February 9, 2005

Dear Stockholder:

I am cordially inviting you to attend a Special Meeting of Stockholders of Cypress Communications Holding Co., Inc. (Cypress), on March 15, 2005, at 9:00 a.m. local time. The meeting will be held at our principal executive offices located at Fifteen Piedmont Center, 3575 Piedmont Road, Suite 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30305.

As described in the enclosed proxy statement, at this important special meeting of stockholders you will be asked to consider and vote upon the merger of TechInvest Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Mergerco), with and into Cypress such that Cypress would be the surviving corporation of the merger and wholly-owned subsidiary of TechInvest Holding Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Buyer). Upon consummation of the merger, each stockholder will be entitled to receive for each share of Cypress common stock owned at the time of the merger, an estimated $1.71 in cash, without interest, which amount is calculated based on a preliminary Cypress balance sheet as of December 31, 2004, adjusted for the exercise of warrants subsequent to such date, and is subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital, as described in the enclosed proxy statement. If approved by the stockholders, the merger would be accomplished pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 5, 2004, as amended on February 3, 2005, by and between Cypress, Buyer and Mergerco.

The board of directors, taking into consideration the fairness opinion rendered by an independent financial advisor, unanimously approved and authorized the merger agreement and the related merger, and has determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the related merger are fair to, and in the best interests of, Cypress and its stockholders, and that the merger is advisable. Accordingly, your board recommends that Cypress stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger.

We cannot complete the merger unless a majority of Cypress issued and outstanding shares of common stock and a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock entitled to vote upon the merger approve the merger agreement. The common stockholders and the Series A preferred stockholders will vote upon the merger agreement as separate classes. Certain of our directors and stockholders, who collectively beneficially own 38.5% of our issued and outstanding shares of common stock and 89.6% of our issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock, entered into voting agreements with Buyer pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their respective shares in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger and against any action or agreement that would reasonably be expected to impede, delay or adversely affect the merger.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please fill out, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy promptly in the envelope provided. Your shares will then be represented at the special meeting. If your proxy card is signed and returned without specific voting instructions, your shares of common stock or Series A preferred stock will be voted FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger as recommended by the board of directors. If you attend the special meeting, you may continue to have your shares voted as instructed on your proxy or, by following the procedures discussed in the accompanying documents, withdraw your proxy and vote your shares in person.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. IF YOU FAIL TO RETURN THE PROXY CARD OR VOTE IN PERSON AT THE SPECIAL MEETING, IT WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS A VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER.

The accompanying notice of special meeting, proxy statement and proxy card explain the proposed merger and provide specific information concerning the special meeting. Please read the materials carefully.

Sincerely,

Ross J. Mangano
Chairman of the Board of Directors

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

This summary term sheet highlights selected information from this proxy statement but does not contain all of the information that may be important to you. We encourage you to read this proxy statement in its entirety and the attached appendices before voting. The actual terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, which we have attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A. The information contained in this summary term sheet is qualified in its entirety by reference to the more detailed information beginning on page 11 of this proxy statement and the appendices, as applicable.

Overview

We are furnishing this proxy statement to our stockholders to allow you to consider and vote on a proposal to approve the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that TechInvest Holding Company, Inc. will acquire Cypress Communications Holding Co., Inc. for the aggregate merger consideration of approximately $40.285 million, subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital. The merger agreement provides that the merger consideration will first be used to repay and satisfy Cypress' outstanding indebtedness under its term loan and convertible debt, which, as of December 31, 2004, was $20,479,517, as well as any unpaid transaction fees and expenses of Cypress, which are currently estimated to be $900,000. See SPECIAL FACTORS Fees and Expenses of the Merger; Debt Repayment. The merger consideration will then be used to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock through the merger of TechInvest Acquisition, Inc., the wholly-owned subsidiary of TechInvest Holding Company, Inc., with and into Cypress, and to cash out outstanding warrants and stock options that have an exercise price less than the per share merger consideration. At the effective time of the merger, stockholders will be entitled to receive the merger consideration (as defined in the merger agreement).

The Merger (See THE MERGER AGREEMENT on page 43)

If the stockholders approve the merger agreement, Buyer will acquire Cypress for the aggregate merger consideration of approximately $40.285 million, subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital, through the merger of Mergerco with and into Cypress, with Cypress surviving the merger and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer. The merger will occur according to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, which are described in this proxy statement and are attached as Appendix A. The merger consideration will first be used to repay and satisfy our outstanding indebtedness under our term loan and our convertible debt, which, as of December 31, 2004, was $20,479,517, as well as any unpaid transaction fees and expenses, which are currently estimated to be $900,000. Thereafter, each stockholder will receive for each share of our common stock owned at the time of the merger, an estimated $1.71 in cash, without interest, which amount is calculated based on a preliminary Cypress balance sheet as of December 31, 2004, adjusted for the exercise of warrants subsequent to such date, and is subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital. As of December 31, 2004, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to holders of our currently outstanding common stock is $11,497,000, based on the per share merger consideration as calculated above.

At the effective time of the merger, all stock options issued and outstanding prior to the merger, whether vested or unvested, will immediately vest and become exercisable. Optionholders will have the right to receive, upon exercise and on a per share basis, the estimated $1.71 in cash to be paid to the holders of our common stock in the merger, subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital, less the exercise price, less any applicable withholding and similar deductions. We have agreed to use our best efforts to cause our holders of stock options to enter into agreements that will provide for such a exercise as well as for the cancellation of their stock options for which the exercise price is in excess of the per share merger consideration. Cypress is providing optionholders an opportunity to cash out their options to purchase shares of Cypress common stock. Should the optionholders accept this opportunity, on consummation of the merger, Cypress will pay them the sum of (i) $.05 plus the excess of the merger consideration over the exercise price per share of their options for each share of common stock underlying their options, to the extent the merger consideration is greater than the exercise price of their options, and (ii) $.05 per share for each share of common stock underlying their options to the extent that the merger consideration is equal to or less than the exercise price per share of their options. As of December 31, 2004, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to the stock option holders is $3,256,000, based on the per share merger consideration as calculated above.

At the effective time of the merger, all warrants issued and outstanding, whether exercisable or unexercisable, prior to the merger will convert into the right to receive, upon exercise and on a per share basis, the estimated $1.71 in cash to be paid to the holders of our common stock in the merger, subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital, less the exercise price, less any applicable withholding and similar deductions. We have agreed to use our best efforts to cause our warrant holders to exercise or, if the exercise price is in excess of the per share merger consideration, cancel their warrants. As of

Table of Contents

December 31, 2004, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to warrant holders is $12,452,000, based on the per share merger consideration as calculated above.

The aggregate merger consideration and the per share price is subject to a final adjustment, upwards or downwards, based upon the change in certain assets and liabilities between July 31, 2004, and the measurement date (which is the end of the month immediately prior to the anticipated closing date or, if the end of such month is less than 30 days from the anticipated closing date, the end of the second month immediately prior to the anticipated closing date). We refer to this adjustment to the merger consideration as the adjustment for changes in working capital.

Each share of Series A preferred stock will, prior to the effective time of the merger, be redeemed by Cypress for its par value of $0.001 for the aggregate amount of $0.10.

At the effective time of the merger, Mergerco will cease to exist as a separate entity. Each issued and outstanding share of Mergerco common stock will be converted into one share of Cypress common stock.

The directors and executive officers of Mergerco will be directors and executive officers of Cypress after the merger.

Required Vote (See THE SPECIAL MEETING Required Vote; Effect of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes on page 16)

Under Delaware law and our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of our issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote and a majority of our issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock entitled to vote, voting as separate classes.

Voting Agreements

(See VOTING AGREEMENTS on page 54)

Ross J. Mangano, the chairman of the board of directors, and his affiliate, Jo & Co., and Gerard H. Sweeney, a director, and his affiliate, Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., which collectively have the power to vote shares of common stock representing 38.5% of our issued and outstanding common stock, are parties to a common stockholders voting agreement with Buyer, a copy of which we have attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. Pursuant to this voting agreement, these stockholders agreed to vote their shares of common stock in favor of the merger agreement.

Noro-Moseley V, LLP, an affiliate of Steve G. Nussrallah, a director, and Wakefield Group III, LLC, an affiliate of Michael F. Elliot, a director, which collectively have the power to vote shares of Series A preferred stock representing 89.6% of our issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock, are parties to a preferred stockholders voting agreement with Buyer, a copy of which we have attached to this proxy statement as Appendix C. Pursuant to this voting agreement, these stockholders agreed to vote their shares of Series A preferred stock in favor of the merger agreement and, as such, the merger agreement is expected to be approved by the Series A preferred stockholders.

Purpose and Reasons for the Merger (See SPECIAL FACTORS Purpose and Reasons for the Merger on page 21)

Our board of directors has unanimously determined that, for the reasons discussed in detail in the proxy statement, the merger agreement is fair to, and in the best interests of, Cypress and its stockholders and that the merger is advisable.

We believe that the merger would afford our stockholders an opportunity to sell their common stock at a price that represents a premium of approximately 100%, 100% and 60% over the average one year, six month and 60 trading day closing price before the announcement of the proposed merger. Our stockholders would not otherwise have this opportunity due to the lack of liquidity of our common stock over the past 12 months. Further, due to the lack of interest in public companies with small market capitalization, and in particular in telecommunications companies with a relatively narrow business focus, it is highly speculative whether Cypress would ever achieve significant market value and, as such, whether we or our stockholders benefit from us being a public company.

Opinion of Independent Financial Advisor (See SPECIAL FACTORS Opinion of Financial Advisor to the Board of Directors on page 24)

Our board of directors retained Breckenridge Securities Corp., or Breckenridge, on February 2, 2004, as an independent financial advisor in connection with the board's evaluation of the sale of Cypress.

On November 5, Breckenridge delivered to the board of directors its opinion that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various limitations, qualifications and assumptions stated in the opinion, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to the holders of our common stock and Series A preferred stock together in connection with the merger agreement is fair to them from a financial point of view. A copy of Breckenridge's written opinion, which describes the assumptions, limitations and qualifications to which it is subject, is included as Appendix D to this proxy statement, which you should read carefully and in its entirety.

Approval of the Board of Directors (See SPECIAL FACTORS Recommendation of the Board of Directors on page 22)

Taking into account various factors, including the opinion of Breckenridge, the board of directors has unanimously determined that the terms of the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, us and our stockholders and have recommended that the stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (See SPECIAL FACTORS Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger on page 33)

In considering the recommendations of our board of directors, you should be aware that certain Cypress officers and directors have interests in the proposed merger that are different from or in addition to your interests as a Cypress stockholder generally, including the following:

Ross J. Mangano, chairman of the board of directors, beneficially owns 2,183,401 shares of our issued and outstanding common stock and warrants convertible into 583,192 shares of our common stock, consisting of warrants with an exercise price of $1.13 per share that are exercisable for 310,500 shares of common stock and warrants with an exercise price of $3.25 per share that are exercisable for 272,692 shares of common stock. Along with the other

Michael F. Elliot, a director, is the managing director of Wakefield Group III, LLC and may be deemed to beneficially own the warrants exercisable for, as of February 7, 2005, 1,803,919 shares of our common stock at the exercise price of $1.13 per share, and the 16.7 shares of our Series A preferred stock owned by Wakefield. McGraw, Collura and Miller, will be entitled to receive a cash payment in respect of the cancellation of their respective Cypress stock options.

We have granted to our executive officers retention awards payable upon a change of control, including the consummation of this merger, if within twelve months following the change of control the executive officer is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason.

It is expected that, following the merger, senior managers of Cypress will be granted options to purchase shares of common stock of the surviving corporation.

Other than the expected grant of new options in the surviving corporation to the senior managers, the board of directors was aware of the different or additional interests set forth above, and considered such interests along with other matters in approving the merger agreement and the related merger.

Under the merger agreement, Cypress has agreed for a period of six years following the date of the merger to maintain the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, subject to certain limitations, and to indemnify current and former directors and officers for certain specified losses and liabilities.

No Solicitation of Competing Transactions (See THE MERGER AGREEMENT No Solicitation of Competing Transactions on page 50)

The merger agreement prohibits us from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or knowingly taking other action to facilitate the submission of any competing transaction to the merger. We refer to these prohibitions as no shop provisions. The board of directors may, however, prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting and in response to any unsolicited inquiry or proposal for a competing transaction, furnish information or engage in discussions relating to such inquiry or proposal, provided appropriate notice is given to Buyer. Following receipt of a bona fide proposal relating to a competing transaction, at any time prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting, the board of directors may withdraw or modify its recommendation or disclose to our stockholders its position or recommendation on the competing transaction.

A termination fee in the sum of $1,500,000 will be payable to Buyer in the event that the merger agreement is terminated following:

the failure of our stockholders to approve the merger;

the withdrawal or modification of our board of directors' approval or recommendation of the merger or the merger agreement;

the approval or recommendation by our board of directors of a competing transaction, or the execution of an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement relating to a competing transaction, or a public proposal by our board of directors to do so;

the failure of our board of directors to recommend rejection of a competing transaction;

the breach or circumvention of the no shop provisions in the merger agreement, where such breach or circumvention results in a proposal for a competing transaction; or our failure to give notice of or hold a meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

In the circumstances described above, the termination fee is payable within one business day of the termination of the merger agreement.

Conditions to the Merger (See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions on page 51)

The obligations of each party to complete the merger depend on the following conditions:

- our stockholders approving the merger agreement;
- the absence of any legal prohibitions to the consummation of the merger;
- the determination of closing net working capital in accordance with the merger agreement; and
- the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger.

Our obligation to complete the merger depends on the following conditions:

- the representations and warranties of Buyer and Mergerco in the merger agreement being true and correct;
- the satisfactory performance by Buyer and Mergerco of their covenants and agreements under the merger agreement;
- Buyer's delivery of the merger consideration to the paying agent; and
- the delivery by Buyer and Mergerco of an Officer's Certificate to the effect that the above three conditions have been satisfied.

The obligation of Buyer and Mergerco to complete the merger depends on the following conditions:

- any failure of our representations and warranties in the merger agreement to be true and correct not having an adverse effect (exceeding $2,000,000) on our business, assets or liabilities, financial condition or results of operations or on our ability to perform our obligations under the merger agreement;
- our satisfactory performance of our covenants and agreements under the merger agreement;
- our delivery of an Officer's Certificate to the effect that the above two conditions have been satisfied;
- redemption of the issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock;
- repayment of the outstanding indebtedness under our term loan and convertible debt;
- holders of less than 10% of our issued and outstanding common stock having properly demanded appraisal rights;
- our directors having tendered their resignations;

the absence of any pending governmental actions regarding Buyer's ownership of us or the merger, or which would otherwise have a material adverse effect on us; and no events having occurred which have, or which would reasonably be expected to have, in the discretion of Buyer, a material adverse effect on us.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination on page 53)

The merger agreement may be terminated for several reasons, including if:

we and Buyer agree in writing to terminate the merger agreement;

the merger is not completed on or prior to July 18, 2005;

there has been an action by a governmental entity permanently prohibiting the merger;

required approval by any governmental entity is denied;

our stockholders do not approve the merger agreement;

either our or Buyer's and Mergerco's conditions have become incapable of fulfillment;

there has been a breach by any party of any material representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the merger agreement;

our board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger or the merger agreement;

our board of directors approves or recommends a competing transaction, or executes an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement relating to a competing transaction, or our board of directors publicly proposes to do so;

our board of directors fails to recommend the rejection of a competing transaction;

we breach or circumvent the no shop provisions in the merger agreement, where such breach or circumvention results in a proposal for a competing transaction; or

we fail to give notice of or hold a meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger agreement.

We will be required to pay a termination fee of $1,500,000 to Buyer if the merger agreement is terminated because:

our stockholders do not approve the merger;

our board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger or the merger agreement;

our board of directors approves or recommends a competing transaction, or executes an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement relating to a competing transaction, or our board of directors publicly proposes to do so;

our board of directors fails to recommend the rejection of a competing transaction;

we breach or circumvent the no shop provisions in the merger agreement, where such breach or circumvention results in a proposal for a competing transaction; or

we fail to give notice of our hold a special meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger agreement.

In the event our board of directors determines that a competing transaction represents a superior offer, we do not have the right to terminate the merger agreement and we will remain obligated to convene and hold a special meeting of stockholders to consider the transactions discussed in this proxy statement. We may, however, terminate the merger agreement if our stockholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the stockholders meeting. In addition, the voting agreements will terminate if the board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following questions and answers are intended to address briefly some commonly asked questions regarding the special meeting to be held for the purpose of voting on the merger agreement. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a stockholder. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the appendices to this proxy statement and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

Q: What is the date, time and place of the special meeting of stockholders?

A: The special meeting of stockholders will be held on March 15, 2005, at 9:00 a.m. local time, at our principal executive offices located at Fifteen Piedmont Center, 3575 Piedmont Road, Suite 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30305.

Q. What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the related merger pursuant to which Mergerco, a subsidiary of Buyer, will merge with and into Cypress, with Cypress being the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Only stockholders as of the close of business on February 7, 2005, the record date, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting, or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Q: What happens if I sell my Cypress shares before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the expected date of the merger. If you own shares of our common stock or Series A preferred stock on the record date but transfer your shares after the record date, but before the merger, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting. Your right, however, to receive for each share of our common stock owned at the time of the merger, an estimated $1.71 in cash, without interest, which amount is calculated based on a preliminary Cypress balance sheet as of December 31, 2004, adjusted for the exercise of warrants subsequent to such date, and is subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital, or the redemption price per share of Series A preferred stock will pass to the person to whom you transferred your shares.

Q: How many shares need to be represented at the meeting?

A: The holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock and the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. As of the record date, there were 6,723,395 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and 100 shares of Series A preferred stock issued and outstanding. If you vote by proxy card or in person at the special meeting, you will be considered part of the quorum.

