Information about Voting

Record Date. The record date for the 2004 Annual Meeting to be held on June 4, 2004 is April 28, 2004 (the "Record Date"). As of the Record Date, 25,563,635 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of The Sports Authority, Inc. Quorum. The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of stockholders holding a majority of the shares outstanding as of the Record Date will constitute a quorum.

Proxy Voting. If you mark your voting instructions on your proxy card and sign and return it, the proxies, who are identified on the proxy card, will vote your shares as you instruct. If you sign and return your proxy card, but do not specify how your shares are to be voted, the proxies will vote your shares FOR the election of the eight director nominees, and FOR the ratification of the selection of the independent auditors.

Other than the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of the independent auditors, the Board of Directors does not know of any other matter that may be presented at the meeting. By signing and returning your proxy card, you authorize the proxies to exercise their discretion in voting on any other matter that may be presented for a vote.

Submitting voting instructions for shares held in street name. If you hold shares through a broker, follow the voting instructions you receive from your broker. Abstentions and Broker Non-votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included in the determination of the number of shares present and voting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are tabulated separately. Abstentions are counted in tabulations of votes cast on proposals presented to the stockholders and will have the same effect as negative votes, whereas broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast for or against a particular proposal and therefore will have no effect in determining the outcome of the vote on a particular matter.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES

Corporate Governance

The Company and our Board are committed to the principles of good corporate governance and our Board is fully compliant with the corporate governance requirements of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). Principles of corporate governance include:

Our Board has a majority of non-employee, independent directors;

All of our Audit Committee members meet the NYSE standards for independence and financial literacy. All members of the Audit Committee are "audit committee financial experts" under Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") rules;

Our Audit Committee hires, determines the compensation of, and decides the scope of services performed by our independent auditors. It also has the authority to retain independent outside advisors;

Our Corporate Governance Policy provides that the Company should not enter into service agreements with a director for compensation without disclosure to and approval by the Board;

Our Compensation Committee retained an independent consultant to assist it; and

Our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics complies with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and applies to our directors, officers and employees and sets forth basic principles to guide their day-to-day activities.

Our Board has adopted written charters for the Audit, Compensation and Nominating and Governance Committees setting forth the roles and responsibilities of each committee. Five of the seven non-management directors (each of which are nominees) are independent in accordance with the standards of independence established under our Corporate Governance Policy and the NYSE rules. All members of the Audit and Nominating and Governance Committees satisfy the standard of independence applicable to members of such committees established under applicable law and NYSE requirements. Three of the four members of the Compensation Committee meet such standards of independence. In addition, each of the members of the Audit Committee is an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of the current rules of the SEC.

The Corporate Governance Policy, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, and Board committee charters are available, free of charge, at the Company's website at www.thesportsauthority.com. A copy of each document will be provided, free of charge, upon written request to: Secretary, The Sports Authority, Inc., 1050 West Hampden Avenue, Englewood, CO 80110. Any waivers of, or amendments to, the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics will be posted on the Company's website.

Members of the Board of Directors are encouraged to attend the annual meetings of stockholders.

Communications with the Board of Directors

The Board welcomes communications from stockholders, and stockholders may send such communications care of the Secretary of the Company, 1050 W. Hampden Avenue, Englewood, CO 80110. While the Board oversees management, it does not participate in day-to-day management functions or business operations, and is not normally in the best position to respond to inquiries with respect to those matters. Accordingly, all communications to the Board will be reviewed by the Company initially to determine if the Company should respond on behalf of the Board, and communications pertaining to day-to-day business matters will be routed to the appropriate Company associate for response. Responses made by the Company on behalf of the Board will be maintained by the Company and be available for director review. For communications appropriately addressed by the Board or a specific director, the Company will forward such communication, along with appropriate documentation and a proposed response, for director review.

