Supplemental cash flow information

At March 26, 2011 and January 1, 2011, accounts payable included approximately $0.1 million and $18.3 million, respectively, for capital expenditures. Of the $18.3 million of capital expenditures included in accounts payable at January 1, 2011, approximately $9.4 million had been paid during the quarter ended March 26, 2011. Approximately $3.5 million had been paid during the quarter ended March 27, 2010 related to $6.1 million of capital additions included in accounts payable at January 2, 2010.

During the first quarter of 2011, Dole effectively extinguished its cross currency swap liability by entering into a series of Japanese yen forward contracts (long-term Japanese yen hedges) that mature over a four year period. Refer to Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments for additional information.

Table of ContentsDOLE FOOD COMPANY, INC.*NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)*NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Dole Food Company, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries (Dole or the Company) include all adjustments necessary, which are of a normal recurring nature, to present fairly Dole's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. Dole operates under a 52/53-week year. The quarters ended March 26, 2011 and March 27, 2010 are twelve weeks in duration. For a summary of significant accounting policies and additional information relating to Dole's financial statements, refer to the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in Item 8 of Dole's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 1, 2011.

Interim results are subject to seasonal variations and are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for a full year. Dole's operations are sensitive to a number of factors including weather-related phenomena and their effects on industry volumes, prices, product quality and costs. Operations are also sensitive to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates in both sourcing and selling locations as well as economic crises and security risks.

In March 2003, Dole completed a going-private merger transaction. As a result of the transaction, Dole became wholly-owned by David H. Murdock, Dole's Chairman. On October 28, 2009, Dole completed a $446 million initial public offering (IPO) of 35,715,000 common shares at $12.50 per share. On October 23, 2009, Dole's common stock began trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol DOLE. Since the completion of the IPO, Dole's chairman, David H. Murdock, and his affiliates have beneficially owned approximately 51,710,000 common shares, or 58.4% of Dole's outstanding common shares.

NOTE 2 OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE), NET

Included in other income (expense), net in Dole's condensed consolidated statements of operations for the quarters ended March 26, 2011 and March 27, 2010 are the following items:

	Quarter Ended

Write-off of debt issuance costs		(4,650)
Other	16	6
Other income (expense), net	$ (39,351)	$ 4,607

Refer to Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments for further discussion regarding Dole's cross currency swap and long-term Japanese yen hedges.

NOTE 3 INCOME TAXES

Dole recorded $5.1 million of income tax expense on $5.8 million of pretax income from continuing operations for the quarter ended March 26, 2011. Income tax expense included interest expense of $0.6 million related to Dole's unrecognized tax benefits. Income tax expense of $3.2 million on $24.1 million of pretax income from continuing operations was recorded for the quarter ended March 27, 2010 which included an interest benefit of

(Unaudited)

$0.7 million related to Dole's unrecognized tax benefits. Dole's effective tax rate varies significantly from period to period due to the level, mix and seasonality of earnings generated in its various U.S. and foreign jurisdictions.

Dole is required to adjust its effective tax rate for each quarter to be consistent with the estimated annual effective tax rate. Jurisdictions with a projected loss where no tax benefit can be recognized are excluded from the calculation of the estimated annual effective tax rate. This could result in a higher or lower effective tax rate during a particular quarter, based upon the mix and timing of actual earnings versus annual projections.

For the quarter ended March 26, 2011, Dole's income tax provision differs from the U.S. federal statutory rate applied to Dole's pretax income primarily due to losses in certain jurisdictions for which it is more likely than not that a tax benefit will not be realized. For the quarter ended March 27, 2010, Dole's income tax provision differs from the U.S. federal statutory rate applied to Dole's pretax income primarily due to operations in foreign jurisdictions that are taxed at a rate lower than the U.S. federal statutory rate.

As a result of a favorable court ruling during the second quarter of 2011 relating to a non-U.S. unrecognized tax benefit, Dole expects its income tax provision in the second quarter of 2011 to be reduced by approximately $9 million, including tax and interest.

Dole recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to its unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income taxes in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of operations. Accrued interest and penalties before tax benefits were $26 million and $25.3 million at March 26, 2011 and January 1, 2011, respectively, and are included as a component of other long-term liabilities in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Dole Food Company, Inc. or one or more of its subsidiaries file income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, and various state and foreign jurisdictions. With few exceptions, Dole is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local, or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years prior to 2001.

Income Tax Audits: Dole believes its tax positions comply with the applicable tax laws and that it has adequately provided for all tax related matters. Matters raised upon audit may involve substantial amounts and could result in material cash payments if resolved unfavorably. Management considers it unlikely that the resolution of these matters will have a material adverse effect on Dole's results of operations.

Internal Revenue Service Audit: On August 27, 2009, the IRS completed its examination of Dole's U.S. federal income tax returns for the years 2002-2005 and issued a Revenue Agent's report (RAR) that includes various proposed adjustments, including with respect to the 2003 going-private merger transactions. The IRS is proposing that certain funding used in the going-private merger is taxable and that some related investment banking fees are not deductible. The net tax deficiency associated with the RAR is $122 million, plus interest. The Worker, Homeownership, and Business Assistance Act of 2009 signed into law on November 6, 2009, allows companies to carry back net operating losses for up to five years for losses incurred in taxable years beginning or ending in either 2008 or 2009. Dole estimates that this new law effectively reduces the amount of the IRS claim from $122 million to $91 million. On October 27, 2009, Dole filed a protest letter vigorously challenging the proposed adjustments contained in the RAR and is pursuing resolution of these issues with the Appeals Division of the IRS. Dole believes, based in part upon the advice of its tax advisors, that its tax treatment of such transactions was appropriate. Although the timing and ultimate resolution of any issues arising from the IRS examination are uncertain and are subject to settlement on mutually agreeable terms at any time, at this time Dole believes it is reasonably possible that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits could decrease by approximately $10 million to $40 million within the next twelve months, of which a portion may result in a cash payment.

(Unaudited)*NOTE 4 LONG-TERM RECEIVABLES

At March 26, 2011, Dole's long-term financing receivables consisted of $15.5 million net grower advances, a $8.3 million note receivable related to the sale of discontinued operations and net long-term trade receivables of $3.3 million. These assets have been included in other assets, in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 26, 2011.

Dole's grower advances are generally secured by the underlying assets of the grower, and Dole monitors the collectability of these advances through periodic review of financial information received from these growers. At March 26, 2011, approximately $6.9 million of these advances were 90 days past due and the allowance for credit losses was $12.1 million. Dole's historical losses on its long-term grower advances have been immaterial. During the first quarter of 2011, the provision for grower advances increased by $1.3 million, of which $0.4 million was recorded to cost of products sold, and the remaining $0.9 million related to reclassifications.

At March 26, 2011, Dole has a $8.3 million note receivable from the buyer of the operating assets of the fresh-cut flowers business. The note receivable is secured by land and buildings. Dole is currently renegotiating with the buyer the terms of the note, including the timing of payment and the interest rate. The note receivable is classified as long-term at March 26, 2011.

Dole has long-term trade receivables of $19.1 million due from an Eastern European customer, for which it is likely that payment will not be received during the next year. During fiscal 2010 and 2009, Dole recorded provisions for bad debt of $11.4 million and $4.4 million, respectively. Of the $11.4 million, $0.6 million was recorded in the first quarter of 2010. The net receivable of $3.3 million represents management's best estimate of its net realizable value after consideration of collateral securing the receivable.