Q: What vote is required to approve the merger agreement?

A: Under Delaware law and our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of our issued and outstanding common stock and a majority of our issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock. Certain of our common stockholders who own 38.5% of our common stock have entered into a voting agreement with Buyer pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. Certain of our Series A preferred stockholders who own 89.6% of our Series A preferred stock have entered into a voting agreement with Buyer pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. As a result of the Series A preferred stock voting agreement, the merger agreement is expected to be approved by the Series A stockholders.

Q: How do I vote?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in the proxy statement, complete, date and sign your proxy card and then mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the prepaid return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting. If your shares are held in street name by your broker or other nominee, your broker or other nominee will provide you instructions on how to have your vote counted. Your shares will be voted as you direct on your proxy card.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Generally, your broker will not have the power to vote your shares. Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide him or her with instructions on how to vote. Any failure to instruct your broker on how to vote in favor of the merger agreement will have the effect of a vote against the proposed merger. You should follow the directions provided by your broker on how to instruct your broker to vote your shares.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote by sending a written notice to our Secretary stating that you would like to revoke your proxy or by completing and submitting to our Secretary prior to the special meeting a new, later-dated proxy card. You also can attend the special meeting and vote in person. If your shares are held in street name, you must follow the directions provided by your broker to change your vote.

Q: What happens if I don't return a proxy card?

A: If you fail to return a proxy card, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger agreement.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. If the merger agreement is approved by the stockholders, we will send you, after the merger is completed, written instructions for surrendering your stock certificates. You must return your stock certificates as described in those instructions to receive the cash payment in connection with the merger.

Q: Will the merger be a taxable transaction for me?

A: If you are a U.S. taxpayer, your exchange of shares for cash in the merger will be a taxable sale of your shares of our common stock for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, you will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash you receive in the merger for your shares of our common stock and (2) the tax basis of your shares of our common stock. Refer to the section entitled SPECIAL FACTORS U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger for a more detailed explanation of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. You should consult your tax advisor on how specific tax consequences of the merger apply to you.

Q: May I exercise dissenters appraisal rights in the merger?

A: Our stockholders are entitled to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the merger. If you do not vote in favor of the proposed merger and it is completed, you may dissent and seek appraisal of the fair value of your shares under Delaware law, if you comply with all the required procedures under Delaware law, as explained under APPRAISAL RIGHTS beginning on page 55 and in Appendix E to this proxy statement.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We hope to complete the merger as soon as practicable after the date of the special meeting if the merger agreement is approved by the stockholders, but not earlier than the time all the federal and state regulatory notices are provided and approvals are received. We cannot assure you as to when the merger will occur, if ever.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you have any questions about the merger or would like additional copies of the proxy statement, you should contact:

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time, and Place

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for the special meeting of stockholders to be held on March 15, 2005, at 9:00 a.m., or at any adjournments or postponements thereof, at our principal executive offices located at Fifteen Piedmont Center, 3575 Piedmont Road, Suite 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30305. These proxy materials are first being sent to stockholders on or about February 9, 2005.

Purposes of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, our stockholders will be asked to:

(1) consider and vote upon the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger; and

(2) transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof, including to consider any procedural matters incident to the conduct of the special meeting, such as the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the related merger.

The board of directors, including all the non-employee directors, has unanimously approved and authorized the merger agreement and the related merger, and determined that the merger is advisable, and recommends that the stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger.

Record Date; Voting Rights

The board of directors has fixed the close of business on February 7, 2005 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, we had 6,723,395 issued and outstanding shares of common stock held of record by approximately 114 holders and 100 issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock held of record by four holders.

Each issued and outstanding share of capital stock entitled to vote at the special meeting will have one vote on all matters coming before the special meeting. The common stockholders and the Series A preferred stockholders will vote as separate classes.

Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, you are urged to sign, date and return the accompanying proxy card. If your proxy card is signed and returned without specific voting instructions, your shares of common stock or Series A preferred stock will be voted FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the related merger as recommended by the board of directors.

Quorum

The presence, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock on the record date entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum of common stockholders for the transaction of business at the meeting. The presence, either in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of

Table of Contents

Series A preferred stock on the record date entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum of Series A stockholders for the transaction of business at the meeting.

Required Vote; Effect of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Under Delaware law and our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, the merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our issued outstanding shares of common stock and the holders of a majority of our issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock, voting as a separate class. At a special meeting of the board of directors held on November 5, 2004, the terms of the merger agreement were unanimously approved by the board of directors.

Ross J. Mangano, the chairman of the board of directors, and his affiliate, Jo & Co., and Gerard H. Sweeney, a director, and his affiliate, Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., which collectively have the power to vote shares of common stock representing 38.5% of our issued and outstanding common stock, are parties to a common stockholders voting agreement with Buyer, a copy of which we have attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. Pursuant to this voting agreement, these stockholders agreed to vote their shares of common stock in favor of the merger agreement.

Noro-Moseley V, LLP, an affiliate of Steve G. Nussrallah, a director, and Wakefield Group III, LLC, an affiliate of Michael F. Elliot, a director, which collectively have the power to vote shares of Series A preferred stock representing 89.6% of our issued and outstanding Series A preferred stock, are parties to a preferred stockholders voting agreement with Buyer, a copy of which we have attached to this proxy statement as Appendix C. Pursuant to this voting agreement, these stockholders agreed to vote their shares of Series A preferred stock in favor of the merger agreement and, as such, the merger agreement is expected to be approved by the Series A preferred stockholders.

The inspectors of election will treat shares of our common stock and Series A preferred stock represented by proxies that are marked ABSTAIN as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting and for purposes of determining the outcome of any question submitted to the stockholders for a vote. Therefore, abstentions will have the same effect as votes against the approval of the merger agreement.

Brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have authority to vote on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. These brokers, however, are precluded from exercising their voting discretion in respect of the approval of non-routine matters like approving the merger agreement. A broker non-vote occurs when a bank, broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Properly executed broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists and will have the same effect as votes against approval of the merger agreement.

Action to be Taken Under the Proxy

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the board of directors. Giving a proxy does not mean that you cannot vote in person if you attend the special meeting and decide that you wish to vote by ballot. You have an unconditional right to revoke your proxy at any time prior to its exercise, either by filing with our secretary at our principal executive offices a written revocation or a properly completed and signed proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person by ballot at the special meeting. Attendance at the special meeting without casting a ballot will not, by itself, constitute revocation of a proxy.

Table of Contents

All shares of common stock and shares of Series A preferred stock represented at the special meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the special meeting, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the special meeting in the manner indicated on the proxies. Unless other instructions are given, properly executed proxies will be voted FOR the approval of the merger agreement as recommended by the board of directors.

When considering a motion to adjourn or postpone the special meeting to another time and/or place (including, without limitation, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies or allowing additional time for the satisfaction of conditions to the merger) or such other business and matters as may properly come before the special meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy and acting by the authority in the proxy generally will have discretion to vote on adjournment or postponement or such other business and matters using their best judgment. Other than as described in the Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders, there are no other matters to be brought before the special meeting.

Proxy Solicitation

We and Buyer will bear equally the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing this proxy statement, the Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders and the enclosed form of proxy. We have retained Morrow & Company, Inc. to aid in the solicitation of proxies and to verify records relating to the solicitation. Morrow & Company, Inc. will receive a fee for its services of $5,000 and expense reimbursement. We are requesting that any trustees, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries forward copies of the proxy material to their principals and request authority for the execution of proxies. We may reimburse those persons for their expenses in so doing. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, our directors, officers and employees and subsidiaries may solicit proxies by telephone, facsimile, telegram or in person. These directors, officers and employees will not be additionally compensated for such solicitation but maybe reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred. No solicitation costs have been incurred to date.

No person is authorized to give any information or make any representation not contained in this proxy statement, and if given or made, such information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorized with respect to the merger agreement, or other matters addressed in this proxy statement.

IF THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER IS APPROVED AND THE MERGER IS CONSUMMATED, YOU WILL BE SENT INSTRUCTIONS AND LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL REGARDING THE SURRENDER OF YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES. YOU SHOULD NOT SEND YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES UNTIL YOU RECEIVE THESE INSTRUCTIONS.

SPECIAL FACTORS

Background of the Merger

In late 2003, representatives of Noro-Moseley V, LLP and Wakefield Group III, LLC were approached about possibly selling their interest in our company. We also were directly approached on an unsolicited basis about whether we would have an interest in a sale of the company. As a result, our board of directors met and determined to formally study whether the board should undertake a review of our strategic alternatives generally and engage an investment banking firm in that regard.

On February 2, 2004, we engaged Breckenridge to evaluate our current business plan and assist our board in evaluating our strategic alternatives. We issued a press release on February 4, 2004, announcing that our board had decided to explore our strategic alternatives in light of some unsolicited indications of interest from other companies and financial entities, as well as our desire to expand our growth capital facilities.

On February 24, 2004, Breckenridge and our outside counsel, Hunton & Williams LLP, which we refer to as Hunton & Williams, met with our board to begin the formal process of pursuing strategic alternatives. Alternatives discussed included seeking a change of control through the sale or merger of the entire business, refinancing the operation to redeem the convertible debt and bridge loan and maintaining the status quo. The board instructed Breckenridge to work with management to begin to draft a confidential information memorandum that would describe our company, to create a list of potential acquirors and to consider possible new investors for the company. Our board informed Breckenridge that the board would schedule a follow-up meeting to pursue these topics after Breckenridge prepared their materials.

At a meeting on March, 31, 2004, our board of directors authorized Breckenridge to commence preparation for a process to solicit on a widespread basis potential interest in acquiring the company.

At a meeting on May 4, 2004, Breckenridge presented to our board a possible timetable for conducting the sale process. Breckenridge also identified and reviewed the interested parties that had contacted Breckenridge following the February 4 press release, along with other possible additional parties which could be contacted. Our board, together with Breckenridge and Hunton & Williams, discussed the benefits and risks of commencing a process at this time or waiting and determined to commence a process to be able to ascertain the level of interest in acquiring us.

On May 10, 2004, Breckenridge began the process of contacting a pool of potential partners and formally responding to inquiries that had been made by interested parties.

Breckenridge met with our board on June 11, 2004, to provide an update on the process. Breckenridge identified the 76 strategic and financial partners that had been contacted and the 34 of those that had executed confidentiality agreements and had been provided the confidential information memorandum. Included among these parties was Crescent, which was contacted on June 8, 2004, and executed a confidentiality agreement on that same date.

On June 24, 2004, Breckenridge and Hunton & Williams further reviewed the process with our board. Breckenridge noted that it had concluded the initial phase of the process and received 10 proposals. Breckenridge recommended the selection of three parties to continue the process, which parties proposed enterprise valuations (including the assumption of negative working capital) ranging from Crescent's initial valuation of $34,260,000 to $36,260,000 on the low end to a valuation from a potential strategic buyer of $44,260,000 to $54,260,000 on the high end. These proposed purchase prices were for 100% of the stock of the Company and were to be payable in various forms from all cash to all stock.

For the balance of July and into the beginning of August 2004, our company and Breckenridge held diligence meetings with these three bidders. During this time one of the bidders with the highest indicated valuation withdrew from the process and a new strategic bidder with a similar value range, who we will refer to as Company X, emerged and was granted access to the data room material and management meetings.

On August 25, 2004, Breckenridge and Hunton & Williams met with our board to review the process and evaluate the next steps to take. During this meeting, the parties evaluated the status of each of the three bidders currently under consideration. Breckenridge recommended, and our board approved, actions to proceed with Crescent and Company X, excuse the other bidder from the process, provide to each party a draft of the definitive merger agreement prepared by Hunton & Williams and ask each party to continue diligence and to deliver their final proposal and a mark-up of the merger agreement. On August 31, 2004, Crescent's legal advisor, King & Spalding LLP, which we refer to as King & Spalding, returned a preliminary markup of the merger agreement to Hunton & Williams.

On September 8, 2004, Breckenridge and Hunton & Williams reviewed with our board a summary of the final proposals and the key contract terms from each of the two finalists. Crescent's proposed valuation was $37.2 million payable in cash and Company X's proposed valuation was $45 million payable in a combination of cash and common stock of the other party. Our board considered many aspects of each proposal, including the following: (a) the valuation implied by each proposal, (b) the status of due diligence of each of the parties, (c) the nature of any outstanding issues, (d) an overview of recent discussions and/or meetings with each party, (e) any significant legal issues that had been discovered, (f) the difference between the form of consideration to be received by our stockholders from each of the proposals and (g) the contingencies to the proposals. After this meeting, Breckenridge was instructed to inform the two final parties that they were evaluating certain aspects of each proposal and ask for each bidder to increase its valuation.

Crescent responded with a verbal increase in their proposal to $38.2 million. Company X stated it could not increase its valuation.

At the September 21, 2004, meeting of our board, Breckenridge and Hunton & Williams reviewed the status of Crescent and Company X. Our board expressed concern with Company X's form of consideration and overall approach towards the process and was worried that Company X would not be able to continue with the process in a timely fashion. In addition, Crescent had informed Breckenridge that it would not be in a position to hold its offer open for much longer. Breckenridge was instructed to contact Crescent with the request to increase their valuation in exchange for entering into a limited period of exclusivity. A Breckenridge representative met with Crescent and delivered the request for greater consideration in exchange for an exclusivity period until October 29, 2004. Later that day, Crescent delivered to Breckenridge a revised proposal for an initial purchase price of $39.0 million cash at closing and an adjustment to this purchase price equal to the change in working capital for the period between signing of the merger agreement and a date as close to closing as practicable.

On September 22, 2004, our board instructed Breckenridge to inform Crescent that the board was prepared to provide exclusivity to them through October 29, 2004. An exclusivity agreement was then executed with Crescent on September 24, 2004.

Crescent and its advisors, including King & Spalding, met with our management and our advisors, including Hunton & Williams, on October 4, 2004 in an organizational meeting at the offices of King & Spalding for a presentation by our management and in order to outline a timetable for completing due diligence and negotiating a definitive merger agreement. All parties participated in multiple meetings and conference calls between September 27 and October 29 in order to negotiate the terms of the merger and to attempt to finalize discussions by October 29, 2004.

During the month of October, Crescent's legal, tax and financial advisors undertook a due diligence review of Cypress. On October 15, 2004, Crescent and its legal advisors and we and our legal and financial advisors met again at the offices of King & Spalding to discuss Crescent's due diligence and certain aspects of the draft merger agreement, including materiality thresholds in our representations and warranties and in the conditions to Buyer's obligations, the proposed working capital adjustment, restrictions on our operations between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger, the fiduciary outs available to our board of directors and the deal protection provisions required by Buyer and the tax structure of the transaction.

At an October 18, 2004, board meeting, our advisors, including Hunton & Williams, informed our board of open issues in connection with the merger agreement. Our board then gave general instructions for resolution of these issues.

On October 19, 2004, and again on October 27, 2004, King & Spalding and Hunton & Williams engaged in negotiations by telephone regarding the merger agreement and documents related to the merger agreement, and in particular the availability of fiduciary outs for our board of directors and the deal protection provisions required by Buyer, the materiality thresholds and the definition of material adverse effect, and certain of the covenants and representations and warranties to be given by Cypress in the merger agreement.

On October 28, 2004, Crescent and its legal advisors and we and our legal and financial advisors met at the offices of Hunton & Williams to discuss the merger agreement.

On October 29, 2004, Crescent and we executed an extension of the exclusivity agreement to permit more time to attempt to resolve remaining open issues, especially as they related to the method of calculating the working capital adjustment, which is a key variable component of the final merger consideration.

The board met on November 1, 2004, with its advisors, including Hunton & Williams, to review remaining open issues with the merger agreement.

On November 2, 2004, Crescent and its legal advisors and we and our legal and financial advisors met at the offices of King & Spalding to attempt to negotiate issues in the merger agreement, including the working capital calculation issue, and to discuss Crescent's due diligence findings.

On November 3, 2004, board members Steve Nussrallah, Michael Elliott and Gregory McGraw met with representatives of Crescent to attempt to resolve open issues with the merger agreement. To resolve the working capital calculation issue, the parties agreed that the unadjusted purchase price would be $39,350,000 and the working capital adjustment would begin July 31, 2004, and run until the date closest to closing that would allow proper measurement. In addition, a specific schedule of the various components of working capital was established. Later that day, our board met with its advisors, including Hunton & Williams, to review the proposed resolution of open issues and authorized management to proceed with completing the definitive agreement.

On November 5, 2004, after a review of all of the terms of the transaction, a report from Hunton & Williams of the legal aspects of the transaction and a report from Breckenridge as to the fairness of the transaction to our stockholders from a financial point of view, our board unanimously approved the merger agreement. That same day, we issued a press release announcing our execution of the merger agreement.

On November 12, 2004, we filed a Form 12b-25 notifying the Securities and Exchange Commission that we would not timely file our Form 10-Q for the third quarter of 2004 because we needed additional time to evaluate the financial impact of the fact that we had been making payments to telecommunications service providers for certain federal, state, local and telecommunication taxes and surcharges for which we might be exempt. On February 4, 2005, we filed a Form 10-Q and reported that, based on a review of the taxes and surcharges paid, we believe that we are entitled to recover an amount in the range of $1 million to $2.5 million, although there is no assurance that any amounts will be recovered or when any amounts will be recovered, if ever.

On February 3, 2005, in recognition of the potential increase in working capital relating to the telecommunications tax recovery, Cypress and Buyer agreed to amend the Merger Agreement to increase the merger consideration by $935,000, making the total value of the transaction $40.285 million. The parties also agreed in the amendment, among other things, that accounts receivable attributable to the telecommunications tax recovery will be capped in light of the increase in the merger consideration for purposes of calculating the final merger consideration adjustment.