Committees and Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, and a Nominating and Governance Committee which are described below. During the Company's 2003 fiscal year, the Board of Directors held ten meetings and took action by unanimous written consent on two occasions, the Audit Committee held ten meetings, the Compensation Committee held ten meetings and took action by unanimous written consent on three occasions, and the Nominating and Governance Committee held two meetings. During the Company's 2003 fiscal year, each of the Company's Directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of: (1) the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors (held during the period in which the director served as a director of the Company) and (2) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board of Directors on which the director served (during the periods in which the director served on the committees).

Audit Committee

As of the date of this proxy statement, the members of the Audit Committee are Mary Elizabeth Burton (Chairperson), Gordon D. Barker and Cynthia R. Cohen. All members of the Audit Committee are "independent" as determined by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors consistent with the corporate governance standards of the Company and the NYSE. Each of the members of the Committee is financially literate and is an "Audit Committee financial expert" as defined by the SEC. The Committee formally considered whether Ms. Burton should continue to serve on the Audit Committee of the Company since she currently serves on four separate audit committees of different publicly traded corporations. The Committee considered this matter and after a general discussion concluded that Ms. Burton's past experience as a chief executive officer of several companies adds significant value to the Audit Committee of the Company and particularly in the role of Chairperson. The Committee did not believe that her service on four other audit committees impaired her ability to effectively carry out her duties for the Company.

The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter. The functions of the Audit Committee are:

To be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of any registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, and each such registered public accounting firm must report directly to the Audit Committee;

Monitor the integrity of the Company's financial reporting process and systems of internal controls regarding financial, accounting, and legal compliance;

Monitor the independence and performance of the Company's independent auditors and internal audit department; and

Provide an avenue of communication among the independent auditors, management, the internal audit department, and the Board of Directors.

To ensure the independence of the Company's independent auditor and to comply with applicable securities laws, listing standards, and the Audit Committee charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing, deliberating and pre-approving all audit, audit-related, and non-audit services to be performed by the Company's independent auditors and the fees associated with such services.

Compensation Committee

As of the date of this proxy statement, the members of the Compensation Committee are Cynthia R. Cohen (Chairperson), Peter R. Formanek, Kevin M. McGovern and Jonathan D. Sokoloff. All members of the Compensation Committee are "independent" as determined by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors consistent with the corporate governance standards of the Company and the NYSE, except Jonathan D. Sokoloff. Mr. Sokoloff is a partner of Leonard Green & Associates, L.P., an affiliate of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., which provided management, consulting and financial planning services during 2003 to the Company. The agreement under which such services were provided was terminated at the time of the TSA merger. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" for a description of the relationship between the Company and entities controlled by Mr. Sokoloff. Mr. Sokoloff abstains from voting on matters relating to executive compensation. From and after the date of the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting, Mr. Sokoloff will no longer serve on the Compensation Committee or any other committee of the Board. The functions of the Compensation Committee are to:

Annually review and assess the adequacy of the Compensation Committee Charter and evaluate the Committee's performance thereunder;

Edgar Filing: SPORTS AUTHORITY INC /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

Annually review corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives and set the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation;

Annually review and approve the nature and amount of total compensation for the executive officers of the Company, other than the CEO;

Annually make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive compensation plans and equity-based compensation plans;

Annually recommend to the Board the amount and nature of total compensation for service as a director and as a member of a Board Committee; and

Establish, adopt, amend, maintain, administer and/or terminate the Company's stock option, stock award, bonus, stock purchase, and 401(k) plan, health and welfare plans, and any director stock plan of The Sports Authority for so long as such plans remain in effect, in accordance with their respective terms.

Nominating and Governance Committee

As of the date of this proxy statement, the members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are Peter R. Formanek (chairperson), Gordon D. Barker, Mary Elizabeth Burton, Cynthia R. Cohen and Kevin M. McGovern, constituting all of the independent directors of the Board. Pursuant to the Corporate Governance Policies of the Company, the chairperson of the Nominating and Governance Committee is also the lead director for purposes of chairing meetings of the independent directors. Highlights of the functions of the Nominating and Governance Committee are to:

Develop and recommend to the Board the Corporate Governance Policy. The Committee reviews the Policy at least annually and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to any modifications.

