Item 5. Other Events and Required FD Disclosure

Decision to Explore Strategic Alternatives, Retention of Financial Advisor and Settlement Agreement with JANA

As InterCept, Inc. announced in a June 11, 2004 press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, InterCept's board of directors has decided to explore strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value, including a possible sale of the company, and InterCept has retained Jefferies & Company, Inc. as its financial advisor to assist it in doing so. In addition, InterCept has agreed with JANA Partners to settle the proxy contest and pending litigation and to jointly support a panel of director nominees for election at InterCept's 2004 annual meeting. InterCept's settlement

Edgar Filing: INTERCEPT INC - Form 8-K

agreement with JANA Partners is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2.

This Item 5 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the securities laws that are based on current expectations and assumptions. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties, some of which are outside of InterCept's control, that may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include whether InterCept will be able to negotiate and consummate a sale or other strategic transaction. Other risks and factors that may affect InterCept and its share price are discussed in detail in the section in its most recent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q entitled Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.