Purpose and Reasons for the Merger

There are 6,723,395 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as of the record date. Because of the relatively low number of issued and outstanding shares, the trading volume of shares of common stock has been, and continues to be, limited. During the 12 months prior to the announcement of the proposed merger, the average daily trading volume has been approximately 3,086 shares per day. Because the stock is so thinly traded, many stockholders lack sufficient liquidity to sell their shares without a significant impact on the market price of our common stock.

In recent years, we believe, the public marketplace has had less interest in public companies with a small market capitalization and a limited amount of securities available for trading in the public marketplace. This is particularly true, we believe, as to telecommunications companies with a relatively narrow business focus. At the same time, the burdens that are placed on us in order to meet the various public company reporting obligations are significant, and are expected to increase as we comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The board of directors believes it is highly speculative whether Cypress would ever achieve significant market value because of our size, the lack of liquidity and no assurance of profitable growth in the near future. The realization that Cypress might never achieve significant market value as a public company is one of the reasons that ultimately caused the board of directors to conclude that we no longer are benefiting from being a public company, and that it would be in the best interests of us and our stockholders to place ourselves up for auction.

After completing the sale process, Buyer's proposal presented Cypress with the opportunity to sell ourselves while affording the stockholders the opportunity to sell their common stock for cash at a price that represents a premium of approximately 100%, 100% and 60% over the average one year, six month and 60 trading day closing price before the public announcement of the proposed merger, without incurring any brokerage commissions.

We believe that it is in our best interest and that of our stockholders to sell ourselves at this time. The board of directors has determined that the proposed merger represents the best value for us and our stockholders at a fair price which is higher than that which could be achieved in the open market. In light of these objectives, the board of directors concluded that the proposed merger better accomplished its goals as more fully described under SPECIAL FACTORS Background of the Merger on page 18.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The board of directors unanimously determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Cypress and its stockholders and that the merger is advisable. The board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement, and unanimously recommended approval of the merger agreement by our stockholders at the special meeting. In reaching its determinations, the board of directors relied on its knowledge of our business and information provided by our officers, as well as the advice of its independent financial advisor (Breckenridge) and legal counsel (Hunton & Williams). Certain members of the board of directors and certain stockholders are obligated pursuant to voting agreements to vote their shares for approval of the merger agreement. The board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following positive factors, each of which in the view of the board of directors supported such determination:

the historical trading activity of our common stock, including the fact that the average daily trading volume of our common stock for the twelve months prior to November 5, 2004, was 3,086 shares per day;

the small public float and limited prospects for creating institutional interest in our stock or coverage by analysts;

the performance of our stock price since November 5, 2003. From November 5, 2003, until November 5, 2004, our common stock closed at a high of $1.30 per share in September 2004 and at a low of $0.51 per share in June 2004;

the time and expense required in order to meet the various public company reporting obligations, which would be expected to increase as the company complied with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002;

the fact that the proposed merger consideration of an estimated $1.71 per share constitutes a premium of approximately 100%, 100% and 60% over the average one year, six month and 60 trading day closing price before the public announcement of the proposed merger;

after engaging in a competitive auction process to solicit proposals from the most likely acquirors of Cypress, all of which were familiar with us and our business and which our board of directors determined were in the best position to offer us competitively attractive acquisition proposals, the merger with Buyer was the most attractive transaction for our stockholders, when taking into account all of the factors relating to each indication of interest received, including the terms and conditions of each proposal and the likelihood of each proposal culminating in a definitive agreement that was beneficial to our stockholders;

the presentation by Breckenridge of its detailed analysis and conclusions concerning the fairness of the transaction and the written opinion of Breckenridge delivered to the board of directors as of November 5, 2004, stating that, as of November 5, 2004, and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications contained in that opinion, the aggregate consideration to be paid to holders of our common stock and Series A preferred stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders. See SPECIAL FACTORS Opinion of Financial Advisor to the Board of

Directors on page 24 and a copy of the opinion of Breckenridge attached as Appendix D to this proxy statement; the board of directors' judgment that it was unlikely for our stockholders to realize in excess of an estimated $1.71 per share due to the current and prospective environment in which we operate;

the fact that our bridge loan and term loan both mature in July 2005 and would need to be refinanced;

the fact that the consideration to be received in the merger is payable in cash, thereby eliminating any uncertainties in valuing the consideration to be received by our stockholders compared to a transaction in which they would receive stock or other non-cash consideration;

the fact that FIIB, the indirect parent of Buyer, has committed to providing Buyer with all necessary funds to enable Buyer to consummate the merger, subject only to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions precedent to the consummation of the merger, and the failure to obtain such financing would not permit Buyer to terminate the merger agreement;

the fact that Crescent has significant experience in the field of buyouts and acquisitions, as well as a record of success in closing the transactions on which it embarks;

the terms of the merger agreement and related documents, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations; and the fact that the merger agreement does not unduly deter a third party from making an acquisition proposal, inhibit the board of directors from withdrawing or modifying its approval or recommendation of the merger or the merger agreement or inhibit the board of directors from approving, recommending or accepting an acquisition proposal that it determines to be of a superior proposal to our stockholders than the merger. Specifically, the merger agreement includes provisions which permit the board of directors to withdraw its recommendation of the merger if there is a more favorable acquisition proposal prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting. In addition, the voting agreements will terminate if the board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval and recommendation. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT No Solicitation of Competing Transactions on page 50.

The board of directors also considered the following other factors associated with the merger:

the fact that, while the merger consideration represents a premium over our historical trading price, the stock market has not performed well over the past two years, which may contribute to the recent trading price of our common stock;

the merger consideration will first be used to repay the outstanding indebtedness under our term loan and convertible debt held by affiliates of certain of our board members and certain other parties, which also results, as of February 7, 2005, in warrants for 11,103,109 shares (subject to increase due to an increase in the number of warrants to be issued as of the closing date in accordance with the warrant agreements) of common stock becoming exercisable with an exercise price of $1.13;

our stockholders will not have the right to participate in our future growth, if any;

the fact that gains from this transaction would be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the conditions to Buyer's obligation to complete the merger and the right of Buyer to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances;

the restrictions that the merger agreement imposes on our ability to operate our business until the transaction closes or the merger agreement terminated;

in the event that the merger is not consummated, the potential negative effects of the public announcement of the merger on our sales, operating results, stock price, relationships with customers and suppliers, ability to retain key technical, marketing, sales and management personnel and employee morale;

the interests that certain of our directors and officers may have with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as our stockholders generally, as described in SPECIAL FACTORS Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger; and the fact that under the merger agreement, while we have the ability prior to the stockholders' meeting to discuss unsolicited acquisition proposals with third parties and provide them with non-public information concerning Cypress, and our board of directors has the ability to withdraw, amend or modify its recommendation to our stockholders in light of any superior proposal if specified conditions are met, we cannot terminate the merger agreement unless and until the proposed merger with Buyer is presented to our stockholders for a vote at a meeting but is not approved by them, and we or Buyer thereafter terminate the merger agreement and certain other conditions are met, including, in some circumstances, our payment of a $1,500,000 termination fee to Buyer.

The members of the board of directors evaluated each of the foregoing factors in light of their knowledge of our business, their knowledge of the telecommunications industry and their good faith business judgment. Although the board of directors believes that these were all of the material factors considered, the preceding discussion is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all factors considered. In view of the large number of factors considered by the board of directors in connection with the evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the board of directors did not consider it practicable to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision, nor did it evaluate whether these factors were of equal importance. In addition, each member of the board of directors may have given different weight to the various factors. The board of directors conducted a discussion of, among other things, the factors described above, including asking questions of the board of directors' financial and legal advisors, and reached the unanimous conclusion that the merger agreement was fair to, advisable and in the best interests of Cypress and its stockholders.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to the Board of Directors

Breckenridge has acted as financial advisor to Cypress in connection with the proposed merger by which Cypress will become an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of TechInvest Holdings Limited. At the November 5, 2004, meeting of the Cypress board of directors, Breckenridge rendered its oral opinion to the Cypress board of directors, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of that date, and based on certain assumptions, limitations and qualifications, the aggregate consideration to be paid to holders of Cypress common stock and Series A preferred stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view.

The full text of Breckenridge's opinion, dated November 5, 2004, is attached as Appendix D to this proxy statement and is incorporated into this document by reference. We urge you to read the entire opinion carefully to understand, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by Breckenridge in connection with it. Breckenridge's opinion was directed to the Cypress board of directors and addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the aggregate consideration to be paid to stockholders of Cypress. Breckenridge expressed no opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common stock or Series A preferred stock as a category of equity apart from all stockholders collectively. The opinion does not address any other aspect of the transaction or constitute a recommendation to any Cypress stockholder on how to vote. Breckenridge expressed no opinion as to the merits of the underlying decision by Cypress to effect the transactions in the merger agreement or the relative merits of the merger agreement as compared to any alternative strategies or transactions Cypress might pursue. The following summary of Breckenridge's opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Breckenridge, among other things:

analyzed and reviewed the outcome of the auction process it conducted;

reviewed internal financial statements and other business, financial and operating data concerning Cypress prepared by the management of Cypress;

reviewed certain financial forecasts prepared by the management of Cypress;

reviewed certain publicly available information concerning Cypress, and certain internal analyses and other information
furnished by Cypress;

reviewed the reported prices,
general absence of regular trading volume and lack of analyst coverage of Cypress common stock;

reviewed the operating metrics,
valuation and other characteristics of certain publicly traded companies deemed comparable to

Cypress, in whole or in part;

reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected business combination transactions that Breckenridge deemed comparable, in whole or in part;

reviewed the terms of the merger agreement and certain related documents;

held discussions with members of the senior management of Cypress regarding the business and prospects of their company;

reviewed current industry prospects, including the regulatory environment and consolidation trends; and performed other analyses and considered other factors as it deemed appropriate.

In preparing its opinion, Breckenridge did not assume responsibility for the independent verification of, and did not independently verify, the information considered in connection with the rendering of its opinion, whether publicly available or furnished to it, including, without limitation, any financial information, forecasts or projections provided to it by Cypress. Accordingly, for purposes of its opinion, Breckenridge assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information. Breckenridge did not conduct a physical inspection of any of Cypress' properties or assets, and did not prepare or obtain any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of its assets or liabilities. With respect to the financial forecasts and projections made available to Breckenridge and used in its analysis, Breckenridge assumed that they had been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Cypress and that Cypress would perform in accordance therewith. Breckenridge did not opine, directly or indirectly, as to the reasonableness of any such forecasts and projections. Breckenridge also relied upon assurances from Cypress' management that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances which they did not disclose to Breckenridge that would make the information, projections or analysis they provided inaccurate or misleading. Breckenridge's opinion was necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions on, the information made available to Breckenridge as of, and the financial condition of Cypress on, the date of its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Breckenridge assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis:

the parties to the merger agreement will perform all of their covenants and agreements under the merger agreement; and all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger will be satisfied without any waiver.

Breckenridge also assumed that all material governmental or regulatory approvals and consents required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be obtained without significant delay and that in connection with obtaining any necessary governmental or regulatory approvals and consents, no limitations or restrictions will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the merger and its related transactions.

Financial Analysis of the Financial Advisor to Cypress

The material aspects of the financial analyses Breckenridge performed in connection with rendering its November 5, 2004, opinion are summarized below. The financial analyses Breckenridge performed are among those most commonly used in the financial advisory industry to value companies in the context of an acquisition transaction. In arriving at its fairness determination, Breckenridge did not assign any specific weight to the results obtained by any particular analysis used. The summaries set forth below do not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed. These summaries include information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses Breckenridge used, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary.

In performing the analyses described below, Breckenridge assumed an enterprise value, or aggregate purchase price for Cypress before the application of proceeds to repay debt, of approximately $40.5 million. This enterprise value is calculated by adjusting the base purchase price of $39.350 million to reflect certain changes in assets and liabilities of Cypress between July 31, 2004, and September 30, 2004. The base purchase price of $39.350 million is based upon Cypress' financial results as of July 31, 2004. Application of the working capital adjustment mechanism in the merger agreement, which increases or decreases the final purchase price based on Cypress' financial performance after July 31, 2004, results in an increase of the purchase price of approximately $1.2 million based upon Cypress' preliminary September 30, 2004, financial results. September 30, 2004, was the date of the latest financial results for Cypress when Breckenridge rendered its opinion. Breckenridge deemed it appropriate to adjust the base purchase price in accordance with Cypress' preliminary September 30, 2004, financial results because the amount of cash and cash equivalents, indebtedness, convertible notes, accrued interest and loan fees as of September 30, 2004, was used to determine equity value for purposes of the opinion.

Selected Comparable Companies Analysis. Breckenridge performed a selected comparable companies analysis of Cypress. The purpose of this analysis was to estimate the value of Cypress by comparing it to publicly traded companies that Breckenridge deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to Cypress. The comparisons made were in terms of multiples of commonly used financial measures. A multiple is derived by dividing a company's enterprise value by the relevant financial measure. The enterprise value of a company is determined by adding the total value of its outstanding equity and indebtedness and subtracting the value of its excess cash. The companies and financial measures that Breckenridge used for this purpose are described below. Once Breckenridge ascertained the range of multiples applicable to these comparable companies, it applied these multiples to the corresponding financial measures of Cypress in order to derive a range of estimated enterprise values for Cypress. Breckenridge then compared these enterprise valuation ranges and equity valuation ranges to the estimated aggregate purchase price and implied equity value under the merger agreement, assuming the purchase price adjustments appropriate as of September 30, 2004.

The companies that Breckenridge deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to Cypress for purposes of this analysis were all publicly traded competitive local exchange carriers, or CLECs, and consisted of the following: ITC^ΔDeltaCom, Inc., Pac-West Telecomm, Inc., Talk America Holdings, Inc., Time Warner Telecom, Inc., US LEC Corp., XO Communications, Inc. and Z-Tel Technologies, Inc.

The financial measures used by Breckenridge for the purpose of this analysis were:

enterprise value as a multiple of last quarter annualized revenue; and enterprise value as a multiple of last quarter annualized earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA.

For the last fiscal measure, Breckenridge evaluated the EBITDA of Cypress on a pro forma basis assuming certain normalizing adjustments that were provided to Breckenridge by Cypress management (Adjusted EBITDA).

In developing the reference ranges of valuation multiples used in its analysis, Breckenridge considered a variety of other factors in addition to the selected company data, including differences in physical infrastructure, customer base, geographic presence, business model, operational growth and margin profiles, cash flow and liquidity profiles, financial planning and reporting capabilities, the applicable regulatory environment and capital markets sentiment.

The following table presents the reference range multiples used by Breckenridge in its analysis, along with the Cypress enterprise and equity valuations implied by the multiples analysis. Equity value was determined by adding cash and cash equivalents of $1.8 million to the $40.5 million assumed aggregate purchase price, based on the purchase price adjustment as of September 30, 2004, and subtracting from that total $26.5 million for the repayment of certain indebtedness (senior loan, bridge loan and convertible notes), accrued interest and loan fees, senior management retention bonuses and estimated transaction fees as of September 30, 2004. The assumed equity value implied in the merger for purposes of rendering the fairness opinion is equal to $15.8 million, based on the purchase price adjustment as of September 30, 2004. Cypress statistics were based on historical results provided by Cypress management. Dollar figures are in millions.

Table of Contents

Metric	Cypress Metric	Relevant Range Multiples		Enterprise Valuation Range		Equity Valuation Range
Last quarter annualized revenue	$ 77.7	0.31x	0.97x	$ 23.8	$ 75.4	$ (0.9)	$ 50.7
Last quarter annualized Adjusted EBITDA	$ 9.8	1.9x	7.0x.	$ 18.8	$ 68.5	$ (5.9)	$ 43.8

Breckenridge observed that the $40.5 million estimated aggregate purchase price and the implied equity value of $15.8 million, based on the purchase price adjustment as of September 30, 2004, was within the estimated enterprise valuation and equity valuation ranges derived from these metrics. The results of this analysis therefore supported the conclusion that the aggregate consideration to be paid to holders of Cypress common stock and Series A preferred stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. Breckenridge performed a selected precedent transactions analysis of Cypress. The purpose of this analysis was to estimate the value of Cypress by comparing the enterprise value for Cypress implied by the proposed transaction to the enterprise valuations made by acquirers of other target companies in prior business combination transactions that Breckenridge deemed comparable, in whole or in part, to the proposed transaction. The multiples chosen for comparison from the precedent transactions were multiples of the last quarter annualized revenues and the last quarter annualized Adjusted EBITDA. Breckenridge applied the range of results calculated from precedent transactions to Cypress last quarter annualized revenues and Adjusted EBITDA in order to derive a range of estimated enterprise values and equity values for Cypress. Breckenridge then compared these enterprise valuation ranges and equity valuation ranges to the estimated aggregate purchase price and implied equity value under the merger agreement, assuming the purchase price adjustments appropriate as of September 30, 2004.

The prior business combinations involving companies that Breckenridge considered to be comparable, in whole or in part, to Cypress were as follows:

Announcement

Date	Target	Acquiror
September 2004	Network Telephone	ITC^Deltacom
September 2004	FDN	ITC^Deltacom
July 2004	ICG Communications	M/C Ventures / Columbia Capital
March 2004	Focal Communications	Corvis Corporation
July 2003	BTI Telecom Corp.	ITC^Deltacom

In developing the reference range of valuation multiples used in its analysis, Breckenridge considered a variety of other factors in addition to the selected precedent transaction data, including factors similar to those taken into account in arriving at reference range multiples used in the Selected Comparable Companies Analysis described above.

No selected comparable transaction identified above was identical to the proposed merger. Because the circumstances surrounding each of the comparable transactions analyzed were specific to such transaction and because of the inherent differences among the time periods, businesses, operations and prospects of the acquired companies included in the selected transactions, Breckenridge believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the precedent acquisition comparables analysis. Instead, in arriving at the reference-range multiples, Breckenridge made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the characteristics of these precedent transactions and the proposed merger and its related transactions that affected the values of Cypress implied by this method.

