Quorum; Received Votes; Solicitation and Revocation.

Proxies in the form enclosed are being solicited by, and on behalf of, the Company's Board of Directors. The persons named in the proxy have been designated as proxies by the Board of Directors. If a quorum, consisting of the presence (in person or by proxy) of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, $.01 par value, of the Company (the "Common Stock"), exists at the Meeting, (i) the two Class I directors and the two class III directors shall be elected by the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock cast at the Meeting; and (ii) approval of any other matters which may properly come before the Meeting shall, subject to applicable Florida law, be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the matter at the Meeting exceeds the number of votes cast opposing such matter at the Meeting. With regard to the election of the Class I and Class III directors, votes may be cast in favor of, or withheld from any or all nominees. Votes that are withheld with respect to this matter will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect.

Brokers who hold shares in "street name" ("Broker Shares") for customers have the authority under the rules of the various stock exchanges to vote, at their discretion, on certain items when they have not received instructions from the beneficial owners. Brokers that do not receive instructions are entitled to vote those shares with respect to the election of directors.

matter will not be included in determining the existence of a quorum. Neither abstentions nor non-voted Broker Shares will have an effect on the election of Class I and Class III nominees for director.

In the event that any other matters are properly presented at the Meeting for action, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote the proxies (which confer authority upon them to vote on any such matters) in accordance with their judgment. Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the record stockholder at any time before it is exercised by written notification delivered to the Secretary of the Company, by voting in person at the Meeting, or by duly executing and delivering another proxy bearing a later date. Attendance by a stockholder at the Meeting does not alone serve to revoke his or her proxy.

The solicitation of proxies will be made primarily by mail but, in addition, may be made by directors, officers and employees of the Company personally or by telephone or telegraph, without extra compensation therefor. Brokers, nominees and fiduciaries will be reimbursed for their out-of-pocket and clerical expenses in transmitting proxies and any related material to beneficial owners. The costs of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. It is estimated that these costs will be nominal.

The Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, which contains audited financial statements, is being mailed with this proxy statement to all persons who were stockholders of record as of the close of business on _____, 2002. PROPOSAL I: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's directors are elected on a staggered basis, with each class of director consisting of one-third of the entire Board of Directors, and each standing for election for a three-year term. As a result of the Company's failure to hold a meeting of stockholders during 2001, all Class I and Class III directors are being elected at the Meeting. The Class I directors elected at the Meeting will have terms that will expire in 2005 and the Class III directors elected at the Meeting will have terms that will expire in 2004. The Company's By-Laws provide that the number of directors shall be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors and must be a minimum of one. The Board of Directors has set the size of the Board at six members. Only Class I and Class III directors are being elected at the Meeting. Each of the Class I and Class III nominees listed below has consented to being named in this proxy statement and to serving as a Class I or Class III director, as appropriate, if elected. In the unexpected event that any of such nominees become unable to or will not serve, it is intended that proxies will be voted for substitute Class III nominee(s) designated by the current Board of Directors. The Company has no reason to believe that any of the named Class I or Class III nominees will be unable or unwilling to stand for election. Both the Class I and Class III nominees for director were previously elected at the Company's 1998 Annual Meeting.

At the Meeting, shares of Common Stock represented by the proxies, unless otherwise specified, will be voted FOR the election of each of the Class I and Class III nominees listed thereon. Proxies may not be voted for a greater number of persons than the two Class I and two Class III nominees named thereon. Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares of Common Stock at the Meeting (assuming a quorum exists).

Set forth below is certain information with respect to the Class I and Class III nominees for election as directors of the Company at the Meeting and Class II directors of the Company (based solely on information furnished by such persons):

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of non-employee directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving policies and programs pursuant to which compensation is paid or awarded to the Company's executive officers and key employees and for administration of the Company's 1990 Key Employee Stock Option Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan").

