Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Purchase Agreement

On September 9, 2008, Mylan Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (the Company), entered into a Purchase Agreement (the Cash Convertible Notes Purchase Agreement) with Merrill Lynch & Co. and Goldman, Sachs & Co., as representatives of the several initial purchasers named therein, relating to the sale by the Company of up to $575 million aggregate principal amount of the Company's 3.75% Cash Convertible Notes due 2015 (the Notes). A copy of the Cash Convertible Notes Purchase Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.1.

The Notes were sold through the initial purchasers to qualified institutional buyers, as defined in, and in reliance on, Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Indenture

The Notes are governed by the terms of an indenture dated as of September 15, 2008 (the Indenture), among the Company, the subsidiaries of the Company named therein acting as guarantors and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee. A copy of the Indenture is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1. The Indenture includes a form of Note. The Notes are guaranteed by each of the Company's domestic subsidiaries that currently guarantees the Company's senior secured credit facilities.

The Notes have an aggregate principal amount of $575 million and bear interest at a rate of 3.75% per year, accruing from September 15, 2008. The notes are convertible under certain circumstances into cash. The notes are not convertible into shares of Mylan common stock or any other securities. Interest is payable semiannually in arrears on March 15 and September 15 of each year, beginning March 15, 2009. The Notes will mature on September 15, 2015, subject to earlier repurchase or cash conversion. The Notes have an initial conversion reference rate of 75.0751 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount (equivalent to an initial conversion reference price of approximately $13.32 per share), subject to adjustment. Upon the occurrence of certain fundamental changes (such as changes of control of the Company or the cessation of trading of the Company's common stock), the holders of the Notes have the option to require the Company to repurchase the Notes. Additionally, the Company's obligation to repay the Notes can be accelerated following the occurrence of certain events of default under the Indenture.

Cash Convertible Note Hedge and Warrant Transactions

Table of Contents

On September 9, 2008, concurrently with the sale of the Notes, the Company entered into cash convertible note hedge transactions, comprised of purchased cash-settled call options (the Confirmation of OTC Convertible Note Hedge Transaction) and warrant transactions (the Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction and together with the Confirmation of OTC Convertible Note Hedge Transaction, the Confirmations) with each of Merrill Lynch International, an affiliate of Merrill Lynch & Co., and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, each of which we refer to as a counterparty. On September 15, 2008, the Company entered into an amendment (each, an Amendment) to the Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction with each of Merrill Lynch International and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association. The net cost to the Company of these transactions was approximately $98.6 million.

The Confirmation of OTC Convertible Note Hedge Transaction provides for purchased cash-settled call options that have an exercise price equal to the conversion price of the notes and will cover approximately 43.2 million shares of the Company's common stock, subject to anti-dilution adjustments substantially similar to the anti-dilution adjustments for the Notes. The Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction provides for the purchase by the counterparties of approximately 43.2 million shares of the Company's common stock, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments. The warrants may not be exercised prior to the maturity of the Notes. These transactions are generally expected to have the economic effect on the Company of increasing the conversion reference price of the notes to approximately $20.00 per share.

If the market price per share of the Company's common stock at the time of cash conversion of any Notes is above the strike price of the purchased call options, the purchased call options will, in most cases, entitle the Company to receive from the counterparties in the aggregate the same amount of cash as it would be required to issue to the holder of the cash converted Notes in excess of the principal amount thereof. Additionally, if the market price of the Company's common stock at the time of exercise of the sold warrants exceeds the strike price of the sold warrants, the Company will owe the counterparties shares of its common stock.

A copy of the Confirmation of OTC Convertible Note Hedge Transaction with each of Merrill Lynch International and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2, respectively. A copy of the Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction with each of Merrill Lynch International and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and 10.4, respectively. A copy of the Amendment to the Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction with each of Merrill Lynch International and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.5 and 10.6, respectively.

Amendment to 2007 Additional Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction

On September 9, 2008, the Company entered into an amendment to each of the Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction (the Confirmation Amendment) and the Additional Confirmation of OTC Warrant Transaction (the Additional Confirmation Amendment), each dated as of March 2, 2007, between the Company, Merrill Lynch International and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, as agent, pursuant to which the maximum number of shares of common stock of the Company that could possibly be delivered upon settlement of the warrants under such agreements was reduced. Copies of the Warrant Amendment and the Additional Warrant Amendment are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.7 and 10.8, respectively.

Table of Contents

Calculation Agent Agreement

In connection and concurrently with the execution of the Confirmations, the Company entered into a Calculation Agent Agreement (the Calculation Agent Agreement) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and Goldman Sachs International, pursuant to which Goldman Sachs International was appointed as calculation agent with respect to the Confirmations entered into with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association. A copy of the Calculation Agent Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.9.

The summary of each of the above described documents is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the related agreements, which are included as exhibits hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.