The following table presents the reference range multiples used by Breckenridge in its analysis, along with the Cypress enterprise value and equity value implied by the multiples analysis. Cypress statistics were based on historical results provided by Cypress management. Dollar figures are in millions.

	Cypress	Relevant		Enterprise		Equity
Metric	Metric	Range		Valuation Range		Valuation Range
Last quarter annualized revenue	$ 77.7	0.43x 0.86x		$ 33.3 $ 66.8		$ 8.6 $ 42.1
Last quarter annualized Adjusted EBITDA	$ 9.8	4.5x (a)		$ 44.4 $ 44.4		$ 19.7 $ 19.7

(a) Reference range of multiples for comparable transactions included only one relevant EBITDA multiple.

Breckenridge observed that the $40.5 million assumed aggregate purchase price and the assumed aggregate equity value of $15.8 million, based on the purchase price adjustment as of September 30, 2004, was within the estimated enterprise valuation and equity valuation ranges implied by the revenue multiples and below the enterprise valuation and equity valuation ranges implied by the EBITDA multiple. After reviewing a number of qualitative factors associated with the business combinations used in the precedent transaction analysis, Breckenridge determined the results of this analysis supported the conclusion that the aggregate consideration to be paid to holders of Cypress common stock and Series A preferred stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view.

Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. Breckenridge performed discounted cash flow analyses of Cypress, which are designed to calculate a range of implied enterprise valuations for Cypress on the basis of the present value of the after-tax free cash flows that Cypress could generate. Cypress management provided Breckenridge with projections of Cypress after-tax free cash flows that were the basis of these analyses. Breckenridge performed the discounted cash flow analyses assuming a growth case and a base case for financial projections. The growth case financial projections assume a successful rollout of new Voice-over-Internet-Protocol (VoIP) product offerings, in addition to maintaining the core product offering, resulting in significant revenue and profitability growth (the Growth Case). The base case financial projections assume Cypress has limited success in new VoIP product offerings and continues to experience revenue declines consistent with recent historical performance (the Base Case). The Growth Case assumed a higher terminal EBITDA multiple and perpetual growth rate for purposes of determining the terminal value relative to the more conservative Base Case. Using these projections and based on an average of the assumed terminal values calculated using the terminal EBITDA multiple and terminal perpetual growth rate methodologies for each case, Breckenridge calculated Cypress estimated free cash flows for fiscal years 2005 through 2009; and implied values of Cypress at the end of the 2009 fiscal year, which we refer to as the terminal value.

The terminal EBITDA multiple and perpetual growth rate used in the Growth Case was 4.5x and 3.0%, respectively. The terminal EBITDA multiple and perpetual growth rate used in the Base Case was 3.0x and -5.0%, respectively. Breckenridge then discounted these values to the present using discount rates ranging from 27.5% to 32.5% for the Growth Case and 18.0% to 22.0% for the Base Case in order to establish implied enterprise valuation ranges for Cypress. The terminal EBITDA multiples were selected based on Breckenridge's judgment with reference to public market and public transaction multiples and the projected financial performance of Cypress. The range of discount rates was principally based on Breckenridge's judgment with reference to the weighted average cost of capital of Cypress and other CLECs and based on estimates of rates of return that private equity investors would require for a similar type investment in Cypress. After-tax free cash flow is calculated as EBITDA less cash taxes, changes in working capital and capital expenditures. Breckenridge then compared the estimated aggregate value of the purchase price to be paid by Buyer to the estimated enterprise valuation ranges implied by these analyses.

The following table presents the range of Cypress enterprise values implied by the resulting discounted cash flow valuation ranges. Dollar figures are in millions.

Case	Enterprise Valuation Range
Scenario
Base Case:
Present value of cash flows	$	21.3	$23.0
Present value of terminal value	$	10.8	$13.6
Total	$	32.1	$36.6
Growth Case:
Present value of cash flows	$	17.9	$20.0
Present value of terminal value	$	31.7	$39.6
Total	$	49.6	$59.5

Breckenridge observed that the $40.5 million estimated aggregate purchase price to be paid by FIIB under the merger agreement, based on adjustments as of September 30, 2004, was below the estimated enterprise valuation ranges implied by the discounted cash flow analyses using the Growth Case and above the estimated enterprise valuation range implied by the discounted cash flow analysis using the Base Case. Breckenridge noted that although the valuation of the proposed transaction was below the low end of the estimated enterprise valuation range implied by the discounted cash flow analysis using the Growth Case, that fact was not sufficient to preclude a conclusion of fairness from a financial point of view. A number of qualitative factors affected Breckenridge's assessment of this criterion, including the assumptions in the Growth Case for revenue and profitability relative to the recent historical performance of the business.

Leverage Buyout Analyses. Breckenridge performed leverage buyout analyses of Cypress, which were designed to calculate a range of implied enterprise valuations for Cypress on the basis of what returns on invested capital a private equity investor may require for a similar type of investment assuming a certain capital structure and future financial performance. Cypress management provided Breckenridge with financial projections for Cypress as described above in the Discounted Cash Flow Analyses section. Breckenridge performed the leverage buyout analyses assuming the Growth Case and the Base Case for financial projections. The analysis based on the Growth Case assumed a higher required rate of return on invested capital and a higher terminal EBITDA multiple relative to the more conservative Base Case. Using these projections and based on an assumed terminal EBITDA multiple for each case, Breckenridge calculated Cypress estimated free cash flow for fiscal years 2005 through 2009; and implied values at the end of the 2009 fiscal year, which we refer to as the terminal value.

Table of Contents

The terminal EBITDA multiple used in the Growth Case and the Base Case was 4.5x and 3.0x, respectively. The terminal EBITDA multiples were selected based on Breckenridge's judgment with reference to public market and public transaction multiples and the projected financial performance of Cypress. Breckenridge then assumed a required rate of return on invested equity capital of 35% for the Growth Case and 25% for the Base Case. Breckenridge deemed a difference in the required rates of return on invested equity between the two cases appropriate due to significant differences in the execution risk in each respective set of financial projections. Breckenridge then compared the estimated aggregate purchase price and the estimated aggregate consideration to be paid to Cypress stockholders to the estimated enterprise valuation range and equity valuation range derived by this analysis.

The following table presents the range of enterprise values and equity values implied by the resulting leverage buyout analyses. Dollar figures are in millions.

	Enterprise Valuation Range		Equity Valuation Range
	Base	Growth	Base	Growth
Implied Valuation	$ 26.2	$ 48.5	$ 1.5	$ 23.8

Breckenridge observed that the $40.5 million assumed aggregate purchase price and the implied equity value of $15.8 million, based on the purchase price adjustment as of September 30, 2004, was within the estimated enterprise valuation and equity valuation ranges implied by the leverage buyout analyses. The results of this analysis therefore supported the conclusion that the aggregate consideration to be paid to holders of Cypress common stock and Series A preferred stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view.

Trading Analyses. Breckenridge performed trading analyses that compared the approximate share price implied by the merger at the time the opinion was rendered to the average closing prices of Cypress common stock during three different historical trading periods. The approximate per share merger consideration based on the preliminary September 30, 2004 balance sheet reviewed by Breckenridge represents a premium of approximately 100%, 100% and 60% over the average closing price of Cypress common stock during the 1-year, 6-month and 60-trading day periods ending on November 4, 2004, respectively. November 4, 2004, was the last trading date prior to the date of the merger agreement. On that day, the closing price per share of Cypress common stock was $0.70 per share. The closing price of Cypress common stock on February 2, 2005 was $1.45 per share. The Cypress board of directors believes that the merger represents an opportunity for holders of Cypress common stock to realize a higher price for their common stock than they might be able to realize in market transaction in the near term.

In connection with the review of the merger by the Cypress board of directors, Breckenridge performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Such an opinion, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Breckenridge believes that the summary of the analyses provided above must be considered as a whole and that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all of them, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion.

In performing its analyses, Breckenridge made, and was provided by Cypress management with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Cypress. Analyses based on estimates or forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates or forecasts, and neither Cypress, Breckenridge nor any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those estimates or forecasts. The analyses performed were prepared solely as part of Breckenridge's analysis of the fairness from a financial point of view to holders of Cypress common stock and Series A preferred stock of the aggregate consideration to be paid to them under the merger agreement. Breckenridge delivered such an opinion to the Cypress board of directors on and as of November 5, 2004. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals.

The merger consideration and other terms of the merger agreement were determined through arm's length negotiations between Cypress and Buyer and were approved by the boards of directors of both Cypress and Crescent. Although Breckenridge provided advice to Cypress during the course of these negotiations, the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the Cypress board of directors. As described above, the opinion and presentations of Breckenridge to the Cypress board of directors were only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the Cypress board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement. Breckenridge's analyses, summarized above, should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the Cypress board of directors with respect to the value of Cypress or of whether the Cypress board of directors would have been willing to agree to a different purchase price or form of consideration.

Breckenridge is a nationally recognized investment banking firm experienced in providing advice in connection with mergers and acquisitions, recapitalizations, private placements and related transactions. Following consideration of other potential candidates, the Cypress board of directors selected Breckenridge as financial advisor in connection with the transaction based on Breckenridge's qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience in mergers and acquisitions, particularly in the telecommunications industry. In the past, Breckenridge has acted as financial advisor to one of Cypress's subsidiaries in connection with its sale to Cypress by tender offer in February 2002 and as financial advisor to WorldCom, Inc. in connection with WorldCom, Inc.'s sale of the assets of its shared tenant telecommunications services business to Cypress in July 2002. Cypress retained Breckenridge pursuant to an engagement letter dated February 2, 2004. Cypress has paid Breckenridge an opinion fee equal to $100,000 and agreed to pay Breckenridge a transaction fee equal to 2.0% of the purchase price up to $25.0 million and 1.5% of the purchase price over $25.0 million in the event the proposed merger with Mergerco is consummated. Regardless of whether the merger or any alternative transaction is consummated, Cypress has also agreed to pay Breckenridge a retainer of $5,000 per month and to reimburse Breckenridge for expenses incurred in performing its services of up to $35,000. In addition, Cypress has agreed to indemnify Breckenridge and related parties against liabilities and expenses related to or arising out of Breckenridge's engagement by the Company or the rendering by Breckenridge of its fairness opinion.

Risks That the Merger Will Not be Completed

Completion of the merger is subject to various risks, including, but not limited to, the following:

that the merger agreement will not be approved by the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock;

that neither we nor Buyer or Mergerco will have performed in all material respects our or their respective obligations contained in the merger agreement before the effective time of the merger;

that the necessary federal and state regulatory approvals will not be received;

that Buyer's or Mergerco's representations and warranties made in the merger agreement will not be true and correct at the closing date of the merger;

that our representations and warranties made in the merger agreement will not be true and correct at the closing date of the merger, and that such failure to be true and correct has an adverse effect (exceeding $2,000,000) on our business, assets or liabilities, financial condition or results of operations or on our ability to perform our obligations under the merger agreement;

that there may be litigation that could prevent the merger, cause the merger to be rescinded following completion of the merger or that could have a material adverse effect on our business;

the holders of more than 10% of the outstanding shares of our common stock exercise their appraisal rights and Buyer exercises its right not to proceed with the merger; and an event has occurred which has had or could reasonably be expected to have, in the discretion of Buyer, a material adverse effect on Cypress.

As a result of various risks to the completion of the merger, there can be no assurance that the merger will be completed even if the requisite stockholder approval is obtained. It is expected that, if our stockholders do not approve the merger agreement or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, our current management, under the direction of the board of directors, will continue to manage Cypress as an ongoing business. If the merger is not completed, depending on the circumstances, we may be required to pay Buyer a termination fee or reimburse certain expenses of Buyer.

Conduct of the Business of Cypress if the Merger is not Completed

If the merger is not completed, the board of directors of Cypress expects to continue to operate the business of Cypress substantially as presently operated. The board of directors would reassess the strategic alternatives available to Cypress to enhance stockholder value, including, among others, the possibility of a sale of Cypress and alternatives that would keep Cypress independent and publicly owned.

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors, you should be aware that certain of our officers and directors have interests in the merger, or have certain relationships as described below, that present actual or potential conflicts of interest in connection with the merger. The board of directors were aware of these actual or potential conflicts of interest and considered them along with other matters described under SPECIAL FACTORS Purpose and Reasons for the Merger on page 21; and Recommendation of the Board of Directors on page 22.

Employment and Retention Awards

In connection with our board of directors consideration of a change in control event, the board adopted the Cypress Communications, Inc. Key Executive Officer Retention Plan, or KEORP, in August 2004 and amended the KEORP with respect to the President and Chief Executive Officer in November 2004. The key executive officer participants in the KEORP are Gregory P. McGraw, Salvatore W. Collura and Neal L. Miller. Pursuant to the KEORP, the executive officers were granted retention awards payable following a change in control event if within twelve months of the change of control the executive officer's employment is terminated without cause or the executive officer resigns for good reason. In addition, the employment agreement for each of these executive officers includes a severance award, pursuant to which each executive officer would be entitled to receive payment over 6 or 12 months in the event that, coincident with a change in control event, the executive officer's employment is terminated at employee's direction or otherwise. D & O Insurance

The merger agreement provides that we, as the surviving corporation, will continue to maintain, after the effective time of the merger, all rights of indemnification existing on the date of the merger agreement in favor of our present and former officers and directors. We will also maintain for six years after the effective time of the merger, subject to certain limitations, the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT - Director and Officer Liability on page 51. Our current members of the board of directors each will be entitled to such indemnification and liability insurance coverage after the merger closes.

Options

Pursuant to our stock option plans, all Cypress stock options, including stock options held by certain of our officers and directors, will vest in full immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and pursuant to the merger agreement, the holders of certain stock options, including Messrs. McGraw, Collura and Miller, will be entitled to receive a cash payment in respect of the cancellation of their respective Cypress stock options.

It is expected that, following the merger, senior managers of Cypress will be granted options to purchase shares of common stock of the surviving corporation.

Delisting and Deregistration of Cypress Common Stock

If the merger is completed, our common stock will no longer be traded on the OTC Bulletin Board or the Pink Sheets and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Financing the Merger

FIIB, Buyer's indirect parent, has made a written commitment to Buyer to provide all funds necessary to enable Buyer to consummate the merger. FIIB's commitment is only subject to the satisfaction or waiver by Buyer, on or before the closing date, of all the conditions precedent to the consummation of the merger.

Fees and Expenses of the Merger; Debt Repayment

The merger agreement provides that Cypress, Buyer and Mergerco will bear their respective expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, whether or not the merger is consummated, except in certain circumstances specified in the merger agreement. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Expenses on page 51.

The merger agreement further provides that the merger consideration will first be used to repay and satisfy Cypress outstanding indebtedness under its term loan and convertible debt, as well as any unpaid transaction fees and expenses of Cypress incurred in connection with the merger. All such repayment amounts will reduce the merger consideration to be received by our stockholders and the holders of options and warrants with an exercise price less than the per share merger consideration.

As of December 31, 2004, the amount owed by Cypress in connection with the term loan and the convertible debt was $20,479,517. The estimated payment by Cypress in connection with the term loan at the closing of the merger is $8,480,000; the estimated payment by Cypress in connection with the convertible debt at the closing of the merger is $12,105,000.

The estimated transaction fees and expenses to be paid by Cypress in connection with the merger are $1.3 million. Of this amount, we estimate that $900,000 will be unpaid as of the closing of the merger. This estimate does not include any amounts attributable to any future litigation challenging the proposed merger.

If the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, including if our stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the related merger, we have agreed to pay Buyer a termination fee of $1.5 million.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

General. The following describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that are generally applicable to U.S. holders of our common stock. However, this discussion does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular U.S. holders in light of their personal investment or tax circumstances or to persons who are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws. This discussion deals only with U.S. holders that hold shares of our common stock as capital assets within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax treatment of special classes of U.S. holders, such as banks, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, financial institutions, broker-dealers, persons, if any, holding our common stock as qualified small business stock or section 1244 stock, persons holding our common stock as part of a hedging, straddle, conversion or other integrated transaction, U.S. expatriates, or persons subject to the alternative minimum tax or persons whose right to receive the cash merger consideration is subject to vesting restrictions. This discussion may not be applicable to stockholders who acquired our common stock pursuant to the exercise of options or warrants, or otherwise as compensation. Furthermore, this discussion does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign tax considerations. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences to you of the merger.

As used in this proxy statement, a U.S. holder means a holder of our common stock who is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, partnership or other entity classified as a corporation or partnership for United States federal income tax purposes, which is created or organized under the laws of the United States or any state within the United States;

an estate whose income is includible in gross income for United States federal income tax purposes regardless of its source; or a trust whose administration is subject to the primary supervision of a United States court and that has one or more United States persons who have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

This discussion is based on current law, which is subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect.

Consequences of the merger to our stockholders. Exchange of our common stock for the right to receive cash in the merger or pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights by a U.S. holder will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a U.S. holder will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. holder's tax basis in our common stock exchanged in the merger. Gain or loss will be calculated separately for each block of shares, with each block of shares consisting of shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held our common stock for more than one year as of the effective time of the merger. Certain limitations apply to the deductibility of capital losses by U.S. holders.

Federal income tax backup withholding. A U.S. holder may be subject to backup withholding at the rate of 28% with respect to a payment of cash in the merger unless the U.S. holder:

Table of Contents

is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories (including financial institutions, tax-exempt organizations and non-U.S. stockholders) and, when required, demonstrates this fact; or provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies, under penalties of perjury, that the U.S. holder is not subject to backup withholding, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

To prevent backup withholding, you should complete and sign the substitute Form W-9 included in the letter of transmittal, which will be sent to you if the merger is completed. Any amount withheld under these rules may be credited against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Stockholders other than U.S. holders may be required to establish a basis for exemption from backup withholding on an appropriate Form W-8 (including a Form W-8BEN, W-8ECI, W-8EXP and W-8IMY), as applicable. If withholding is made and results in an overpayment of taxes by a non-U.S. holder, a refund may be obtained, provided that the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Consequences to holders of options or warrants to purchase shares of our common stock. The receipt of cash in exchange for or in cancellation of our stock options, which have been issued to employees and directors of Cypress, will be taxable as compensation income and will be subject to applicable withholding and employment taxes. The receipt of cash in exchange for or in cancellation of warrants to purchase shares of our common stock will generally be taxable in the same manner as would a sale of such shares.

