solicit personally and by telephone. The Company's employees will receive no compensation for soliciting proxies other than their regular salaries. The Company may request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward copies of the proxy material to their principals and to request authority for the execution of proxies. The Company may reimburse such persons for their expenses in so doing.

VOTING

If a proxy in the accompanying form is duly executed and returned, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted as directed. If no direction is given, the shares represented by the Proxy will be voted for the election of the seven nominees named herein as directors, to approve the amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to change the Company's name to 'Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc.' and to ratify the appointment of Demetrius & Company, LLC as the Company's independent auditors for 2005. Any proxy given may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by notifying the Secretary of the Company in writing of such revocation, by duly executing and delivering another proxy bearing a later date, or by attending and voting in person at the meeting.

The Board does not know of any other matters that may be brought before the Annual Meeting nor does it foresee or have reason to believe that proxy holders will have to vote for substitute or alternate director nominees. The presence in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock shall constitute a quorum. There is no cumulative voting. Assuming the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting:

Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast;

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding as of July 17, 2005 is necessary to approve the amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to change the Company's name to 'Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc.'

Prior to the Annual meeting, we will select one or more inspectors of election for the meeting. Such inspector will canvas the shareholders present in person at the meeting, count their votes and count the votes represented by proxies presented. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for purposes of determining the number of shares represented at the meeting, but are deemed not to have voted on the proposal. Broker non-votes occur when a broker holding a customer's securities in street name does not vote on one or more other matters at the meeting because it has not received voting instructions to so vote from the beneficial owner and does not have discretionary authority to so vote.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE OUR NAME TO HENRY BROS. ELECTRONICS, INC.

The Board of Directors is recommending that the shareholders approve an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to change the Company's name to Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc. The Company's roots go back to 1950 when

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form PRE 14A

John, Ray and Hartford Henry founded Henry Bros. Electronics. Today, Henry Bros. Electronics is the name of each of the Company's New Jersey, California and Arizona subsidiaries. In addition, the Company's New Jersey subsidiary operates in Texas under the name Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc. The Company's Board of Directors believes that changing the Company's name will enable it to more efficiently promote itself and its subsidiaries and allow it to capitalize on the Henry Bros. Electronics name recognition. If the amendment is approved by the Company's stockholders, the Company will, as soon as practicable, file an amendment to its Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of Delaware promptly after the Meeting. The proposed amendment is set forth in Exhibit 'A.' As a result of the Company's changing its name, stockholders will not have to exchange their shares. Rather, as the Company issues new stock certificates, the certificates will reflect the Company's new name. After the certificate of amendment has been filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware, the Company's common stock will trade, on the American Stock Exchange, under the symbol 'HBE.'

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, requires our directors and officers, and persons who own more than 10% of our Common Stock, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of beneficial ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership of our Common Stock and other equity securities. Our officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To our knowledge, for the year ended December 31, 2004, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our directors, officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners have been timely filed except that Joseph Ritorto and Douglas Beck (our former Chief Financial Officer) did not timely file a Form Four, but these forms have since been filed.

CODE OF CONDUCT AND CODE OF ETHICS

We have adopted a Code of Conduct and a Code of Ethics for senior financial officers. The codes are available in print to any stockholder upon written request to: Diversified Security Solutions, Inc., 280 Midland Avenue, Saddle Brook, New Jersey 07663, Attention: Secretary.