NOTE 5 INVENTORIES

The major classes of inventories were as follows:

	March 26, 2011	January 1, 2011
	(In thousands)
Finished products	$ 400,335	$ 362,799

Operating supplies and other	62,147	57,935
	$ 793,032	$ 734,966

NOTE 6 CHARGES FOR RESTRUCTURING

As a result of continued challenging market conditions in Dole's fresh fruit operations, Dole committed to a restructuring plan during the third quarter of 2010 in its fresh fruit segment in Europe, Latin America and Asia. These restructuring efforts are designed to reduce costs by realigning fruit supply with expected demand. As part of these initiatives, Dole restructured certain farming operations in Latin America and Asia, reorganized its European operations and rationalized vessel charters. As a result of these various initiatives, beginning in fiscal 2011 Dole expects to realize cash savings in its fresh fruit segment. These savings are expected to result from lower production costs including lower labor costs on our farms and in our ports, enhanced farm productivity, lower distribution costs resulting from more efficient utilization of our shipping fleet, and lower selling and general and administrative costs as a result of streamlining its organization in Europe.

During the first quarter of 2011, Dole incurred costs of $2.8 million bringing the cumulative incurred restructuring costs since the third quarter of 2010 to $24.1 million. Of these costs, $13.1 million were paid or will be paid in cash, with the remaining amounts related to the non-cash write-down of long-lived assets and deferred crop-growing costs of $5.1 million as well as pension-related settlement charges of $5.9 million. Severance charges relating to employee terminations involved approximately 2,300 employees.

Dole expects to continue restructuring its fresh fruit operations beyond the first quarter of 2011. Related to these efforts, Dole expects to incur additional restructuring charges of approximately $8 million during the remainder of fiscal 2011 and $0.3 million in fiscal 2012. These additional charges will primarily consist of employee severance, contract termination and pension-related settlement costs. Approximately 1,400 additional employees are expected to be impacted by these initiatives.

Restructuring charges recorded during the first quarter of 2011, cumulative charges recorded since the third quarter of 2010, additional charges to be incurred and total charges to be incurred are as follows:

	Charges Incurred in First Quarter 2011	Cumulative Charges Incurred	Additional Charges to be Incurred	Total Charges to be Incurred
	(In thousands)
Severance and other employee-related costs	$ 422	$ 7,090	$ 2,266	$ 9,356

Asset write-downs	360	5,129		5,129
Total	$ 2,755	$ 24,099	$ 8,294	$ 32,393

A rollforward of activity for Dole's restructuring liabilities, which are classified in accrued liabilities in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets, is summarized as follows:

NOTE 7 GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Goodwill has been allocated to Dole's reporting segments as follows:

Notes Payable

Dole borrows funds primarily on a short-term basis to finance current operations. The terms of these borrowings range from one month to three months. Dole's notes payable at March 26, 2011 consist primarily of foreign borrowings in Asia and Latin America.

Term Loans and Revolving Credit Facility

As of March 26, 2011, the term loan facilities consisted of $238.2 million of Term Loan B and $591.6 million of Term Loan C. The term loan facilities bear interest, at Dole's option, at a rate per annum equal to either (i) the London Interbank Offer Rate (LIBOR) plus 3.25%, with a LIBOR floor of 1.75%; or (ii) a base rate plus 2.25%. Interest on the term loan facilities is payable quarterly in arrears. The weighted average variable interest rate at March 26, 2011 for Term Loan B and Term Loan C was 5.17%. The term loan facilities require quarterly principal payments, plus a balloon payment due in 2017. Dole has an interest rate swap to hedge future changes in interest rates on Term Loan C through June 2011. Refer to Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments for additional information related to this instrument.

As of March 26, 2011, the asset-based lending senior secured revolving credit facility (ABL revolver) borrowing base was $290.2 million. There were no borrowings under the ABL revolver at March 26, 2011. Amounts outstanding under the ABL revolver bear interest, at Dole's option, at a rate per annum equal to either (i) LIBOR plus 3.00% to 3.50%, or (ii) a base rate plus 2.00% to 2.50%, in each case, based upon Dole's historical borrowing availability under this facility. The ABL revolver matures in March 2014. After taking into account approximately $141 million of outstanding letters of credit issued under the ABL revolver, Dole had approximately $149.2 million available for borrowings as of March 26, 2011. Of the $141 million of outstanding letters of credit, $60 million was issued in connection with Dole's collateral arrangement for its cross currency and interest rate swaps. Due to the unwind of the cross currency swap agreement, the collateral arrangement is no longer required and the related $60 million of letters of credit were canceled during the second quarter of 2011. Refer to Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments for additional information.

Covenants

Provisions under the senior secured credit facilities and the indentures governing Dole's senior notes and debentures require Dole to comply with certain covenants. These covenants include limitations on, among other things, indebtedness, investments, liens, loans to subsidiaries, employees and third parties, the issuance of guarantees and the payment of dividends. The ABL revolver also contains a springing covenant, which would not be effective unless the availability under the ABL revolver were to fall below the greater of $37.5 million and 12.5% of the Total Commitment (as defined) for any three consecutive business days. To date, the springing covenant has never been effective and Dole does not currently anticipate that the springing covenant will become effective.

In addition, as a result of the March 2, 2010 amendments of Dole's senior secured credit facilities, Dole is subject to a maximum total leverage ratio and a minimum interest coverage ratio. At March 26, 2011, Dole's total leverage ratio was 3.92x and interest coverage ratio was 2.71x as compared with the required maximum total leverage ratio of 4.75x and the minimum interest coverage ratio of 1.75x.

A breach of a covenant or other provision in any debt instrument governing Dole's current or future indebtedness could result in a default under that instrument and, due to customary cross-default and cross-acceleration provisions, could result in a default under Dole's other debt instruments. Upon the occurrence of an event of default under the senior secured credit facilities or other debt instrument, the lenders or holders of such other debt instruments could elect to declare all amounts outstanding to be immediately due and payable and terminate all commitments to extend further credit. If Dole were unable to repay those amounts, the lenders could proceed against the collateral granted to them, if any, to secure the indebtedness. If the lenders under Dole's indebtedness were to accelerate the payment of the indebtedness, Dole cannot give assurance that its assets would be sufficiently liquid to repay in full its outstanding indebtedness on an accelerated basis.

Debt Discounts and Debt Issuance Costs

In connection with the March 2, 2010 amendments of the senior secured credit facilities, Dole incurred debt issuance costs of $17 million. Debt issuance costs are capitalized and amortized into interest expense over the term of the underlying debt. During the quarters ended March 26, 2011 and March 27, 2010, Dole amortized deferred debt issuance costs of $1.5 million and $1.2 million, respectively.

Dole wrote off approximately $4.6 million of deferred debt issuance costs during the quarter ended March 27, 2010 resulting from the amendments of the senior secured credit facilities as well as the refinancing of the term loan facilities in connection with the amendments. The refinancing of the term loans and a portion of the ABL revolver, as a result of the amendments, was accounted for as extinguishment of debt. The write-off related to these amendments was recorded in other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations for the quarter ended March 27, 2010.

Debt discounts on term loan facilities in connection with the 2010 amendments of the senior secured credit facilities totaled $8.5 million. Debt discounts are amortized into interest expense over the term of the underlying debt. During the quarter ended March 26, 2011, Dole amortized debt discounts of $1.1 million. During the quarter ended March 27, 2010, Dole amortized debt discounts of $0.9 million.

NOTE 10 SEGMENT INFORMATION

Dole has three reportable operating segments: fresh fruit, fresh vegetables and packaged foods. These reportable segments are managed separately due to differences in their products, production processes, distribution channels and customer bases.

