must maintain a maximum leverage ratio of 4.5 to 1. After December 31, 2001, PRIMEDIA must maintain a minimum interest coverage ratio of 2.25 to 1, and after December 31, 2002, PRIMEDIA must maintain a minimum interest coverage ratio of 2.5 to 1. For the year ended December 31, 2000, PRIMEDIA's interest coverage ratio and fixed charge coverage ratio were 2.3 to 1 and 1.5 to 1, respectively and for the last 12 months ended March 31, 2001, PRIMEDIA's interest coverage ratio and fixed charge ratio were 2.39 to 1 and 1.79 to 1, respectively. These restrictions, in combination with the leveraged nature of PRIMEDIA, could limit the ability of PRIMEDIA to effect future acquisitions or financings or otherwise restrict corporate activities. Failure to comply with the terms of these restrictions could result in the acceleration of the indebtedness governed by these agreements.

PRIMEDIA'S EARNINGS HAVE BEEN INSUFFICIENT TO PAY ITS FIXED CHARGES AND PREFERRED STOCK DIVIDENDS.

PRIMEDIA's earnings were inadequate to cover fixed charges and fixed charges plus preferred stock dividends by $295.5 million and $348.6 million, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2000 and by $67.7 million and $81.4 million, respectively for the three months ended March 31, 2001. Earnings consist of loss before income taxes, fixed charges and equity in losses of investees, and fixed charges consist of interest on all indebtedness, amortization of deferred financing costs and that portion of rental expenses that management believes to be representative of interest. Such earnings have been reduced by net non-cash and non-recurring charges (including depreciation, amortization, provision for severance, closures and integration costs, provision for the impairment of securities, non-cash compensation, gain on the sale of businesses and other, net, and non-cash interest expense on an acquisition obligation and other current liabilities) of approximately $419.1 million and $69.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2000 and the three months ended March 31, 2001, respectively. Adjusted to eliminate these charges, earnings would have exceeded fixed charges and fixed charges plus cash preferred stock dividends, by approximately $123.7 million and $70.6 million, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2000. Adjusted to eliminate these charges, earnings would have exceeded fixed charges by approximately $2.1 million; however, earnings would have been inadequate to cover fixed charges plus cash preferred stock dividends by $11.6 million, for the three months ended March 31, 2001. PRIMEDIA cannot assure you that its cash flow will be sufficient in future periods to permit it to make all of its required payments on its indebtedness and preferred stock.

IT IS UNLIKELY YOU WILL RECEIVE A RETURN ON YOUR PRIMEDIA SHARES THROUGH THE PAYMENT OF CASH DIVIDENDS.

PRIMEDIA has never declared or paid cash dividends on any of its common stock and has no intention of doing so in the foreseeable future. As a result, it is unlikely that you will receive a return on your shares through the payment of cash dividends.

PRIMEDIA'S INDEBTEDNESS CONTAINS PROVISIONS WHICH MAY REQUIRE PRIMEDIA TO REPURCHASE ALL OF THE INDEBTEDNESS UPON A CHANGE OF CONTROL. PRIMEDIA MAY NOT HAVE SUFFICIENT FINANCIAL RESOURCES TO MAKE THOSE REPURCHASES.

The agreements governing PRIMEDIA's indebtedness contain change of control provisions which, under specified circumstances, may require PRIMEDIA to repurchase that indebtedness upon a change of control. Because of the substantial indebtedness of PRIMEDIA, we cannot assure you that

PRIMEDIA would have sufficient financial resources available to repurchase all of that indebtedness in the event of a change in control.

IF PRIMEDIA IS IN DEFAULT IN THE PAYMENT OR OF OTHER COVENANTS OF ITS INDEBTEDNESS, THE HOLDERS OF THE INDEBTEDNESS MAY CAUSE THE DEBT TO BECOME DUE IMMEDIATELY AND CAUSE A DEFAULT IN OTHER OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS OF PRIMEDIA.

In the event that PRIMEDIA is unable to generate cash flow sufficient to meet required payments or does not make required payments of principal and interest on its indebtedness under its credit facilities or is otherwise in default with respect to the covenants in its credit facilities or under any other indebtedness of PRIMEDIA, the holders of indebtedness under PRIMEDIA's credit facilities could elect to declare all of the funds borrowed under the credit facilities to be due and payable together with accrued and unpaid interest and to terminate their commitments under the credit facilities. Neither the credit facilities nor the other indebtedness are secured by the pledge of assets, subsidiary securities or any other security. Any default under the documents governing the indebtedness of PRIMEDIA could have a significant adverse effect on the market value of the PRIMEDIA common stock.

PRIMEDIA MAY HAVE PROBLEMS RAISING MONEY IT NEEDS IN THE FUTURE. PRIMEDIA CANNOT GUARANTEE ITS PAST FINANCING SOURCES WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE FUTURE.

In recent years, PRIMEDIA has financed its acquisitions and new media investments in part by issuing preferred stock and refinancing and/or extending maturities on its existing indebtedness and preferred stock. This funding source may not be sufficient in the future, and PRIMEDIA may need to obtain funding from other sources. However, PRIMEDIA may not be able to obtain funding from other sources. PRIMEDIA may also be required to take other actions, which may lessen the value of its common stock, including borrowing money on terms that are not favorable to PRIMEDIA.

KOHLBERG KRAVIS ROBERTS & CO. L.P., OR KKR, HAS CONTROL OF PRIMEDIA'S COMMON STOCK AND HAS THE POWER TO ELECT ALL OF PRIMEDIA'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND TO APPROVE ANY ACTION REQUIRING STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL.

