The Annual Report to Stockholders is filed herewith.

SALOMON BROTHERS MUNICIPAL PARTNERS FUND II INC.

Letter From The Chairman

Dear Shareholder,

The U.S. economy overcame a number of obstacles and continued to expand during the one-year reporting period. Rising interest rates, record high oil prices, and geopolitical issues threatened to send the economy into a []soft patch.[] However, when all was said and done, first quarter 2005 gross domestic product ([]GDPP]) rowth was a solid 3.8%. This mirrored the GDP from the fourth quarter of 2004 and was only slightly lower than the 4.0% gain during the third quarter of 2004.

Given the overall strength of the economy, the Federal Reserve Board ([Fed])ii continued to raise interest rates over the period in an attempt to ward off inflation. After raising interest rates on June 30, 2004, the Fed raised its target for the federal funds rateⁱⁱⁱ in 0.25% increments eight additional times. All told, the Fed[]s rate hikes brought the target for the federal funds rate from 1.00% to 3.25%. Following the end of the reporting period, at their August meeting, the Fed further increased the target rate by 0.25% to 3.50%.

R. Jay Gerken, CFA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

During the reporting period, the fixed income market confounded many investors as short term interest rates rose in concert with the Fed rate tightening, while longer-term rates, surprisingly, declined. When the period began in July 1, 2004, the federal fund target rate was 1.25% and the yield on the 10-year Treasury was 4.57%. When the reporting period ended, the federal funds rate rose to 3.25% and the 10-year yield declined to 3.92%. Falling longer term rates, periods of mixed economic data, and periodic flights to quality all supported the bond market, including municipal securities. Looking at the twelve-month period as a whole, the overall municipal bond market outperformed the taxable bond market, as the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index^{iv} and Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Index^v returned 8.24% and 6.80%, respectively.

Please read on for a more detailed look at prevailing economic and market conditions during the Fund_s fiscal year and to learn how those conditions have affected Fund performance.

Special Shareholder Notice

On June 24, 2005, Citigroup Inc. (\Box Citigroup \Box) announced that it has signed a definitive agreement under which Citigroup will sell substantially all of its worldwide asset management business to Legg Mason, Inc. (\Box Legg Mason \Box).

As part of this transaction, Salomon Brothers Asset Management Inc (the [Manager]), currently an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Citigroup, would become an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Legg Mason. The Manager is the investment manager to the Fund.

The transaction is subject to certain regulatory approvals, as well as other customary conditions to closing. Subject to such approvals and the satisfaction of the other conditions, Citigroup expects the transaction to be completed later this year.

Under the Investment Company Act of 1940, consummation of the transaction will result in the automatic termination of the investment management contract between the Fund and the Manager. Therefore, the Fund_s Board of Directors will be asked to approve a new investment management contract between the Fund and the Manager. If approved by the Board, the new investment management contract will be presented to the shareholders of the Fund for their approval.

Subsequently, on August 12, 2005, the Board approved the new investment management contract between the Fund and the Manager.

Information About Your Fund

As you may be aware, several issues in the mutual fund industry have recently come under the scrutiny of federal and state regulators. The Fund_s Adviser and some of its affiliates have received requests for information from various government regulators regarding market timing, late trading, fees, and other mutual fund issues in connection with various investigations. The regulators appear to be examining, among other things, the Fund_s response to market timing and shareholder exchange activity, including compliance with prospectus disclosure related to these subjects. The Fund has been informed that the Adviser and its affiliates are responding to those information requests, but are not in a position to predict the outcome of these requests and investigations.

Important information concerning the Fund and its Adviser with regard to recent regulatory developments is contained in the [Additional Information] note in the Notes to the Financial Statements included in this report.

As always, thank you for your confidence in our stewardship of your assets. We look forward to helping you continue to meet your financial goals.

Sincerely,

R. Jay Gerken, CFA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Manager Overview

Market Review

The overall municipal bond market defied expectations and generated strong returns over the 12-month reporting period. As the fiscal year began, a number of factors were casting a pall over the bond market, including the prospect that the Fed would begin a prolonged tightening cycle to bring interest rates to a more <code>[normal]</code> level. In addition, the economy appeared to be on solid footing and there were inflationary concerns. However, while the Fed raised the target for the federal funds rate from 1.00% to 3.25% from June 30, 2004 through June 30, 2005, longer-term yields, surprisingly, declined. As such, the overall yield curve^{vi} flattened as the difference between short- and long-term yields narrowed during the year. This flattening also occurred in the municipal market.