Management evaluates and monitors segment performance primarily through, among other measures, earnings before interest expense and income taxes (EBIT). EBIT is calculated by subtracting income from discontinued operations, net of income taxes, from net income, by adding interest expense and by adding income tax expense to net income. Management believes that segment EBIT provides useful information for analyzing the underlying business results as well as allowing investors a means to evaluate the financial results of each segment in relation to Dole as a whole. EBIT is not defined under U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (U.S. GAAP) and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net income or cash flow measures prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP or as a measure of Dole's profitability. Additionally, Dole's computation of EBIT may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures computed by other companies, because not all companies calculate EBIT in the same manner.

Revenues from external customers and EBIT for the reportable operating segments and corporate were as follows:

NOTE 11 CONTINGENCIES

Dole is a guarantor of indebtedness of some of its key fruit suppliers and other entities integral to Dole's operations. At March 26, 2011, guarantees of $2.2 million consisted primarily of amounts advanced under third-party bank agreements to independent growers that supply Dole with product. In addition, Dole had cash on deposit at March 26, 2011 of $11 million securing the indebtedness of a fruit supplier. Dole has not historically experienced any significant losses associated with these guarantees.

Dole issues letters of credit and bank guarantees through its ABL revolver and, in addition, separately through major banking institutions. Dole also provides bonds issued by insurance companies. These letters of credit, bank guarantees and insurance company bonds are required by certain regulatory authorities, suppliers and other operating agreements. As of March 26, 2011, total letters of credit, bank guarantees and bonds outstanding under these arrangements were $238.6 million, of which $60 million was issued in connection with Dole's collateral arrangement for its cross currency and interest rate swaps. As a result of the unwind of the cross currency swap agreement, the collateral arrangement is no longer required and the related $60 million of letters of credit were canceled during the second quarter of 2011. Refer to Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments for additional information.

Dole also provides various guarantees, mostly to foreign banks, in the course of its normal business operations to support the borrowings, leases and other obligations of its subsidiaries. Dole guaranteed $243.7 million of its subsidiaries' obligations to their suppliers and other third parties as of March 26, 2011.

Dole has change of control agreements with certain key executives, under which severance payments and benefits would become payable in the event of specified terminations of employment in connection with a change of control (as defined) of Dole.

Dole is involved from time to time in claims and legal actions incidental to its operations, both as plaintiff and defendant. Dole has established what management currently believes to be adequate reserves for pending legal matters. These reserves are established as part of an ongoing worldwide assessment of claims and legal actions that takes into consideration such items as changes in the pending case load (including resolved and new matters), opinions of legal counsel, individual developments in court proceedings, changes in the law, changes in business focus, changes in the litigation environment, changes in opponent strategy and tactics, new developments as a result of ongoing discovery, and past experience in defending and settling similar claims. In the opinion of management, after consultation with outside counsel, the claims or actions to which Dole is a party are not expected to have a material adverse effect, individually or in the aggregate, on Dole's financial position or results of operations.

DBCP Cases: A significant portion of Dole's legal exposure relates to lawsuits pending in the United States and in several foreign countries, alleging injury as a result of exposure to the agricultural chemical DBCP (1,2-dibromo-3-chloropropane). DBCP was manufactured by several chemical companies including entities of The Dow Chemical Company and Royal Dutch Shell plc and registered by the U.S. government for use on food crops. Dole and other growers applied DBCP on banana farms in Latin America and the Philippines and on pineapple farms in Hawaii. Specific periods of use varied among the different locations. Dole halted all purchases of DBCP, including for use in foreign countries, when the U.S. EPA cancelled the registration of DBCP for use in the United States in 1979. That cancellation was based in part on a 1977 study by a manufacturer which indicated an apparent link between male sterility and exposure to DBCP among factory workers producing the product, as well as early product testing done by the manufacturers showing testicular effects on animals exposed to DBCP. To date, there is no reliable evidence demonstrating that field application of DBCP led to sterility among farm workers, although that claim is made in the pending lawsuits. Nor is there any reliable scientific evidence that DBCP causes any other injuries in humans, although plaintiffs in the various actions assert claims based on cancer, birth defects and other general illnesses.

Currently there are 228 lawsuits, in various stages of proceedings, alleging injury as a result of exposure to DBCP or seeking enforcement of Nicaragua judgments. In addition, there are 11 labor cases pending in Costa Rica under that country's national insurance program.

Twenty-one of the 228 lawsuits are currently pending in various jurisdictions in the United States. One case in Los Angeles Superior Court, the last remaining lawsuit brought in the United States by Nicaraguan plaintiffs, was dismissed after the Court found that the plaintiffs and their representatives engaged in blatant fraud, witness tampering, and active manipulation. In dismissing this lawsuit, the Court vacated an earlier $1.58 million judgment against Dole in favor of four of the plaintiffs. This result was the culmination of hearings conducted by the Court in response to a July 7, 2009 order issued to plaintiffs by the California Second District Court of Appeal directing them to show cause why the $1.58 million judgment should not be vacated and judgment be entered in Dole's favor on the grounds that the judgment was procured through fraud. After hearings held on May 10 and 11, and July 7-9 and 12, 2010, the Court issued an oral ruling, finding that the judgment had been procured through fraud on both Dole and the Court, and ordered it vacated. On March 11, 2011, the Court issued a final Statement of Decision, followed on March 31, 2011 by a Judgment, that vacates the prior judgment and dismisses all plaintiffs' claims with prejudice. Another case pending in Los Angeles Superior Court involving 549 Costa Rican plaintiffs is currently in discovery proceedings. Pursuant to a case management order, the initial phase of discovery requires that all plaintiffs travel to the U.S. for preliminary medical testing.

The remaining lawsuits are pending in Latin America and the Philippines. Claimed damages in DBCP cases worldwide total approximately $45 billion, with lawsuits in Nicaragua representing approximately 87% of this amount. Typically, in these cases Dole is a joint defendant with the major DBCP manufacturers. Except as described below, none of these lawsuits has resulted in a verdict or judgment against Dole.

In Nicaragua, 195 cases are currently filed (of which 33 are active) in various courts throughout the country, all but two of which were brought pursuant to Law 364, an October 2000 Nicaraguan statute that contains substantive and procedural provisions that Nicaragua's Attorney General formally opined are unconstitutional. In October 2003, the Supreme Court of Nicaragua issued an advisory opinion, not connected with any litigation, that Law 364 is constitutional. Thirty-two cases have resulted in judgments in Nicaragua: $489.4 million (nine cases consolidated with 465 claimants) on December 11, 2002; $82.9 million (one case with 58 claimants) on February 25, 2004; $15.7 million (one case with 20 claimants) on May 25, 2004; $4 million (one case with four claimants) on May 25, 2004; $56.5 million (one case with 72 claimants) on June 14, 2004; $64.8 million (one case with 85 claimants) on June 15, 2004; $27.7 million (one case with 36 claimants) on March 17, 2005; $98.5 million (one case with 150 claimants) on August 8, 2005; $46.4 million (one case with 62 claimants) on August 20, 2005; $809 million (six cases consolidated with 1,248 claimants) on December 1, 2006; $38.4 million (one case with 192 claimants) on

(Unaudited)

November 14, 2007; and $357.7 million (eight cases with 417 claimants) on January 12, 2009, which Dole learned of unofficially. Except for the latest one, Dole has appealed all judgments, with Dole's appeal of the August 8, 2005 $98.5 million judgment currently pending before the Nicaragua Court of Appeal. Dole will appeal the $357.7 million judgment once it has been served. On August 5, 2010, the Nicaragua Court of Appeal issued a ruling upholding the December 1, 2006 $809 million judgment. Dole has appealed that ruling to the Nicaragua Supreme Court.

In all but one of the active cases where the proceeding has reached the appropriate stage, Dole has sought to have the cases returned to the United States. In all of the cases where Dole's request to return the case to the United States has been ruled upon, the courts have denied Dole's request and Dole has appealed those decisions.