As of March 31, 2001, approximately 60.8% of the shares of PRIMEDIA common stock were held by investment partnerships, of which KKR Associates, L.P., a New York limited partnership, or KKR GP 1996 LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, each an affiliate of Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. L.P., are the general partners. KKR Associates and KKR GP 1996 have sole voting and investment power with respect to these shares. Consequently, KKR Associates and KKR GP 1996 and their respective general partners and members, four of whom are also directors of PRIMEDIA control PRIMEDIA and have the power to elect all of its directors and approve any action requiring stockholder approval, including adopting amendments to PRIMEDIA's certificate of incorporation and approving mergers or sales of all or substantially all of PRIMEDIA's assets. KKR Associates and KKR GP 1996 will also be able to prevent or cause a change of control of PRIMEDIA at any time. PRIMEDIA cannot assure you that the interest of KKR Associates, KKR GP 1996 and their affiliates will not conflict with the interest of the other holders of PRIMEDIA common stock.

INCREASES IN PAPER AND POSTAGE COSTS MAY HAVE AN ADVERSE IMPACT ON PRIMEDIA'S FUTURE FINANCIAL RESULTS.

The price of paper is a significant expense of PRIMEDIA relating to its print products and direct mail solicitations. Paper price increases may have an adverse effect on PRIMEDIA's future results. Postage for product distribution and direct mail solicitations is also a significant expense of PRIMEDIA. PRIMEDIA uses the U.S. Postal Service for distribution of many of its products and marketing materials. Postage costs increased in January 2001 and can be expected to increase in the future. PRIMEDIA cannot assure you that PRIMEDIA can pass these cost increases through to its customers.

PRIMEDIA DEPENDS ON SOME IMPORTANT EMPLOYEES, AND THE LOSS OF ANY OF THOSE EMPLOYEES MAY HARM ITS BUSINESS.

PRIMEDIA's performance is substantially dependent on the performance of its executive officers and other key employees. In addition, PRIMEDIA's success is dependent on its ability to attract, train, retain and motivate high quality personnel, especially for its management team. Competition for these personnel is intense. The loss of the services of any of PRIMEDIA's executive officers or key employees may harm its business.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

PRIMEDIA MAY NOT BE ABLE TO ACHIEVE THE EXPECTED RESULTS FROM THE MERGER WITH ABOUT.COM OR ANY FUTURE ACQUISITIONS AND INVESTMENTS.

PRIMEDIA may not be able to integrate the business of About.com into its existing businesses without encountering difficulties. In addition, PRIMEDIA may make acquisitions and investments in the future. The integration of About.com and other businesses PRIMEDIA may acquire in the future is and will be a complex, time consuming and expensive process involving a number of issues, including:

- difficulty integrating acquired technologies, operations, and personnel with PRIMEDIA's existing businesses;
- diversion of management attention in connection with both negotiating the acquisitions and integrating the assets;
- strain on managerial and operational resources as management tries to oversee larger operations;
- exposure to unforeseen liabilities of acquired companies;
- potential issuance of securities in connection with a future acquisition with rights that are superior to the rights of holders of PRIMEDIA's currently outstanding securities; and
- the requirement to record potentially significant additional future operating costs for the amortization of excess of purchase price over net assets acquired and other intangible assets.

PRIMEDIA's future operating results will depend to a significant degree on its ability to address these issues. In addition, PRIMEDIA has invested and may invest in the future in some early-stage companies with limited operating histories and limited or no revenues. PRIMEDIA may not be able to successfully develop these young companies and, in some cases, may not own enough equity in them to control their development.

GENERAL ECONOMIC TRENDS MAY REDUCE ITS ADVERTISING REVENUES.

PRIMEDIA's advertising revenues are subject to the risks arising from adverse changes in domestic and global economic conditions. A decline in the level of business activity of PRIMEDIA's advertisers could have an adverse effect on its revenues and profit margins. Because of the recent economic slowdown in the United States, many advertisers, particularly business-to-business advertisers, are reducing advertising expenditures. The impact of this slowdown on PRIMEDIA is difficult to predict, but it may result in further reductions in purchases of advertising. If the current economic slowdown continues or worsens, PRIMEDIA's results of operations may be adversely affected.

PRIMEDIA'S GROWTH PLACES STRAIN ON ITS MANAGERIAL, OPERATIONAL AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES.

PRIMEDIA's growth has placed, and is expected to continue to place, a significant strain on its managerial, operational and financial resources.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Further, as the number of its customers, advertisers and other business partners grows, PRIMEDIA will be required to manage multiple relationships with various customers, strategic partners and other third parties. PRIMEDIA's further growth or an increase in the number of its strategic relationships will increase this strain on its managerial, operational and financial resources, inhibiting its ability to achieve the rapid execution necessary to successfully implement its business plan.

PRIMEDIA MUST DEVELOP AND MAINTAIN POSITIVE BRAND NAME AWARENESS FOR ITS NEW MEDIA VENTURES.

PRIMEDIA believes that establishing and maintaining its brand names are essential to expanding its new media business and attracting new customers. PRIMEDIA also believes that the importance of brand name recognition will increase in the future because of the growing number of Internet companies that will need to differentiate themselves. Promotion and enhancement of PRIMEDIA's brand names will depend largely on its ability to provide consistently high-quality products and services. If PRIMEDIA is unable to provide high-quality products and services, the value of its brand names may suffer.

IF THE UNITED STATES OR OTHER GOVERNMENTS REGULATE THE INTERNET MORE CLOSELY, THE NEW MEDIA BUSINESSES OF PRIMEDIA MAY BE HARMED.

Any new law or regulation pertaining to the Internet or the application or interpretation of existing laws could decrease the demand for PRIMEDIA's Internet businesses, increase the cost of operating the business of About.com and its other new media businesses or otherwise have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations and financial condition. There are and will be an increasing number of laws and regulations pertaining to the Internet. These laws or regulations may relate to liability for information retrieved from or transmitted over the Internet, online content regulation, user privacy, taxation and the quality of products and services. In addition, the applicability to the Internet of existing laws governing intellectual property ownership and infringement, copyright, trademark, trade secret, obscenity, libel, employment, personal privacy and other issues is uncertain and developing.

