Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

On March 3, 2009, Lime exchanged 2,252,341 shares of its common stock for 1,060,421,884 shares of the Company s Common Stock held by stockholders of the Company (the Sellers) representing approximately 90.8% of the Company s issued and outstanding shares, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated November 18, 2008 (the Stock Purchase Agreement). Lime then completed a short-form merger in which it merged the Company with and into a newly formed merger subsidiary, with the merger subsidiary remaining as the surviving entity. Lime will exchange all remaining shares of the Company s Common Stock for shares of Lime s common stock at the rate of 0.002124 of a share of the Lime s common stock for each share of the Company s Common Stock, pursuant to a Form S-4 registration statement (reg. no. 333-156924) that was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 6, 2009. Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The purpose of the acquisition of the Company by Lime was for Lime to obtain access to the Company s assets, including approximately $7.4 million of cash, an $800,000 note receivable and a Revolving Credit Note issued by the Lime that had an outstanding balance of approximately $52,000. Lime has cancelled the Revolving Credit Note and does not plan to continue to operate the Company as a going concern after the closing.

Richard P. Kiphart, one of the Sellers, was the beneficial owner of more than 80% of the shares of the Company and served as its Chairman, on one hand, and, after the closing of the purchase and the merger, is the beneficial owner of approximately 40% of the shares of Lime and serves as its Chairman, on the other hand. David Valentine is also a shareholder and director of Lime and was a shareholder and director of the Company. Christopher Capps, a former shareholder, director and the President and CEO of the Company, was elected to the Board of Directors of Lime pursuant to a provision in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Following the short-form merger, the registration of the Company's common stock was terminated under the Securities Exchange Act and the common stock is no longer publicly traded on the OTC Bulletin Board or elsewhere.

Pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Lime elected the former President and CEO of the Company to Lime's board of directors.