We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences to you of the merger, including the applicability and effect of U.S. Federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws, in view of your particular circumstances.

Regulatory Matters

We have jointly filed applications with the Federal Communications Commission, or the FCC, for approval to transfer control of specified licenses and authorizations. Approval depends on the FCC's evaluation as to whether Buyer is qualified to control the licenses and authorizations and whether the transfer is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity. We believe that the merger complies with this standard.

We have made joint regulatory filings seeking approval from certain state public utilities commissions. The commissions will generally consider whether the merger will be in the public interest and may look at the impact of the merger on competition and on the customers and employees of the local telephone companies. We have also made informational filings with the public utilities commissions in certain other states.

We may not consummate the merger until we receive the approval of all of the federal and state regulatory agencies. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions on page 51.

Litigation

To the best of our knowledge, no lawsuits have been filed relating to the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the agreement and plan of merger, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement and plan of merger and you are urged to carefully read the full text of the agreement and plan of merger. The agreement and plan of merger is incorporated into this proxy statement by this reference.

Structure of the Merger

If the common stockholders and the Series A stockholders approve the merger agreement, Buyer will acquire Cypress for the aggregate merger consideration of approximately $40.285 million, subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital, by merging Mergerco with and into Cypress, with Cypress surviving the merger as the wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer. The merger consideration will first be used to repay and satisfy the outstanding indebtedness under our convertible debt and term loan, as well as any unpaid transaction fees and expenses of Cypress relating to the merger. The remaining merger consideration will be distributed to our stockholders as consideration for their shares of common stock. Holders of our common stock will receive for each share of our common stock owned at the time of the merger, the merger consideration.

The aggregate merger consideration and the per share price is subject to a final adjustment, upwards or downwards, based upon the change in certain assets and liabilities between July 31, 2004, and the measurement date (which is the end of the month immediately prior to the anticipated closing date or if the end of such month is less than 30 days from the anticipated closing date, then the end of the second month immediately prior to the anticipated closing date), or as otherwise provided in the merger agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, Mergerco will cease to exist as a separate entity, and each share of Mergerco common stock will be converted into one share of our common stock. Our common stock will be withdrawn from the OTC Bulletin Board and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. We will continue in business as a privately held Delaware corporation wholly-owned by Buyer.

Table of Contents

The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Cypress immediately prior to the merger will be the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Cypress after the merger. The officers and directors of Mergerco prior to the merger will be the officers and directors of Cypress after the merger.

Repayment of Indebtedness and Transaction Fees and Expenses.

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, we or Buyer will pay from the aggregate merger consideration all of our outstanding amounts owed under our convertible debt, which, as of December 31, 2004, was $11,999,517. Immediately following the effective time of the merger, Buyer or Cypress, as the surviving corporation, will pay from the aggregate merger consideration all of the outstanding amounts owed in connection with our term loan, which, as of December 31, 2004, was $8,480,000 and all of our unpaid transaction fees and expenses, which are estimated to be $900,000.

Effect of the Merger on Capital Stock

Each issued and outstanding share of our common stock will be converted into the right to receive for each share of our common stock owned at the time of the merger, an estimated $1.71 in cash, without interest, which amount is calculated based on a preliminary Cypress balance sheet as of December 31, 2004, adjusted for the exercise of warrants subsequent to such date, and is subject to a final adjustment for changes in working capital. Each share of our common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger shall be deemed to be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist at the time of the merger, and the holders of such common stock will no longer have any rights with respect to such shares, except the right to receive cash consideration. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Mergerco common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into one share of our common stock. Such shares will continue to exist upon consummation of the merger and will be issued and outstanding shares of our common stock. As of December 31, 2004, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to holders of our currently outstanding common stock is $11,497,000, based on the per share merger consideration as calculated above.

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, we will redeem each issued and outstanding share of Series A preferred stock for par value of $0.001 and the holders of the Series A preferred stock will cease to have any rights with respect to such shares. The aggregate consideration to be paid to the Series A preferred stockholders is $0.10.

Stock Options and Warrants

At the effective time of the merger, all outstanding Cypress stock options, whether vested or unvested, will automatically vest. The stock optionholders will have the right to receive, upon exercise, on a per share basis, cash equal to the cash merger consideration less the exercise price and any applicable withholding and similar deductions. We have agreed to use our best efforts to cause our stock option holders to enter into agreements that will provide for such exercise as well as for the cancellation of their stock options for which the exercise price is in excess of the per share merger consideration. We are providing optionholders an opportunity to cash out their options to purchase shares of our common stock. Should the optionholders accept this opportunity, on consummation of the merger, we will pay them the sum of (i) $.05 plus the excess of the merger consideration over the exercise price per share of their options for each share of common stock underlying their options, to the extent the merger consideration is greater than the exercise price of their options and (ii) $.05 per share for each share of common stock underlying their options to the extent that the merger consideration is equal to or less than the exercise price per share of their options. As of December 31, 2004, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to the stock option holders is $3,256,000, based on the per share merger consideration as calculated herein.

Table of Contents

At the effective time of the merger, all outstanding Cypress warrants, whether exercisable or unexercisable, will convert into the right to receive, upon exercise, on a per share basis, cash equal to the cash merger consideration less the exercise price and any applicable withholding and similar deductions. We have agreed to use our best efforts to cause our warrant holders to exercise or cancel, if the exercise price is in excess of the per share merger consideration, their warrants. As of December 31, 2004, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid to warrant holders is $12,452,000 (subject to increase due to an increase in the number of warrants to be issued as of the closing date in accordance with the warrant agreements), based on the per share merger consideration as calculated herein.

Payment Procedures for Stockholders Who Receive Cash in the Merger

Buyer has selected HSBC Bank USA, National Association as payment agent in connection with the merger. Buyer will deposit with the payment agent sufficient funds to make all necessary payments to holders of shares that are issued and outstanding immediately before the completion of the merger.

As soon as practicable, after the effective time of the merger, Buyer will instruct the payment agent to mail to each holder of a stock certificate a letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender the certificates in exchange for the merger consideration.

After you surrender to the payment agent your stock certificate(s) with the completed and signed letter of transmittal, you will be paid in cash the amount to which you are entitled under the merger agreement, without interest, after any required withholding and similar deductions. After the effective time of the merger, there will not be any transfers of the shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger on our stock transfer books.

Neither we, Buyer, Mergerco nor the paying agent will be liable to any former stockholders for any amount delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any person claiming their stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed will be required to sign an affidavit to that effect and may be required by Cypress to post a bond in a reasonable amount as an indemnity against any claim that could be made against Cypress in respect of such lost, stolen or destroyed stock certificates. After delivering an affidavit, and if required, a bond, the surviving corporation will deliver the applicable amount of cash in respect of such shares.

Appraisal Rights

Shares of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger that are held by any holder who:

has not voted such shares in favor of the merger at the special meeting;

is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal of such shares pursuant to Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the DGCL, and complies in all respects with the provisions of such section; and has not effectively withdrawn or lost the right to demand relief as a dissenting stockholder under the DGCL as of the effective time of the merger, as applicable;

will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration. Instead such holder will only be entitled to payment of the fair value of such shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. At the effective time of the merger, all such shares will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist or be outstanding, and each holder will cease to have any rights with respect to the shares, except for rights granted under Section 262 of the DGCL. In the event a holder fails to perfect or otherwise waives, withdraws or loses the right to appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL, or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 262 of the DGCL, then the rights of such holder under Section 262 of the DGCL will cease to exist and such holder's shares will automatically be converted as of the effective time of the merger into the right to receive the merger consideration described above. We are required to serve prompt notice to Buyer of any demands for appraisal or purchase that we receive, and Buyer has the right to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal or purchase under the DGCL. We may not, without Buyer's prior written consent or as otherwise required under the DGCL, make any payment or offer to make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any claim or demand in respect of dissenting shares.

Table of Contents

These rights in general are discussed more fully under the section entitled APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

Actions to be Taken to Complete the Merger

We and Buyer agreed to take all action necessary to convene a stockholders meeting as promptly as possible after the date of the merger agreement in order for our stockholders to consider and vote upon the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. We, through our board of directors, agreed to recommend approval and adoption of the merger agreement to our stockholders. The board of directors may, prior to the stockholders meeting, alter this recommendation if, after receipt of a superior proposal, the board of directors determines, in good faith and after consultation with independent legal counsel, that the withdrawal, modification or qualification of their recommendation is required by their fiduciary obligations.

We and Buyer each agreed to take all necessary action to complete the merger. In particular, the parties agreed to prepare and file promptly, but no later than fifteen days following the execution of the merger agreement, all forms, registrations and notices required to be filed to consummate the merger.

Employees

Buyer has agreed that it will honor all written employment, severance and consulting agreements with any person. Buyer will give our employees service credit under all benefit plans maintained by Buyer following the merger.

No Solicitation of Competing Transactions

The merger agreement prohibits us (through the board of directors, or our representatives) from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or knowingly taking other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that would constitute a competing transaction to the merger. We refer to these prohibitions as no shop provisions. The board of directors may, however, prior to the date of the stockholders meeting and in response to any unsolicited inquiry or proposal for a competing transaction, after providing appropriate notice to Buyer:

furnish information (pursuant to a confidentiality agreement containing terms no less favorable to us than provided in our confidentiality agreement with Buyer) about us and our businesses, properties or assets to any person or entity in response to any unsolicited inquiry, proposal or offer if, after consultation with independent legal counsel, the board of directors determines in good faith that such action is required by its fiduciary obligations and further determines in good faith and after consultation with its independent financial advisor that the proposal made is a superior proposal; and following receipt of a bona fide superior proposal, disclose to our stockholders, after providing Buyer opportunity to revise its offer, a statement that the board no longer believes the merger advisable and no longer recommends its approval.

Before submitting a position statement to the stockholders, withdrawing or modifying a recommendation of the board of directors as discussed above, the board of directors must conclude in good faith after consultation with counsel that any such action is required by the board of directors fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law.

Director and Officer Liability

We and Buyer agreed that Cypress, as the surviving corporation, will indemnify and hold harmless all of our and our subsidiaries future, present and former directors or officers, for all claims relating to their position as director or officer and for all claims related to the merger.

In addition, we and Buyer agreed that for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Cypress, as the surviving corporation, will maintain in effect policies of director s and officer s liability insurance currently maintained by us (with at least the same coverage and amounts including terms and conditions that are no less favorable to the officers and directors) to cover all of our and our subsidiaries future, present and former directors and officers with respect to matters occurring prior to the effective time of the merger agreement, with certain limitations on the amount that Cypress would be required to expend.

Expenses

Generally, each party will pay its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger whether or not the merger is consummated, except (i) that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this proxy statement, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger will be borne equally by us and Buyer and (ii) if an accounting firm is required to figure the closing net working capital, the party whose determination less closely approximates the actual closing net working capital determined by the accounting firm shall pay the costs and expenses of the accounting firm.

Conditions

The respective obligation of each party to complete the merger shall be subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the closing date of the following conditions:

Table of Contents

the approval of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock and a majority of the holders of the issued and outstanding Series A preferred stock entitled to vote thereon;

the absence of any legal prohibitions to the consummation of the merger;

the determination of closing net capital in accordance with the merger agreement; and the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger.

Our obligation to complete the merger depends on the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of Buyer and Mergerco in the merger agreement that are qualified by materiality being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger (unless such representations and warranties are as of another date) and the representations and warranties not qualified by materiality being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger (unless such representations and warranties are as of another date), provided that such condition is satisfied unless the failure to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate with all other failures, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Buyer and Mergerco to consummate the merger;

the satisfactory performance by Buyer and Mergerco of their covenants and agreements under the merger agreement;

Buyer's delivery of the merger consideration to the paying agent; and Buyer's and Mergerco's delivery of an Officer's Certificate to the effect that the above three conditions have been satisfied.

The obligation of Buyer and Mergerco to complete the merger depends on the following conditions:

our representations and warranties in the merger agreement that are qualified by materiality being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger (unless such representations and warranties are as of another date) and the representations and warranties not qualified by materiality being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger (unless such representations and warranties are as of another date), provided that such condition is satisfied unless the failure to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate with all other failures, reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on (x) our business or results of operations, taken as a whole or (y) our ability to perform our obligations under the merger agreement, in each case in an amount which would exceed, or reasonably be expected to exceed, $2 million;

our satisfactory performance of our covenants and agreements under the merger agreement;

redemption of all the issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock;

Table of Contents

repayment of indebtedness outstanding under our term loan and convertible debt;

holders of less than 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock demanding appraisal rights;

our directors tender of resignation letters;

the absence of any pending governmental actions regarding Buyer's ownership of Cypress or the merger, or which would otherwise have a material adverse effect on Cypress; and no events having occurred which have, or would reasonably be expected to have, in the discretion of Buyer, a material adverse effect on us.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger abandoned at any time before the completion of the merger by the written consent of Cypress and Buyer.

We or Buyer may terminate the merger agreement if:

we and Buyer agree in writing to terminate the merger agreement;

the merger is not completed on or prior to July 18, 2005;

there has been an action by a governmental entity permanently prohibiting the merger;

required approval by any governmental entity is denied; or

our stockholders do not approve the merger agreement.

We may terminate the merger agreement if our conditions have become incapable of fulfillment, or if there has been a breach by Buyer or Mergerco of any material representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of Buyer or Mergerco set forth in the merger agreement which is not cured.

Buyer may terminate the merger agreement if:

our conditions have become incapable of fulfillment;

there has been a breach by us any of our material representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the merger agreement which is not cured;

our board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger or the merger agreement;

our board of directors approves or recommends a competing transaction, or executes an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement relating to a competing transaction, or our board of directors publicly proposes to do so;

our board of directors fails to recommend the rejection of a competing transaction;

we breach or circumvent the no shop provisions in the merger agreement, where such breach or circumvention results in a proposal for a competing transaction; or

we fail to give notice of or hold a meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger agreement.

We will be required to pay the Buyer a termination fee in the amount of $1,500,000 if the merger agreement is terminated because:

our stockholders do not approve the merger;

our board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger or the merger agreement;

our board of directors approves or recommends a competing transaction, or executes an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement relating to a competing transaction, or our board of directors publicly proposes to do so;

our board of directors fails to recommend the rejection of a competing transaction;

we breach or circumvent the no shop provisions in the merger agreement, where such breach or circumvention results in a proposal for a competing transaction; or

we fail to give notice of our hold a special meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger agreement.

In the event our board of directors determines that a competing transaction represents a superior offer, we do not have the right to terminate the merger agreement and we will remain obligated to convene and hold a special meeting of stockholders to consider the transactions discussed in this proxy statement. We may, however, terminate the merger agreement if our stockholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the stockholders meeting. In addition, the voting agreements will terminate if the board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement.

VOTING AGREEMENTS

The following is a summary of the material terms of the voting agreements entered into by certain directors and stockholders. The summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the form of voting agreements, which are incorporated by reference herein and attached hereto as Appendices B and C. Our stockholders are urged to read the full text of the form of voting agreement in its entirety.

In order to induce Buyer to enter into the merger agreement, certain stockholders entered into voting agreements with Buyer concurrently with our execution of the merger agreement. There are two different voting agreements, a common stock voting agreement and a preferred stock voting agreement, but the terms of the two agreements are the same. The common stockholders who are parties to the common stock voting agreement collectively owned, as of the close of business on the record date, 38.5% of our issued and outstanding shares of common stock. The Series A preferred stockholders who are parties to the preferred stock voting agreement collectively owned, as of the close of business on the record date, 89.6% of our issued and outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock. Pursuant to these voting agreements, these stockholders have agreed to vote their shares of our capital stock (i) in favor of the approval of the merger and (ii) against any action or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of the merger agreement or any third-party acquisition proposal and any other matter that could reasonably be expected to impede, interfere, or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the merger. These stockholders also have irrevocably appointed the members of the board of directors of Buyer, as the sole and exclusive attorneys and proxies to vote the shares of our capital stock owned by these stockholders in accordance with the above terms.

As a result of the Series A preferred stock voting agreement, the Series A preferred stockholders are expected to approve the merger agreement.

None of the stockholders who are parties to the voting agreements were paid any consideration for entering into the voting agreements.

Pursuant to the voting agreements, each stockholder who is a party thereto has agreed that such stockholder will not, directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, exchange, pledge or otherwise dispose of any shares of our capital stock and options owned by such stockholder until the earlier of the termination of the merger agreement or the effective time of the merger.

These voting agreements will terminate upon the earlier of the termination of the merger or the effective time of the merger. In addition, the voting agreements will terminate if the board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

If the merger is consummated, holders of our common stock who choose not to vote in favor of the merger and who follow the procedures specified in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the DGCL, within the appropriate time periods will be entitled to have their shares of our common stock appraised by a court and to receive the fair value of their shares of our common stock in cash as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery in lieu of the consideration that such dissenting stockholders would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement.

Our stockholders who properly perfect appraisal rights and who do not subsequently withdraw or lose such appraisal rights will not be entitled to surrender their shares of our common stock for payment of the merger consideration in the manner otherwise provided in the merger agreement and described in this proxy statement.

The following summary of appraisal rights under the DGCL is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex E.

