PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

There have been issues raised with respect to the interpretation of the rules regarding the calculation of certain fees paid by the Registrant to RENN Capital Group, Inc., its investment adviser (the "Investment Adviser"), by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Resolution of this issue should not have a negative impact on the net asset value of the Fund. The Registrant and the Investment Adviser are working together with the SEC staff to resolve these issues. While we are awaiting final resolution of these issues in order to determine calculations that impact the Registrant's financial statements, there has been a delay in the completion of the Registrant's annual audit and the Registrant's preparation of its Annual Report on Form 10-K and this subsequent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. The Registrant has not been able to compile the requisite financial data and other narrative information necessary to complete the Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q without unreasonable effort and expense.

While resolving the aforementioned issue, the Registrant has determined that it needs an additional period of time, not expected to exceed the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date of May 15, 2004, to prepare and file its Form 10-Q.