Identify individuals qualified to become directors, review all nominees for director (including all nominations made by stockholders), and recommend that the Board select the director nominees for each annual meeting of stockholders. In this connection, the Committee reviews with the Board on an annual basis the appropriate skills and characteristics of the current directors, compared to the Company's future needs.

Recommend to the Board whether to accept the resignation of any director who volunteers to resign;

Review and recommend to the Board evaluation criteria for the Board's annual self-evaluation pursuant to Section V of the Corporate Governance Policy, based upon a report on best practices in corporate governance by the Company's general counsel. The Board's annual self evaluation is conducted under the direction of the Nominating and Governance Committee. As part of this evaluation, the Nominating and Governance Committee independently evaluates each committee by reference to such committee's charter. The Committee reviews the results of these evaluations and submits them to the Board for its acceptance or modification.

Annually evaluate its performance in relation to the purpose and responsibilities of the Committee as set forth in the Charter, the rules of the NYSE and the SEC; and

Review and recommend to the Board evaluation criteria for the chief executive officer's annual evaluation pursuant to the Board of Directors Corporate Governance Policy, based upon a report on best practices in corporate governance by the Company's general counsel. The chief executive officer's annual evaluation is conducted under the direction of the Nominating and Governance Committee.

The Committee identifies nominees in a number of ways. One method is the recommendation of a sitting member of the Board, who personally knows and has an understanding of the qualifications of a proposed nominee. A second method is an awareness of persons who are successful in business, the non-profit sector or a profession, whether personally known to a member of the Board or not. Such persons are contacted to ask whether they would be willing to serve. If they are willing, then the Committee conducts significant amounts of due diligence to ensure that a nominee possesses qualifications and qualities for serving on the Board. The Committee may elect to engage search firms to assist the Committee in identifying potential Board nominees, and we would pay such firms a fee for conducting such searches.

The Committee believes that the minimum qualifications for serving on the Board are that a nominee have substantial experience in working as an executive officer for, or serving on the board of a public company, or that he or she demonstrates by outstanding achievement in another given field of endeavor, an ability to make a meaningful contribution to the oversight and governance of a company having a scope and size similar to our Company. A director must have an exemplary reputation and record for honesty in his or her personal dealings and business or professional activity. All directors should possess a basic understanding of financial matters, have an ability to review and understand our Company's financial and other reports, and to discuss such matters intelligently and effectively. He or she also needs to exhibit qualities of independence in thought and action. The Committee will give due consideration to candidates recommended by stockholders. Stockholders may recommend candidates for Committee consideration by submitting such recommendation by mail to the Secretary of the Company by January 4, 2005. However, just because a recommended individual meets the minimum qualifications does not imply that the Committee necessarily will undertake a full evaluation of, or nominate, the person so recommended by a stockholder. All the director candidates, including those recommended by stockholders, will be considered based on the same criteria. The bylaws also provide a means for stockholders to nominate directors.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are employees or consultants of the Company receive no separate compensation for serving as directors. All directors are reimbursed for the expenses they incur to attend meetings.

The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has approved the following compensation for non-employee directors of the Company:

$45,000 per year, payable annually either in cash or restricted shares, at the election of the director;

$2,500, payable in cash, for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors;

$1,500, payable in cash, for attendance at each meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors;

$750, payable in cash, for each telephonic Board or committee meeting;

$8,000 per year, payable in cash, for the chairperson of the Audit Committee; and

$5,000 per year, payable in cash, for the Chairs of the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Governance Committee.