IN ORDER FOR ITS NEW MEDIA BUSINESSES TO SUCCEED, PRIMEDIA MUST RESPOND TO THE RAPID CHANGES IN TECHNOLOGY.

The markets for Internet products and services are characterized by:

- rapidly changing technology;
- evolving industry standards;
- frequent new product and service introductions; and
- changing customer demands.

The success of the new media businesses of PRIMEDIA will depend on PRIMEDIA's ability to adapt to this rapidly evolving marketplace. PRIMEDIA may not be able to adequately adapt its products and services or to acquire new products and services that can compete successfully. In addition, PRIMEDIA may not be able to establish and maintain effective distribution channels on the Internet.

THE SUCCESS OF PRIMEDIA'S NEW MEDIA BUSINESSES DEPENDS ON USE OF THE INTERNET BY BUSINESSES AND INDIVIDUALS.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The success of PRIMEDIA's new media businesses depends on use of the Internet for advertising, marketing, providing services and conducting business. PRIMEDIA's new media businesses may suffer if commercial use of the Internet fails to grow in the future. Commercial use of the Internet is currently at an early stage of development and the future of the Internet is not clear. Internet usage may be inhibited for any of the following reasons:

- the Internet infrastructure may not be able to support the demands placed on it, and its performance and reliability may decline as usage grows;
- security and authentication concerns with respect to the transmission over the Internet of confidential information, such as credit card numbers, and attempts by unauthorized computer users, so-called hackers, to penetrate online security systems; and
- privacy concerns, including those related to the ability of web sites to gather user information without the user's knowledge or consent.

In addition, it is not clear how effective advertising on the Internet is in generating business as compared to more traditional types of advertising such as print, television and radio. The adoption of Internet advertising, particularly by those entities that have historically relied upon traditional media for advertising, requires the acceptance of a new way of conducting business, exchanging information and advertising products and services. Advertisers that have traditionally relied upon other advertising media may be reluctant to advertise on the Internet. These businesses may find Internet advertising to be less effective than traditional advertising media for promoting their products and services.

PRIMEDIA FACES SPECIFIC SECURITY RISKS REGARDING THE TRANSMISSION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

Consumer concerns about the security of transmissions of confidential information over public telecommunications facilities is a significant barrier to electronic commerce and communications. Many factors may cause compromises or breaches of PRIMEDIA's security systems or other Internet sites used to protect proprietary information, including advances in computer and software functionality or new discoveries in the field of cryptography. A compromise of security on the Internet would have a negative effect on the use of the Internet for commerce and communications and negatively impact PRIMEDIA's businesses. Security breaches of its activities or the activities of its customers and sponsors involving the storage and transmission of proprietary information, such as credit card numbers, may expose PRIMEDIA to a risk of loss or litigation and possible liability. PRIMEDIA cannot assure that the security measures designed to prevent security breaches and insurance programs obtained by PRIMEDIA to address the potential losses or liabilities will be sufficient to cover any such losses or liabilities.

PRIMEDIA MAY HAVE LIABILITY FOR INFORMATION RETRIEVED FROM THE INTERNET.

Because materials may be downloaded from the Internet and subsequently distributed to others, PRIMEDIA may be subject to claims for defamation, negligence, copyright or trademark infringement, personal injury or other theories based on the nature, content, publication and distribution of those materials.

PRIMEDIA'S TRADITIONAL BUSINESS IS SUBJECT TO COMPETITION FROM THE RAPIDLY INCREASING AND COMPETITIVE MARKET FOR NEW MEDIA PRODUCTS AND SERVICES.

PRIMEDIA derives a substantial portion of its revenues from traditional businesses. The increased availability of information on the Internet subjects its traditional business to additional competition, which may adversely affect its future operating results. Its strategies for obtaining sustained revenue growth and profitability in the market for new media products and services may not be sufficient to compensate for any losses of revenue in its traditional businesses resulting from competition with new media.

Numerous well-established companies and smaller entrepreneurial companies are focusing significant resources on developing and marketing products and services that will compete with PRIMEDIA's products and services. Competition in the market for Internet products and services may intensify in the future. In addition, PRIMEDIA's current and potential competitors may have greater financial, technical, operational and marketing resources. Competitive pressures may also force prices for Internet goods and services down and those price reductions may adversely affect PRIMEDIA's business.

PRIMEDIA MAY NOT BE ABLE TO PROTECT ITS INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, AND IT MAY BE LIABLE FOR INFRINGING THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OF OTHERS.

Third parties may infringe or misappropriate PRIMEDIA's and subsidiaries' patents, trademarks or other intellectual property, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations or financial condition. While PRIMEDIA and its subsidiaries enter into confidentiality agreements with their material employees, guides, consultants and strategic partners, and generally control access to and distribution of their proprietary information, the steps they have taken to protect their intellectual property may not prevent misappropriation. In addition, PRIMEDIA and its subsidiaries do not know whether they will be able to defend their proprietary rights because the validity, enforceability and scope of protection of proprietary rights in Internet-related industries is still evolving.

Third parties may assert infringement claims against PRIMEDIA or its subsidiaries. From time to time in the ordinary course of business, PRIMEDIA and its subsidiaries have been, and they expect to continue to be, subject to claims of alleged infringement of the trademarks and other intellectual property rights of third parties. These claims and any resultant litigation, should it occur, could subject PRIMEDIA and its subsidiaries to significant liability for damages. In addition, even if PRIMEDIA and its subsidiaries prevail, litigation could be time-consuming and expensive to defend and could result in the diversion of PRIMEDIA's time and attention. Any claims from third parties may also result in limitations on PRIMEDIA's and its subsidiaries' ability to use the intellectual property subject to these claims unless PRIMEDIA is able to enter into agreements with the third parties making these claims.