On November 10, 2009, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida issued final judgment in favor of Dole denying recognition and enforcement of the $98.5 million Nicaragua judgment against Dole and another U.S. company. The Court cited separate and independent grounds for non-recognition: the Nicaragua trial court did not have jurisdiction over the defendant companies; the judgment did not arise out of proceedings that comported with the international concept of due process; the judgment was rendered under a system which does not provide an impartial tribunal or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law; and the cause of action or claim for relief on which the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of Florida. On March 10, 2010, Plaintiffs filed an appeal before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. On March 25, 2011, the Eleventh Circuit affirmed the district court's judgment, agreeing that the Nicaraguan judgment is not due recognition and enforcement.

Dole believes that none of the Nicaraguan judgments will be enforceable against any Dole entity in the U.S. or in any other country, because Nicaragua's Law 364 is unconstitutional and violates international principles of due process. Among other things, Law 364 is an improper special law directed at particular parties; it requires defendants to pay large, non-refundable deposits in order to even participate in the litigation; it provides a severely truncated procedural process; it establishes an irrebuttable presumption of causation that is contrary to the evidence and scientific data; and it sets unreasonable minimum damages that must be awarded in every case.

On October 23, 2006, Dole announced that its subsidiary, Standard Fruit de Honduras, S.A., reached an agreement with the Government of Honduras and representatives of Honduran banana workers. This agreement establishes a Worker Program that is intended by the parties to resolve in a fair and equitable manner the claims of male banana workers alleging sterility as a result of exposure to DBCP. The Honduran Worker Program will not have a material effect on Dole's financial position or results of operations. The official start of the Honduran Worker Program was announced on January 8, 2007. On August 15, 2007, Shell Oil Company was included in the Worker Program.

As to all the DBCP matters, Dole has denied liability and asserted substantial defenses. While Dole believes there is no reliable scientific basis for alleged injuries from the agricultural field application of DBCP, Dole continues to seek reasonable resolution of pending litigation and claims in the U.S. and Latin America. For example, as in Honduras, Dole is committed to finding a prompt resolution to the DBCP claims in Nicaragua, and is prepared to pursue a structured worker program in Nicaragua with science-based criteria. Dole has also had discussions with individual plaintiff groups on possible ways to resolve related DBCP cases.

Although, no assurance can be given concerning the outcome of the DBCP cases, in the opinion of management, after consultation with legal counsel and based on past experience defending and settling DBCP claims, the pending lawsuits are not expected to have a material adverse effect on Dole's financial position or results of operations.

European Union Antitrust Inquiry: On October 15, 2008, the European Commission (EC) adopted a Decision against Dole Food Company, Inc. and Dole Fresh Fruit Europe OHG and against other unrelated banana companies, finding violations of the European competition (antitrust) laws. The Decision imposes $45.6 million in fines on Dole.

DOLE FOOD COMPANY, INC.

(Unaudited)

The Decision follows a Statement of Objections, issued by the EC on July 25, 2007, and searches carried out by the EC in June 2005 at certain banana importers and distributors, including two of Dole's offices.

Dole received the Decision on October 21, 2008 and appealed the Decision to the European General Court in Luxembourg on December 24, 2008.

Dole made an initial $10 million (7.6 million) provisional payment towards the 45.6 million fine on January 22, 2009, which is classified as other assets, net in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. As agreed with the European Commission (DG Budget), Dole provided the required bank guaranty for the remaining balance of the fine plus interest to the EC by the deadline of April 30, 2009. The bank guaranty renews annually during the appeals process (which may take several years) and carries interest of 6.15% (accrued from January 23, 2009). If the European General Court fully agrees with Dole's arguments presented in its appeal, Dole will be entitled to the return of all monies paid, plus interest.

Although no assurances can be given, and although there could be a material adverse effect on Dole, Dole believes that it has not violated the European competition laws. No accrual for the Decision has been made in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, since Dole cannot determine at this time the amount of probable loss, if any, incurred as a result of the Decision.

Honduran Tax Case: In 2005, Dole received a tax assessment from Honduras of approximately $137 million (including the claimed tax, penalty, and interest through the date of assessment) relating to the disposition of all of Dole's interest in Cervecería Hondureña, S.A in 2001. Dole believes the assessment is without merit and filed an appeal with the Honduran tax authorities, which was denied. As a result of the denial in the administrative process, in order to negate the tax assessment, on August 5, 2005, Dole proceeded to the next stage of the appellate process by filing a lawsuit against the Honduran government in the Honduran Administrative Tax Trial Court. The Honduran government sought dismissal of the lawsuit and attachment of assets, which Dole challenged. The Honduran Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Honduran intermediate appellate court that a statutory prerequisite to challenging the tax assessment on the merits is the payment of the tax assessment or the filing of a payment plan with the Honduran courts; Dole has challenged the constitutionality of the statute requiring such payment or payment plan. Dole and the Honduran government have had discussions regarding possible ways to resolve pending lawsuits and tax-related matters. Although no assurance can be given concerning the outcome of this case, in the opinion of management, after consultation with legal counsel, the pending lawsuits and tax-related matters are not expected to have a material adverse effect on Dole's financial position or results of operations.

Former Shell Site: Shell Oil Company and Dole were sued in several cases filed in Los Angeles Superior Court, beginning in 2009, alleging property damage and personal injury by persons claiming to be current or former residents of a housing development built in the 1960s by a predecessor of what is now a Dole subsidiary, on land that had been owned and used by Shell as a crude oil storage facility for 40 years prior to the housing development. On April 20, 2011, the Court dismissed the case with prejudice, including all claims against Dole. On May 2, 2011, plaintiffs filed a motion for reconsideration with the Court. The California Regional Water Quality Control Board is supervising the cleanup on the former Shell site. On March 11, 2011, the Water Board issued a Cleanup and Abatement Order naming Shell as the Discharger and a Responsible Party, and ordering Shell to assess, monitor, and cleanup and abate the effects of contaminants discharged to soil and groundwater at the site. On April 22, 2011, the Water Board sent Dole a letter requiring Dole to supply information concerning ownership, development and activities of the former Shell site.

NOTE 12 ASSETS HELD-FOR-SALE

Dole continuously reviews its assets in order to identify those assets that do not meet Dole's future strategic direction or internal economic return criteria. As a result of this review, Dole has identified and is in the process of selling specific businesses and long-lived assets. Accordingly, Dole has reclassified these assets as held-for-sale.

Balance as of March 26, 2011	$ 74,649	$ 599	$ 3,214	$ 7,596	$ 86,058

Assets held-for-sale included in Dole's consolidated balance sheet at March 26, 2011 consist of property, plant and equipment, net of accumulated depreciation. Due to challenges experienced in the global real estate markets, certain assets have been classified in assets held-for-sale for greater than one year. Dole expects market conditions to improve during 2011, and as a result, continues to actively market these assets and classify them as assets held-for-sale.

Gains on asset sales by segment for the quarters ended March 26, 2011 and March 27, 2010 were as follows:

Fresh Fruit

At March 26, 2011, the assets held-for-sale balance in the fresh fruit reporting segment consists primarily of approximately 9,300 acres of land in Hawaii.

Packaged Foods

At March 26, 2011, the assets held-for-sale balance in the packaged foods reporting segment consists primarily of approximately 400 acres of peach orchards located in California.

