Independent programmers Support new charter

RFD-TV: "Since Its Initial Agreement With RFD-TV In 2006, Charter Communications Has A Proven Track Record Of Supporting Rural, Independent Programming." "RFD-TV executives are in Washington D.C. this week meeting with government officials about the positive relationship it has with Charter Communications as a show of support for its pending merger with Time Warner and Bright House cable networks. Since its initial agreement with RFD-TV in 2006, Charter Communications has a proven track record of supporting rural, independent programming. RFD-TV now enjoys full distribution in all Charter systems nationwide, both in standard and high definition."

Patrick Gottsch, founder and president of Rural Media Group: "Rural America recognizes that its best opportunity to reconnect city with country again is to have Charter Communications control access to the urban homes currently being served by Time Warner Cable and Bright House systems."

TV One: "Charter's Decision To Carry TV One On Its Most Widely Subscribed Tier Demonstrates Its Commitment To Offering Diverse And Independent Programming." "TV One enjoys a solid working relationship with Charter and its leadership team. Charter's decision to carry TV One on its most widely subscribed tier demonstrates its commitment to offering diverse and independent programming."

"We believe the proposed transaction would be good for independent programmers like TV one as it will make our unique and exciting content available to millions of more Americans."

Codista: "Charter's Support Of The Independent Networks That Make Up The Bulk Of The Spanish Language Content Available In The US Has Been Good To Condista, The Networks We Represent, To Charter And Its Shareholders And, Most Importantly The Hispanic Community." "At Condista we realize that investment does not come easy and recognize that it takes buy in from executives at all levels - from the top through to the customer service agents. All of us at Condista appreciate that Charter and its executives have made the tough decisions to enable Charter's strong investment in the Hispanic community. Charter's support of the independent networks that make up the bulk of the Spanish language content available in the US has been good to Condista, the networks we represent, to Charter and its shareholders and, most importantly the Hispanic community."

“OWS Distribution Executives Have Worked Closely With Charter Over Many Years And Have Found Charter To Be An Exemplary Professional Organization That Treats Independent Networks Fairly And Responsibly. Specifically, Charter has been an important and supportive partner of OWS in bringing to market programming of specific interest to ethnic minorities. We are confident that Charter will continue to operate in this manner after the proposed merger.”

“Charter has consistently demonstrated its commitment to serving diverse populations by offering ethnic packages for the Hispanic and Asian communities.”

Ambassador Andrew Young, Co-Founder, Bounce TV- The First And Only Over-The-Air Broadcast Television Network For African Americans: “We Support Charter Communications’ Pending Transactions With Time Warner Cable And Bright House Networks.”

“Charter has long been a strong supporter of minority-owned networks like Bounce TV and we believe that these transactions are in the public interest and will be beneficial to Bounce TV viewers, African Americans and all ethnicities.”

“We are thrilled that New Charter will make the offerings of Time Warner Cable and Bright House more diverse and richer for the more than 14 million African-American television households in the United States that are grossly underserved on television.”

Bill Abbott, CEO, Crown Media: “Charter’s Commitment To Hallmark Channel And Hallmark Movies & Mysteries Has Helped Make The Services Two Of The Most Popular General Entertainment Networks Available Today.”

“Charter’s Wide-Spread Distribution Of The Hallmark Channel And Hallmark Movies & Mysteries Reflects A Genuine Commitment To Diversity Through Independent And Family Friendly Programming.” “Charter’s wide-spread distribution of the Hallmark Channel and Hallmark Movies & Mysteries reflects a genuine commitment to diversity through independent and family friendly programming. We look forward to continuing our successful collaboration with Charter in the years to come.”

“Herring Broadcasting, Owner Of One America News Network And AWE,” Who “Vehemently Opposed The Proposed Comcast-TWC Deal,” Says That He Has “Absolutely No Issues” With Charter Buying TWC Or Bright House. “Even the reactions coming in vary. Herring Broadcasting, owner of One America News network and AWE, vehemently opposed the proposed Comcast-TWC deal. This time around, Herring has ‘absolutely no issues’ with Charter buying TWC of Bright House, pres Charles Herring told us.” (“Rutledge’s New Deal: Different Lens for Charter-TWC, Bright House,” Cable Fax Daily, Volume 26, No. 100, 5/27/15)