Compensation Strategy

The Company's executive compensation program has been designed to (i) align executive compensation with stockholder interests, (ii) attract, retain and motivate a highly competent executive team, (iii) link compensation to individual and Company performance and (iv) achieve a balance between incentives for short-term and long-term performance and results. The Company's executive compensation package consists of the payment of base salary, annual bonus, and stock options awarded through participation in the Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee reviews annually the compensation to be paid to the Company's executive officers. In making such review, the Compensation Committee evaluates information supplied by management. The Compensation Committee also participates in the negotiation of employment contracts, including provisions for salary and bonuses, with the Company's executive officers. Currently, pursuant to the Company's employment agreements with certain of its executive officers, each such executive officer receives a fixed annual base salary and certain of such executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, are entitled to receive a bonus amount determined by a formula based on the Company's net earnings per share for each fiscal year during the term of the agreement.

Base Salary

Base salary for executive officers is generally determined by reference to written employment agreements between the Company and such executives. The Compensation Committee's policy is to negotiate salaries in relation to industry norms, the principal job duties and responsibilities undertaken by such executives, individual performance and other relevant criteria. A base salary comparison for the Company's Chief Executive Officers was made to a group of public companies which the Compensation Committee believes provides a meaningful comparison to the Company. Several of these companies are included in the custom composite of companies in the Standard & Poor's Midcap Consumer Products Index. See "Stock Performance Chart" below. The base salary paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer for fiscal year 2001 was in the middle of the range of base salary paid by such companies.

Annual Bonus

Edgar Filing: STEPHAN CO - Form PRE 14A

Annual bonuses for the Chief Executive Officer and two other Named Executives (Peter Ferola and Franc Ferola) are determined by reference to specific bonus formulae set forth in written employment agreements between the Company and such officers. If the Company's net earnings per share increase by more than 10% compared to the executives' base years (i.e. 1996 for the Chief Executive Officer and 2000 for the two other Named Executives), the Chief Executive Officer is entitled to receive $20,000 and the two other Named Executives are each entitled to receive $5,000 for each 1% increase in net earnings per share above the 10% threshold. In addition, the Chief Executive Officer is entitled to receive a $100,000 bonus and the two other Named Executives are entitled to each receive a $25,000 bonus for reaching the 10% increase in net earnings per share compared to the base year. The Chief Executive Officer is also entitled to receive a $150,000 bonus payment and the two other Named Executives are entitled to each receive an additional $25,000 bonus payment upon the Company's attaining a 15% increase in net earnings per share compared to the base year. Payment of annual bonuses for other executives is at the discretion of the Compensation Committee.

Stock Options

Long-term incentive compensation of executives is granted through participation in the Incentive Plan. The Incentive Plan permits the Company to grant stock options to executive officers at a price not less than 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of the grant. In addition to contractual obligations, stock options may be granted in the Compensation Committee's discretion to executive officers based upon its appraisal of the ability of such executive officers to influence the long-term growth and profitability of the Company. The Compensation Committee believes that providing a portion of the executive's annual incentive compensation in the form of stock options encourages the officers to share with the Company's stockholders the goals of increasing the value of the Company's stock and contributing to the success of the Company.

Compensation Committee's Actions for Fiscal Year 2001

After various informal meetings during 2001, the Compensation Committee did not award discretionary stock options to any key employees and did not grant salary increases or award any bonuses. Options were granted only pursuant to employment agreement obligations.

The Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Compensation Committee approved an employment agreement in 1997 for Mr. Frank F. Ferola. In approving such agreement, the Compensation Committee authorized a base annual salary of $425,000, an annual 10% increase in such salary, and an annual grant of options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant for Mr. Ferola. Based on the earnings formula described above, Mr. Ferola was not entitled to receive a bonus in fiscal 2001.

Deloitte & Touche, the Company's independent auditor, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statement with both Company management and Deloitte & Touche. The Audit Committee received from Deloitte & Touche the written disclosures and the letter required by Independent

Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and has discussed with Deloitte & Touche the issue of its independence from the Company.

Based on the Audit Committee's review of the audited financial statements and its discussions with both management and Deloitte & Touche noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

Audit Fees

The Company paid to-date Deloitte & Touche $118,000 in aggregate fees for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's fiscal year 2001 annual financial statements and review of financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q.