Failure to strictly follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL may result in the loss, termination or waiver of appraisal rights. If you vote to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger, you will not have a right to have your shares of our common stock appraised. If you desire to exercise your appraisal rights, you must also submit a written demand for payment of the fair value of our common stock held by you. Also, not that you must continuously hold your shares of Cypress stock from the date of the making of the demand through the effective time of the merger. You will lose any right to appraisal if you transfer your shares prior to the effective time of the merger.

Stockholders who are considering the exercise of their appraisal rights under the DGCL should note that they could receive a value for their shares that is more, the same as or less than the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal. You should be aware that financial advisor opinions are not opinions as to fair value under Section

Table of Contents

262. Furthermore, under the DGCL, the evaluation of fair value is exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. Due to the complexity of appraisal rights, if you are considering exercising such rights, we urge you to seek the advice of counsel.

Under Section 262, where a proposed merger is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders as is the case of the special meeting, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders entitled to appraisal rights that such appraisal rights are available and include in such notice a copy of Section 262.

A written demand for appraisal rights must be delivered before the taking of the vote on the merger proposal at the special meeting. The written demand for appraisal rights must be executed by or for the stockholder of record, should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address, that the stockholder is thereby demanding appraisal of his, her or its shares of our common stock and the number of shares of Cypress for which you are demanding appraisal. If the shares of stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, such demand must be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, he is acting as agent for the record owner. A person having a beneficial interest in our common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below and in a timely manner to perfect whatever appraisal rights the beneficial owner may have, if any. Each stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights should mail or deliver his, her or its written demand to us at Fifteen Piedmont Center, 3575 Piedmont Road, Suite 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, Attention: Corporate Secretary. If a stockholder holds shares of our common stock through a broker who in turn holds such shares through a central securities depository nominee such as Cede & Co., a demand for appraisal of such shares must be made by or on behalf of the depository nominee and must identify the depository nominee as record holder. Within ten days after the effective date of the merger, we must provide notice of the effective date of the merger to all of our stockholders who have complied with Section 262 of the DGCL and have not voted for the merger.

A record holder, such as a broker, fiduciary, depository or other nominee, who holds shares of our common stock as a nominee for others, may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares held for all or less than all beneficial owners of shares as to which such person is the record holder. In such case, the written demand must set forth the number of shares covered by such demand. Where the number of shares is not expressly stated, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of common stock outstanding in the name of such record holder.

At any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, any stockholder who has delivered a written demand to us will have the right to withdraw such written demand for appraisal and to accept the terms of the merger agreement; after this period, a stockholder may withdraw his, her or its written demand for appraisal and receive payment for his, her or its shares of our common stock as provided in the merger agreement only with our consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the court deems just. Withdrawal after 60 days will require written approval of the surviving corporation.

The Delaware Court of Chancery may require stockholders who have demanded appraisal rights on their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings, and if any stockholder fails to comply with the requirement, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger (but not thereafter), any stockholder who has satisfied the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL may deliver to us a written demand for a statement listing the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger proposal and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. We, as the surviving corporation in the merger, must mail such written statement to the stockholder no later than ten days after the stockholder's request is received by us.

A stockholder timely filing a petition for appraisal with the Delaware Court of Chancery must deliver a copy to the surviving corporation which will then be obligated within 20 days to provide the Delaware Court of Chancery with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded appraisal of their shares.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation or any dissenting stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights may file a petition with the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such dissenting stockholders. We have no present intention to file such a petition if demand for appraisal is made. Note that if no petition is filed within the allotted time, then the right of the dissenting stockholder to an appraisal will cease and any stockholder otherwise entitled to appraisal will be entitled to receive only the merger consideration, without interest.

At the hearing on such petition, the Delaware Court of Chancery will determine the stockholders who are entitled to an appraisal of their shares and may require the stockholders who have demanded appraisal to submit their certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings. Failure to comply may result in a dismissal of the proceedings as to such stockholder. After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any. The Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto.

Although we believe that the merger consideration is fair, no representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and our stockholders should recognize that such an appraisal could result in a determination of a value higher or lower than, or the same as, the merger consideration. Moreover, we do not anticipate offering more than the merger consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and we reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding that, for purposes of Section 262 of the DGCL, the fair value of a share of our common stock is less than the merger consideration.

In determining fair value, the Delaware court is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that the proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered and that [f]air price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which could be ascertained as of the date of the merger which throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered.

The cost of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and taxed against the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems equitable in the circumstances. However, costs do not include attorneys' and expert witness fees. Each dissenting stockholder is responsible for his, her or its attorneys' and expert witness expenses, although, upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of stock entitled to appraisal.

Any holder of shares of our common stock who has duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote for any purpose any shares subject to such demand or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on such shares, except for dividends or distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the effective date of the merger.

To the extent that there are any inconsistencies between the foregoing summary and Section 262 of the DGCL, the DGCL will control.

Stockholders considering exercising their appraisal rights under the DGLC should carefully read and must strictly comply with Section 262 of the DGLC attached as Annex E.

WHEREAS, the non-employee members of the Company Board of Directors have resolved to recommend approval of the Merger and approval and adoption of this Agreement to the holders of the Common Stock and have determined that the consideration to be paid for each share of Common Stock in the Merger is fair to the holders of Common Stock;

WHEREAS, the parties intend to effect the acquisition of the Company by Parent through the merger of Purchaser with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger (the Surviving Corporation) as the wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Company, Parent and Purchaser desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Table of Contents

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

Section 1.1. The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Effective Time, the Company and Purchaser shall consummate the Merger pursuant to which (a) the separate corporate existence of Purchaser shall thereupon cease, (b) the Company shall continue as the Surviving Corporation and, as the Surviving Corporation, it shall continue to be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware. The separate corporate existence of the Company with all its rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises shall continue unaffected and unimpaired by the Merger. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time all the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Purchaser shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Company and Purchaser shall become the debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation. The Merger shall have the effects specified in the DGCL.

Section 1.2. Effective Time. Parent, Purchaser and the Company shall cause a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) to be executed and filed on the Closing Date (or on such other date as Parent and the Company may agree) with the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with Section 251 of the DGCL, and shall otherwise cause the Merger to be consummated by making all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL in connection with the Merger, in such form as is required by, and executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of, the DGCL. The Merger shall become effective at such time as the Certificate of Merger is duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such other time as the parties hereto agree shall be specified in the Certificate of Merger (the date and time the Merger becomes effective, the Effective Time).

Section 1.3. Closing. Subject to Section 1.8, a closing (the Closing) shall take place as promptly as practicable on a date to be agreed upon by the parties, and if such date is not agreed upon by the parties, on the second (2nd) business day after satisfaction or waiver in writing of all of the Conditions (other than the Conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied or waived at the Closing) (the Closing Date), at the offices of Hunton & Williams LLP, 600 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 4100, Atlanta, Georgia 30308 or at such other time and place as the parties mutually agree.

Section 1.4. Certificate of Incorporation: By-Laws. Pursuant to the Merger, (a) the Charter shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read as the certificate of incorporation of Purchaser in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time and, as so amended and restated, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law and such certificate of incorporation, and (b) the by-laws of the Company shall be amended and restated in their entirety to read as the by-laws of Purchaser, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, and, as so amended and restated, shall be the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law, by the Surviving Corporation's certificate of incorporation or by such by-laws.

Section 1.5. Directors and Officers of the Surviving Corporation. The directors and officers of Purchaser at the Effective Time shall, from and after the Effective Time, be the directors and officers, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation. If, at the Effective Time, a vacancy shall exist on the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation or in any office of the Surviving Corporation, such vacancy may thereafter be filled in accordance with the Surviving Corporation's certificate of incorporation, bylaws and the DGCL.

Section 1.6. Subsequent Actions. If, at any time after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation determines or is advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, assurances or any other actions or things are necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of either of the Company or Purchaser acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger or otherwise to carry out or give effect to this Agreement and the Transactions, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of either the Company or Purchaser, all such deeds, bills of sale, instruments of conveyance, assignments and assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of each of such corporations or otherwise, all such other actions and things as may be necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm any and all right, title or interest in, to and under such rights, properties or assets in the Surviving Corporation or otherwise to carry out or give effect to this Agreement and the Transactions.

Section 1.7. Stockholders Meeting.

(a) In order to consummate the Merger, the Company, acting through the Company Board of Directors, shall:

(i) in accordance with the Charter, the by-laws of the Company and the DGCL, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of the holders of the Shares and the Series A Preferred Stock (the Stockholders Meeting) as promptly as practicable following execution of this Agreement for the purpose of considering and taking action upon the approval of the Merger and the approval and adoption of this Agreement;

(ii) as promptly as practicable following execution of this Agreement (and in no event later than fifteen (15) days after the date hereof), prepare and file with the SEC a preliminary Proxy Statement relating to the Merger and this Agreement after prior consultation with Parent and its counsel and affording Parent and its counsel reasonable opportunity to comment on such preliminary Proxy Statement and use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and furnish the information required to be included by the SEC in a Proxy Statement and, after consultation with Parent, to respond promptly to any comments or requests for additional information made by the SEC with respect to the preliminary Proxy Statement and cause a definitive Proxy Statement to be mailed to the holders of the Shares at the earliest practical time, provided that no amendment or supplement to such Proxy Statement shall be made by the Company without prior consultation with Parent and its counsel. If (A) at any time prior to the Stockholders Meeting, any event should occur relating to the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries which should be set forth in an amendment of, or a supplement to, the Proxy Statement, the Company will promptly inform Parent, and (B) if at any time prior to the Stockholders Meeting, any event should occur relating to Parent or the Purchaser that should be set forth in an amendment of, or a supplement to, the Proxy Statement, Parent will promptly inform the Company, and in the case of (A) or (B) the Company will, upon learning of such event, promptly prepare and file and, if required, mail such amendment or supplement to the holders of the Shares and the Series A Preferred Stock; provided, prior to such filing or mailing, the Company shall consult with Parent with respect to such amendment or supplement and Parent shall have a reasonable opportunity to comment thereon;

Section 1.8. Working Capital Adjustment.

(a) Determination of Working Capital. The amount of the Unadjusted Consideration is determined, in part, on the assumption the Net Working Capital of the Company will be negative Five Million Six Hundred Thirty Eight Thousand Dollars (-$5,638,000) (the Assumed Net Working Capital). Exhibit 1.8 of the Disclosure Schedules sets forth the method by which the Assumed Net Working Capital was calculated, which shall be the method used for calculating the Net Working Capital. Not less than ten (10) days prior to the anticipated Closing Date, the Company shall prepare and deliver to Parent a written statement (the Working Capital Statement) of its calculation of the Net Working Capital as of the end of the month immediately prior to the anticipated Closing Date, provided that if the end of such month is less than thirty (30) days from the anticipated Closing Date, then the Net Working Capital shall be determined as of the end of the second month immediately prior to the anticipated Closing Date (such date, the Measurement Date). Upon the request of Parent, the Company shall promptly make available, during normal business hours, to Parent, its employees and advisors who prepared the Working Capital Statement such information, documents, books, records and other back-up material as Parent may reasonably request and is necessary to calculate the Net Working Capital and prepare the Working Capital Statement. The Net Working Capital shall be calculated in the manner indicated on Exhibit 1.8.

(b) Calculation of the Adjusted Consideration. The Unadjusted Consideration shall be increased or decreased in the amounts set forth below (the Unadjusted Consideration subject to any increase or decrease required under this Section 1.8(b), the Adjusted Consideration).

(i) In the event that the Closing Net Working Capital is (i) less than the Assumed Net Working Capital (a Working Capital Shortfall) or (ii) greater than the Assumed Net Working Capital (a Working Capital Excess), the Unadjusted Consideration shall be (x) in the case of clause (i), decreased on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the amount of the Working Capital Shortfall or (y) in the case of clause (ii), increased on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the amount of the Working Capital Excess;

(ii) The Unadjusted Consideration shall be decreased on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the indebtedness of the Company under the Senior Loan as of the Measurement Date;

(iii) The Unadjusted Consideration shall be increased on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the amount of cash on the Company's balance sheet as of the Measurement Date and, if mutually determined by the Parties, by the amount of cash received by the Company through the Closing Date upon the exercise of Company Options and Warrants between the Measurement Date and the Closing Date; and

(iv) The Unadjusted Consideration shall be decreased by the amount of cash received by the Company, on or prior to the Measurement Date, that relates to refunds attributable to the Company's having made payments to telecommunications service providers, in periods prior to July 1, 2004, for taxes and surcharges from which the Company might be exempt (the Telecom Tax Recovery), other than cash received by the Company from telecommunications service providers identified on Schedule 1.8(b) of the Disclosure Schedules relating to the Telecom Tax Recovery.

(c) Working Capital Disputes. In the event that Parent desires to dispute the Company's determination of the Net Working Capital as set forth in the Working Capital Statement, Parent shall provide, not less than five (5) days prior to the anticipated Closing Date, written notice to the Company of such dispute and a reasonably detailed description of the reasons therefor. Parent and the Company shall attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute after receipt by the Company of such written notice, and in the event that the parties are unable to resolve such dispute by the anticipated Closing Date, the parties agree that the Atlanta, Georgia office of PriceWaterhouseCoopers (the Accounting Firm) shall be engaged to resolve such dispute and provide a written determination of the Net Working Capital as soon as reasonably practicable. If Parent fails to object as provided herein to the Company's determination of the Net Working Capital by the end of the fifth (5th) day prior to the anticipated Closing Date, then the Company's Net Working Capital calculation shall be deemed accepted by the Parent and Purchaser and shall be final, binding and conclusive upon the parties. The Net Working Capital as agreed between the parties or otherwise determined under this Section 1.8 to be final, binding and conclusive shall be for all purposes the Closing Net Working Capital.

(d) Review by Accounting Firm. If required by subsection 1.8(c) above, the parties shall direct the Accounting Firm to review the Working Capital Statement as necessary in order to determine the actual Net Working Capital. The written determination of such Accounting Firm shall be final, binding and conclusive upon the parties. The Closing shall occur within two (2) business days after the parties' receipt of such written determination, provided that all other Conditions have been satisfied or waived in writing. The parties agree to enter into, execute and deliver indemnity and other agreements that may be required by the Accounting Firm prior to engagement. In the event that the Accounting Firm is so engaged, the party whose determination of the Closing Net Working Capital less closely approximates the actual Closing Net Working Capital (as determined by the Accounting Firm), measured by dollar amounts and not percentages, shall pay all the costs and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

ARTICLE II

CONVERSION OF SECURITIES

Section 2.1. Conversion of Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of the holders of any Shares or holders of Purchaser Common Stock:

(a) Purchaser Common Stock. Each issued and outstanding share of Purchaser Common Stock shall be converted into and become one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock and Parent-Owned Stock. All Shares that are owned by the Company as treasury stock or otherwise shall be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Conversion of Shares. Each Share (other than the Shares cancelled in accordance with Section 2.1(b) and other than any Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, payable to the holder thereof upon surrender of the holder's Certificate in the manner provided in Section 2.2. From and after the Effective Time, all such Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall be deemed to be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect to his Shares except the right to receive the Merger Consideration therefor upon the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with Section 2.2.

Section 2.2. Exchange of Certificates; Paying Agent.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall designate a bank or trust company to act as agent (the Paying Agent) for the holders of the Shares in connection with the Merger to receive in trust the aggregate Merger Consideration to which holders of the Shares shall become entitled pursuant to Section 2.1(c). At the Effective Time, Parent or Purchaser shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Paying Agent for the benefit of holders of Shares the aggregate Merger Consideration which the holders of the Shares shall be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.1(c). The Paying Agent shall invest and reinvest the aggregate Merger Consideration as directed by Parent in (i) money-market or other interest-bearing accounts or short term certificates of deposit issued by the Paying Agent or of any other commercial bank of comparable or larger size; (ii) short-term securities issued or guaranteed by the United States Government; or (iii) mutual funds or common trust funds of the Paying Agent consisting solely of obligations issued or guaranteed by the United States government. Parent shall replace any monies lost through any investment made pursuant to this Section 2.2(a). Registered ownership of or other legal title to the Merger Consideration and investments thereof may be maintained in the name of the Paying Agent, or its nominee. Earnings from such investments shall be the sole and exclusive property of Purchaser and the Surviving Corporation, and no part of such earnings shall accrue to the benefit of holders of Shares.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each Person who was a record holder of the Shares at the Effective Time, (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions not inconsistent with this Agreement as Parent may specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Certificates in exchange for payment of the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate by a holder of Shares for cancellation to the Paying Agent, together with a duly executed and completed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may be required by the instructions to the letter of transmittal, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration for each Share represented by such Certificate, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. Until so surrendered, each such Certificate shall, at and after the Effective Time, represent for all purposes, only the right to receive the Merger Consideration. No interest shall accrue or be paid to any record holder of Shares with respect to the Merger Consideration payable upon surrender of any Certificate. If payment of the Merger Consideration is to be made to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or shall be otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting such payment shall have paid any transfer and other Taxes required by reason of the payment of the Merger Consideration to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such Tax either has been paid or is not applicable. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by the Surviving Corporation or Parent, the posting by such person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation or Parent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration such holder is entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.1(c). The Merger Consideration paid upon surrender of each Share in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Share.

(c) Transfer Books; No Further Ownership Rights in the Shares. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed, and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of the Shares on the records of the Company. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of the Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares, except as otherwise provided for herein or by applicable law.

(d) Withholding Taxes. Parent, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent, as the case may be, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares and any Warrants or Company Options such amounts as Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares, Warrants or Company Options in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent.

Section 2.3. Termination of Fund; No Liability. At any time following one (1) year after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any funds (including any earnings received with respect thereto) which had been made available to the Paying Agent and not disbursed to holders of the Shares, and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look only to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) and only as general creditors thereof with respect to the Merger Consideration payable upon due surrender of their Certificates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Surviving Corporation, Parent nor the Paying Agent shall be liable to any holder of the Shares for the Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such Shares to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

From and after the Effective Date, all such Dissenting Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall be deemed to be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a Dissenting Share shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Dissenting Share, except the right to receive from the Surviving Corporation payment of the fair value of the Dissenting Share, as such is determined in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.4(a), if any holder of Shares who demands appraisal of his Shares under Section 262 of the DGCL effectively withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his right to appraisal, then as of the Effective Time or the occurrence of such event, whichever later occurs, such holder's Shares shall automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1(c) upon surrender of his Certificate or Certificates pursuant to Section 2.2.