NOTE 13 DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Dole is exposed to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, bunker fuel price fluctuations and interest rate changes in the normal course of its business. As part of its risk management strategy, Dole uses derivative instruments to hedge certain foreign currency, bunker fuel and interest rate exposures. Dole's objective is to offset gains and losses resulting from these exposures with losses and gains on the derivative contracts used to hedge them, thereby reducing volatility of earnings. Dole does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

Cash Flow Hedges

A majority of Dole's foreign currency derivative instruments are designated as cash flow hedges. Specifically, Dole designated a majority of its foreign currency exchange forward contracts and participating forward contracts as cash flow hedges of its forecasted revenue and operating expense transactions. As a result, changes in fair value of the foreign currency derivative instruments since hedge designation, to the extent effective, are recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (AOCI) in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and are reclassified into earnings in the same period the underlying transactions affect earnings. Any portion of a cash flow hedge deemed ineffective is recognized into current period earnings.

Interest Rate Swap, Cross Currency Swap and Long-term Japanese Yen Hedges

Dole entered into an interest rate swap in 2006 to hedge future changes in interest rates. This agreement effectively converted $320 million of borrowings under Term Loan C, which was variable-rate debt, to a fixed-rate basis through June 2011. The interest rate swap fixed the interest rate at 7.2%. The paying and receiving rates under the interest rate swap were 5.5% and 0.3% as of March 26, 2011, with an outstanding notional amount of $320 million.

In connection with the March 2010 refinancing transaction, some of the terms of Dole's senior secured credit facilities were amended. Dole evaluated the impact of these amendments on its hedge designation for its interest rate swap and determined not to re-designate the interest rate swap as a cash flow hedge of its interest rate risk associated with Term Loan C. As a result, changes in the fair value of the interest rate swap after de-designation on March 2, 2010 are recorded in interest expense. The unrealized loss in AOCI is recognized into interest expense through June 2011 as the underlying Term Loan C interest payments are made.

During 2006 (subsequently amended in 2009), Dole executed a cross currency swap to synthetically convert $320 million of Term Loan C into Japanese yen denominated debt in order to effectively lower the U.S. dollar fixed interest rate. The cross currency swap was scheduled to mature in June 2011. Dole also entered into a collateral arrangement which required Dole to provide collateral to its counterparties when the fair market value of the cross currency and interest rate swaps exceeded a combined liability of $35 million.

During the first quarter of 2011, Dole entered into a transaction to effectively unwind the cross currency swap by refinancing its obligation under the cross currency swap and entering into a series of long-term Japanese yen hedges that mature through December 2014.

These contracts require Dole to buy U.S. Dollars and sell Japanese yen at an exchange rate of ¥101.3. At inception, these contracts were in a liability position and the total notional amount outstanding of the long-term Japanese yen hedges was $596.3 million. The value of these contracts will fluctuate based on changes in the exchange rate over the life of the individual forward contracts.

In addition, Dole has designated the long-term Japanese yen forward contracts as cash flow hedges of its forecasted Japanese yen revenue stream, and to the extent this hedge is deemed effective, changes in the fair value of these contracts will be recorded as a component of AOCI in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and reclassified into earnings in the same period the underlying transactions affect earnings.

Due to the fact that there is a significant financing element present at the inception of entering into the long-term Japanese yen hedges, the cash inflows or outflows associated with settlement of these contracts will be included within financing activities in Dole's consolidated statement of cash flows.

As a result of the unwind of the cross currency swap, the collateral arrangement with the counterparties is no longer required and the related $60 million of letters of credit were canceled during the second quarter of 2011.

Unrealized gains and losses on the interest rate swap were recorded through AOCI through the de-designation date. Unrecognized losses of $3.2 million related to the interest rate swap are expected to be realized into earnings through June 2011. Amounts included in AOCI as of the de-designation date are being amortized into interest expense as the quarterly payments are made. Unrecognized losses of $20.8 million related to the foreign currency hedges are expected to be realized into earnings in the next twelve months.

Net unrealized gains (losses) and realized gains (losses) on derivatives not designated or prior to being designated as hedging instruments for the quarters ended March 26, 2011 and March 27, 2010 were as follows:

(1) Prior to being designated as cash flow hedges, Dole recorded a $26.7 million unrealized loss on the long-term Japanese yen hedges. Subsequent to designating these contracts as cash flow hedges, Dole recorded $682 thousand of unrealized losses due to ineffectiveness, which has been excluded from the table above.

NOTE 14 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Dole's financial instruments primarily consist of short-term trade and grower receivables, trade payables, notes receivable and notes payable, as well as long-term grower receivables, capital lease obligations, term loans, a revolving loan, and notes and debentures. For short-term instruments, the carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments. For the long-term financial instruments, excluding Dole's secured and unsecured notes and debentures, and term loans, the carrying amount approximates fair value since they bear interest at variable rates or fixed rates which approximate market.

The inputs used to measure fair value are based on a hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used in valuation techniques. These levels, in order of highest to lowest priority are described below:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets, but corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

The following table provides a summary of the assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

	March 26, 2011		January 1, 2011
	Fair Value		Fair Value

	$ 192,051	$ 192,051	$ 171,167	$ 171,167

For Dole, the assets and liabilities that are required to be recorded at fair value on a recurring basis are the derivative instruments. The fair values of Dole's derivative instruments are determined using Level 2 inputs, which are defined as significant other observable inputs. The fair values of the foreign currency exchange contracts, bunker fuel contracts, interest rate swap and cross currency swap were estimated using internal discounted cash flow calculations based upon forward foreign currency exchange rates, bunker fuel futures, interest-rate yield curves or quotes obtained from brokers for contracts with similar terms less any credit valuation adjustments. Dole recorded a credit valuation adjustment at March 26, 2011 which reduced the derivative liability balances. The credit valuation adjustment was $8.3 million at March 26, 2011 and $0.5 million at January 1, 2011. For the quarter ended March 26, 2011, the net change in credit valuation adjustment resulted in an unrealized gain of $7.8 million, which was recorded as other income (expense), net. For the quarter ended March 27, 2010, the net change in credit valuation adjustment resulted in a loss of $1 million. Of this loss, $0.3 million was recorded as interest expense and $0.7 million was recorded as other income (expense), net.

In addition to assets and liabilities that are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis, Dole is required to record assets and liabilities at fair value on a nonrecurring basis. Nonfinancial assets such as goodwill, indefinite-lived intangible assets and long-lived assets are measured on an annual basis during the second quarter, or as indicators of impairment arise and recorded at fair value only when an impairment is recognized.

The counterparties to the foreign currency and bunker fuel forward contracts and the interest rate and cross currency swaps consist of a number of major international financial institutions. Dole has established counterparty guidelines and regularly monitors its positions and the financial strength of these institutions. While counterparties to hedging contracts expose Dole to credit-related losses in the event of a counterparty's non-performance, the risk would be limited to the unrealized gains on such affected contracts. Dole does not anticipate any such losses.

Item 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This Management's Discussion and Analysis contains forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements, which are based on management's assumptions and describe Dole's future plans, strategies and expectations, are generally identifiable by the use of terms such as "anticipate," "will," "expect," "believe," "should" or similar expressions. The potential risks and uncertainties that could cause Dole's actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied herein are set forth in Item 1A and Item 7A of Dole's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 1, 2011 and include: weather-related phenomena; market responses to industry volume pressures; product and raw materials supplies and pricing; changes in interest and currency exchange rates; economic crises; quotas, tariffs and other governmental actions; and international conflict.

Overview

Significant highlights for Dole Food Company, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries ("Dole") for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 were as follows:

Net revenues for the first quarter of 2011 were $1.7 billion, an increase of 5% from the first quarter of 2010. Revenues in all three of our reporting segments increased, driven primarily by higher prices.

Operating income for the first quarter of 2011 was $79.3 million, an increase of 34% from the first quarter of 2010. Earnings increased in our fresh fruit and fresh vegetables segments, partially offset by lower results from our packaged foods segments.

