CB BANCSHARES BOARD OF DIRECTORS
REJECTS CPF'S REVISED HOSTILE TAKEOVER PROPOSAL

Recommends that Shareholders Vote Against Control Share Acquisitions Proposal at the Special Meeting of Shareholders on May 28, 2003

HONOLULU, May 12, 2003 – CB Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq: CBBI), the holding company of City Bank, announced today that its Board of Directors, has unanimously rejected Central Pacific Financial Corp.'s (NYSE: CPF) ("CPF") revised hostile takeover proposal to acquire all of CB Bancshares outstanding shares of common stock for a combination of $24.50 in cash and 1.7606 shares of CPF common stock per share of CB Bancshares. Following CB Bancshares' 10 percent stock dividend, the proposal would be adjusted to $22.27 in cash and 1.6005 shares of CPF per share of CB Bancshares.

After careful consideration, including consultation with independent financial and legal advisors, the Board concluded that the revised hostile takeover proposal remains inadequate from a financial point of view and not in the best interest of CB Bancshares. Furthermore, the CB Bancshares Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote against the control share acquisitions proposal at the Special Meeting of Shareholders scheduled for May 28, 2003.

Mr. Lionel Y. Tokioka, CB Bancshares Chairman of the Board said, "Central Pacific's revised proposal – which only slightly modifies the mix of cash and stock – continues to undervalue CB Bancshares and does nothing to address our concerns about the adverse effects the combination of these two banks would have on the people, communities and economy of Hawaii. We believe that Central Pacific's revised proposal is just shibai to try to postpone the date of the CB Bancshares Special Shareholders Meeting. Our shareholders should not be manipulated by Mr. Arnoldus' repeated, self-serving efforts."

CB Bancshares has set May 28th for its Special Meeting of Shareholders for the purpose of voting on CPF's proposed control share acquisition. This date is consistent with the requirements of the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute and was set with the prior agreement of Clinton L. Arnoldus, CPF's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Regarding the May 28th meeting date, Mr. Tokioka said, "CB Bancshares shareholders will have all the information they need to make an informed decision on May 28th, a full six weeks after Mr. Arnoldus publicly announced CPF's proposal."

CB Bancshares noted that it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a notice of meeting and preliminary proxy materials and expects to furnish shareholders with these materials shortly.

Following is a letter sent today from Mr. Tokioka to the CPF Board of Directors:

VIA HAND DELIVERY

May 12, 2003

Clinton L. Arnoldus
Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer
Central Pacific Financial Corp.
220 South King Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Chairman Arnoldus and Directors of Central Pacific Financial Corp.:

The Board of Directors of CB Bancshares, Inc. has unanimously rejected your revised merger proposal set forth in your letter dated May 9, 2003. Please also be advised that the "control share acquisition" contemplated by your proposed exchange offer, as set forth in Amendment No. 2 to your registration statement on Form S-4 filed on May 9, 2003, will be considered by our shareholders at the special meeting you previously requested, which was scheduled by our Board of Directors for May 28, 2003 in accordance with the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute and with your prior agreement.

We have taken note of the extreme contortions you have put yourself through to try to present your revised proposal as a "new offer" in order to assert that the May 28 shareholders meeting is moot. We are sure that you recognize that your so-called "new offer" is nothing more than a slight revision to the terms of your April 15, 2003 merger proposal. The notion that the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute would permit you to cause CB Bancshares to call and cancel special shareholders meetings at your whim simply through an amendment of the terms of your original offer is ludicrous. Under your self-serving interpretation of the law, CB Bancshares would be required to call new shareholders meetings every time that Central Pacific makes a modification to its proposal because it is uncertain about the outcome of the vote relating to its takeover effort. The purpose of the Control Share Acquisitions statute is not to provide a means for usurping the corporate process of CB Bancshares or wasting our resources.

A review of your past conduct with regard to adjustments to your offer demonstrates that your latest tactic is merely a futile attempt to manipulate the statutory voting mechanism:

Subsequent to delivery of your demand under the Control Share Acquisitions statute and prior to May 9, 2003 you modified the terms of your exchange offer on one occasion, and reflected this modification in an amendment to your S-4 registration statement. Interestingly, in that instance, you saw no need to announce the "rescission, revocation and withdrawal" of your original proposal, or to deliver a new information statement.

Despite your insistence that your original exchange offer has been "withdrawn," (1) you have not terminated your S-4 registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with your "old offer," but rather, to the contrary, when you revised your proposal on May 9 you simply did the same thing you did in respect to your previous revision: you reflected that revision in an amendment to your original registration statement, (2) you have not announced an intent to terminate the registration statement you filed with the Hawaii State Commissioner of Securities or to file a new registration statement and obtain a new clearance from that office, and (3) you have not announced the withdrawal of your applications with the Acting Commissioner of the Division of Financial Institutions and the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. Your actions prove the inconsistency of your position.

We therefore reject your artifice of "revoking" your original offer and demand for a meeting only to replace the original offer with a so-called "new offer" and demand for a "new meeting." On May 28, 2003, we will hold a special meeting and our shareholders will determine whether you should be permitted to vote any shares you acquire in your proposed exchange offer. We are confident that our shareholders will be able to absorb the revision to your proposal in plenty of time to make an informed decision. To the extent that you continue to believe that our shareholders need further information regarding your hostile bid in advance of the shareholder meeting, you should commence immediate distribution of your proxy solicitation material in the manner permitted by the Securities and Exchange Commission, instead of engaging in delaying tactics and maneuvering to advance your own position.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lionel Y. Tokioka
Chairman of the Board
