On December 16, 2005, Park National Corporation (Park) issued a news release announcing that the First Clermont Division of Park National Bank will be combined with the three Park National Bank branch offices in southwest Ohio and will operate as a new division of Park National Bank. The new division will have ten full-service offices in four counties with approximately $350 million in assets, and will be headquartered in Milford, Ohio. The new division will operate under the Park National Bank name. The formation of this new division is expected to be completed during the first quarter of 2006 and does not require any regulatory approvals.

The President and CEO of the First Clermont Division of Park National Bank, Dan Earley, is retiring from day-to-day activities and will assume the position as Board Chairman of the new division. Doug Compton, currently a Vice President of commercial lending for Park National Bank in Cincinnati, will become the President and CEO of the new division on March 1, 2006.

Park acquired all of the stock of First Clermont Bank on January 3, 2005 for $52.5 million in an all cash transaction. Immediately following Park s acquisition, First Clermont Bank merged with Park s subsidiary, Park National Bank. First Clermont, which has seven branch offices and approximately $225 million in assets, will continue to be operated as a separate division of Park National Bank until the new division is formed.