The Company paid Deloitte & Touche an additional $847.00 for other services, including tax compliance and tax consultation, provided to the Company in fiscal year 2001.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by Deloitte & Touche was compatible with maintaining its independence and has determined that the nature and substance of the non-audit services did not impair the status of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent auditors.

APPENDIX A

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Organization

There shall be a committee of the board of directors to be known as the audit committee. The audit committee of the board of directors shall be comprised of at least three directors who are independent of management and the Company. Members of the audit committee shall be considered independent if they have no relationship with the Company that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company as specified in Rule 4200(a)(15) of The NASDAQ Stock Market. All audit committee members will be financially literate and at least one member will have accounting or related financial management expertise. The determination of the independence of a director and his or her qualifications to serve as a member of the audit committee shall be determined by the board of directors in its discretion.

Statement of Policy

The audit committee shall provide assistance to all directors in fulfilling their responsibility to the Stockholders relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the Company, and the quality and integrity of financial reports of the Company. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the audit committee to maintain free and open communication between the directors, the independent auditors, the internal auditors and the financial management of the Company.

Responsibilities

In carrying out its responsibilities, the audit committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and to ensure to the directors and Stockholders that the corporate accounting and reporting practices of the Company are in accordance with all requirements and are of the highest quality.

In carrying out these responsibilities, the audit committee will:

Edgar Filing: STEPHAN CO - Form PRE 14A

Obtain the full board of director's approval of this Charter and review and reassess this Charter as conditions dictate and at least annually.

Review and recommend to the directors the independent auditors to be selected to audit the financial statements of the Company and its divisions and subsidiaries.

Have a clear understanding with the independent auditors that they are ultimately accountable to the board of directors and the audit committee, as the Stockholders' representatives, who have the ultimate authority in deciding to engage, evaluate, and if appropriate, terminate their services.

Review and confirm the independence of the Company's auditors.

Meet with the independent auditors and financial management of the Company to review the scope of the proposed audit for the current year and the procedures to be utilized, the adequacy of the independent auditor's compensation, and at the conclusion thereof review such audit, including any comments or recommendations of the independent auditors.

Review with the independent auditors and financial and accounting personnel the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls of the Company, and elicit any recommendations for the improvement of such internal controls or particular areas where new or more detailed controls or procedures are desirable. Particular emphasis should be given to the adequacy of internal controls to expose any payments, transactions, or procedures that might be deemed illegal or otherwise improper. Further, the committee periodically should review Company policy statements to determine their adherence to the applicable laws and regulations.

Review reports received from regulators and other legal and regulatory matters that may have a material effect on the financial statements or related Company compliance policies.

Inquire of management and the independent auditors about significant risks or exposures and assess the steps management has taken to minimize such risks to the Company.

Review the financial statements and management's discussion and analysis contained in the annual report to Stockholders with management and the independent auditors to determine that the independent auditors are satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the Stockholders. Review with financial management and the independent auditors the results of their timely analysis of significant financial reporting issues and practices, including changes in, or adoptions of, accounting principles and disclosure practices, and discuss any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the auditors. Also review with financial management and the independent auditors their judgements about the quality of accounting principles and the clarity of the financial disclosure practices used or proposed to be used by the Company.

Provide sufficient opportunity for the independent auditors to meet with the members of the audit committee. Among the items to be discussed in these meetings are the independent auditors' evaluation of the Company's financial, accounting and auditing personnel, and the cooperation that the independent auditors received during the course of audit.

Report the results of the annual audit to the board of directors and recommend whether or not the audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K. If requested by the board, invite the independent auditors to attend the full board of directors meeting to assist in reporting the results of the annual audit or to answer other directors' questions.

On an annual basis, obtain from the independent auditors a written communication delineating all their relationships and professional services as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. In addition, review with the independent auditors the nature and scope of any disclosed relationships or professional services and take, or recommend that the board of directors take appropriate action in response to the auditor's report to satisfy itself or the outside auditor's independence.

Submit the minutes of all meetings of the audit committee to, or discuss the matters discussed at each committee meeting with, the board of directors.

Investigate any matter brought to its attention within the scope of its duties, with the power to retain outside counsel for this purpose if, in its judgment, that is appropriate.