Fresh fruit operating income increased primarily as a result of overall better banana performance worldwide in the first quarter of 2011, mainly due to significantly lower shipping and distribution costs in Europe as well as improved pricing worldwide.

Fresh vegetables operating income increased due to improved pricing partially offset by higher product costs.

Packaged foods operating income decreased due to higher product costs worldwide and higher levels of marketing expenditures in North America associated with the product launch of FRUIT BOWLS® in 100% juice and fruit in jars in 100% juice.

The restructuring in our fresh fruit segment in Europe, Latin America and Asia remains on track, with savings for fiscal 2011 estimated at $36 million, of which $6 million has already been realized in the first quarter of 2011.

There were also favorable developments in legal proceedings:

Shell Oil Company and Dole were sued in several cases filed in Los Angeles Superior Court beginning in 2009, alleging property damage and personal injury by persons claiming to be current or former residents of a housing development built in the 1960s by a predecessor of what is now a Dole subsidiary, on land that had been owned and used by Shell as a crude oil storage facility for 40 years prior to the housing development. On April 20, 2011, the Court dismissed the cases with prejudice, including all claims against Dole. On May 2, 2011, plaintiffs filed a motion for reconsideration with the Court.

Table of ContentsNon-GAAP Financial Measures

The following is a reconciliation of earnings before interest expense and income taxes (EBIT) and adjusted earnings before interest expense, income taxes and depreciation and amortization (Adjusted EBITDA) to the most directly comparable U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (U.S. GAAP) financial measure:

	Quarter Ended
	March 26, 2011	March 27, 2010
	(In thousands)
Net income	$ 2,045	$ 22,762
Income from discontinued operations, net of income taxes	(202)	(347)
Interest expense	35,470	41,050
Income taxes	5,140	3,175
EBIT	42,453	66,640
Depreciation and amortization	23,353	26,267
Net unrealized loss on derivative instruments	31,018	3,779
Foreign currency exchange (gain) loss on vessel obligations	2,409	(5,174)
Net unrealized (gain) loss on foreign denominated instruments	6,892	(4,612)
Gain on asset sales		(1,971)
Adjusted EBITDA	$ 106,125	$ 84,929

EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA are measures commonly used by financial analysts in evaluating the performance of companies. EBIT is calculated by subtracting income from discontinued operations, net of incomes taxes, from net income, by adding interest expense and by adding income tax expense to net income. Adjusted EBITDA is calculated by adding depreciation and amortization to EBIT, by adding the net unrealized loss or subtracting the net unrealized gain on certain derivative instruments (foreign currency and bunker fuel hedges and the cross currency swap), to or from EBIT, respectively, by adding the foreign currency loss or subtracting the foreign currency gain on the vessel obligations to or from EBIT, respectively, by adding the net unrealized loss or subtracting the net unrealized gain on foreign denominated instruments to or from EBIT, respectively, and by subtracting the gain on asset sales from EBIT. These adjustments have been made because management excludes these amounts when evaluating the performance of Dole.

EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA are not calculated or presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA are not a substitute for net income attributable to shareholders of Dole Food Company, Inc., net income, income from continuing operations, cash flows from operating activities or any other measure prescribed by U.S. GAAP. Further, EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA as used herein are not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. However, Dole has included EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA herein because management believes that EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA are useful performance measures for Dole. In addition, EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA are presented because management believes that these measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors and others in the evaluation of Dole.

EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation from, or as an alternative to, operating income, cash flow or other combined income or cash flow data prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Because of their limitations, EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA and the related ratios presented throughout this Item 2 should not be considered as measures of discretionary cash available to invest in business growth or reduce indebtedness. Dole compensates for these limitations by relying primarily on its U.S. GAAP results and using EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA only supplementally.

Table of ContentsResults of Operations

Selected results of operations for the quarters ended March 26, 2011 and March 27, 2010 were as follows:

	Quarter Ended
	March 26, 2011	March 27, 2010
	(In thousands)
Revenues, net	$ 1,686,104	$ 1,605,874

Less: Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests	(1,005)	(609)
Net income attributable to shareholders of Dole Food Company, Inc.	1,040	22,153

Revenues

Revenues in the quarter ended March 26, 2011 increased 5% to $1.7 billion from $1.6 billion for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Higher sales were reported in all three of Dole's operating segments. Fresh fruit sales increased $51.7 million primarily due to higher sales of bananas in North America and Asia and higher volumes sold of Chilean deciduous fruit. Fresh vegetables sales increased $16 million mainly due to higher pricing for fresh-packed vegetables and higher sales of packaged salads. Packaged foods sales increased $12.5 million primarily due to higher sales in Asia as well as higher volumes sold in Europe partially offset by lower volumes sold in North America due to the timing of Easter. Net favorable foreign currency exchange movements in Dole's selling locations resulted in higher revenues of approximately $25 million. These factors were partially offset by lower volumes of bananas sold in Europe resulting from the implementation of the European restructuring plan.

Operating Income

For the quarter ended March 26, 2011, operating income increased to $79.3 million compared with $59 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Fresh fruit operating results increased primarily due to higher earnings in Dole's worldwide banana operations and Chilean deciduous fruit business. Fresh vegetables operating results increased due to higher pricing across most major product lines partially offset by higher product costs. These improvements were partially offset by lower packaged salads earnings as a result of higher raw material costs. Packaged foods operating results decreased primarily due to higher product costs worldwide and higher marketing expenditures in North America associated with the introduction of FRUIT BOWLS in 100% juice and fruit in jars in 100% juice.

Other Income (Expense), Net

For the quarter ended March 26, 2011, other income (expense), net was an expense of $39.4 million compared to income of $4.6 million in the prior year. The change was primarily due to unrealized losses of $27.4 million incurred in connection with unwinding the cross currency swap and entering into a series of long-term Japanese yen hedges. In addition, unrealized losses were recorded during the first quarter of 2011 on Dole's foreign denominated borrowings and British pound sterling vessel obligation of $7.6 million and $2.4 million, respectively, compared with unrealized gains of $5.4 million and $5.2 million, respectively, recorded in the first quarter of 2010.

The cross currency swap was scheduled to mature in June 2011. During the first quarter of 2011, Dole entered into a transaction to effectively unwind the cross currency swap by refinancing its obligation under the cross currency swap and entered into a series of long-term Japanese yen hedges that mature through December 2014. The value of these contracts will continue to fluctuate based on changes in the exchange rate over the life of the individual forward contracts. Refer to Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments for additional information.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 was $35.5 million compared to $41.1 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Interest expense decreased primarily as a result of lower effective borrowing rates on Dole's term loans related to the March 2010 senior secured credit facilities amendments and Dole's April 2010 redemption of the remaining $70 million of its 8.875% Senior Notes due 2011.

Income Taxes

Dole recorded $5.1 million of income tax expense on $5.8 million of pretax income from continuing operations for the quarter ended March 26, 2011. Income tax expense included interest expense of $0.6 million related to Dole's unrecognized tax benefits. Income tax expense of $3.2 million on $24.1 million of pretax income from continuing operations was recorded for the quarter ended March 27, 2010 which included an interest benefit of $0.7 million related to Dole's unrecognized tax benefits. Dole's effective tax rate varies significantly from period to period due to the level, mix and seasonality of earnings generated in its various U.S. and foreign jurisdictions.

Dole is required to adjust its effective tax rate for each quarter to be consistent with the estimated annual effective tax rate. Jurisdictions with a projected loss where no tax benefit can be recognized are excluded from the calculation of the estimated annual effective tax rate. This could result in a higher or lower effective tax rate during a particular quarter, based upon the mix and timing of actual earnings versus annual projections.

