Press Release

Vale on negotiations with iron ore clients

Rio de Janeiro, September 9, 2008 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (Vale), in compliance with a determination of Brazil's Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), informs that it is negotiating with Asian clients the convergence of reference prices for iron ore to the same level of those charged to European clients. Currently, reference prices for Asian clients are 11.0% to 11.5% lower than prices for Europe, depending on the type of iron ore.

Vale highlights that this negotiation is not concluded and there is no guarantee that it will be successfully concluded. If the price convergence is implemented, it will imply in an estimated revenue increase smaller than 3.0% of Vale's total revenue for the twelve-month period ended at June 30, 2008, of US$ 35.5 billion.

This press release may include declarations that present Vale's expectations in relation to future events or results. All declarations, when based upon future expectations and not on historical facts involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such declarations will come to be correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) countries where we operate, mainly Brazil and Canada; (b) global economy; (c) capital markets; (d) iron ore and nickel businesses and their dependence upon the global steel industry, which is cyclical by nature; (e) high degree of global competition in the markets which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may give origin to results different from those forecasted by Vale, please consult the reports filed with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM), the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the most recent Annual Report Vale Form 20F and 6K forms.
