Dutch corporation, Sumitomo Metal Mining Co., Ltd., a Japanese corporation ("SMM"), Compania de Minas Buenaventura S.A.A., a Peruvian sociedad anonima abierta ("BVN") and Sociedad Minera Cerro Verde S.A.A., a Peruvian sociedad anonima abierta ("Cerro Verde").

Pursuant to the Participation Agreement, a joint venture of SMM and SC - known collectively as "Sumitomo" - agreed to acquire an equity position of between 21 percent and 24.99 percent in Cerro Verde and BVN agreed to increase its ownership position from approximately 9.2 percent to as much as 20.1 percent. The agreement formalizes a previously announced agreement in principle among the Company, BVN and Sumitomo. The Company will maintain a majority interest in Cerro Verde. Final ownership percentages are dependent upon the decisions of the minority shareholders, who own shares of Cerro Verde that are publicly traded on the Lima Stock Exchange, and are entitled to participate in the equity offering. The transaction will be accomplished through a general capital increase process by Cerro Verde and is subject to customary closing conditions.

The new capital to be invested by Sumitomo, Buenaventura and the other shareholders will total approximately $440 million. It will be used as partial financing for an $850 million expansion project to enable Cerro Verde to mine a primary sulfide ore body beneath the oxide ore body currently in production at Cerro Verde. The rest of the financing for the project is expected to come from project debt and cash flows from the existing operations. Pursuant to the Participation Agreement, the Company, Sumitomo and BVN agreed to provide, on a certain pro rata basis, a several portion of the completion guaranty that the senior lenders of such project debt are expected to require.

Under the Participation Agreement, subject to certain conditions the Company agreed to indemnify Sumitomo for breach of certain representations and warranties in an aggregate amount not to exceed 50 percent of the approximately $265.2 million to $315.6 million subscription price to be paid by Sumitomo.

The Company also issued a guaranty of the obligation of Cerro Verde to return to Sumitomo its full subscription price if the final closing conditions to the equity offering are not satisfied or waived.