For the quarter ended March 26, 2011, Dole's income tax provision differs from the U.S. federal statutory rate applied to Dole's pretax income primarily due to losses in certain jurisdictions for which it is more likely than not that a tax benefit will not be realized. For the quarter ended March 27, 2010, Dole's income tax provision differs from the U.S. federal statutory rate applied to Dole's pretax income primarily due to operations in foreign jurisdictions that are taxed at a rate lower than the U.S. federal statutory rate.

As a result of a favorable court ruling during the second quarter of 2011 relating to a non-U.S. unrecognized tax benefit, Dole expects its income tax provision in the second quarter of 2011 to be reduced by approximately $9 million, including tax and interest.

Internal Revenue Service Audit: On August 27, 2009, the IRS completed its examination of Dole's U.S. federal income tax returns for the years 2002-2005 and issued a Revenue Agent's report (RAR) that includes various proposed adjustments, including with respect to the 2003 going-private merger transactions. The IRS is proposing that certain funding used in the going-private merger is taxable and that some related investment banking fees are not deductible. The net tax deficiency associated with the RAR is $122 million, plus interest. The Worker, Homeownership, and Business Assistance Act of 2009 signed into law on November 6, 2009, allows companies to carry back net operating losses for up to five years for losses incurred in taxable years beginning or ending in either 2008 or 2009. Dole estimates that this new law effectively reduces the amount of the IRS claim from $122 million to $91 million. On October 27, 2009, Dole filed a protest letter vigorously challenging the proposed adjustments contained in the RAR and is pursuing resolution of these issues with the Appeals Division of the IRS. Dole believes, based in part upon the advice of its tax advisors, that its tax treatment of such transactions was appropriate. Although the timing and ultimate resolution of any issues arising from the IRS examination are uncertain and are subject to settlement on mutually agreeable terms at any time, at this time Dole believes it is reasonably possible that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits could decrease by approximately $10 million to $40 million within the next twelve months, of which a portion may result in a cash payment.

Segment Results of Operations

Dole has three reportable operating segments: fresh fruit, fresh vegetables and packaged foods. These reportable segments are managed separately due to differences in their products, production processes, distribution channels and customer bases.

Management evaluates and monitors segment performance primarily through, among other measures, EBIT. EBIT is calculated by subtracting income from discontinued operations, net of income taxes, from net income, by adding interest expense and by adding income tax expense to net income. Management believes that segment EBIT provides useful information for analyzing the underlying business results as well as allowing investors a means to evaluate the financial results of each segment in relation to Dole as a whole. EBIT is not defined under U.S. GAAP and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net income or cash flow measures prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP or as a measure of Dole's profitability. Additionally, Dole's computation of EBIT may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures computed by other companies, because not all companies calculate EBIT in the same manner.

Revenues from external customers and EBIT for the reportable operating segments and corporate were as follows:

Fresh Fruit

Fresh fruit revenues for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 increased 5% to $1.17 billion from $1.12 billion for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Banana sales increased as a result of higher pricing worldwide and higher volumes sold in North America and Asia. Asia banana sales also benefited from favorable Japanese yen foreign currency exchange movements. These improvements were partially offset by planned lower volumes sold in Europe. Sales of Chilean deciduous fruit increased primarily due to higher volumes worldwide partially offset by lower pricing of grapes in North America. Revenues in Asia also increased due to higher volumes of fresh pineapples sold as well as higher sales of other fresh fruit. European ripening and distribution sales decreased primarily as a result of lower volumes sold partially offset by higher local pricing and favorable Swedish krona foreign currency exchange movement. Net favorable foreign currency exchange movements in Dole's foreign selling locations resulted in higher revenues of approximately $24 million during the first quarter ended March 26, 2011.

Dole's fresh fruit segment EBIT is significantly impacted by certain items, which are included in the table below:

	Quarter Ended
	March 26, 2011	March 27, 2010
	(In thousands)
Fresh fruit products	$ 71,116	$ 36,856
Charges for restructuring	(2,755)	(608)
Unrealized gain (loss) on foreign currency and fuel hedges	1,169	(70)
Foreign currency exchange gain (loss) on vessel obligations	(2,409)	5,174
Net unrealized loss on foreign denominated instruments	(118)	(170)
Gain on asset sales		1,971
Total Fresh fruit EBIT	$ 67,003	$ 43,153

Fresh fruit EBIT for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 increased 55% to $67 million from $43.2 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Banana EBIT increased as a result of significantly lower shipping and distribution costs in Europe and improved pricing worldwide. The decrease in shipping costs was due primarily to Dole's restructuring initiatives which reduced vessel charters and inland freight costs. These improvements were partially offset by higher fruit and packaging material costs worldwide. Higher fruit costs resulted from adverse weather conditions in Latin America which significantly impacted supply and caused an increase in contract prices from Latin American growers. In addition, Dole's operations in Australia were impacted by approximately $3 million of non-cash asset write-downs as a result of Cyclone Yasi. The earthquake and tsunami in Japan that occurred in March 2011 did not have a significant impact to fresh fruit EBIT in the first quarter. However, Dole continues to evaluate the general economic and market conditions as the recovery moves forward. EBIT in the Chilean deciduous fruit operations increased as a result of higher sales. EBIT in the European ripening and distribution business increased slightly as improved pricing was partially offset by higher product costs. If foreign currency exchange rates in Dole's significant fresh fruit foreign operations during the quarter ended March 26, 2011 had remained unchanged from those experienced during the quarter ended March 27, 2010, Dole estimates that fresh fruit EBIT would have been lower by approximately $2.3 million. Fresh fruit EBIT for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 included realized foreign currency transaction gains of $8.4 million.

Fresh Vegetables

Fresh vegetables revenues for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 increased 7% to $246.5 million from $230.5 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Higher revenues in the North America fresh-packed vegetable business resulted from improved pricing across all major vegetable product lines partially offset by lower pricing for strawberries and lower volumes sold. The increase in pricing resulted from product shortages due to challenging weather conditions during January and February. Asia fresh-packed vegetables revenues increased primarily due to higher local pricing and a favorable Japanese Yen foreign currency exchange rate impact. Packaged salads revenues increased as a result of higher net pricing, higher volumes sold and a favorable change in product mix.

Fresh vegetables EBIT for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 increased 6% to $11.1 million from $10.5 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. EBIT increased as a result of improved pricing in the North America and Asia fresh-packed vegetables business partially offset by higher product costs. Earnings in the packaged salads business decreased as result of higher vegetable costs due to shortages of raw materials, partially offset by improved net pricing.

Packaged Foods

Packaged foods revenues for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 increased 5% to $264.8 million from $252.2 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. Revenues increased primarily due to higher volumes sold of packaged fruit products in Asia and Europe. Revenues in North America decreased slightly as a result of lower volumes due to the timing of Easter, which occurred later in 2011 than in 2010. These factors were partially offset by higher net pricing in North America for FRUIT BOWLS and canned pineapple.

EBIT in the packaged foods segment for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 decreased to $12.2 million from $29 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. The decrease in EBIT was due primarily to higher marketing expenses in North America and higher product costs worldwide. The increase in product costs resulted from higher purchased pineapple costs, higher commodity costs (sugar and tinplate), and unfavorable foreign currency exchange movement in Thailand and the Philippines, where product is sourced. These factors were partially offset by improved pricing in North America and Asia. If foreign currency exchange rates in Dole's packaged foods foreign operations during the quarter ended March 26, 2011 had remained unchanged from those experienced during the quarter ended March 27, 2010, Dole estimates that packaged foods EBIT would have been higher by approximately $5 million.

