PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS.

(a) GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS.

Universal Forest Products, Inc. was organized as a Michigan corporation in 1955. We engineer, manufacture, treat and distribute lumber and other building products to the DIY/retail, site-built construction, manufactured housing, industrial and wholesale lumber markets. We currently operate 90 facilities throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Information relating to current developments in our business is incorporated by reference from our Annual Report to Shareholders for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001 ("2001 Annual Report") under the caption "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations." Selected portions of the 2001 Annual Report are filed as Exhibit 13 with this Form 10-K Report.

(b) FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT INDUSTRY SEGMENTS.

SFAS No. 131, Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information ("SFAS 131") defines operating segments as components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. Under the definition of a segment, our Eastern and Western Divisions may be considered an operating segment of our business. Under SFAS 131, segments may be aggregated if the segments have similar economic characteristics and if the nature of the products, distribution methods, customers and regulatory environments are similar. We have aggregated our divisions into one reporting segment, consistent with SFAS 131. Accordingly, separate industry segment information is not presented.

(c) NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS.

We presently engineer, manufacture, treat and distribute lumber and other building products to the DIY/retail, site-built construction, manufactured housing and industrial markets. Each of these markets is discussed in the paragraphs which follow. We also sell lumber products to the wholesale lumber market but are not emphasizing this business in our growth objectives.

DIY/RETAIL MARKET. The customers comprising this market are primarily national home center retailers, retail-oriented lumberyards and contractor-oriented lumberyards. Customers in this market are serviced by our regional sales staff and are assisted by personnel from our headquarters. Generally, terms of sale are established for annual periods, and orders are placed with our regional facilities in accordance with established terms. One customer, The Home Depot, accounted for approximately 33%, 32% and 26% of our total net sales for fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

From time to time we enter into certain sales contracts with The Home Depot. The contracts are limited to the establishment of general sales terms and conditions, such as delivery, invoicing, warranties and other standard, commercial matters. Sales are made by the release of purchase orders to us for particular quantities of certain products. We also enter into marketing agreements and rebate agreements with The Home Depot. The marketing agreements provide a certain percentage of our sales revenue or a minimum dollar amount will be committed to generate sales for us and The Home Depot. While we are entitled to make certain recommendations under the marketing agreements, The Home Depot reserves the right to spend these funds as it deems appropriate. The rebate agreements provide for certain percentage rebates to be given to The Home Depot based upon sales levels. The level and amount for the rebates vary with the level of our sales to The Home Depot.

We currently supply customers in this market from over 50 of our locations. These regional facilities are able to supply customers with mixed truckloads of products which can be delivered to customers with rapid turnaround from receipt of an order. Freight costs are a factor in the ability to competitively service this market, especially with treated wood products because of their heavier weight. The close proximity of our regional facilities to the various outlets of these customers is a significant advantage when negotiating annual sales programs.

The products offered to customers in this market include dimensional lumber (both preserved and unpreserved) and various "value-added products," some of which are sold under our trademarks. Value-added products may be preserved or unpreserved, and include the following:

- The Deck Necessities(R) group of products consists of decking, balusters, spindles, decorative posts, handrails, stair risers, stringers and treads.
- The Fence Fundamentals(TM) group of products includes various styles of fences, as well as gates, posts and other components.
- The Outdoor Essentials(R) group of products consists of various home and garden and landscaping items.
- Lattice is sold under the Lattice Basics(TM) trademark for use as skirting on decks, trellises and various outdoor home improvement projects.
- The Storage Solutions(TM) product line consists primarily of storage building frames and trusses.

We also sell engineered wood products to this market, which include roof trusses, wall panels and engineered floor systems (see "Site-Built Construction Market" below).

We are not aware of any competitor that currently manufactures, treats and distributes a full line of both value-added and commodity products on a national basis. We face competition on individual products from several different producers, but the majority of these competitors tend to be regional in their efforts and/or do not offer a full line of outdoor lumber products. We believe the breadth of our product offering, geographic dispersion, close proximity of our plants to core customers, purchasing expertise and service capabilities provide significant competitive advantages in this market. As the customers in this market continue to consolidate, we believe we are well-positioned to capture additional market share.

SITE-BUILT CONSTRUCTION MARKET. We entered the site-built construction market through strategic business acquisitions beginning in 1997. The customers comprising this market are primarily large-volume, multi-tract builders and smaller volume custom builders. Customers are serviced by our sales, engineering and design personnel in each region. Generally, terms of sale and pricing are determined based on quotes for each order.

