Item 8.01. Other Events

On June 1, 2015, Mylan N.V. (“Mylan”) sent a letter to Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (“Teva”) Chief Executive Officer Erez Vigodman with a copy to the Chairman of the Teva Board of Directors Prof. Yitzhak Peterburg. The full text of the letter is set forth below:

cc: Prof. Yitzhak Peterburg
Chairman of the Board of Directors

Dear Erez,

I write on behalf of the Mylan N.V. Board of Directors. In light of recent events we are compelled to ask you and the Teva board for unequivocal clarification with respect to the following.

We met on April 24, 2015, and almost six weeks have passed since Teva’s public and unsolicited, non-binding expression of interest on April 21, 2015, yet there still is no clarity on whether or not Teva will make an actual offer to acquire Mylan and, if so, the timing, terms or conditions thereof.

Instead, Teva has engaged in a pattern of making noncommittal, unclear, inaccurate, and non-specific statements to shareholders, analysts and the press regarding its intentions/plans with respect to Mylan, and continues to tell the same constituencies that there is a clear pathway for Teva to close a transaction with Mylan in a short timeframe and thereafter obtain control in a relatively short period. We both know that these statements are inaccurate and misleading.

As we have previously announced, a Mylan shareholders’ meeting (EGM) will be held early in the third quarter to obtain shareholder approval for our transaction with Perrigo. You will appreciate that it is very important to the shareholders of Mylan that they are able to cast their votes in a fair, informed and undisturbed manner. We cannot allow our shareholders’ interests to be hijacked and we need to safeguard Mylan, its business, strategy and mission, and its stakeholders against Teva’s meddling in our affairs and improperly influencing the vote of Mylan shareholders by holding out an expression of interest, mischaracterizing its ability to execute on that interest, all while failing to commit to an actual offer and without providing meaningful and specific information on its strategic intentions and the consequences of a real offer were it to materialize. The uncertainty based on Teva’s expression of interest which surrounds Mylan at present not only significantly affects our business, mission and strategy but also adversely impacts our shareholders, employees, business partners, customers, and the patients who rely on Mylan products and the communities in which Mylan is involved. The conduct of Teva has caused significant unrest and uncertainty within these groups and the continuation of Mylan’s longstanding strategy is threatened by Teva’s seemingly deliberate and uncertain expression of interest -- which can be withdrawn by Teva at any moment -- coupled with Teva’s pattern of saying different things to different people about what it might and might not do. In addition, it is important that if Teva intends to make a formal offer the Mylan shareholders and other stakeholders - and all other relevant parties involved - should have sufficient time to review and assess it and the timing of an offer (if any) should obviously not disrupt the fair, informed voting by our shareholders at the EGM.

While these dealings alone cause us great concern, we also learned that Teva acquired shares in Mylan in excess of the USD 76.3 million threshold under the US anti-trust rules. We believe Teva's acquisition of Mylan shares violates the U.S. antitrust laws. Further, Teva has chosen to remain silent on its intentions with respect to using those shares. We consider Teva's stakebuilding as a further indication of its intention to meddle with our business, strategy and mission while remaining unclear as to its actual intentions.

In light of the above, Teva's actions can only be considered to be a thinly veiled attempt to frustrate our Board's clearly articulated, consistent and successful strategic direction, including the vote at the EGM on our pending acquisition of Perrigo. It is time for Teva and its Board to stop playing games with our company, its business, mission and strategy and its stakeholders.

If Teva's Board wishes to pursue an actual formal committed binding offer (as we have done for Perrigo), then our Board will assess such an offer carefully in line with its duties and in light of the considerations outlined in my April 27, 2015 letter to you. Short of that, Teva and its Board must stop pursuing what amounts to nothing more than an illusory alternative for our shareholders to the Perrigo transaction (as there is no formal offer or clear path to completion for a Teva transaction) and figure out a solution to Teva's profound strategic issues (including among them Teva's impending Copaxone® cliff) that does not involve Mylan.

Best regards,

/s/ Robert J. Coury

DEALING DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Under the provisions of Rule 8.3 of the Irish Takeover Panel Act, 1997, Takeover Rules 2013 (the "Irish Takeover Rules"), if any person is, or becomes, 'interested' (directly or indirectly) in, 1% or more of any class of 'relevant securities' of Perrigo or Mylan, all 'dealings' in any 'relevant securities' of Perrigo Company plc ("Perrigo") or Mylan (including by means of an option in respect of, or a derivative referenced to, any such 'relevant securities') must be publicly disclosed by not later than 3:30 pm (New York time) on the 'business' day following the date of the relevant transaction. This requirement will continue until the date on which the 'offer period' ends. If two or more persons co-operate on the basis of any agreement, either express or tacit, either oral or written, to acquire an 'interest' in 'relevant securities' of Perrigo or Mylan, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3 of the Irish Takeover Rules.