Corporate

Corporate EBIT was a loss of $47.8 million for the quarter ended March 26, 2011 compared to a loss of $16 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. The change in EBIT was primarily due to unrealized losses of $27.4 million incurred in connection with unwinding the cross currency swap and entering into a series of long-term Japanese yen hedges, and an increase in unrealized losses on foreign denominated instruments of $10.6 million. These factors were partially offset by lower levels of general and administrative expenses related to a decrease in incentive compensation accruals as well as the absence of the write-off of deferred debt issuance costs of $4.7 million associated with Dole's March 2010 debt refinancing transactions.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash flows used in operating activities were $46.9 million for the quarter ended March 26, 2011, compared to $18.8 million provided by operating activities for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. The change was due to higher levels of inventory related to increases in commodity input costs and timing of purchases. In addition, there were lower levels of accrued liabilities due in part to the payment of incentive compensation.

Cash flows provided by investing activities were $24.9 million for the quarter ended March 26, 2011, compared to $1.6 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. The change was primarily due to a $38 million decrease in restricted deposits as a result of the elimination of the collateral requirement due to the cross currency swap unwind, partially offset by an increase in capital expenditures.

Cash flows used in financing activities was $7.7 million for the quarter ended March 26, 2011, compared to cash flows provided by financing activities of $58.5 million for the quarter ended March 27, 2010. The change was primarily due to lower net debt borrowings attributable to Dole's March 2010 refinancing transaction.

As discussed in Note 13 Derivative Financial Instruments, Dole's cross currency swap was scheduled to mature in June 2011. During the first quarter of 2011, Dole refinanced the liability under the cross currency swap by entering into a series of long-term Japanese yen hedges that will settle through December 2014.

As of March 26, 2011, Dole had a cash balance of $142.6 million and an ABL revolver borrowing base of $290.2 million. There were no borrowings under the ABL revolver at March 26, 2011. After taking into account approximately $141 million of outstanding letters of credit issued under the ABL revolver, Dole had approximately $149.2 million available for borrowings as of March 26, 2011. Of the $141 million of outstanding letters of credit, $60 million was issued in connection with Dole's collateral arrangement for its cross currency and interest rate swaps. Due to the unwind of the cross currency swap agreement, the collateral arrangement is no longer required and the related $60 million of letters of credit were canceled during the second quarter of 2011.

Dole believes that available borrowing capacity under the revolving credit facility and subsidiaries' uncommitted lines of credit, together with its existing cash balances, future cash flow from operations, planned asset sales and access to capital markets will enable it to meet its working capital, capital expenditure, debt maturity and other commitments and funding requirements over the next 12 months. Management's plan is dependent upon the occurrence of future events which will be impacted by a number of factors including the general economic environment in which Dole operates, Dole's ability to generate cash flow from its operations, and its ability to attract buyers for assets being marketed for sale. Factors impacting Dole's cash flow from operations include, but are not limited to, items such as product pricing, commodity prices, interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates.

Other Matters

Recently Issued and Adopted Accounting Pronouncements: There were no recently issued accounting pronouncements that impacted Dole's condensed consolidated financial statements. In addition, Dole did not adopt any new accounting pronouncements during the quarter ended March 26, 2011.

European Union (EU) Banana Import Regime: On January 1, 2006, the EU implemented a new tariff only import regime for bananas. Under this regime, the EU mandated a tariff of 176 euro per metric ton on all banana imports to the EU market from Latin America. The EU also mandated that 775,000 metric tons of bananas from African, Caribbean, and Pacific (ACP) countries could be imported to the EU duty-free.

Several Latin American countries challenged the legality of aspects of this trade regime by initiating proceedings in the Dispute Settlement Body (DSB) at the World Trade Organization (WTO). The DSB issued final rulings against the EU on November 27, 2008, concluding that the 176 euro per metric ton tariff imposed was legally inconsistent with WTO trade rules. The DSB also considered whether the zero tariff reserved for ACP countries was legally inconsistent with WTO trade rules but recognized that, with the current entry into force of Economic Partnership Agreements between the EU and ACP countries, ACP bananas now may have duty-free, quota-free access to the EU market.

In light of these WTO rulings against the tariff only regime as implemented, the EU proposed a settlement to the Latin American banana producing countries (Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Peru, Panama, and Venezuela) in resolution of the dispute. The settlement provided for a gradual tariff reduction from 148 euros per metric ton in 2010 to a final tariff of 114 euro per metric ton on January 1, 2017 or January 1, 2019 (the 2019 date applies if no further trade agreements are reached in the ongoing Doha Development Agenda global trade discussions). The EU also entered into a settlement with the U.S. and agreed that the EU will maintain a non-discriminatory, tariff-only regime for the importation of bananas.

The settlement was accepted and initialed by the EU, the U.S., and 11 Latin American banana producing countries on December 15, 2009. After having provisionally applied since December 15, 2009, the terms of the settlement were approved by the European Council in a Council Decision dated March 7, 2011 and have now entered into force.

During fiscal 2010, Dole recorded tariff refunds of $8 million for the period from December 15, 2009 through June 8, 2010, of which $7 million was collected. Dole expects the remaining balance to be collected during the second quarter of 2011. The lower tariff rates benefitted fiscal 2010 EBIT by an additional amount of approximately $7 million and first quarter 2011 EBIT by approximately $1 million.

In addition, the EU has negotiated several free trade areas agreements (FTA) which will allow for an even lower import tariff on specified volumes of banana exports from certain countries. An EU-Colombia-Peru FTA has been negotiated and an EU-Central America (i.e., Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and Panama) FTA has been negotiated. Both of these FTAs must be translated into all EU languages and are subject to approval by all EU Member States and the European Parliament before they can come into effect. Ecuador has not yet negotiated an FTA with the EU on bananas and may not benefit, like the other Latin American countries party to an FTA, unless a similar FTA can be negotiated with the EU. Dole continues to monitor these developments but cannot yet anticipate when the necessary approvals will be obtained and when, or if, these FTAs will come into force.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities: Dole uses derivative instruments to hedge against fluctuations in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rate movements and bunker fuel prices. Dole does not utilize derivatives for trading or other speculative purposes.

During the first quarter of 2010, Dole designated the majority of its foreign currency derivative instruments as cash flow hedges. As a result, changes in fair value of the foreign currency derivative instruments since hedge designation, to the extent deemed effective, are recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (AOCI) in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and are reclassified into earnings in the same period the underlying transactions affect earnings.

Prior to the March 2010 refinancing transactions, the interest rate swap was designated as a cash flow hedge. As a result of the March 2010 refinancing transactions, certain terms of Dole's senior secured credit facilities were amended. Dole has evaluated the impact of these amendments on its hedge designation for its interest rate swap and has determined not to re-designate the interest rate swap as a cash flow hedge of its interest rate risk associated with Term Loan C. As a result, changes in the fair value of the interest rate swap after de-designation on March 2, 2010 are recorded into interest expense instead of as a component of AOCI.

Included in the condensed consolidated statements of operations are unrealized gains (losses) on Dole's foreign currency and bunker fuel hedges and the cross currency and interest rate swaps by reporting segment as follows:

	Quarter Ended March 26, 2011				Quarter Ended March 27, 2010				Total

Item 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

For the quarter ended March 26, 2011, there have been no material changes in the market risk disclosure presented in Dole's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2011. For information regarding Dole's derivative instruments and hedging activities, refer to Note 13 to the condensed consolidated financial statements contained in this Quarterly Report.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

An evaluation was carried out as of March 26, 2011 under the supervision and with the participation of Dole's management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and Rule 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act. Based upon this evaluation, Dole's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of March 26, 2011. No change in our internal control over financial reporting identified in connection with this evaluation that occurred during our first quarter of 2011 has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, Dole's internal control over financial reporting.