New municipal bond issuance from state and local governments was extremely high over the reporting period. While 2004[]s $358 billion in new muni securities was slightly less than 2003[]s record level, it was still the third largest amount of new issuance during a calendar year. Thus far in 2005, this trend has continued, as a record for first-half year new issuance was established, with $206 billion of tax-free debt underwritten over this period. Refunding bonds, which represent over 35% of 2005[]s year-to-date total new issuance, have largely been responsible for the surge in tax-exempt debt. New supply was generally met with strong demand, in particular by institutions and property and casualty insurers.

As was the case in the Treasury market, the shorter end of the municipal bond curve generated the weakest results, while the longer end of the curve outperformed. From a credit quality perspective, lower quality municipals outperformed their higher quality counterparts throughout the fiscal year.

Performance Review

For the 12 months ended June 30, 2005, the Salomon Brothers Municipal Partners Fund II Inc. returned 16.38%, based on its New York Stock Exchange ([]NYSE[]) market price and 8.85% based on its net asset value ([]NÄÜDer share. In comparison, the Fund]s unmanaged benchmark, the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index, returned 8.24% and its Lipper General Municipal Debt (Leveraged) Closed-End Funds Category Average^{Viii} increased 13.26% over the same time frame. Please note that Lipper performance returns are based on each fund]s NAV.

During the 12-month period, the Fund made distributions to shareholders totaling $0.8160 per share. The performance table shows the Fund_s 30-day SEC yield as well as its 12-month total return based on its NAV and market price as of June 30, 2005. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. The Funds will vary.

Factors Influencing Fund Performance

Given our correct assumption that the Fed would raise interest rates and that inflationary concerns would increase, the Fund assumed a defensive posture in terms of the portfolio[]s average duration. We also placed an emphasis on maintaining an overall high credit quality for the Fund, with an average credit rating of Aa1 during the period. However, this positioning detracted from results, as the Fund[]s short- to neutral-durations stance versus the benchmark hurt relative returns as longer terms rates declined. In addition, our higher quality bias was a drag on relative results as lower quality, more speculative municipal bonds outperformed.

In contrast, the Fund \Box s overweight in the 15-20 year portion of the municipal yield curve enhanced results as they outperformed shorter maturity securities. Our diversified portfolio was also beneficial, in particular the Fund \Box s holdings in healthcare, water and sewer, and local general obligation bonds. Over the period of this report, the Fund \Box s largest aggregated holdings by state were in New York, Illinois, and Texas.

FUND PERFORMANCE AS OF JUNE 30, 2005 (unaudited)

Price Per Share	30-Day SEC Yield	12-Month Total Return
$ 14.93 (NAV)	5.74%	8.85%
$ 13.60 (Market Price)	6.31%	16.38%

All figures represent past performance and are not a guarantee of future results. The Fund_Ds yields will vary.

Total returns are based on changes in NAV or market price, respectively. Total returns assume the reinvestment of all distributions, if any, in additional shares. The [SEC yield] is a return figure often quoted by bond and other fixed-income mutual funds. This quotation is based on the most recent 30-day (or one-month) period covered by the Fund[s filings with the SEC. The yield figure reflects the income dividends and interest earned during the period after deduction of the Fund[s expenses for the period. These yields are as of June 30, 2005 and are subject to change.

All index performance reflects no deduction for fees, expenses or taxes. Please note that an investor cannot invest directly in an index.

- i Gross domestic product is the market value of goods and services produced by labor and property in a given country.
- ii The Fed is responsible for the formulation of a policy designed to promote economic growth, full employment, stable prices, and a sustainable pattern of international trade and payments.
- iii The federal funds rate is the interest rate that banks with excess reserves at a Federal Reserve district bank charge other banks that need overnight loans
- iv The Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index is a broad measure of the municipal bond market with maturities of at least one year.
- v The Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Index is a broad-based bond index comprised of Government, Corporate, Mortgage and Asset-backed issues, rated investment grade or higher, and having at least one year to maturity.
- vi The yield curve is the graphical depiction of the relationship between the yield on bonds of the same credit quality but different maturities.
- vii NAV is calculated by subtracting total liabilities and outstanding preferred stock from the closing value of all securities held by the Fund (plus all other assets) and dividing the result (total net assets) by the total number of the common shares outstanding. The NAV fluctuates with changes in the market prices of securities in which the Fund has invested. However, the price at which an investor may buy or sell shares of the Fund is at the Fund's market price as determined by supply of and demand for the Fund's shares.
- viii Lipper, Inc. is a major independent mutual-fund tracking organization. Returns are based on the 12-month period ended June 30, 2005, including the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distributions, if any, calculated among the 68 funds in the Fund's Lipper category.