RISKS RELATED TO PRIMEDIA'S COMMON STOCK

THE PRICE OF PRIMEDIA'S COMMON STOCK HAS FLUCTUATED.

The market price of PRIMEDIA's common stock has been, and is likely to continue to be, variable, experiencing fluctuations. In recent years, the stock market has experienced significant price and volume fluctuations. Future market movements may adversely affect the market price of PRIMEDIA common stock. The market price of PRIMEDIA's common stock may continue to fluctuate significantly in response to various factors, including:

- actual and anticipated operating results;
- the introduction of new products;
- changes in estimates by securities analysts;

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- market conditions in the industry;
- announcements of mergers, acquisitions, alliances and joint ventures by PRIMEDIA;
- announcements of mergers and acquisitions and other actions by competitors;

- regulatory and judicial actions; and
- general economic conditions.

FUTURE SALES OF PRIMEDIA COMMON STOCK THAT ARE CURRENTLY RESTRICTED MAY ADVERSELY AFFECT THE MARKET PRICE OF PRIMEDIA'S COMMON STOCK.

144,488,261 shares of PRIMEDIA common stock held by some investment partnerships, of which KKR Associates is general partner, and others, including CMGI, Inc., Liberty Digital, Inc., Liberty Prime, Inc. and Paul Kagan Associates and certain of its affiliates, may not be resold in the absence of registration under the Securities Act, or pursuant to exemptions from that registration. KKR Associates and KKR 1996 GP LLC have demand registration rights with respect to all of the 123,552,932 shares owned by them, and management has been granted incidental registration rights, which in the case of senior management may only be exercised without PRIMEDIA's consent if KKR Associates registers any of their shares or at least 40% of the PRIMEDIA common stock is held by the public. Liberty Digital and Liberty Media each has two demand registration rights as well as incidental registration rights, and the Kagan stockholders have incidental registration rights.

Approximately 29,362,386 shares issuable upon the exercise of stock options and approximately 68,635,948 shares of PRIMEDIA common stock outstanding as of March 31, 2001 are eligible for sale by holders without restrictions under the Securities Act.

PRIMEDIA cannot predict the effect, if any, that future sales of shares, or the availability of shares for future sale, will have on the market price of PRIMEDIA common stock prevailing from time to time. Sales of substantial amounts of PRIMEDIA common stock (including shares issued upon the exercise of stock options), or the perception that sales could occur, could adversely affect prevailing market prices for the common stock. If these sales reduce the market price of the PRIMEDIA common stock, PRIMEDIA's ability to raise additional capital in equity markets could be adversely affected.

RISKS RELATED TO THE FAILURE TO EXCHANGE

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO TENDER

The shares of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock which are not exchanged for shares of PRIMEDIA common stock pursuant to the exchange offer will remain restricted securities within the meaning of Rule 144 of the Securities Act. Accordingly, these shares of IGR stock may be resold only pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or pursuant to an applicable exemption from registration, as discussed in "The Exchange Offer--Consequences of Failure to Exchange."

In addition, IGR is not a publicly traded company. As a result, there is no public market for IGR's common stock or Series B preferred stock. We cannot predict the extent to which there will ever be an active trading market in these IGR securities or how liquid that market might become. Therefore, we cannot assure you that you will be able to sell in the future any shares of IGR stock

PRIMEDIA CAN MAKE NO REPRESENTATIONS ABOUT IGR'S FUTURE PROFITABILITY

If IGR's revenues do not increase substantially, IGR may never become profitable. IGR has not generated enough revenues to exceed the substantial amounts it has spent to create, launch, enhance and to grow its business. Even if IGR does achieve profitability, it may not sustain or increase profitability on a quarterly or annual basis in the future.

THE EXCHANGE OFFER

THIS SECTION OF THE PROSPECTUS DESCRIBES MATERIAL ASPECTS OF THE PROPOSED EXCHANGE OFFER. WHILE WE BELIEVE THAT THE DESCRIPTION COVERS THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER, THIS SUMMARY MAY NOT CONTAIN ALL OF THE INFORMATION THAT IS IMPORTANT TO YOU. YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY READ THIS ENTIRE PROSPECTUS AND THE OTHER DOCUMENTS WE REFER YOU TO FOR A MORE COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER. IN ADDITION, WE INCORPORATE IMPORTANT BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT PRIMEDIA INTO THIS PROSPECTUS BY REFERENCE. YOU MAY OBTAIN THE INFORMATION INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE INTO THIS PROSPECTUS WITHOUT CHARGE BY FOLLOWING THE INSTRUCTIONS IN THE SECTION ENTITLED "WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION" THAT BEGINS ON PAGE 44 OF THIS PROSPECTUS.

NUMBER OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK TO BE EXCHANGED; PRORATION

In connection with PRIMEDIA's investment in the Series E preferred stock of IGR, PRIMEDIA agreed to make the exchange offer. PRIMEDIA is offering to exchange shares of its common stock for up to 3,764,000 shares of IGR common stock and up to 556,088 shares of IGR Series B preferred stock. As of December 31, 2000, 8,366,698 shares of IGR common stock and 1,235,791 shares of Series B preferred stock were outstanding. There were approximately 104 holders of IGR common stock as of December 31, 2000. PRIMEDIA has fixed the close of business on May 16, 2001 as the record date for the exchange offer for purposes of determining the persons to whom this prospectus and the letter of transmittal will be mailed initially. Only a registered holder of the IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock (or the holder's legal representative or attorney-in-fact) as reflected on IGR's records may participate in the exchange offer. PRIMEDIA will not tender any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock it owns in the exchange offer. As of the date of this prospectus, PRIMEDIA does not own any shares of IGR common stock and owns 30,000 shares of Series B preferred stock. However, PRIMEDIA has the right to acquire 24,016,134 shares of IGR common stock upon conversion of shares of IGR preferred stock, including the Series B preferred stock, and upon the exercise of warrants to purchase IGR common stock. See "Executives; Executive Compensation; Stock Ownership of Directors, Executive Officers And Principal Stockholders" on page 39 of this prospectus.

