Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On January 7, 2008, Middlefield Banc Corp. ( Middlefield ) entered into new severance agreements with

- 1) Thomas G. Caldwell, President and Chief Executive Officer of Middlefield and The Middlefield Banking Company (the Bank ),
- 2) James R. Heslop II, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Middlefield and the Bank,
- 3) Jay P. Giles, Senior Vice President/Senior Loan Officer of the Bank,
- 4) Teresa M. Hetrick, Senior Vice President Operations/Administration of the Bank,
- 5) Jack L. Lester, Vice President Compliance and Security Officer of the Bank,
- 6) Donald L. Stacy, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of Middlefield, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank, and
- 7) Alfred F. Thompson, Jr., Vice President Loan Administration of the Bank.

The severance agreements of Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy provide that severance benefits become payable immediately after a change in control of Middlefield occurs. The agreements of each of the four other officers provide that severance benefits become payable if the officer's employment terminates within 24 months after a change in control. The amount of the severance compensation is 2.5 times Messrs. Caldwell and Heslop's annual compensation and two times annual compensation for the other 5 executives with severance agreements. The severance agreements also provide continued life, health, and disability insurance coverage for 24 months and accelerated vesting of benefits under benefit plans. Middlefield has also agreed to pay up to $500,000 of legal fees incurred by Messrs. Caldwell and Heslop and $300,000 of legal fees incurred by the five other officers associated with the interpretation, enforcement, or defense of their rights under the severance agreements.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On December 28, 2007, The Middlefield Banking Company entered into Amended Director Retirement Agreements with Directors Frances H. Frank and Thomas C. Halstead and on January 8, 2008, the bank entered into Amended Director Retirement Agreements with Directors Richard T. Coyne and Donald E. Villers. Originally entered into in December 2001, the agreements have been amended to ensure compliance with section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the new section 409A regulations issued by the Internal Revenue Service in 2007. The amended agreements also (x) employ a uniform normal retirement age of age 75 rather than a customized normal retirement age for each director and (y) provide that payment of the normal retirement benefit shall begin when a director attains normal retirement age even if the director continues serving as a director. Middlefield's corporate governance guidelines allow a director who has attained age 75 to serve out his or her remaining term but prohibit that director from standing for reelection. The amended agreements do not change the duration of the normal retirement benefit, which is ten years. The amended agreements also provide that the liability accrual balance established by the bank shall be paid to the director in a single lump sum immediately after a change in control of Middlefield and that the benefit payable for early termination or disability occurring before normal retirement age shall be based upon the accrual balance existing when termination occurs rather than the accrual balance existing at the previous year end. Unlike the December 2001 Director Retirement Agreements which provided no benefits after the director's death, the amended agreements provide a lump sum death benefit corresponding to a particular director's liability accrual balance at the time of death.