We currently supply customers in this market from 41 facilities located in 19 different states and Canada. These facilities manufacture various engineered wood products used to frame residential or commercial projects, including roof and floor trusses, wall panels, Open Joist 2000 and I-joists. Freight costs are a factor in the ability to competitively service this market due to the space requirements of these products on each truckload.

Competitors in this market include lumberyards who also manufacture components, as well as regional manufacturers of components. Our objective is to continue to increase our manufacturing capacity for this market while developing a national presence. We believe our primary competitive advantages relate to the engineering and design capabilities of our regional staff, customer relationships, product quality and timeliness of delivery.

MANUFACTURED HOUSING MARKET. The customers comprising the manufactured housing market are producers of mobile, modular and prefabricated homes and recreational vehicles. Products sold to customers in this market consist primarily of roof trusses, lumber cut and shaped to the customer's specification, plywood, particle board and dimensional lumber, all intended for use in the construction of manufactured housing. Sales are made by personnel located at each regional facility based on customer orders. Our engineering and support staff act as a sales resource to assist customers with truss designs, obtaining various building code approvals for the designs and aiding in the development of new products and manufacturing processes.

While no competitor operates in as widely-dispersed geographic areas as we do, we face competition from suppliers in many geographic regions. Our principal competitive advantages include our product knowledge, the capacity to supply all of the customer's lumber requirements, the ability to deliver engineering support services, the close proximity of our regional facilities to core customers and our ability to provide national sales programs to certain customers.

INDUSTRIAL MARKET. We define our industrial market as industrial manufacturers and agricultural customers who use pallets, crates and wooden boxes for packaging, shipping and material handling purposes. Many of the products sold to this market may be produced from the by-product of other manufactured products, thereby allowing us to increase our raw material yields while expanding our business. Competition is fragmented and includes virtually every supplier of lumber convenient to the customer. We service this market with our regional sales personnel supported by a centralized national sales and marketing department.

SUPPLIERS. We are one of the largest domestic buyers of solid sawn lumber from primary producers (lumber mills). We use primarily southern yellow pine in our pressure-treating operations and site-built component plants in the Southeastern United States, which we obtain from mills located throughout the states comprising the Sunbelt. Other species we use include "spruce-pine-fir" from

Ontario, Quebec, British Columbia and Alberta, Canada; hemlock, Douglas fir and cedar from the Pacific Northwest; inland species of Ponderosa pine; and Radiata pine. There are numerous primary producers for all varieties we use, and we are not dependent on any particular source of supply. Our financial resources, in combination with our strong sales network and ability to remanufacture lumber, enable us to purchase a large percentage of a primary producer's output (as opposed to only those dimensions or grades in immediate need), thereby lowering our average cost of raw materials. We believe this represents a significant competitive advantage.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. We own a patent relating to automated equipment for the manufacture of lattice, a tie-down strap patent related to truss components, and a patent on machinery used in the recycling of drywall. In addition, we own four registered trade names or trademarks: PRO-WOOD(R) relating to preservative-treated wood products; Deck Necessities(R) relating to deck component products; Outdoor Essentials(R) related to lawn and garden items such as planter boxes, fencing products and lattice products; and the pine tree logo. As we develop proprietary brands, we may pursue registration or other formal protection. In addition, we claim common law trademark rights to several other trade names or trademarks. While we believe our patent and trademark rights are valuable, the loss of a patent or any trademark would not be likely to have a material adverse impact on our competitive position.

SEASONAL INFLUENCES. Our manufactured housing and site-built construction markets are affected by seasonal influences in the northern states during the winter months when installation and construction is more difficult.

The activities in the DIY/retail market have substantial seasonal impacts. The demand for many of our DIY/retail products is highest during the period of April to August. Accordingly, our sales to the DIY/retail market tend to be greater during the second and third quarters. We build our inventory of finished goods throughout the winter and spring to support this sales peak. Restraints on production capacity make this a necessary practice which potentially exposes us to adverse effects of changes in economic and industry trends. Since 1995, inventory management initiatives, supply programs with vendors and programs with customers have been used to reduce our exposure to adverse changes in the commodity lumber market and decrease demands on cash resources.

BACKLOG. Due to the nature of our DIY/retail, manufactured housing and industrial businesses, backlog information is not meaningful. The maximum time between receipt of a firm order and shipment does not usually exceed a few days. Therefore, we would not normally have a backlog of unfilled orders in a material amount. The relationships with our major customers are such that we are either the exclusive supplier of certain products and/or certain geographic areas, or the designated source for a specified portion of the customer's requirements. In such cases, either we are able to forecast the customer's requirements or the customer may provide an estimate of its future needs. In neither case, however, will we receive firm orders until just prior to the anticipated delivery dates for the products in question.

