PROXY STATEMENT
FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To Be Held on November 20, 2003

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy are being furnished by the Board of Directors of Hybridon, Inc. (Hybridon or the Company) in connection with the Company s Special Meeting of Stockholders (the Special Meeting) to be held on Thursday, November 20, 2003 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Hyatt Hotel, 575 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, Massachusetts or any adjournment of the Special Meeting.

All shares represented by proxy will be voted in accordance with the instructions of the stockholder. If no instructions are provided, proxies will be voted in favor of the matter set forth in the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting. A stockholder may revoke a proxy at any time before its exercise by delivery of a written revocation or a subsequently dated proxy to the Secretary of the Company or by voting in person at the Special Meeting. Attendance at the Special Meeting will not itself be deemed to revoke a proxy unless the stockholder gives affirmative notice at the Special Meeting that the stockholder intends to revoke the proxy and vote in person.

The Notice of the Special Meeting, this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy are being mailed to stockholders on or about , 2003.

Voting Securities and Votes Required

On October 6, 2003, the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting, there were outstanding and entitled to vote shares of the Company s common stock, $0.001 par value per share (the Common Stock), and shares of the Company s Series A convertible preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Series A Preferred Stock). The holders of Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock will vote as separate classes on the proposed amendments to the Company s Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the Certificate of Incorporation). Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder to one vote on the approval of the proposed amendments. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock entitles the holder to one vote on the approval of the proposed amendments.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of all shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, and a majority of all shares of Series A Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting. Shares that abstain or do not vote with respect to the matter presented for stockholder approval such as broker non-votes as described below, shall be counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. The approval of the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of:

a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting; and a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

Shares will not be counted as votes in favor of the proposed amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation, if the holder of the shares abstains from voting on the matter or if the shares are held in street name by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to the matter (broker non-votes). Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes by holders of Common Stock or Series A Preferred Stock will count as a vote against the approval of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation.

Table of Contents

As of the record date, the Company had entered into voting agreements with the holders of 59.3% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to which the holders of these shares of Series A Preferred Stock agreed to vote their shares in favor of the proposed amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation. The vote of these holders will be sufficient to provide the required approval from the holders of Series A Preferred Stock for the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation, but the amendments will still need to be approved by the holders of the Common Stock voting separately.

Proposal 1 To Approve an Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation

Overview

At the Special Meeting, the Company's stockholders will be asked to approve amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation as set forth in the Certificate of Amendment of Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Hybridon, Inc., attached hereto as Exhibit A, that would:

reduce the liquidation preference of the Series A Preferred Stock from $100 per share to $1 per share; reduce the annual dividend on the Series A Preferred Stock from 6.5% per annum to 1.0% per annum; and increase the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock by 25% over the number of shares of Common Stock that would otherwise be issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock for a 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation effecting the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation (for example, as of September 1, 2003, 23.53 shares of Common Stock were issuable upon conversion of each share of Series A Preferred Stock; during the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation 29.41 shares of Common Stock would be issuable upon conversion of each share of Series A Preferred Stock).

Reasons to Approve the Amendments to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation

The purpose of the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation is to create incentives for the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock to convert their shares of Series A Preferred Stock into shares of Common Stock, while at the same time reducing the financial implications to the Company and, in particular, to the holders of Common Stock (which ranks junior to the Series A Preferred Stock) of the remaining Series A Preferred Stock. The Board believes that the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation and the anticipated subsequent conversion of a significant number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock will simplify the Company's balance sheet and capital structure and, as a result, have the following effects:

the Common Stock of the Company will be more attractive to investors;

the Company's ability to issue equity to the capital markets, if it chooses to do so, will be enhanced; and the Company will be able to broaden its Common Stock investor base, particularly among institutional investors.

The amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation were required by the investors in the Company's August 2003 private placement of Common Stock and warrants to purchase Common Stock from which the Company received gross proceeds of approximately $14.6 million and net proceeds of approximately $13.1 million. In connection with the private placement, the Company undertook to obtain the agreement of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock to vote in favor of the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation as a condition to the closing of the private placement. In addition, the Company agreed to call this Special Meeting for the purpose of seeking stockholder approval of the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation.

Table of Contents

If the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation are approved, they would have the following effects:

The Series A liquidation preference would be reduced from $100 per share to $1 per share, with the aggregate Series A Preferred Stock liquidation preference being reduced from approximately $70 million to approximately $700,000.

The dividend rate would be reduced from 6.5% to 1.0% with the aggregate Series A Preferred Stock dividends being reduced from approximately $4.2 million per annum to $723,000 per annum.

