PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

(Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005 could not be filed within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because on November 9, 2005 the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors of RTI International Metals, Inc. (the Company) concluded, upon the recommendation of management, that, due to an error in the classification between cash flows from operating activities and cash flows from financing activities, the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2004, as well as the quarters ended June 30, and March 31, 2004 and 2005 and September 30, 2004, should no longer be relied upon. The Company intends to file restated annual financial statements on Form 10-K/A for each of the years ended December 31 2004 and 2003 and restated interim financial statements for each of the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 on Forms 10-Q/A. The restatement related to the September 30, 2004 quarter will be reflected in the September 30, 2005 Form 10-Q. Accordingly, the Company filed a Form 8-K on November 10, 2005 to report the basis for the restatements which Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference. The Company expects to file its Form 10-Q for the Quarter ended September 30, 2005 within the next five calendar days. The Company expects to file their Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 2004 and Forms 10-Q/A for the periods ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 in the near future.

These restatements are a result of errors in the classification of the tax effect of stock options exercised. Historically the tax benefit was incorrectly classified within the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows in the category of Cash Provided by Financing Activities. The correct treatment is to reflect the tax benefit within the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows in the category of Cash Provided by Operating Activities.

These restatements do not affect the previously reported net change in cash and cash equivalents for the twelve months ended December 31, 2003 or 2004 or for the three months ended March 31, 2004 or 2005, the six months ended June 30, 2004 or 2005, or the nine months ended September 30, 2004. The restatements have no impact on any previously reported consolidated operating income, net income (loss), earnings per share, or on any element of the consolidated balance sheets for any date or period previously reported.

The Company had previously concluded in Item 9A of its 2004 Form 10-K , as amended, that its internal control over financial reporting was ineffective as of December 31, 2004. The Company indicated that it had material weaknesses related to, lack of personnel with accounting knowledge, experience, and training in the application of generally accepted accounting principles commensurate with the Company s financial reporting requirements. The Company believes this material weakness contributed to the restatement described above. The Company is in the process of remediating its material weaknesses.

The Company s management and audit committee have discussed the matters in this Form 12b-25 with the Company s independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.