On March 1, 2002 and 2001, backlog orders associated with the site-built construction business approximated $27.7 million and $31.8 million, respectively, representing approximately six and seven weeks of production, respectively. We believe the relatively short time period associated with our backlog, in certain regions, provides a significant competitive advantage.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT. Our research and development efforts generally fall into four categories: engineering and testing of new truss designs; design and development of wood treatment systems and manufacturing processes; design and development of machinery and tooling of various wood shaping devices; and development of new products. Although important to our competitive strengths and growth, the dollar amount of research and development expenditures has not typically been material to us.

WOOD PRESERVATION TREATMENT. Information required for environmental disclosures is incorporated by reference from Footnote N of the Consolidated Financial Statements presented under Item 8 herein.

EMPLOYEES. At March 1, 2002, we had approximately 6,600 employees. One of our subsidiaries, which operates a location acquired in June 2000, has certain production employees who are represented by a labor union. We believe relations with our employees are good.

(d) FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT GEOGRAPHIC AREAS.

The dominant portion of our operations and sales occur in the United States. Separate financial information about foreign and domestic operations and export sales is incorporated by reference from Footnote P of the Consolidated Financial Statements presented under Item 8 herein.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES.

Our headquarters building is located on a ten acre site adjacent to a main thoroughfare in suburban Grand Rapids, Michigan. The headquarters building consists of several one and two story structures of wood construction.

We currently have 90 facilities located throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico. These facilities are generally of steel frame and aluminum construction and situated on fenced sites ranging in size from 7 acres to 48 acres. Depending upon function and location, these facilities typically utilize office space, manufacturing space, treating space and covered storage. We own all of our properties, free from any significant mortgage or other encumbrance, except for 12 regional facilities which are leased. We believe all of these operating facilities are adequate in capacity and condition to service existing customer locations.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

During the second quarter of 2001, we received a request for indemnification from a major customer in two separate lawsuits which seek class action status. One case, titled Jerry Jacobs et. al. v. Osmose, Inc. et. al., is pending in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. A second case, Albert Miller et. al. vs. Home Depot, USA Inc., et. al. is pending in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Louisiana. During the fourth quarter of 2001, we were named as a defendant, along with chemical manufacturers and retailers, in a case titled Ardoin v. Stine Lumber, et. al.

which was filed in Louisiana State Court.

In these cases, the putative plaintiffs allege that CCA treated lumber is defective and also allege that the marketing of the product is either deceptive or not sufficiently informative as to the risks of the product. The plaintiffs seek removal of CCA treated lumber, together with financial remuneration.

We believe the claims are baseless and without merit. To the extent we are required to defend these actions, we intend to do so vigorously.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

None.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

We are exposed to market risks related to fluctuations in interest rates on our variable rate debt, which consists of revolving credit facilities and industrial development revenue bonds. We do not currently use interest rate swaps, futures contracts or options on futures, or other types of derivative financial instruments to mitigate this risk.

For fixed rate debt, changes in interest rates generally affect the fair market value, but not earnings or cash flows. Conversely, for variable rate debt, changes in interest rates generally do not influence fair market value, but do affect future earnings and cash flows. We do not have an obligation to prepay fixed rate debt prior to maturity, and as a result, interest rate risk and changes in fair market value should not have a significant impact on such debt until we would be required to refinance it.

On December 29, 2001, the estimated fair value of our long-term debt, including the current portion, was $175.8 million, which was $1.1 million greater than the carrying value. The estimated fair value is based on rates anticipated to be available to us for debt with similar terms and maturities. The estimated fair value of notes payable included in current liabilities and the revolving credit facility approximated the carrying values.

Edgar Filing: UNIVERSAL FOREST PRODUCTS INC - Form 10-K405

Expected cash flows over the next five years related to debt instruments are as follows:

	2002 ----	2003 ----	2004 ----	2005 ----	2006 ----	Thereaf -----
($US equivalents, in thousands)

11

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

On June 14, 2001, the Company's Board of Directors approved of a change in its independent accountant from Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte") to Arthur Andersen LLP ("Andersen") based upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee. Deloitte's report on the Company's financial statements for the past two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During 1999, 2000, and a portion of 2001, preceding the Board's decision to change independent accountants, there were no disagreements with Deloitte on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved, would have caused Deloitte to refer to the matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports. During that same period of time, there were no reportable events as described in item 304(a)(1)(b) of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Regulation S-K.