If the aggregate number of shares elected to be exchanged exceeds 3,764,000, in the case of the IGR common stock, or 556,088, in the case of the Series B preferred stock, the number of shares you will be permitted to exchange for PRIMEDIA common stock will be limited on a PRO-RATA basis according to the proration formulas below:

- IGR COMMON STOCK: Multiply the total number of shares of IGR common stock you have elected to exchange by a proration factor determined by dividing 3,764,000 by the total number of shares of common stock elected to be exchanged in the exchange offer. For example, if you elected to exchange 100,000 shares of IGR common stock and the total number of shares of IGR common stock elected to be exchanged by your fellow stockholders is 5,000,000 shares, you would only be allowed to exchange 75,280 shares of common stock in the exchange offer.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- IGR SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK: Multiply the total number of shares of IGR Series B preferred stock you have elected to exchange by a proration factor determined by dividing 556,088 by the total number of shares of Series B preferred stock elected to be exchanged in the exchange offer. For example, if you elected to exchange 100,000 shares of IGR Series B preferred stock and the total number of shares of IGR Series B preferred stock elected to be exchanged by your fellow stockholders is 800,000 shares, you would only be allowed to exchange 69,511 shares of Series B preferred stock in the exchange offer.

WHAT YOU WILL RECEIVE IN THE EXCHANGE OFFER

In the exchange offer, holders of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock will receive a number of shares of PRIMEDIA common stock determined pursuant to an exchange ratio for each share of IGR stock they own.

- IGR COMMON STOCK: If you hold shares of IGR common stock, the exchange ratio will be calculated by dividing $0.80 by the average closing price of the PRIMEDIA common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty consecutive trading days ending July 11, 2001. For example, if the 30 consecutive trading day measuring period had ended on May 23, 2001, the PRIMEDIA common stock average closing price would have been $7.61. Therefore, if you tendered 1,000 shares of IGR common stock and were not prorated, you would have received 105 shares of PRIMEDIA common stock and $0.95 in cash in exchange for the IGR shares.
- IGR SERIES B PREFERRED Stock: If you hold shares of IGR Series B preferred stock, the exchange ratio will be calculated by dividing $8.00 by the average closing price of the PRIMEDIA common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty consecutive trading days ending July 11, 2001. For example, if the 30 consecutive trading day measuring period had ended on May 23, 2001, the PRIMEDIA common stock average closing price would have been $7.61. Therefore, if you tendered 1,000 shares of IGR Series B preferred stock and were not prorated, you would have received 1,051 shares of PRIMEDIA common stock and $1.89 in cash.

PRIMEDIA will not issue fractional shares of PRIMEDIA common stock. You will be entitled to receive cash instead of fractional shares in an amount equal to the product of any fractional share amount and the average closing price of the PRIMEDIA common stock as calculated above.

The tables below show a range of assumed average closing prices of PRIMEDIA common stock along with entries showing the corresponding exchange ratios, the number of shares of PRIMEDIA common stock you would receive if you tendered 1,000 shares of IGR common stock or IGR Series B Preferred Stock, as the case may be, and you were not prorated and the value of the shares of PRIMEDIA common stock that would be issued in exchange for one share of IGR common stock or one share of IGR Series B preferred stock, based on the assumed average trading prices presented in the first column of the tables.

BECAUSE THE CALCULATION OF THE EXCHANGE RATIO DEPENDS ON THE ACTUAL AVERAGE CLOSING PRICE FOR THE PRIMEDIA COMMON STOCK ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE FOR

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

THE THIRTY CONSECUTIVE TRADING DAYS ENDING JULY 11, 2001, THE ACTUAL NUMBER OF SHARES OF PRIMEDIA COMMON STOCK THAT YOU WILL RECEIVE MAY BE DIFFERENT FROM THE EXAMPLES LISTED IN THE TABLE BELOW AND IN THIS DOCUMENT. IN ADDITION, BECAUSE THE EXCHANGE RATIO IS CALCULATED USING AN AVERAGE PRICE INSTEAD OF THE PRICE AT THE TIME OF THE RECEIPT OF THE SHARES, THE ACTUAL VALUE OF THE PRIMEDIA COMMON STOCK RECEIVED FOR A SHARE OF IGR COMMON STOCK OR SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK ARE ILLUSTRATIVE ONLY AND DO NOT REPRESENT THE ACTUAL AMOUNT PER SHARE OF PRIMEDIA'S COMMON STOCK THAT MIGHT BE REALIZED BY AN IGR STOCKHOLDER ON OR AFTER THE CONSUMMATION OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER. WE URGE HOLDERS OF IGR COMMON STOCK AND SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK TO CALCULATE THE AVERAGE CLOSING PRICE FOR PRIMEDIA COMMON STOCK BY OBTAINING CURRENT MARKET QUOTATIONS BEFORE MAKING ANY DECISION WITH RESPECT TO THE EXCHANGE OFFER.

PRIMEDIA will issue a number of shares of its common stock, as determined by the exchange ratio, for each share of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock accepted in the exchange offer. Holders may tender some or all of their shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock pursuant to the exchange offer.