Under the provisions of Rule 8.1 of the Irish Takeover Rules, all 'dealings' in 'relevant securities' of Perrigo by Mylan or 'relevant securities' of Mylan by Perrigo, or by any party acting in concert with either of them, must also be disclosed by no later than 12 noon (New York time) on the 'business' day following the date of the relevant transaction.

A disclosure table, giving details of the companies in whose 'relevant securities' 'dealings' should be disclosed, can be found on the Irish Takeover Panel's website at www.irishtakeoverpanel.ie.

Interests in securities arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether conditional or absolute, to changes in the price of securities. In particular, a person will be treated as having an 'interest' by virtue of the ownership or control of securities, or by virtue of any option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

Terms in quotation marks are defined in the Irish Takeover Rules, which can also be found on the Irish Takeover Panel's website. If you are in any doubt as to whether or not you are required to disclose a dealing under Rule 8, please

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains “forward-looking statements.” Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements about the Perrigo Proposal, Mylan’s acquisition (the “EPD Transaction”) of Mylan Inc. and Abbott Laboratories’ non-U.S. developed markets specialty and branded generics business (the “EPD Business”), the benefits and synergies of the Perrigo Proposal or EPD Transaction, future opportunities for Mylan, Perrigo, or the combined company and products, and any other statements regarding Mylan’s, Perrigo’s, or the combined company’s future operations, anticipated business levels, future earnings, planned activities, anticipated growth, market opportunities, strategies, competition, and other expectations and targets for future periods. Because forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties, actual future results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to: uncertainties related to the Perrigo Proposal, including as to the timing of the offer and compulsory acquisition, whether Perrigo will cooperate with Mylan and whether Mylan will be able to consummate the offer and compulsory acquisition, whether Mylan shareholders will provide the requisite approvals for the Perrigo Proposal, the possibility that competing offers will be made, the possibility that the conditions to the consummation of the offer will not be satisfied, and the possibility that Mylan will be unable to obtain regulatory approvals for the offer and compulsory acquisition or be required, as a condition to obtaining regulatory approvals, to accept conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits of the offer and compulsory acquisition; the ability to meet expectations regarding the accounting and tax treatments of a transaction relating to the Perrigo Proposal and the EPD Transaction; changes in relevant tax and other laws, including but not limited to changes in healthcare and pharmaceutical laws and regulations in the U.S. and abroad; the integration of Perrigo and the EPD Business being more difficult, time-consuming, or costly than expected; operating costs, customer loss and business disruption (including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients, or suppliers) being greater than expected following the Perrigo Proposal and the EPD Transaction; the retention of certain key employees of Perrigo and the EPD Business being difficult; the possibility that Mylan may be unable to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in connection with the Perrigo Proposal and the EPD Transaction within the expected time-frames or at all and to successfully integrate Perrigo and the EPD Business; expected or targeted future financial and operating performance and results; challenges to our business and strategic plans posed by the recent unsolicited business proposal made by Teva to acquire all of our outstanding shares; the capacity to bring new products to market, including but not limited to where Mylan uses its business judgment and decides to manufacture, market, and/or sell products, directly or through third parties, notwithstanding the fact that allegations of patent infringement(s) have not been finally resolved by the courts (i.e., an “at-risk launch”); success of clinical trials and our ability to execute on new product opportunities; the scope, timing, and outcome of any ongoing legal proceedings and the impact of any such proceedings on financial condition, results of operations and/or cash flows; the ability to protect intellectual property and preserve intellectual property rights; the effect of any changes in customer and supplier relationships and customer purchasing patterns; the ability to attract and retain key personnel; changes in third- party relationships; the impact of competition; changes in the economic and financial conditions of the businesses of Mylan, Perrigo, or the combined company; the inherent challenges, risks, and costs in identifying, acquiring, and integrating complementary or strategic acquisitions of other companies, products or assets and in achieving anticipated synergies; uncertainties and matters beyond the control of management; and inherent uncertainties involved in the estimates and judgments used in the preparation of financial statements, and the providing of estimates of financial measures, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and related standards or on an adjusted basis. For more detailed information on the risks and uncertainties associated with Mylan’s business activities, see the risks described in Mylan’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 and our other filings with the SEC. These risks, as well as other risks associated with Mylan, Perrigo, and the combined company are also more fully discussed in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 and the proxy statement that Mylan filed with the SEC on May 5, 2015 in connection with the Perrigo Proposal.