(c) The Company shall give Parent (i) prompt written notice of any written demands for appraisal or payment of the fair value of any Shares, withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served on the Company pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL and received by the Company and (ii) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL. Except with the prior written consent of Parent, the Company shall not voluntarily make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal, settle or offer to settle any such demands.

Section 2.5. Conversion of Warrants.

(a) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all reasonable and necessary steps to cause the Warrants, whether exercisable or unexercisable, to be converted into an obligation of the Company to pay, and the right of the holder of the Warrant to receive, in full satisfaction of each of the Warrants, the Warrant Cash Amount. The Warrant Cash Amount for any Warrant shall equal the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share of Common Stock of such Warrants and (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock underlying such Warrants; provided, however, if the Merger Consideration is less than or equal to the exercise price per share of Common Stock of any Warrant, then the holder of such Warrant shall not be entitled to receive any compensation in connection with the Merger or otherwise.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time and following (i) surrender of such Warrant to the Surviving Corporation and (ii) delivery to the Surviving Corporation of an acknowledgement by the holder of such Warrant that such Warrant shall be cancelled and extinguished upon payment of the Warrant Cash Amount as provided in this Section 2.5(b), the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be mailed to the holder of such Warrant, the Warrant Cash Amount payable, if any, with respect to such Warrant to such holder pursuant to Section 2.5(a) hereof.

(c) The Company represents and warrants that (i) the Company can take the actions described in Section 2.5(a) without obtaining the consent of any holders of Warrants or (ii) if such consent is required, that, except as set forth on Exhibit 2.5(c), the Company will use its best efforts to

The Option Cash Amount for any Company Option shall equal the product of: (1) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share of Common Stock of such Company Option and (2) the number of shares of Common Stock underlying such Company Option. The Company shall take all reasonable actions necessary to cause the Company's employees to consent, to the extent required, to the transactions contemplated by this Section 2.6 no later than immediately prior to the Effective Time. Except as may be otherwise agreed to by Parent or Purchaser and the Company, as of the Effective Time, (i) the Company Option Plan shall terminate, (ii) the provisions in any other plans or agreements providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect of the capital stock of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries shall be deleted and (iii) no holder of Company Options or any participant in the Company Option Plan or any other plans or agreements shall have any rights thereunder to acquire any Equity Interests of the Company, the Surviving Corporation or any subsidiary thereof. The Company and Parent agree that, except as otherwise mutually agreed, the Option Cash Amounts are the sole payments that will be made with respect to or in relation to the Company Options.

(b) As soon as practicable, and in no event more than five (5) business days following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be mailed to the holder of each Company Option, the Option Cash Amount payable, if any, with respect to such Company Option to such holder pursuant to Section 2.6(a) hereof.

Immediately following the Effective Time, Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall pay from the Adjusted Consideration all obligations of the Company outstanding with respect to the Term Loans in exchange for evidence of cancellation of the Term Loans in forms reasonably satisfactory to Parent.

Section 3.24. Accounts Receivable. Except as disclosed in Schedule 3.24 of the Disclosure Schedules, all accounts receivable of the Company and any Company Subsidiary in the aggregate are current or covered by adequate reserves for uncollectibility, represent monies due to the Company or any Company Subsidiary for goods sold and delivered or services actually rendered in the ordinary course of business and there are no material disputes regarding the collectibility of any such accounts receivable that are not adequately reserved for.

Section 3.26. Customer and Vendor Relations. Since October 1, 2004, there has not been a material increase in the rate of cancellations or terminations of customer contracts or decreases in usage of the Company's or any Company Subsidiary's services or products.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PARENT AND PURCHASER

Except as set forth in the Parent Disclosure Schedules, Parent and Purchaser jointly and severally represent and warrant to the Company as follows:

Section 4.1. Organization. Each of Parent and Purchaser is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of their incorporation and has all necessary corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now being conducted and to own the properties and assets it now owns, except in any such case where such failure would not, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent and Purchaser to consummate the Merger. Parent and Purchaser have each delivered to the Company true and correct copies of its certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Purchaser is a wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent and was formed to effect the Merger.

Section 4.2. Authorization; Validity of Agreement; Necessary Action. The (a) execution, delivery and performance by Parent and Purchaser of this Agreement and agreements or other instruments contemplated herein to be executed, delivered and performed by Parent and Purchaser (the Buyers Related Instruments) and (b) consummation of the Transactions by the Parent and Purchaser, have been duly authorized by the Boards of Directors of Parent and Purchaser and by Parent as the sole stockholder of Purchaser. Each of Parent and Purchaser has all necessary corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, the Buyers Related Instruments and to consummate the Transactions and no other corporate action on the part of Parent and Purchaser is necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by Parent and Purchaser of this Agreement, the Buyers Related Instruments or the consummation of the Transactions. This Agreement has been and as of the Closing each of the Buyers Related Instruments will be, duly executed and delivered by Parent and Purchaser, and, assuming due and valid authorization, execution and delivery hereof by the Company, are or, in the case of the Buyers Related Instruments, will be legal, valid and binding obligations of each of Parent and Purchaser, enforceable against each of them in accordance with their terms, except as such may be limited by the Enforceability Exception.

Section 4.3. Consents and Approvals; No Violations. Except for the filings, permits, authorizations, consents and approvals as may be required under, and other applicable requirements of, the Exchange Act, the HSR Act, state securities or blue sky laws, the DGCL or except as set forth on Schedule 4.3 of the Parent Disclosure Schedules, none of the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by Parent or Purchaser, the consummation by Parent or Purchaser of the Transactions or compliance by Parent or Purchaser with any of the provisions hereof will (a) conflict with or result in any breach of any provision of the respective certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Parent or Purchaser, (b) require any filing with, or permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any Governmental Entity, (c) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any written note, bond, mortgage, indenture, lease, license, contract, agreement or other instrument or obligation made in writing to which Parent or Purchaser is a party or by which any of them or any of their respective properties or assets are bound or (d) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their properties or assets, excluding from the foregoing clauses (c) and (d) such violations breaches or defaults which would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent and Purchaser to consummate the Merger.

Section 4.4. Proxy Statement. None of the information furnished by Parent or Purchaser expressly for inclusion in the Proxy Statement shall (a) at the date mailed to the holders of the Shares, (b) unless promptly corrected at any time during the pendency of the Stockholders Meeting or (c) at the time of the Stockholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

Section 4.5. Sufficient Funds. Parent or Purchaser will have prior to Closing sufficient cash or other sources of immediately available funds sufficient to enable it to pay the Merger Consideration, to provide for the repayment of the Term Loans, and the redemption of the Convertible Debt and to pay all fees and expenses related to, and to consummate, the Transactions when and as required hereunder. Prior to the date of this Agreement, Parent and Purchaser have delivered to the Company a copy of an executed commitment letter with regard to providing such funds.

Section 4.6. Share Ownership. None of Parent, Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates or Associates beneficially own any Shares, and none of them have any rights to acquire beneficial ownership of any Shares, other than as set forth in this Agreement.

Section 4.7. Purchaser's Operations. Purchaser was formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the Transactions and has not engaged in any business activities or conducted any operations other than in connection with the Transactions.

Section 4.8. Brokers or Finders. Except as set forth in Schedule 4.8 of the Parent Disclosure Schedules, neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries or its Affiliates has entered into any agreement or arrangement entitling any agent, broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other firm or person to any brokers' or finders' fee or any other commission or similar fee in connection with any of the Transactions.

Section 4.9. Litigation. Except as set forth in Schedule 4.9 of the Parent Disclosure Schedules, there is no action, suit, inquiry, proceeding or, to the Knowledge of Purchaser and Parent, investigation by or before any Governmental Entity pending or, to the Knowledge of Parent or Purchaser, threatened against or involving Parent or Purchaser, which, in any such case, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent and Purchaser to consummate the Merger.

Section 4.10. Purchaser Qualifications.

(a) Purchaser and each of its Affiliates is legally, financially and otherwise qualified under all applicable laws (including, for example only, the Communications Act) to be (A) a transferee of control of all permits, licenses, waivers and authorizations issued by the FCC to the Company or its Subsidiaries (the FCC Authorizations) to provide long distance service in accordance with Section 214 of the Communications Act and (B) the FCC licensee of and to own and operate the businesses, assets and operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries and to perform its obligations hereunder. To Purchaser's knowledge, no fact or circumstance exists relating to the qualifications of Purchaser or any of its Affiliates that (1) has prevented or delayed, or would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay, the FCC or the State PUCs set forth on Schedule 4.10(a) of the Disclosure Schedules from granting approval or (2) has prevented or delayed, or would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay, or otherwise disqualify Purchaser as the licensee, owner, operator or transferee of any of the businesses, assets and operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries in any foreign jurisdiction, or (3) would cause the FCC or any State PUC to impose a condition or conditions that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of Purchaser to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No waiver of any FCC or State PUC rule or policy that would materially delay FCC or any State PUC approval is necessary to be obtained for the grant of the applications to obtain all required approvals of the FCC and the State PUCs in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the Transfer Applications), nor will processing pursuant to any exception to a rule of general applicability be requested or required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Purchaser and each of its Affiliates is legally and otherwise qualified to enter into and/or assume obligations under contracts with any Governmental Entity of the United States of America or any political subdivision thereof. Purchaser knows of no fact that would, under applicable law, disqualify such Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries as a party to any such contract with any Governmental Entity of the United States of America or any political subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE V

(xviii) neither the Company nor any of the Company Subsidiaries shall enter into an agreement, contract, binding commitment or binding arrangement to do any of the foregoing, or to authorize, recommend, propose or announce an intention to do any of the foregoing.

Section 5.2. Access; Confidentiality. The Company shall (and shall cause each of the Company Subsidiaries to) afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel, financing sources and other representatives (the Representatives) of Parent, reasonable access upon reasonable prior notice during normal business hours, to all its officers, employees, agents, facilities, properties, books, contracts, commitments and records; provided that in all cases such access shall be conducted in a manner so as to not interfere with the normal operation of the Company's business and shall furnish Parent with all financial, operating and other data and information as Parent, through its Representatives, may reasonably request. The Company shall furnish to Parent monthly financial and operating data and information within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month. Until the Effective Time, unless otherwise required by law or in order to comply with disclosure requirements applicable to the Proxy Statement, Parent and Purchaser shall hold any such information which is nonpublic in strict confidence, and shall cause its Representatives to hold such information in strict confidence, in accordance with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 5.3. Reasonable Efforts.

(a) Prior to the Closing, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, Parent, Purchaser and, unless the recommendation of the Company Board of Directors has been withdrawn, amended or modified pursuant to Section 5.5(c) hereof, the Company agrees to use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable (subject to any applicable laws) to consummate and make effective the Transactions as promptly as practicable including, but not limited to (i) the preparation and filing not later than fifteen (15) days after the date hereof of all forms, registrations and notices required to be filed to consummate the Transactions and the taking of such actions as are reasonably necessary to obtain any requisite approvals, consents, orders, exemptions or waivers by any third party or Governmental Entity and (ii) the satisfaction of the other parties' conditions to Closing. In addition, unless the recommendation of the Company Board of Directors has been withdrawn, amended or modified pursuant to Section 5.5(c) hereof, no party hereto shall take any action after the date hereof that would reasonably be expected to materially delay the obtaining of, or result in not obtaining, any permission, approval or consent from any Governmental Entity necessary to be obtained prior to Closing.

(b) Prior to the Closing, each party shall promptly consult with the other parties hereto with respect to, provide any necessary information with respect to, and provide the other parties (or their respective counsel) with copies of, all filings made by such party with any Governmental Entity or any other information supplied by such party to a Governmental Entity in connection with this Agreement or the Transactions. Each party hereto shall promptly inform the other of any communication from any Governmental Entity regarding any of the Transactions. If any party hereto or Affiliate thereof receives a request for additional information or documentary material from any such Governmental Entity with respect to any of the Transactions, then such party shall endeavor in good faith to make, or cause to be made, as soon as reasonably practicable and after consultation with the other parties hereto, an appropriate response in compliance with such request.

(c) If required, the Company and Parent shall file as soon as practicable notifications under the HSR Act and respond as promptly as practicable and after consultation with the other parties hereto to any inquiries received from the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice for additional information or documentation and respond as promptly as practicable and after consultation with the other parties hereto to all inquiries and requests received from any State Attorney General or other Governmental Entity in connection with antitrust matters. Concurrently with any required filing of notifications under the HSR Act or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Company and Parent shall each request early termination of the HSR Act waiting period, if applicable. None of the parties to this Agreement shall independently participate in any meeting, or engage in any substantive conversation, with any Governmental Entity in respect of any such filings, investigation or other inquiry without giving the other parties to this Agreement prior notice of the meeting or conversation and, unless prohibited by such Governmental Entity, the opportunity to attend or participate. The parties to this Agreement will consult and cooperate with one another in connection with any analyses, appearances, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions and proposals made or submitted by or on behalf of any party to this Agreement in connection with proceedings under or relating to the HSR Act or other antitrust laws.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to require any party hereto (i) to commence any litigation against any entity in order to facilitate the consummation of any of the Transactions, (ii) to defend against any litigation brought by any Governmental Entity seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the Transactions or (iii) to divest any of its businesses, product lines or assets, make public any information that the other party deems to be confidential, or take or agree to take any other action or agree to any limitation or restriction.

Section 5.4. Employee Benefits.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries will honor in accordance with their terms all written employment, severance and consulting agreements between any Person and the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries existing, and in their respective forms of agreement, as of the date of this Agreement, subject to any written modifications thereto agreed to by any such officers or directors with the Surviving Corporation and done after the Effective Time.

(b) To the extent permitted under applicable law, each employee of the Company or the Company Subsidiaries shall be given credit for all service with the Company or the Company Subsidiaries under all Plans maintained by Parent or the Surviving Corporation following the Effective Date for all purposes under such Plans including without limitation eligibility, vesting and benefit accruals.

Section 5.5. No Solicitation of Competing Transaction.

(a) The Company shall not, nor shall it authorize or permit any of the Company Subsidiaries or Representatives, directly or indirectly, to (i) solicit, initiate or encourage, or knowingly take any other action to facilitate (other than action reasonably necessary to enter into the confidentiality agreement contemplated by subclause (B) below), the submission of any Acquisition Proposal or (ii) participate in or encourage any discussion or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to, or knowingly take any other action to facilitate (other than action reasonably necessary to enter into the confidentiality agreement contemplated by subclause (B) below) any inquiries or the making of, any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that, prior to the date of the Stockholders Meeting, the foregoing shall not prohibit the Company Board of Directors from furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity that makes an Acquisition Proposal that was not solicited by the Company in breach of this Section 5.5(a) or that did not otherwise result from a breach of this Section 5.5(a), if, and to the extent that, (A) the Company Board of Directors, after consultation with and having considered the advice of independent outside legal counsel, determines in good faith that such action is required for the Company Board of Directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the Company's stockholders under applicable Delaware law, (B) in connection with taking such action, the Company receives from such person or entity an executed agreement in reasonably customary form relating to the confidentiality of information to be provided to such person or entity on terms no less favorable to the Company than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement, and (C) the Company Board of Directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisor, that the Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal.

(b) The Company shall provide prompt (but in no event less than one business day after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or inquiry) oral and written notice to Parent of (i) the receipt of any such Acquisition Proposal, and any modification or amendment to any Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) the material terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal or inquiry, (iii) provided that such disclosure would not be in violation of a confidentiality agreement in effect on the date hereof, the identity of such person or entity making any such Acquisition Proposal or inquiry and (iv) the Company's intention to furnish information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, such person or entity. The Company shall continue to keep Parent informed, on a prompt basis, of all material developments affecting the status and terms of any such Acquisition Proposal or inquiry or status of any such discussions or negotiations. The Company shall cease and cause to be terminated immediately all existing discussions or negotiations with any persons conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal.

(c) Neither the Company Board of Directors nor any committee thereof shall, except as expressly permitted by this Section 5.5(c), (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Purchaser, the approval or recommendation of the Company Board of Directors or any committee thereof of the Merger or this Agreement, (ii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any transaction involving an Acquisition Proposal from a third party (an Alternative Transaction), or (iii) cause the Company to enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement (each, an Acquisition Agreement) related to any Alternative Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if prior to the Stockholders Meeting, the Company Board of Directors determines in good faith, after it has received a Superior Proposal in full compliance in all respects with Sections 5.5(a), 5.5(b) and 5.11 and after consultation with and having considered the advice of independent outside legal counsel with respect to its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Delaware law, that the withdrawal, qualification or modification of the approval of the Company Board of Directors or any committee thereof of the Merger or this Agreement is required in order to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the Company's stockholders under applicable Delaware law, the Company Board of Directors may (subject to this and the following sentences) inform the Company's stockholders that it no longer believes that the Merger is advisable and no longer recommends approval (a Subsequent Determination) but only at a time that is after the fourth (4th) business day following the Parent's receipt of written notice advising the Parent that the Company Board of Directors has received a Superior Proposal. Such written notice shall specify the terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and include a copy thereof with all accompanying documentation, if in writing), identify the Person making such Superior Proposal and state that the Company Board of Directors intends to make a Subsequent Determination. During such four (4) business day period, the Company shall provide an opportunity for the Parent to propose such adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable the Company to proceed with its recommendation to its stockholders without a Subsequent Determination; provided, however, that any such proposed adjustment shall be at the discretion of Parent and Purchaser. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company shall submit this Agreement to the holders of the Shares and the Series A Preferred Stock whether or not the Company Board of Directors makes a Subsequent Determination.

