CNOOC LIMITED

For Immediate Release

CNOOC Limited and BEH Jointly Made Capital Contributions in Bridas to Increase its Stake in PAE

(Hong Kong, November 28, 2010) CNOOC Limited (the "Company", NYSE: CEO, SEHK: 0883) announced that Bridas Corporation ("Bridas"), a 50/50% joint venture between CNOOC International Limited ("CNOOC International") and Bridas Energy Holdings ("BEH"), entered into a share purchase agreement with BP PLC ("BP") on 28 November 2010, pursuant to which Bridas will acquire 60% equity interest in Pan American Energy ("PAE") from BP for a consideration of around USD7.06 billion. The acquisition excludes PAE's assets in Bolivia.

CNOOC International, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and BEH have agreed to contribute an aggregate amount of about USD4.94 billion to Bridas, to finance 70% of the consideration of the proposed acquisition. The contribution will be made in equal amounts, i.e. approximately USD2.47 billion, by each of CNOOC International and BEH.

The remaining 30% of the consideration, or approximately USD2.12 billion, will be satisfied by third party loans to be arranged by Bridas and/or additional contributions from CNOOC International and BEH.

Completion of the acquisition is conditional on, amongst others, all necessary government and regulatory approvals, and is expected to take place in the first half of 2011.

PAE has oil and gas exploration and production activities mainly in Argentina of South America. Currently, Bridas owns its 40% of interest, and BP owns the remaining 60%. In the last decade, PAE has established itself as the second-largest oil and natural gas producer in Argentina. PAE is also one of the few companies in Argentina to have consistently increased its oil and gas production in recent years.

Based on relevant 2009 statistics and on a proportionate basis, it is expected that, upon completion of the acquisition, the proven reserves and average daily production of the Company will be increased by 429 million barrels of oil equivalent (“BOE”) and 68 thousand BOE respectively.

Chairman of the Company, Mr. Fu Chengyu commented, “We are pleased to strengthen our partnership with BEH, one of the foremost companies in Argentina. The acquisition by Bidas will facilitate the future development of PAE, and in turn, will create more value to both CNOOC Limited and BEH.”

Mr. Yang Hua, the Vice chairman and CEO of CNOOC Limited said: “I believe, after the transaction and with the world-class oil and gas asset portfolio and existing excellent management team of PAE, we’ll be able to enhance our presence in the region, which will benefit us in the short term and long run.”

In the first half of 2010, CNOOC International and BEH have completed the formation of a 50/50% joint venture in Bidas.

Bidas Corporation will remain 50%/50% owned by each of CNOOC International and BEH after the contributions have been made.

On 28 November 2010, the Bidas SPA was entered into between Bidas Corporation and the Sellers for the Proposed Acquisition, pursuant to which Bidas Corporation will acquire the remaining 60% equity interest in PAE from the Sellers for a total consideration of USD7,059,250,000 (equivalent to approximately HKD54,806,605,150). The aggregate amount of USD4,941,475,000 to be contributed by CNOOC International and BEH to Bidas Corporation, which is intended to be used to finance the Proposed Acquisition, will represent 70% of the total consideration payable by Bidas Corporation for the Proposed Acquisition.

The proposed contributions by CNOOC International to provide funds to Bidas Corporation in connection with the Proposed Acquisition constitute a discloseable transaction under Rule 14.06(2) of the Listing Rules as more than one of the applicable size test results calculated in accordance with the Listing Rules exceed 5% with none of which reaches 25%. Therefore, such transaction is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirements under the Listing Rules.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO BRIDAS CORPORATION

The Board is pleased to announce that CNOOC International, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and BEH have agreed to contribute an aggregate amount of USD4,941,475,000 (equivalent to approximately HKD38,364,623,605) to Bridas Corporation, an entity which is 50%/50% owned by each of CNOOC International and BEH as at the date of this announcement. The contribution will be made in equal amounts i.e., approximately USD2,470,737,500 (equivalent to approximately HKD19,182,311,803) by each of CNOOC International and BEH after the signing of the Bridas SPA on 28 November 2010, which will ultimately be made by way of a subscription for shares in Bridas Corporation. Bridas Corporation will remain 50%/50% owned by each of CNOOC International and BEH after the contributions have been made.

CONTRIBUTIONS SCHEDULE

The amount of USD2,470,737,500 will be paid by CNOOC International to Bridas Corporation in cash. The contributions by CNOOC International will be funded by the internal resources of the Company. An amount of USD705,925,000 (equivalent to approximately HKD5,480,660,515) of such contributions will be provided by CNOOC International to Bridas Corporation within 5 days from the signing date of the Bridas SPA. A further amount of USD1,058,887,500 (equivalent to approximately HKD8,220,990,773) will be provided to Bridas Corporation within 30 days after the signing date of the Bridas SPA and the remaining amount of USD705,925,000 will be provided before completion of the Proposed Acquisition.

REASONS FOR MAKING THE CONTRIBUTIONS AND THE PROPOSED ACQUISITION BY BRIDAS CORPORATION

As at the date of this announcement, Bridas Corporation together with BIL, its subsidiary, own a 40% equity interest in PAE and the remaining 60% equity interest is owned by the Sellers. On 28 November 2010, the Bridas SPA was entered into between Bridas Corporation and the Sellers for the Proposed Acquisition, pursuant to which Bridas Corporation will acquire the remaining 60% equity interest in PAE from the Sellers. The total consideration payable by Bridas Corporation for the Proposed Acquisition is USD7,059,250,000 (equivalent to approximately HKD54,806,605,150). Such consideration was determined after arms' length negotiations between the parties, after taking into account the results of legal, financial and technical due diligence against PAE and having regard to factors including PAE's production prospects and other similar transactions in Latin American region.

The aggregate amount of USD4,941,475,000 to be contributed by CNOOC International and BEH to Bridas Corporation, which is intended to be used to finance the Proposed Acquisition, will represent 70% of the total consideration payable by Bridas Corporation for the Proposed Acquisition. It is proposed that the remaining 30% of the consideration payable by Bridas Corporation for the Proposed Acquisition, or USD2,117,775,000 (equivalent to approximately HKD16,441,981,545), will be satisfied by third party loans to be arranged by Bridas Corporation and/or additional contributions from CNOOC International and BEH on an equal basis. The consideration for the Proposed Acquisition and the payments of the consideration by way of cash and third party loans have been determined after arms' length negotiations after taking into account the financial conditions the Company and BEH and having regard to factors including other possible financial resources available to Bridas Corporation in satisfying its payment obligations in connection with the Proposed Acquisition.

Completion of the Proposed Acquisition is subject to certain terms and conditions, including, among other things, all necessary governmental and regulatory approvals, permissions and consents in connection with the Proposed Acquisition having been obtained. The Proposed Acquisition excludes the shares of PAE E&P Bolivia Ltd.

PAE has a world-class oil and gas asset portfolio with significant growth potential through future explorations. The Proposed Acquisition is expected to significantly enlarge the Company's share of PAE's oil and gas asset portfolio in Latin America. Based on the final figures for 2009, PAE (excluding PAE E&P Bolivia Ltd.) had proven reserves of 1,430 million boe and an average daily production of 227 thousands boe. On a proportionate basis, it is expected that, upon completion of the Proposed Acquisition, the proven reserves and average daily production of the Company will be increased by 429 million boe and 68 thousand boe respectively.

Having considered the aforementioned factors, the Directors consider that the proportional contribution by CNOOC International to Bridas Corporation to facilitate the Proposed Acquisition is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole, and the terms of the proportional contributions by CNOOC International and BEH to Bridas Corporation are fair and reasonable.