PRIMEDIA intends to conduct the exchange offer in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder.

PRIMEDIA will be deemed to have accepted validly tendered shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock when PRIMEDIA has given oral or written notice of acceptance to the exchange agent. The exchange agent will act as agent for the tendering holders of the IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock for the purposes of receiving the PRIMEDIA common stock from PRIMEDIA.

If any tendered shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock are not accepted for exchange because of an invalid tender, proration or the occurrence of certain other events set forth in this prospectus, the letter of transmittal or otherwise, certificates for those unaccepted shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock will be returned to the tendering holder as promptly as practicable after the expiration date.

Holders who tender shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock in the exchange offer will be required to pay any applicable transfer taxes with respect to the exchange of shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock pursuant to the exchange offer. See "--Fees and Expenses."

EXPIRATION DATE; EXTENSIONS; AMENDMENTS

The expiration date will be 12:00 a.m., New York City time, on July 13, 2001 unless PRIMEDIA, in its sole discretion extends the exchange offer, in which case the expiration date will be 12:00 a.m., New York City time, on the last day of the last extension.

In order to extend the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA will notify the exchange agent of any extension by oral or written notice and will make a public announcement, each before 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration date.

PRIMEDIA reserves the right:

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- to delay accepting any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock;
- to extend the exchange offer;
- if any of the conditions set forth below under "--Conditions of the Exchange Offer" have not been satisfied, to terminate the exchange offer; or
- to amend the terms of the exchange offer in any manner.

PRIMEDIA may delay, extend, terminate or change the exchange offer by giving notice to the exchange agent. PRIMEDIA will publicly announce any delay, termination, extension or change in the exchange offer. If PRIMEDIA materially changes the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA will promptly disclose the changes by means of a prospectus supplement that will be sent to the registered holders of IGR common stock and Series B preferred stock. In the case of any material changes to the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA will extend the exchange offer, if the exchange offer would have otherwise expired during five to ten business days after the change, for a period of five to ten business days, depending upon the significance of the changes and the manner by which the registered holders were informed of the change.

Without limiting the manner in which PRIMEDIA may choose to make a public announcement of any delay, extension, termination or change of the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA will not have an obligation to publish, advertise, or otherwise communicate any public announcement, other than by making a timely release to the DOW Jones New Service.

PROCEDURES FOR TENDERING

Only a registered holder of shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock may tender shares in the exchange offer. To tender in the exchange offer a holder must complete, sign and date the letter of transmittal, or a facsimile, have the signatures guaranteed (if required by the letter of transmittal) and mail or otherwise deliver the letter of transmittal or the facsimile, together with the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, as applicable, and any other required documents, to the exchange agent at the address set forth below under "--Exchange Agent" for receipt before the expiration date.

The tender by a holder will constitute an agreement between the holder and PRIMEDIA in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this prospectus and in the letter of transmittal.

EACH HOLDER MAY ELECT THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF THE SHARES OF IGR COMMON STOCK OR SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK, THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT, BUT THE HOLDER WILL BEAR THE RISK THAT THESE ITEMS ARE NOT RECEIVED. INSTEAD OF DELIVERY BY MAIL, WE RECOMMEND THAT HOLDERS USE AN OVERNIGHT OR HAND DELIVERY SERVICE. IN ALL CASES, YOU SHOULD ALLOW SUFFICIENT TIME TO ASSURE DELIVERY TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE. NO LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL OR SHARES OF IGR COMMON STOCK OR SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK SHOULD BE SENT TO PRIMEDIA.

If a person other than the registered holder of any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock signs the letter of transmittal, the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, as applicable, must be endorsed or accompanied by a properly completed stock power, signed by the registered holder as that registered holder's name appears on the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, as applicable.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

If any trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity sign the letter of transmittal or any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock or stock powers, the fiduciary or representative should indicate that fact when signing, and evidence satisfactory to PRIMEDIA of their authority to act must be submitted with the letter of transmittal.

PRIMEDIA will determine in its sole discretion all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance and withdrawal of tendered shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, which determination will be final and binding. PRIMEDIA reserves the absolute right to reject any and all shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock not properly tendered or any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock PRIMEDIA's acceptance of which would, in the opinion of counsel for PRIMEDIA, be unlawful. PRIMEDIA also reserves the right to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions of tender as to particular shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock. PRIMEDIA's interpretation of the terms and conditions of the exchange offer (including the instructions in the letter of transmittal) will be final and binding on all parties. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock must be cured within the time PRIMEDIA determines. Although PRIMEDIA intends to notify holders of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, neither PRIMEDIA, the exchange agent nor any other person will be liable for failure to give such notification. Tenders of the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock by IGR stockholders will not be deemed to have been made until any defects regarding the IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock tendered have been cured or waived. If the exchange agent receives any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock that are not validly tendered, the exchange agent will return those shares to the tendering holders, unless otherwise provided in the letter of transmittal, as soon as practicable following the expiration date.

WITHDRAWAL OF TENDERS

Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus or the letter of transmittal, tenders of the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock may be withdrawn at any time before the expiration date or, if tendered shares have not yet been accepted for exchange, after the expiration of forty business days from the commencement of the exchange offer.

To withdraw a tender of shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock in the exchange offer, the exchange agent must receive at its address set forth in this prospectus before the expiration date a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal. Any notice of withdrawal must:

- specify the name of the person having deposited the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock to be withdrawn;
- identify the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock to be withdrawn (including the certificate number or numbers and number of shares); and
- be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on the letter of transmittal by which the shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock were tendered.