(d) Nothing contained in this Section 5.5 shall prohibit the Company from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14(e)-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any disclosure to the Company's stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board of Directors, after consultation with independent outside counsel, failure so to disclose would be inconsistent with applicable law; provided, however, neither the Company nor the Company Board of Directors nor any committee thereof shall, except as specifically permitted by Section 5.5(c), withdraw, qualify, or modify, or propose to withdraw, qualify or modify, its position with respect to the Merger or this Agreement.

Section 5.6. Publicity. The initial press release with respect to the execution of this Agreement shall be a joint press release mutually acceptable to Parent and the Company; such initial press release shall be issued contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement and shall describe the material terms of this Agreement. Thereafter, until the Closing Date, or the date the Transactions are terminated or abandoned pursuant to Article VII, neither the Company, Parent nor any of their respective Affiliates shall issue or cause the publication of any press release or other announcement with respect to the Merger, this Agreement or the other Transactions without prior consultation with the other party, except as may be required by law or by any listing agreement with a national securities exchange or trading market.

Section 5.7. Notification of Certain Matters. Each party hereto shall give prompt notice to the other parties orally and in writing of (a) the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event the occurrence or non-occurrence of which would cause any representation or warranty of such party contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect at or prior to the Effective Time, (b) any failure of such party to comply with or satisfy, in any material respect, any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by such party hereunder, (c) any change or event known to the Company which would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or any change or event known to Parent which would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent and Purchaser to consummate the Merger, (d) any notice or other communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (e) any notice or other communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (f) any material claims, actions, investigations or proceedings commenced or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.7 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice. If any event or matter arises after the date of this Agreement which, if existing or occurring at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in the Disclosure Schedules or which is necessary to correct any information in the Disclosure Schedules which has been rendered inaccurate thereby, then the Company shall, for informational purposes only, promptly supplement, or amend, and deliver to Parent the Disclosure Schedules.

Section 5.8. Directors and Officers Insurance and Indemnification.

on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to, this Agreement or the Transactions, in each case to the fullest extent required or permitted under DGCL (including with respect to the advancement of expenses). Each Indemnified Person and their respective heirs, successors and assigns is intended to be a third party beneficiary of this Section 5.8 and may specifically enforce its terms. This Section 5.8 shall not limit or otherwise adversely affect any rights any Indemnified Person may have under any agreement with the Company or under the Company's Charter or By-Laws.

(b) The Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, and the Surviving Corporation shall, maintain in effect for six (6) years from the Effective Time, if available, the Company's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance (D&O Insurance) covering the Indemnified Persons (provided that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies of third party policies of insurers with comparable financial strength ratings to the Company's current liability insurance providers of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall the Surviving Corporation be required to expend pursuant to this Section 5.8(b) more than an amount per year equal to two hundred twenty five percent (225%) of current annual premiums paid by the Company for such insurance. If the Surviving Corporation elects to reduce the amount of insurance coverage pursuant to the preceding sentence, it will furnish to the officers and directors currently covered by such D&O Insurance reasonable notice of such reduction in coverage and shall, to the extent additional coverage is available, afford such Persons the opportunity to pay such additional premiums as may be necessary to maintain the existing level of D&O Insurance coverage. The costs of maintaining the D&O Insurance after the Closing Date will not be included as a Current Liability for purposes of calculating Net Working Capital.

(d) This Section 5.8 shall survive the consummation of the Transactions, and if Purchaser or any of its Successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into another Person, then and in each case, Purchaser shall cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of Purchaser will assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.8.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Cypress Communications Holding Co., Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), Parent and TechInvest Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Sub), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (as the same may be amended or supplemented, the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Sub will be merged with and into the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger);

WHEREAS, the Stockholder is the sole record and beneficial owner (including sole voting power) of the Warrants set forth on the signature page hereto (the Warrants), the Convertible Debt set forth on the signature page hereto (the Notes) and the shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Common Stock set forth on the signature page hereto (the Existing Shares and, together with any shares of Common Stock or other voting capital stock of the Company acquired by Stockholder after the date hereof, including upon conversion of the Notes or exercise of the Warrants, the Shares);

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and as a condition and inducement to Parent's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, the Stockholder has agreed to vote all the Shares pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, capitalized terms used in this Agreement and not defined herein shall have the respective meanings given to such terms in the Merger Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein and in the Merger Agreement and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

1. Voting of Shares. Until the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, the Stockholder hereby agrees that, at any annual, special or other meeting of the stockholders of the Company, and at any adjournment or adjournments thereof, and in connection with any action of the stockholders of the Company taken by written consent, the Stockholder will:

(a) appear at each such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares owned beneficially or of record by the Stockholder to be counted as present at such meeting for purposes of calculating a quorum; and

(b) (i) unless Parent votes such Shares directly pursuant to the proxy granted in Section 2 hereof, vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, or deliver a written consent with respect to such Shares in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement, approval of the Merger and any other action of the holders of the Common Stock or Series A Preferred Stock (the Company Stockholders) requested in furtherance thereof and to which the Stockholder is entitled to vote; (ii) unless Parent votes such Shares directly pursuant to the proxy granted in Section 2 hereof, vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, against, and not deliver any written consent with respect to such Shares in favor of (x) any action or agreement submitted for approval of the Company Stockholders that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement or of the Stockholder contained in this Agreement; and (y) any Acquisition Proposal or any other action, agreement or transaction submitted for approval to the Company Stockholders that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the Merger or this Agreement, including: (A) any extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving the Company or its Subsidiaries (other than the Merger); or (B) a sale, lease or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or a reorganization, recapitalization or liquidation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

2. Proxy.

2.1 The Stockholder, by this Agreement does hereby constitute and appoint Parent, or any nominee of Parent, with full power of substitution, during and for the Proxy Term (as hereinafter defined), as Stockholder's true and lawful attorney and irrevocable proxy, for and in Stockholder's name, place and stead, to vote each of the Shares as Stockholder's proxy, at every meeting of the Company Stockholders or any adjournment thereof or in connection with any written consent of the Company Stockholders, (i) in favor of approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement, approval of the Merger and any other action of the Company Stockholders requested in furtherance thereof; (ii) against any action or agreement submitted for approval of the Company Stockholders that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement or of the Stockholder contained in this Agreement; and (iii) against any Acquisition Proposal or any other action, agreement or transaction submitted for approval to the Company Stockholders that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the Merger or this Agreement, including: (A) any extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving the Company or its Subsidiaries (other than the Merger); or (B) a sale, lease or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or a reorganization, recapitalization or liquidation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

2.2 For purposes of this Agreement, Proxy Term shall mean the period from the execution of this Agreement until the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 7.1 hereof.

5. Representations and Warranties of The Stockholder. The Stockholder hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows:

5.1 Authorization; Validity of Agreement; Necessary Action. The Stockholder has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance by the Stockholder of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by the Stockholder, and no other actions or proceedings on the part of the Stockholder are necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by it of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Stockholder and, assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Parent, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Stockholder, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to general equity principles.

5.2 Ownership. The Existing Shares are, and such Existing Shares and any additional Shares will be, owned beneficially and of record by the Stockholder. The Notes and the Warrants are and will be owned beneficially and of record by the Stockholder. As of the date hereof, the number of shares of Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock owned by the Stockholder is listed opposite the Stockholder's name on the signature page hereto. As of the date hereof, the Existing Shares constitute all of the shares of Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock held of record, owned by or for which voting power or disposition power is held or shared by the Stockholder or any of its affiliates (except for shares owned beneficially and of record by any affiliates of the Stockholder that are parties to a Voting Agreement with Parent in the form of this Agreement). For purposes of this Agreement, (i) affiliates shall mean persons controlled by, under the control of or under common control with Stockholder and (ii) control of a person or entity shall mean the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct the management and policies of such person or entity, whether through the ownership of voting securities, contracts or otherwise. The Stockholder has and will have at all times through the Effective Time sole voting power, sole power of disposition, sole power to issue instructions with respect to the matters set forth in Sections 1, 2, 4 and 6 hereof, and sole power to agree to all of the matters set forth in this Agreement, in each case with respect to all of the Existing Shares and with respect to all of the Shares at the Effective Time, with no limitations, qualifications or restrictions on such rights, subject to applicable federal securities laws and the terms of this Agreement. The Stockholder has good and marketable title to the Existing Shares, free and clear of any security interests, liens, claims, pledges, options, rights of first refusal, agreements, limitations on voting rights, charges and encumbrances of any nature whatsoever (Liens), and the Stockholder will have good and marketable title to such Existing Shares and any additional Shares, free and clear of any Liens.

5.3 No Violation. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance by the Stockholder of its obligations under this Agreement will not, (i) conflict with or violate any law, ordinance or regulation of any Governmental Entity applicable to the Stockholder or by which any of its assets or properties is bound or (ii) conflict with, result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or require payment under, or require redemption or repurchase of or otherwise require the purchase or sale of any securities, or result in the creation of any Lien on the properties or assets of the Stockholder pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which the Stockholder is a party or by which the Stockholder or any of its assets or properties is bound, except for any of the foregoing as would not, either individually or in the aggregate, prevent or materially delay or impair the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

5.4 Consents and Approvals. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance by the Stockholder of its obligations under this Agreement will not, require the Stockholder to obtain any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or to make any filing with or notification to, any Governmental Entity based on the law, ordinance or regulation of any applicable Governmental Entity, except for any of the foregoing as would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, prevent or materially delay or impair the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

5.5 Absence of Litigation. There is no suit, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of the Stockholder, threatened against the Stockholder before or by any Governmental Entity that could prevent, materially delay or impair the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

5.6 Absence of Agreements with the Company. There are no existing Agreements or arrangements between the Stockholder or any of its affiliates, on one hand, or the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, relating to the Shares owned beneficially and of record by the Stockholder or any other securities of or investment in the Company.

6. Covenants of the Stockholder. The Stockholder hereby covenants and agrees as follows:

6.1 While this Agreement is in effect, and except as expressly contemplated hereby, not to sell, transfer, pledge, encumber, assign, distribute, gift or otherwise dispose of (collectively, a Transfer) or enforce or permit the execution of the provisions of any redemption, share purchase or sale, recapitalization or other agreement with the Company or any other person or entity or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to any Transfer (whether by actual disposition or effective economic disposition due to hedging, cash settlement or otherwise) of, any of the Existing Shares owned beneficially and of record by the Stockholder, any Shares acquired by the Stockholder after the date hereof, any securities exercisable or exchangeable for or convertible into Common Stock including, without limitation, the Notes and the Warrants, any other capital stock of the Company or any interest in any of the foregoing with any person or entity.

6.2 In case of a stock dividend or distribution, or any change in Common Stock by reason of any stock dividend or distribution, split-up, recapitalization, combination, exchange of shares or the like, the term Shares shall be deemed to refer to and include the Shares as well as all such stock dividends and distributions and any securities into which or for which any or all of the Shares may be changed or exchanged or which are received in such transaction.

6.3 Except as permitted of the Stockholder by the Merger Agreement as a member of the Company's Board of Directors in order to comply with such member's fiduciary duties, during the term of this Agreement it shall not, and shall not authorize any of its representatives to, and shall not permit any of its representatives to, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit, initiate or encourage, or take any other action to facilitate, the submission of any Acquisition Proposal or any proposal with respect to any matter described in Section 6.1 hereof or (b) participate in or encourage any discussion or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person or entity any non-public information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of, any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal. The Stockholder agrees immediately to cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any possible Acquisition Proposal or any matter described in Section 6.1, and the Stockholder will take all necessary steps to inform its respective representatives of the obligations undertaken by the Stockholder pursuant to this Section 6.3.

7.11 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

7.12 Specific Performance. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that the other party would be damaged irreparably in the event any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or otherwise are breached. Accordingly, each of the parties agrees that the other party shall be entitled to seek an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and to enforce specifically this Agreement and the terms and provisions hereof in any action instituted in any court of the United States or any state thereof having jurisdiction over the parties and the matter, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, at or in equity.

7.13 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction. If the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction declares that any term or provision hereof is invalid or unenforceable, the parties agree that the court making the determination of invalidity or unenforceability shall have the power to reduce the scope, duration, or area of the term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases, or to replace any invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be enforceable as so modified after the expiration of the time within which the judgment may be appealed.

7.14 Assignment; Third Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of any party hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party. Board of Directors

Members of the Board:

You have asked us to advise you with respect to the fairness, taken as a whole from a financial point of view, of the aggregate consideration, to be received by certain Stockholders (as defined below) of Cypress Communications Holding Co., Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 5, 2004 (the Agreement), by and among TechInvest Holding Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), TechInvest Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Merger Co.) and the Company. For purposes of this fairness opinion, Stockholders means the holders of Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock. Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

The Agreement provides, among other things, for the merger of Merger Co. with and into the Company (the Merger), pursuant to which each outstanding share of Common Stock, other than Common Stock held by persons or entities exercising appraisal rights under Delaware law, shall be converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration, calculated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. Furthermore, the Agreement provides that the Company shall redeem each share of its Series A Preferred Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. The terms and conditions of the Merger are set forth in more detail in the Agreement.

In connection with rendering our opinion, we have (i) reviewed the Agreement, (ii) reviewed a copy of that certain Purchase Agreement, dated July 16, 2002, pursuant to which the Company and its subsidiary, Cypress Communication, Inc., issued certain securities including Series A Preferred Stock, (iii) reviewed and analyzed certain business and financial information relating to the Company for recent years and interim periods to date and compared that data with similar data for certain other publicly-traded companies that we believe may be comparable in certain respects to the Company or its businesses or assets, (iv) reviewed and analyzed certain internal financial and operating information prepared by or on behalf of the Company provided to us for purposes of our analysis, (v) met with management of the Company to review and discuss such information and, among other matters, the Company's businesses, operations, assets, financial condition and future prospects, (vi) reviewed and considered certain stock market data relating to the Company and compared that data with similar data for certain other publicly-traded companies that we believe may be comparable in certain respects to the Company or its businesses or assets, (vii) reviewed and considered the financial terms of certain recent acquisitions and business combination transactions in the telecommunications services industry that we believe to be reasonably comparable to the Merger and its related transactions or otherwise relevant to our opinion, (viii) reviewed and analyzed the results of our efforts to solicit indications of interest in a business combination with the Company, and (ix) performed such other financial studies, analyses, and investigations and reviewed such other information as we considered appropriate for purposes of this opinion.

In our review and analysis and in formulating our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the historical financial and other information provided to us or discussed with us by the Company and of all information available from published sources. We have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any of such information. We have also assumed and relied upon the reasonableness and accuracy of the financial projections, forecasts and analyses provided to us by the Company's management. We have assumed that such projections, forecasts and analyses were reasonably prepared in good faith and on the bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the Company's management as to the Company's future performance and that the Company will perform in accordance with the projections and forecasts provided. We have further relied upon assurances from the management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances which they have not disclosed to us that would make the information, projections or analyses provided to us by them inaccurate or misleading. We express no opinion with respect to the projections, forecasts, and analyses provided to us or the assumptions upon which they are based. In addition, we have not reviewed any of the books and records of the Company or assumed any responsibility for conducting a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of the Company or for making or obtaining an independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company, and no such independent valuation or appraisal was provided to us. We also have assumed, with your consent, that the transactions described in the Agreement will be consummated without waiver or modification in any material respect of any of the terms or conditions contained therein by any party thereto. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances as they exist and can be evaluated by us only as of the date hereof and we hereby expressly disclaim any duty to update or revise this opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof.

We were engaged by the Company to solicit indications of interest in a business combination with the Company, have advised the Company in evaluating the business combinations proposed and have assisted the Company in negotiating the terms of the Agreement and its related transactions. We have received fees from the Company for these services, but the principal portion of our fees is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger and its related transactions. We will also receive a separate fee upon delivery of this opinion and the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain expenses and liabilities that may arise out of rendering this opinion. In the past, we have acted as financial advisor to one of the Company's subsidiaries in connection with its sale to the Company by tender offer in February 2002 and as financial advisor to WorldCom, Inc. in connection with WorldCom, Inc.'s sale of the assets of its shared tenant telecommunications services business to the Company in July 2002.

Our opinion only addresses the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Stockholders of the Company, taken as a whole, of the aggregate consideration to be received by them pursuant to the Agreement and we express no opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Common Stock or Series A Preferred Stock as a category of equity holder apart from all Stockholders collectively. We also do not express any views on the fairness of the Merger and its related transactions to any creditor of the Company or any opinion on the terms of the Merger and its related transactions otherwise. Specifically, our opinion does not address the Company's underlying business decision to effect the transactions contemplated by the Agreement or the relative merits of these transactions as compared to any alternative strategies or transactions that the Company might pursue. Furthermore, we express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature.

In rendering our opinion, we also have assumed that obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals for the transactions contemplated by the Agreement will not significantly delay consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated the Agreement, and that, in the course of obtaining such approvals, no requirement or restriction will be imposed that will have an adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger and its related transactions.

It is understood that this letter is solely for the benefit and use of the Board of Directors of the Company in its consideration of the Agreement and may only be disclosed, in whole or in part, with our prior consent. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any Stockholders with respect to how such Stockholders should vote on the Merger, and should not be relied upon by any Stockholders as such.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, including the various qualifications, assumptions, limitations and exceptions set forth herein, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof, the aggregate consideration to be received by Stockholders pursuant to the Agreement is fair to such Stockholders, taken as a whole from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

Breckenridge Securities Corp.

Appraisal Rights

8 Del.C. § 262

DELAWARE CODE ANNOTATED

TITLE 8. CORPORATIONS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL CORPORATION LAW

SUBCHAPTER IX. MERGER, CONSOLIDATION OR CONVERSION

§ 262 Appraisal rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

Table of Contents

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such

notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and in the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing,

no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