The number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock would increase by 25% over the number of shares of Common Stock that would otherwise be issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock for the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation effecting the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation. Upon the expiration of such 30-day period, the adjustment to the conversion rate would terminate. As a result and assuming that the number of shares issuable upon conversion of one share of Series A Preferred Stock upon the filing of the Certificate of Amendment is 23.53 (which was the conversion rate on September 1, 2003), the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of each share of Series A Preferred Stock would increase by 25% or 5.88 shares, from 23.53 shares to 29.41 shares, for the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment. In addition, the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of all shares of Series A Preferred Stock during the 30-day period would increase by 4,251,335 shares, from 17,005,341 shares to 21,256,676 shares.

In the voting agreements that the Company entered into with holders of Series A Preferred Stock, the holders agreed to convert shares of Series A Preferred Stock held by them, representing 46.3% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, into Common Stock during the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation. Upon such conversion, assuming a conversion rate of 29.41 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series A Preferred Stock:

9,837,478 shares of Common Stock would be issued upon conversion of 334,474 shares of Series A Preferred Stock;

388,253 shares of Series A Preferred Stock would remain outstanding;

the aggregate Series A Preferred Stock liquidation preference would be reduced to approximately $388,000; and the aggregate annual Series A Preferred Stock dividends would be reduced to $388,000.

If all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock are converted into Common Stock during the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, then, assuming a conversion rate of 29.41 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series A Preferred Stock, 21,256,676 shares of Common Stock would be issued upon conversion of 722,727 shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

In determining to adopt the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors considered the potential additional dilution that could result from the additional shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock during the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment. However, adoption by the Board of the amendments was necessary in order to consummate the August 2003 private placement. In addition, the Board of Directors believed that the benefits of the reduction of the Series A Preferred Stock liquidation preference by at least $69 million and the reduction of the Series A Preferred Stock dividend rate by at least $3.8 million annually outweighed the dilution associated with the up to 4,251,335 additional shares of Common Stock that would be issued upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock at the adjusted conversion rate, particularly given that, on the date the Board adopted the amendments, the value of 4,251,335 shares of Common Stock equalled approximately $3.8 million (based on the last sales price of the Common Stock on the OTC Bulletin Board on such date, which was $.90 per share).

For the reasons set forth above, the Board of Directors strongly believes that approval of the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and recommends that stockholders vote for the approval of the amendments.

The vote of the holders of Series A Preferred Stock which have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the proposed amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation pursuant to the voting agreements will be sufficient to provide the required approval from the holders of Series A Preferred Stock for the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation. However, the amendments will still need to be approved by the holders of the Common Stock voting separately.

Under Delaware law, stockholders are not entitled to dissenter's rights with respect to the proposed amendments to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation.

Background

In 1998, the Company issued 510,504 shares of Series A Preferred Stock and warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock in exchange for the surrender and cancellation of 9% convertible subordinated notes of the Company in the aggregate principal amount of $48.7 million and accrued interest thereon of $2.4 million. The Company issued an additional 114,285 shares of Series A Preferred Stock in a private placement in 1998. Since that time, the Company has issued additional shares of Series A Preferred Stock to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock as payment of the dividends required by the terms of the Series A Preferred Stock. As of September 1, 2003, there were 699,980 shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued and outstanding.

Terms of Series A Preferred Stock

The following description summarizes material terms and provisions of the Series A Preferred Stock that are currently in effect. For the complete terms of the Series A Preferred Stock, please refer to the Certificate of Incorporation which the Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Liquidation Preference. In the event of one of the following events (a "Liquidation Event"):

the Company's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, whether voluntary or involuntary, a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, or any consolidation, merger, combination, reorganization or other transaction in which the Company is not the surviving entity or if stock constituting more than 50% of the Company's voting power is exchanged for or changed into stock or securities of another entity, cash, or any other property, and after payment of the Company's debts and other liabilities, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock will be entitled to be paid out of the Company's available assets, before any payment to holders of shares ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock, an amount equal to $100 per share plus accrued but unpaid dividends. In the case of a transaction listed in the third bullet above, however, this payment may be made in cash, property or securities of the entity surviving the transaction. If upon any Liquidation Event, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets to be distributed to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock are insufficient to permit the payment to such stockholders of the full amount owed, then all of the Company's available assets will be distributed ratably to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock.

All shares of Series A Preferred Stock rank, as to payment upon the occurrence of any Liquidation Event, senior to the Common Stock and senior to all other series of preferred stock, unless the terms of any series provides otherwise. As of September 1, 2003, the aggregate Series A Preferred Stock liquidation preference was approximately $70 million.