In September 2003, the Compensation Committee also authorized a one-time merger grant of 6,000 non-qualified stock options and 4,000 restricted stock units for each of the non-employee directors.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

During the Company's 2003 fiscal year, Mr. Sokoloff, a non-employee director, was a member of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Sokoloff is a partner of Leonard Green & Associates, L.P., an affiliate of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., which provided management, consulting and financial planning services to the Company. See the sections entitled "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" for a description of this arrangement and other relationships between the Company and other entities controlled by Mr. Sokoloff.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is composed of four non-employee directors, including, Cynthia R. Cohen, Peter R. Formanek, Kevin M. McGovern and Jonathan D. Sokoloff. Ms. Cohen and Messrs. Formanek and McGovern are independent directors as determined by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors consistent with the Company's Corporate Governance Policy and the regulations of the NYSE. As a non-independent member of the Compensation Committee, Mr. Sokoloff abstains from voting on matters relating to executive compensation. The Compensation Committee reviews the performance of our executive officers, determines the compensation of our executive officers and is active in reviewing salaries, bonuses and other forms of compensation for other TSA officers and key employees. The Compensation Committee is empowered by Board of Directors to administer the Company's 2003 Long Term Incentive Compensation Plan under which the Compensation Committee may grant, among other things, stock options, restricted shares of the Company's common stock, and other equity based awards to our key employees. The Compensation Committee has access to independent compensation data and is authorized, if determined appropriate in any particular case, to engage outside compensation consultants. The Committee engaged an outside compensation consultant to assist it in determining compensation for fiscal 2004.

The objectives of the Compensation Committee are to support the Company's achievement of desired standards of performance, to provide compensation and benefits that will attract and retain superior talent and reward performance, and to cause some portion of compensation to be based on the Company's performance. The Company's compensation philosophy also states that our programs will be designed to reward individual performance that drives the strategy and performance of our business and increases stockholder returns. An important factor considered by the Compensation Committee during the fiscal year was the successful transition and integration of the former Gart Sports Company and the former TSA following the merger of these companies.

The Company's executive compensation program generally is composed of base salary, bonuses based upon the Company's achievement of a target level of pre-tax earnings, and long-term incentives in the form of stock options or restricted stock grants.

Base Salaries

For the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004, base salaries for our executive officers were competitively increased following the TSA merger to reflect the added responsibilities and challenges of managing a much larger and more complex enterprise. As of January 31, 2004 combined entity operated 384 stores in 45 states, compared to 180 stores under the former Gart Sports Company and 205 stores under the former TSA prior to the merger. Additionally, in determining base salaries of executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers relevant market data and individual experience and performance specific to the Company. The Compensation Committee generally attempts to provide compensation approximating the median of comparable companies.

The Compensation Committee is aware that the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, treats certain elements of executive compensation in excess of $1 million a year as an expense not deductible by the Company for federal income tax purposes. For the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004, compensation for John Douglas Morton and Elliott J. Kerbis exceeded $1 million. To the extent compensation to an executive officer exceeds the cap, the Compensation Committee considers the facts and circumstances to reach a determination regarding the impact of the cap on such compensation.

Bonus Plan

Bonuses for executive officers and certain other officers and members of the Company's target bonus management team are paid pursuant to The Sports Authority's 2003 Performance Bonus Plan.

The purpose of the Bonus Plan is to provide an incentive for executives and other of The Sports Authority's key employees and to reward them in relation to the degree to which specified earnings goals are achieved. Under the Bonus Plan, eligible employees are awarded cash bonuses based upon the extent to which the Company achieves a target level of pre-tax earnings established each year by the Compensation Committee. For fiscal 2003, the amount of each employee's cash bonus, as determined by the Compensation Committee, is a percentage of salary ranging from a maximum of 70% (for the chief executive officer) to 10% depending on position, if the Company achieves 100% of the target pre-tax earnings. Bonuses also can be increased or decreased, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee, if the target pre-tax earnings is exceeded or not achieved. Bonuses were awarded in respect of the fiscal year ended on January 31, 2004 based on the Company achieving a target pre-tax earnings amount since the date of the merger. The Company's Board of Directors may choose to continue, amend or terminate the Bonus Plan in future years.