PRIMEDIA will determine in its sole discretion all questions as to the validity, form and eligibility (including time of receipt) of such notice, which determination will be final and binding on all parties. Any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for purposes of the exchange offer and PRIMEDIA will not issue shares of common stock with respect to the withdrawn shares unless the withdrawn shares are validly tendered. Properly withdrawn shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock may be tendered by following one of the procedures described above under "--Procedures for Tendering" at any time before the expiration date.

Any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock which have been tendered but which are not accepted for exchange due to rejection of tender, termination of the exchange offer, proration or which have been validly withdrawn will be returned as soon as practicable to the holder without cost to such holder.

CONDITIONS OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER

Notwithstanding any other term of the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA is not required to accept for exchange, or exchange shares of PRIMEDIA common stock for, any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, and may terminate the exchange offer before the acceptance of any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, if:

- any action or proceeding is instituted or threatened in any court or by or before any governmental agency with respect to the exchange offer which, in the sole judgment of PRIMEDIA, might materially impair the ability of PRIMEDIA to proceed with the exchange offer; or
- any law, statute, rule or regulation is proposed, adopted or enacted, which, in the sole judgment of PRIMEDIA might materially impair the ability of PRIMEDIA, to proceed with the exchange offer.

If PRIMEDIA determines in its reasonable discretion that any of the conditions are not satisfied prior to the expiration date of the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA may:

- terminate the exchange offer before the acceptance of any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, refuse to accept any shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock and return all tendered shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, as applicable, to the tendering holders;

- extend the exchange offer and retain all shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock tendered prior to the expiration date, subject, however, to the rights of holders to withdraw their previously tendered shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock, as applicable, see "--Withdrawal of Tenders;" or
- waive the unsatisfied conditions with respect to the exchange offer and accept all validly tendered shares of IGR common stock or Series B preferred stock which have not been withdrawn.

All conditions, other than those involving receipt of necessary government approvals, will be satisfied or waived on or before expiration of the offer. If any determination or waiver constitutes a material change to the exchange offer, PRIMEDIA will promptly disclose the determination or waiver by means of a prospectus supplement that will be distributed to the registered holders, and PRIMEDIA will extend the exchange offer for a period of five to ten business days, depending upon the significance of the waiver and the manner of disclosure to the registered holders, if the exchange offer would otherwise have expired

Following the purchase of the Series E preferred stock and the subsequent restatement of the IGR certificate of incorporation, PRIMEDIA and its affiliates own, in addition to the IGR securities previously owned, 21,590,134 shares of Series E voting preferred stock and 17,560,866 shares of IGR Series E non-voting preferred stock. As a result, PRIMEDIA and its affiliates own 49.9% of the outstanding voting power of the IGR stock and are entitled to appoint 40% of the directors constituting the board of directors of IGR. Holders of the Series E voting preferred stock and the Series E non-voting preferred stock have similar rights, except that holders of the Series E non-voting preferred stock may not vote on an as converted basis with the common stock and the Series E non-voting preferred stock ranks subordinate to the existing IGR preferred stock, including the Series E voting preferred stock. For a description of the rights of the Series E voting preferred stock and the Series E non-voting preferred stock, see "--Restated IGR Certificate of Incorporation."

Upon completion of PRIMEDIA's exchange offer, PRIMEDIA intends to convert a sufficient number of shares of Series E voting preferred stock to Series E non-voting preferred stock so that PRIMEDIA and its affiliates will maintain their 49.9% ownership of the outstanding voting power of the IGR stock.

RESTATED IGR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Some of the significant provisions of the certificate of incorporation of IGR as currently in effect include the following:

- The Series E Preferred Stock is divided into two classes, one voting and one non-voting. The Series E voting preferred stock is convertible into IGR common stock at a conversion ratio of one share of common stock for each share of Series E voting preferred stock. The Series E non-voting preferred stock is convertible into IGR Class A non-voting common stock at a conversion ratio of one share of non-voting common stock for each share of Series E non-voting preferred stock. The Series E voting stock ranks on parity with the existing IGR preferred stock with respect to rights to future dividends, rights on liquidation and winding-up. The Series E non-voting stock is subordinate to the existing preferred stock and senior to the common stock of IGR with respect to rights to future dividends, rights on liquidation and winding up and does not vote with the common stock on an as converted basis;
- PRIMEDIA, as a holder of IGR's Series E voting preferred stock, may nominate a majority of IGR's board of directors as long as PRIMEDIA or any of its affiliates owns at least 50% of IGR's voting stock. If PRIMEDIA's ownership of voting stock of IGR declines in the future, through sale or dilution, PRIMEDIA's board representation will decline as follows:

PRIMEDIA OWNERSHIP -----	PERCENTAGE OF BOARD -----
Less than 50% but greater than or equal to 40%	40%
Less than 40% but greater than or equal to 30%	30%
Less than 30% but greater than or equal to 20%	20%
Less than 20% but greater than or equal to 10%	10%
Less than 10% but greater than or equal to 5%	5%

- PRIMEDIA has protective rights of approval involving various corporate activities of IGR, including any amendment to the certificate of incorporation or the creation of any series of stock on parity with or senior to the Series E preferred stock. The restated certificate of incorporation also contains protective provisions similar to those contained in the Series E Purchase Agreement so long as PRIMEDIA maintains ownership interests, ranging from 10%-25%, in the IGR voting stock, see "--Series E Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement."

The IGR board of directors has also approved an amendment to the restated certificate of incorporation which provides that PRIMEDIA may nominate 50% of IGR's board of directors if PRIMEDIA and its affiliates own less than 50% but greater than 49% of the voting power of IGR. The amendment is subject to the approval of the IGR shareholders prior to becoming effective.

certain other transactions. An "interested stockholder" is defined as any person who owns, directly or indirectly, 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of a corporation.

