FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ezra Dabah, The Children's Place's Largest Stockholder and Former Chairman and CEO, Files Preliminary Proxy Materials to Elect Three Nominees to The Children's Place Board of Directors

New York - May 15, 2009 - Ezra Dabah today announced that he has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission preliminary proxy materials in connection with his nomination of three independent, highly-qualified and experienced individuals for election to the Board of Directors of The Children's Place Retail Stores, Inc. (Nasdaq: PLCE) at the Company's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Mr. Dabah's nominees are Raphael Benaroya, Jeremy J. Fingerman and Ross B. Glickman. The Company's Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held on June 26, 2009 and stockholders of record as of May 1, 2009 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

"As the largest stockholder of The Children's Place, I have become increasingly concerned about the ability of the incumbent Board and executive management team to sustain future growth and increase stockholder value," said Mr. Dabah. "Raphael Benaroya, Jeremy Fingerman and Ross Glickman are highly-qualified and proven executives with extensive experience in key areas of The Children's Place's business, including specialty apparel retailing, mass consumer marketing and real estate. Marketing and real estate expertise are key competencies for specialty retailers and the current Board of Directors lacks experience in both these disciplines."

Mr. Dabah continued, "If elected to the Board of The Children's Place, I believe our nominees will facilitate the appointment of a permanent CEO to replace the Company's Interim CEO, who has held the position for 19 months, retain and attract key talent, establish a clear vision for the Company's future and position the Company for continued growth. Our three new directors will enhance the composition of The Children's Place Board and bring insight, accountability and fresh and relevant perspectives to help achieve maximum value for all stockholders."

Mr. Dabah is the former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of The Children's Place. He currently serves as a member of the Company's Board of Directors and is the Company's largest stockholder, with beneficial ownership of approximately 16.9% of the Company's outstanding common stock as of May 1, 2009.

Mr. Dabah has retained Moelis & Company as his financial advisor and Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP is serving as his legal counsel.

Members of the Board of Directors
The Children's Place Retail Stores, Inc.
915 Secaucus Road

Dear Members of the Board:

I am writing to express my concern regarding the Board's recent decision to exclude me from Spring 2010 Merchandise line review. Mr. Crovitz claimed it would be "inappropriate" for me to participate in the review in light of my notice to nominate an alternate slate of directors at this year's Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

As the former Chief Executive Officer and a long-standing director of The Children's Place, I believe that developing and leveraging a strong brand is the cornerstone of this Company's success. Indeed, under my leadership, The Children's Place established all of the foundations for the successful, deeply-rooted brand that it is today.

Over the past 18 months, I have assisted management in many aspects of the business, including devoting my time and energy to ensuring the vibrancy and success of our merchandise lines. Management has sought my advice on the merchandise because product is central to our brand and I offer a unique perspective that has proven to be integral to our merchandising success over the years. Every season, I have reviewed and made suggestions to the upcoming seasonal line which, in my opinion, has dramatically strengthened this Company's reputation as a fashionable merchandiser, a reputation that was earned under my leadership.

Despite our different opinions regarding Board composition, it makes no sense at all for the Board to now alter what has been a successful formula that has benefited our stockholders for so many years. Excluding me from the upcoming line review is yet another example of this Board's history of making shortsighted decisions that I believe will ultimately jeopardize its ability to sustain this Company's growth and maximize long-term stockholder value.

I believe it is in the best interests of the Company and all of our stockholders that I continue to participate in the line review and I ask the Board to reconsider its decision and include me in the meetings this week.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Ezra Dabah