Dividends. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to receive cumulative semi-annual dividends payable, at the Company's option, in cash or additional shares of Series A Preferred Stock, at the rate of 6.5% per annum plus accrued but unpaid dividends. Dividends accrue from the date of issuance and are paid semi-annually on April 1 and October 1 of each year or, if any such day is not a business day, on the next business day. Dividends are paid, at the Company's election, either in cash or additional shares of Series A

Preferred Stock. In calculating the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be paid with respect to each dividend, the Series A Preferred Stock is valued at $100 per share, subject to appropriate adjustment to reflect any stock split, combination, reclassification or reorganization of the Series A Preferred Stock.

Right of Conversion. Shares of Series A Preferred Stock are convertible, at the option of the holder, into shares of Common Stock or other securities and property. The conversion price per share of Common Stock is $4.25, and is subject to adjustment as described below. The conversion rate at which each share of Series A Preferred Stock is convertible at any time into Common Stock is determined by dividing the then existing conversion price into the dividend base amount for a share of Series A Preferred Stock. The dividend base amount equals $100 plus accrued but unpaid dividends, subject to adjustment to reflect any stock split, combination, reclassification or reorganization. As of September 1, 2003, each share of Series A Preferred Stock was convertible into approximately 23.53 shares of Common Stock.

Adjustment of Conversion Rate and Conversion Price. In order to preserve the economic value of shares of Series A Preferred Stock, the conversion rate and the conversion price will be adjusted if the Company does the following;

pays a dividend or makes a distribution on any class of capital stock in shares of Common Stock;

subdivides the Company's outstanding Common Stock into a greater number of shares; combines the Company's outstanding Common Stock into a smaller number of shares;

issues shares of Common Stock or preferred stock to any holder of the Company's Common Stock or preferred stock rights to acquire shares of Common Stock or preferred stock at a price per share less than the market price;

pays or distributes to the holders of Common Stock or preferred stock assets, properties or rights to acquire our capital stock at a price per share less than the market price; or makes a distribution consisting solely of cash to the holders of any class of capital stock where, during a specified 12-month period, the cash distribution exceeds 10% of the product of the market price of the Common Stock multiplied by the total number of shares of outstanding Common Stock.

Exceptions to Adjustments. No adjustment will, however, be made to either the conversion rate or the conversion price for issuances of Common Stock or preferred stock, or cash paid to holders of shares of convertible preferred stock as payment for accrued dividends or as a mandatory conversion or mandatory redemption payment.

Other Changes in Conversion Rate. The Company from time to time may increase the conversion rate by any amount for any period of time if the period is at least 20 days and if the increase is irrevocable during the period. Whenever the conversion rate is so increased, the Company will notify registered holders of the Series A Preferred Stock.

The Company may also increase the conversion rate in order to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of Common Stock resulting from any dividend or distribution of stock or issuance of rights or warrants to purchase or subscribe for stock or from any event treated as such for income tax purposes.

The conversion price may not be adjusted to an amount less than $0.001 per share, the current par value of the Common Stock into which the Series A Preferred Stock is convertible.

Mandatory Conversion. Upon giving notice to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company may, at its option, cause the Series A Preferred Stock to be converted in whole or in part, on a pro rata basis, into shares of Common Stock using a conversion price equal to $4.00 if the closing bid price of the Common Stock equals or exceeds 250% of the then current conversion price for at least 20 trading days in any period of 30 consecutive trading days.

Redemption. The Company may, at its option, redeem the Series A Preferred Stock for cash equal to the dividend base amount.

Table of Contents

Class Voting Rights. The Company may not, without the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least 50% of all outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, voting separately as a class:

amend, alter or repeal any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or the Company's bylaws so as adversely to affect the rights of the Series A Preferred Stock, except that the issuance of securities ranking prior to, or pari passu with, the Series A Preferred Stock upon a liquidation event or with respect to the payment of dividends or distributions will not be considered to affect adversely the relative rights of the Series A Preferred Stock; or authorize or issue, or increase the authorized amount of, the convertible preferred stock, other than the Series A Preferred Stock issuable as dividends on the Series A Preferred Stock.

Voting Agreements

The Company has entered into voting agreements with the holders of 59.3% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to which the holders of these shares of Series A Preferred Stock have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the proposed amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation. The vote of these holders will be sufficient to provide the required approval from the holders of Series A Preferred Stock for the amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation, but the amendments will still need to be approved by the holders of the Common Stock voting separately.

In addition, in the voting agreements these holders of Series A Preferred Stock have agreed to convert shares of Series A Preferred Stock held by them, representing 46.3% of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding, into shares of Common Stock during the 30-day period following the filing of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation if the amendments are approved.