Section 203 prohibits a corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder for a period of three years following the date on which the stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

- the board of directors approved the business combination before the stockholder became an interested stockholder, or the board of directors approved the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- upon completion of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, such stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock outstanding when the transaction began other than shares held by directors who are also officers and other than shares held by certain employee stock plans; or
- the board of directors approved the business combination after the stockholder became an interested stockholder and the business combination was approved at a meeting by at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock not owned by such stockholder.

These limitations on business combinations with interested stockholders do not apply to a corporation that does not have a class of stock listed on a national securities exchange, authorized for quotation on an interdealer quotation system of a registered national securities association or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders.

take any action at an annual meeting, timely notice must be given to the secretary of IGR. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be received at the principal executive offices of IGR no later than 60 days nor earlier than 90 days before the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting. In the event that no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the date of the annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date contemplated at the time of the previous year's proxy statement, notice must be received no later than 60 days nor earlier than 90 days prior to the date of the meeting. If less than 70 days' notice of the date of the meeting is given to stockholder's, to be timely, notice by a stockholder must be received by the secretary no later than close of business on the tenth day following the day on which the notice of the meeting was given.

A stockholder's notice to IGR must set forth all of the following:

- a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting the business at the annual meeting;

- the class and number of shares of IGR that are beneficially owned by the stockholder;
- any material interest of the stockholder in the business; and
- all information required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies, or otherwise required by applicable law.

LIMITATION OF PERSONAL LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Delaware law provides that a corporation may include in its certificate of incorporation a provision limiting or eliminating the liability of its directors to the corporation and its stockholders for monetary damages arising from a breach of fiduciary duty, except for:

- a breach of the duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;

- acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- payment of a dividend or the repurchase or redemption of stock in violation of Delaware law; or
- any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The certificate of incorporation, as amended, of PRIMEDIA and the third amended and restated certificate of incorporation of IGR provide that, to the fullest extent Delaware law permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors, no director will be liable to PRIMEDIA or IGR, as the case may be, or their respective stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Under Delaware law, a corporation generally may indemnify directors and officers:

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- for actions taken in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation; and
- with respect to any criminal proceeding, if they had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

In addition, Delaware law provides that a corporation may advance to a director or officer expenses incurred in defending any action upon receipt of an undertaking by the director or officer to repay the amount advanced if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification.

PRIMEDIA. The amended and restated by-laws of PRIMEDIA provide that PRIMEDIA will indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law any current or former director or officer of the corporation, and may, at the discretion of the board of directors, indemnify any current or former employee or agent of PRIMEDIA against all expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding in which the person was involved because of that person's service, at the request of PRIMEDIA, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

In addition, the amended and restated by-laws provide that the expenses incurred by a person who is or was a director or officer in connection with any action, suit or proceeding will be advanced to the director or officer by PRIMEDIA upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amounts advanced if ultimately it is determined that the director or officer was not entitled to be indemnified against the expenses.

IGR. The amended and restated by-laws of IGR provide that IGR will indemnify its directors and executive officers to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. IGR may modify the extent of indemnification by individual contracts with its directors and executive officers. IGR will not be required to indemnify the director or executive officer in connection with a proceeding initiated by that person unless it is required by law, the proceeding was authorized by IGR's board of directors or IGR decides, in its sole discretion, to do so.

Additionally, the amended and restated by-laws provide that the expenses incurred by a person who is or was a director or officer in connection with any action, suit or proceeding will be advanced to the director or officer by IGR upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amounts advanced if ultimately it is determined that the director or officer was not entitled to be indemnified against the expenses. No expenses will be advanced, however, if a majority of a quorum of the board of directors who are not parties to the proceeding or, if a quorum of disinterested directors directs, by a written opinion of independent legal counsel that the known facts demonstrate clearly and convincingly that the person seeking the advance acted in bad faith or in a manner that the person did not believe to be in the best interests of IGR.

LEGAL MATTERS

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, New York, New York, will provide an opinion for PRIMEDIA regarding the validity of the shares of PRIMEDIA offered by this prospectus.

CHANGE IN INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

In June 2000, About decided to replace KPMG LLP as its independent accountants, and retained Ernst & Young LLP as its new independent accountants. The decision to change About's accountants was recommended by the audit committee of About's board of directors and approved by About's board of directors. KPMG LLP's reports on About's consolidated financial statements for the two most recent fiscal years (i.e., the fiscal years ended December 31, 1998 and December 31, 1999) contained no adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During About's last two fiscal years, there were no disagreements between About and KPMG LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG LLP, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports. Prior to retaining Ernst & Young LLP, About had not consulted with Ernst & Young LLP regarding accounting principles.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

PRIMEDIA is a Delaware Corporation. Reference is made to Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), which enables a corporation in its original certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director for violations of the director's fiduciary duty, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL (providing for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchase or redemptions) or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

Reference also is made to Section 145 of the DGCL, which provides that a corporation may indemnify any persons, including officers and directors, who are, or are threatened to be made, parties to any threatened, pending or completed legal action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation), by reason of the fact that such person was an officer, director, employee or agent of such corporation or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided such officer, director, employee or agent acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interest and, for criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify officers and directors in an action by or in the right of the corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him against the expenses that such officer or director actually and reasonably incurred.

Article 8 of the Certificate of Incorporation of PRIMEDIA provides that except as provided under the Delaware General Corporation Law, directors of PRIMEDIA shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duties as a director. Article 3 of the by-laws of PRIMEDIA provides for indemnification of the officers and directors of PRIMEDIA to the full extent permitted by applicable law and provides for the advancement of expenses.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment or prospectus supplement to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering; and

(4) that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities

Act, each filing of Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(6) to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(7) that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(8) that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (7) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
