The term of the Moseley Employment Agreement began on June 28, 2002, and continues for seven years or until it is terminated for death, disability, for cause, for good reason or upon mutual written agreement. The Moseley Employment Agreement also may be terminated upon six (6) months prior written notice of termination from Integrity to Mr. Moseley; however, Integrity, at its sole discretion, may elect to pay Mr. Moseley an amount equal to his salary for six (6) months in lieu of providing such notice. If Mr. Moseley is terminated by Integrity upon six months notice or Mr. Moseley terminates the Moseley Employment Agreement for good reason, he will be entitled to receive as a severance benefit severance payments in an amount equal to his annual salary at the time of termination for the remaining term of the Moseley Employment Agreement (or the remaining term of the covenant not to compete, whichever period is longer) plus any unpaid portion of the Retention Bonus. The Moseley Employment Agreement also contains non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions.

Change in Control Agreements. Integrity has entered into change in control agreements (the Change in Control Agreements) with certain Named Executive Officers as well as other senior officers of Integrity. The Change in Control Agreements provide that in the event the officer is employed by Integrity at the time of a Change in Control (as defined in the Change in Control Agreement), the officer shall be entitled to supplemental employment benefits should his employment with Integrity terminate within 18 months after the Change in Control has occurred. The Change in Control Agreements provide that such termination of employment can be involuntary, other than termination for cause or the result of death, disability, or retirement age, or voluntary, following a material change in the nature or location of his position or a material change in the benefits provided to the officer by Integrity. The supplemental benefits that are required to be provided to the officer upon such a termination include a severance payment in an amount equal to one-half of the officer's annual base salary as well as various other benefits, including basic life insurance, long-term disability insurance, health insurance and other medical benefits.

Without the consent of the officer, the terms of the Change in Control Agreement may be terminated or amended by Integrity following the first anniversary of its execution and at any time prior to the first to occur of (i) a Change in Control, (ii) the public announcement of a proposal for a transaction that, if consummated, will constitute a Change in Control, or (iii) the Board of Directors learning of a proposal for a transaction that, if consummated, would constitute a Change in Control. Upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, the Change in Control Agreements continue in effect at such time without termination or further change by Integrity until the earlier of (x) 18 months following any Change in Control, or (y) the final withdrawal or termination of a proposal under item (ii) or (iii) that, had it been consummated, would have constituted a Change in Control, at which time the Change in Control Agreement may, once again, be amended or terminated by Integrity until one of such events occurs.

A Change in Control, as defined in the Change in Control Agreements, includes, among other things: a change of control of Integrity such that any person, other than current affiliates of Integrity, becomes the beneficial owner of securities of Integrity representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of Integrity s then outstanding securities; any consolidation, merger or share exchange involving Integrity in which Integrity is not the continuing or surviving corporation or pursuant to which shares of Integrity stock would be converted into cash, securities or other property; the stockholders of Integrity approving any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Integrity; or substantially all of the assets of Integrity being sold or otherwise transferred to parties that are not within a controlled group of corporations in which Integrity is a member.

Severance Agreements. Integrity has entered into severance agreements (the Severance Agreements) with certain Named Executive Officers as well as other senior officers of Integrity. The Severance Agreements provide for the payment of severance benefits to such persons upon their termination of employment by Integrity without cause. Such persons are not entitled to severance benefits under the Severance Agreement if they voluntarily resign, quit, abandon their job or cannot perform their duties due to death or disability. In addition, if an officer is entitled to severance benefits upon termination of employment under the terms of a Change in Control Agreement, as described above, the officer will not be entitled to any benefits under the Severance Agreement.

The Executive Nonqualified Excess Plan. Effective December 1, 2002, Integrity adopted the Executive Nonqualified Excess Plan of Integrity Media, Inc. (the Excess Plan), which provides a means for certain Named Executive Officers as well as other senior officers of Integrity to defer receipt of a portion of their current compensation until retirement. Under the Excess Plan, eligible participants may defer up to 20% of their annual base salary and 50% of their annual or long-term incentive bonus, with gains and losses debited and credited based on the performance of one or more investment funds chosen by the participant. Under the Excess Plan, Integrity has the right to decide annually whether matching credits will be made on behalf of the participants. Integrity did not make any matching credits in fiscal 2003.

Long-Term Incentive Plan. On November 2, 2001, Integrity's Board of Directors adopted the Integrity Incorporated 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the 2001 LTIP). The 2001 LTIP became effective as of its approval by the Board of Directors and was approved at Integrity's Annual Meeting of Stockholders in May 2002. The 2001 LTIP permits grants of incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, performance shares, restricted stock and other stock based awards. Integrity has reserved for issuance upon the grant or exercise of awards pursuant to this plan 400,000 shares of authorized but unissued shares of Class A Common Stock. At December 31, 2003, there were 50,000 shares of Class A restricted stock outstanding under the 2001 LTIP. There are 350,000 shares available for grants under the 2001 LTIP.

Compensation of Directors

Integrity pays an annual retainer of $12,000 (or $1,000 per month), plus $1,000 for each Board meeting attended and $500 for each Committee meeting attended by its directors who are not employees of Integrity, former employees of Integrity or members of the immediate family of a current or former employee of Integrity. Integrity also reimburses the directors for travel expenses incurred in connection with their activities on behalf of Integrity.

Pursuant to the Integrity Incorporated 2002 Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors (the Director Plan), each director (other than employees, former employees or immediate family members of current or former employees) automatically receives, on the day of each annual meeting of stockholders, a grant of options to purchase 5,000 shares of Class A Common Stock. Such options have an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock at the date of grant of the option.

In addition, in connection with their role on the special committee of independent directors with respect to the negotiation and execution of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated March 1, 2004 by and among Integrity, Kona Acquisition Corp. and P. Michael Coleman, Jimmy M. Woodward (Chairman), Heeth Varnedoe III and William A. Jolly were each given a compensation package consisting of a $5,000 retainer plus $500 for each special committee meeting.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee is composed of Heath Varnedoe III (Chairman), Jimmy M. Woodward and William A. Jolly. There are no interlocks, as defined by the SEC, with respect to any member of the Compensation Committee.
