NEWS RELEASE

Central Pacific Financial Corp. and CB Bancshares, Inc.
Shareholders Approve Bank Merger

Parent Companies of Central Pacific Bank and City Bank
Expected to Merge on September 15, 2004

Honolulu, HI - September 13, 2004 - Central Pacific Financial Corp. (NYSE: CPF) and CB Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq: CBBI) announced today that shareholders of both companies have approved the proposed merger of the two companies at their respective shareholder meetings held today.

Clint Arnoldus, Chairman, President and CEO of Central Pacific Financial Corp., said, "We are very pleased with the outcome of today's votes and appreciate the support shareholders, customers and employees have shown throughout this process. Today marks a historic step forward and we are focused on strengthening our position in this highly competitive market, building the best community bank serving Hawaii."

Ronald Migita, President and CEO of CB Bancshares, Inc., added, "We sincerely appreciate our shareholders' support and look forward to building a combined bank that will deliver added value to both new and longstanding shareholders of CPF as well as the customers, employees and communities that we will serve."

The following voting results were reported with respect to the proposed merger: approximately 81.34% and 80.37% of the issued and outstanding shares of Central Pacific Financial Corp. and CB Bancshares, Inc., respectively, voted "FOR" the proposal to approve the merger agreement, exceeding the requirements of Hawaii law. 96.8% of the CPF shares that were voted, voted in favor of the merger proposal and 94.7% of the CBBI shares that were voted, voted in favor of the merger proposal.

Other proposals on the CPF shareholder ballot that were approved today include: an amendment to CPF's Restated Articles of Incorporation to increase the number of common shares authorized for issuance to 100 million shares; the CPF 2004 Stock Compensation Plan; and the CPF 2004 Annual Executive Incentive Plan.

The merger is scheduled to close on September 15, 2004. Central Pacific Financial Corp. will be the surviving corporation and will operate two bank subsidiaries, Central Pacific Bank and City Bank, until it merges the banks under the Central Pacific name. The merger consideration to be received by CBBI shareholders will be approximately $20 in cash plus 2.6752 shares of CPF common stock for each share of CBBI common stock, or a value of $96.24 per CBBI share based on the closing price of CPF stock as of September 10, 2004. CBBI shareholders had the opportunity to elect cash and/or shares of CPF common stock, subject to proration, and will receive their consideration based on an aggregate pool of cash and stock available.

Upon completion of the merger, Clint Arnoldus will serve as Chief Executive Officer and Ronald Migita will serve as Chairman of the Board of the new combined company. As previously announced, Central Pacific Financial Corp. plans to consolidate bank branches in overlapping areas and begin opening new branches in under-served areas of Hawaii as part of its long-range plans. Currently, Central Pacific and City Bank operate 23 and 22 branches, respectively, in the State of Hawaii on four islands. "The merger provides us with an opportunity and the resources to expand our banking services into communities not being served by either bank through the consolidation of overlapping branches," said Arnoldus.

Central Pacific also reiterated its commitment to no involuntary layoffs as a result of the merger, and further indicated that all current branch employees will have the opportunity to remain in the combined branch network.

Central Pacific Financial Corp., is a Hawaii-based bank holding company which will have upon the closing date of the merger, $4.4 billion in assets, providing a full range of banking, investment and trust services for businesses and retail customers through its principal subsidiaries, Central Pacific Bank and, after the merger, City Bank. Central Pacific Bank is Hawaii's third largest commercial bank with 23 branches statewide and nearly 80 ATMs. City Bank is Hawaii's fourth largest commercial bank with 22 branches on the islands of Oahu, Hawaii, Maui and Kauai.