2003 Long Term Incentive Compensation Plan

The 2003 Long Term Incentive Compensation Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee and is intended to align performance around longer-term strategic objectives and to promote retention of executive officers and other key employees. The Compensation Committee has the full authority to administer and interpret the incentive compensation plan, to authorize the granting of awards, to determine the eligibility of an employee, director or consultant to receive an award, to determine the number of shares of common stock to be covered by each award (subject to the individual participant limitations provided in the incentive compensation plan), to determine the terms, provisions and conditions of each award (which may not be inconsistent with the terms of the incentive compensation plan), to prescribe the form of instruments evidencing awards and to take any other actions and make all other determinations that it deems necessary or appropriate in connection with the incentive compensation plan or the administration or interpretation thereof. In connection with this authority, the committee may establish performance goals that must be met in order for awards to be granted or to vest, or for the restrictions on any such awards to lapse. The performance goals may be based upon (i) the extent of achievement of specified levels of (x) The Sports Authority's consolidated pre-tax or after-tax earnings or earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization, (y) the pre-tax or after-tax earnings, or earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization, of The Sports Authority or any particular subsidiary, division or other business unit of The Sports Authority, or (z) changes (or the absence of changes) in the per share or aggregate fair market value of The Sports Authority common stock, or (ii) the extent of achievement of specified levels of revenues, gross margin (rate or dollars), comparable store sales, earnings, costs, return on assets, return on equity, return on capital, return on investment, number of units sold or average sale prices with regard to The Sports Authority, particular subsidiaries, divisions or other business units of The Sports Authority or particular employees or groups of employees of The Sports Authority. Key employees, directors and consultants of The Sports Authority and its subsidiaries are eligible to receive grants of stock options, restricted stock, phantom shares, dividend equivalent rights and other stock-based awards under the incentive compensation plan. The Compensation Committee determines eligibility for awards under the incentive compensation plan.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

The compensation package of John Douglas Morton, The Sports Authority's chief executive officer and vice chairman of the board, was determined in accordance with the principles described above. In 2003, Mr. Morton received a base salary of $837,174 and a bonus of $898,783 based upon achieving a certain pre-tax earnings goal. In addition, Mr. Morton received a grant of 49,000 stock options and 49,000 shares of restricted stock, in each case subject to specified vesting terms, and also received certain other customary perquisites and benefits. The Compensation Committee approved Mr. Morton's total compensation based on the following factors, which are listed in the order of importance to the Compensation Committee: (1) leadership through the TSA merger and integration process; 2) successful financial results of the combined company following the merger, and; 3) The Sports Authority's comparative performance with other companies in its industry. Mr. Morton also has an employment agreement, the specific terms of which are described below.

Employee Benefit Plan

In January 2004, the Company amended its 401(k) Retirement Plan to, among other things, increase the employer's matching contribution rate, reduce the eligibility period, and to cause employees of TSA Stores to vest 100% in matching contribution in their account as of January 1, 2004. On August 4, 2003, the TSA Stores, Inc. 401(k) Savings and Profit Sharing Plan was merged into the Company's plan. On August 1, 2001 the Oshman's Profit Sharing Plan was merged into the Company's plan. Participants vest in the Company's contributions at a rate of 20% per year after the first year of service. The plan provides for discretionary contributions, if any, by the Company in amounts determined annually by the Board of Directors. The Company matching contributions were $1,405,000 in fiscal 2003.

Deferred Compensation Plan

Under the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan, eligible employees may contribute a portion of their base salary or bonuses to the plan annually. The nonqualified deferred compensation plan provides for additional matching contributions by the Company, with limitations similar to those under the Company's 401(k) plan, as well as discretionary contributions, in an amount determined by the Company before the end of each plan year. The Company made no matching contributions to the deferred compensation plan during its fiscal year ended on January 31, 2004.

Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors

The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring the integrity of the Company's consolidated financial statements, its compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, its system of internal controls and the qualifications, independence and performance of its internal and independent auditors. We have the sole authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, when appropriate, replace the Company's independent auditors. The Committee is composed of three independent directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee has determined that each Committee member is independent under the standards of independence established under our Corporate Governance Policy and the NYSE listing requirements and are also "independent" for purposes of Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Management is responsible for the financial reporting process, including the system of internal controls, and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements and expressing an opinion as to their conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Our responsibility is to oversee and review these processes. We are not, however, professionally engaged in the practice of accounting or auditing and do not provide any expert or other special assurance as to such financial statements concerning compliance with laws, regulations or generally accepted accounting principles or as to auditor independence. We rely, without independent verification, on the information provided to us and on the representations made by management and the independent auditors. Following the TSA merger, the newly constituted Audit Committee was involved in the selection of a new vice president of internal audit of the Company.

We held ten meetings during fiscal 2003 with five such meetings being held after the merger. The meetings were designed, among other things, to facilitate and encourage communication among the Committee, management, the internal auditors and the Company's independent auditors, Deloitte & Touche LLP. We discussed with the Company's internal auditors and Deloitte & Touche LLP the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. We met with the internal auditors and Deloitte & Touche, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations and their evaluations of the Company's internal controls.

We have reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 with management and Deloitte & Touche. We also discussed with management and Deloitte & Touche LLP the process used to support certifications by the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer that are required by the SEC and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 to accompany the Company's periodic filings with the SEC.

We also discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP matters required to be discussed with audit committees under generally accepted auditing standards, including, among other things, matters related to the conduct of the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended (Communication with Audit Committees).

Deloitte & Touche LLP provided to us the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and we discussed with them their independence from the Company. When considering Deloitte & Touche's independence, we considered whether their provision of services to the Company beyond those rendered in connection with their audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and reviews of the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements included in its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q was compatible with maintaining their independence. We also reviewed, among other things, the audit and non-audit services performed by, and the amount of fees paid for such services to, Deloitte & Touche. All services were provided consistent with applicable rules and the pre-approval policies and procedures.

Based on our review and these meetings, discussions and reports, and subject to the limitations on our role and responsibilities referred to above and in the Audit Committee Charter, we authorized the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the SEC. We have also selected Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending January 29, 2005 and are presenting the selection to the shareholders for ratification.

All Other Fees

There were no aggregate fees billed to us by Deloitte & Touche LLP for services rendered, other than the services covered above under "Audit Fees," "Audit-Related Fees" and "Tax Fees," for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2004 and February 1, 2003.

Performance Graph of The Sports Authority

The following graph shows a comparison of cumulative total returns for the Company, New York Stock Exchange Index, the Standard & Poors Retail Index and a peer group of companies during the period commencing January 9, 1998 (the date that the Company first became subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act) and ending on January 31, 2004.

The comparison assumes $100.00 was invested on January 9, 1998 and assumes the reinvestment of all dividends, if any. The peer group consists of the following publicly traded sporting goods retailers: Dick's Sporting Goods, Sport Chalet, Inc., and Hibbett Sporting Goods, Inc.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors, executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of the Company's equity securities to file reports of initial ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the SEC. Such directors, officers and 10% stockholders are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company, the Company believes that all section 16(a) requirements applicable to directors, executive officers and 10% stockholders were complied with, except that the Forms 4 for Martin E. Hanaka, John Douglas Morton, Thomas T. Hendrickson, Greg A. Waters, Nesa E. Hassanein and Thomas R. Wildenberg, Senior Vice President of Finance, for an equity award grant made on August 22, 2004 were filed two days late. In addition, due to a problem with our system through which we file Forms 4 on behalf of directors and executive officers, another Form 4 for Mr. Hanaka relating to a grant of 26,295 shares was filed on January 15, 2004 rather than January 13, 2004, two days after the due date.
