(Ganden Holdings), a private Israeli corporation, which owns through intermediary private companies all the outstanding shares of Ganden Investments I.D.B. Ltd. (Ganden), a private Israeli corporation which in turn owns since May 19, 2003 approximately 31.02% of the outstanding shares of IDB Holding. Avraham Livnat's son, Zvi Livnat, is a director of IDB Holding, IDB Development and Clal.

Ganden, Manor and Livnat entered into a Shareholders Agreement dated May 23, 2002 (the Shareholders Agreement) with respect to their ownership of shares of IDB Holding, constituting in the aggregate approximately 51.7% of the outstanding shares of IDB Holding, for the purpose of maintaining and exercising control of IDB Holding as one single group of shareholders. The Shareholders Agreement provides, among other things, that Ganden will be the manager of the group as long as Ganden and its permitted transferees will be the largest shareholder of IDB Holding among the parties to the Shareholders Agreement; that the parties to the Shareholders Agreement will vote together at shareholders' meetings of IDB Holding as shall be determined according to a certain mechanism set forth therein; and that they will exercise their voting power in IDB Holding for electing their designees as directors of IDB Holding and its direct and indirect subsidiaries and other investee companies. Other provisions of the Shareholders Agreement relate, among other things, to proposed transactions in shares of IDB Holding by any party thereto, including (i) a limitation whereby no party may sell its shares of IDB Holding for a period of two years from May 19, 2003 other than to certain permitted transferees of such party, (ii) a right of first opportunity whereby any party wishing to sell any of its shares of IDB Holding, other than to certain permitted transferees of such party, must first offer such shares to the other parties, (iii) a tag along right whereby in case of sale of any shares of IDB Holding owned by the manager of the group, other than to certain permitted transferees thereof, the other parties may join such sale, (iv) a drag along right whereby in case of sale of all of the shares of IDB Holding owned by the manager of the group, it may obligate the other parties to sell all their shares of IDB Holding together with such sale by the manager of the group to the same purchaser, at the same time and on terms as set forth in the Shareholders Agreement, (v) an obligation of any party to offer its shares of IDB Holding to the other parties upon certain changes in the control of such party, and (vi) a right of participation in future acquisitions of shares of IDB Holding whereby any party acquiring additional shares of IDB Holding from third parties must offer the other parties the opportunity to participate in such acquisition on a pro rata basis. No party may sell shares of IDB Holding to any purchaser (including permitted transferees of such party) unless such purchaser joins the Shareholders Agreement and assumes the rights and obligations of the selling party thereunder with respect to the shares sold by it. The term of the Shareholders Agreement is twenty years from May 19, 2003 which may be extended by agreement of all parties thereto, and may be terminated as to any party in certain circumstances as set forth therein.

Ganden, Manor and Livnat pledged their shares of IDB Holding to certain financial institutions as collateral for the repayment of certain loans in an aggregate principal amount of $219 million borrowed by Ganden, Manor and Livnat to finance part of the price which they paid for the shares of IDB Holding purchased by them. The scheduled repayment dates of these loans are spread over a period of 12 years ending in May 2015. The pledges will be in effect until the loans are fully repaid, and include, among other things, certain restrictions relating to the disposition of, and the exercise of the voting rights attached to, the pledged shares. The lenders may realize the pledges and also may accelerate the repayment dates of the loans, in several different events (some of which will not be considered for such purpose to have occurred if rectified as provided for in the agreements relating to the loans) including, among others, default by the borrowers in performing their obligations under the agreements relating to these loans; the occurrence of events that entitle a third party to accelerate the repayment of other debts of the borrowers, or certain debts of IDB Holding or any of several specified companies held by it; if the borrowers or IDB Holding or certain of its major subsidiaries enter into certain extraordinary transactions such as a merger or reorganization, or sale or acquisition of major assets, or resolve to be voluntarily wound up, without the lenders' consent; if any of such entities becomes subject to insolvency, receivership or certain other similar proceedings; if certain financial ratios with respect IDB Holding, or a certain minimum ratio between the value of the collateral and the outstanding balance of the loans, are not met; if the shares of IDB Holding or certain of its major subsidiaries are delisted from trading on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange; if the Shareholders Agreement is amended without the lenders' consent, or the control of the borrowers is changed; and the occurrence of a material adverse change in the financial condition of IDB Holding, which in the lenders' opinion may jeopardize the repayment of the loans, or an adverse change in the financial condition of certain entities and persons controlling the borrowers, which in the lenders' opinion may jeopardize the payment of certain contingent financial liabilities of such entities and persons in connection with the loans. By reason of the control of IDB Holding by Nochi Dankner, Shelly Dankner-Bergman, Ruth Manor and Avraham Livnat, and the relations among them, as set forth above, Nochi Dankner, Shelly Dankner-Bergman, Ruth Manor and Avraham Livnat may each be deemed beneficial owner of, and to share the power to vote and dispose of, the Ordinary Shares owned directly by Clal Industries and CBI.

The name, citizenship, residence or business address and present principal occupation of the directors and executive officers of (i) CBI, (ii) Clal Industries, (iii) IDB Holding and (iv) IDB Development are set forth in Exhibits A, B, C and D attached hereto, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Prior to the Issuer's initial public offering (IPO) in August 2000, CBI owned 2,250,044 Preferred B Shares and 791,704 Preferred C Shares of the Issuer.

Upon the IPO, all Preferred Shares were converted to Ordinary Shares. In addition, CBI was issued an additional 4,000 Ordinary Shares. In aggregate, after the IPO, CBI held 3,045,748 Ordinary Shares.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

CBI has not made any purchases in the open market on the NASDAQ since the IPO.

The Ordinary Shares acquired by Clal Industries and CBI were purchased for investment purposes and to protect the ability of the Reporting Persons to continue to influence the policies of the Issuer and to assure that any extraordinary corporate transactions involving the Issuer would be made with fair consideration given to the interests of the Reporting Persons. The Reporting Persons may seek to use their influence to prevent, or modify the terms of any extraordinary transactions involving the Issuer or any of subsidiaries, such as a recapitalization, merger, liquidation, transfer of a material amount of assets, or any similar extraordinary transaction, or a change in the governing instruments of the Issuer or the composition of its Board of Directors or dividend policies which the Reporting Persons believe are not in the interest of the Issuer or their interests as substantial investors in the Issuer. The Reporting Persons have no plan or proposals which would result in, or are designed to prevent or modify the terms of, any of the types of extraordinary transactions described above.

The Reporting Persons may from time to time seek to acquire additional Ordinary Shares in transactions on the NASDAQ, or in transactions negotiated with the Issuer, or with other shareholders, at prices and/or other terms acceptable to the Reporting Persons. If the Reporting Persons believe it to be in their best interest, the Reporting Persons may sell all or any portion of the Ordinary Shares.

Item 5.

Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The Issuer has advised the Reporting Persons that there were 26,164,655 Ordinary Shares outstanding on March 31, 2003. The percentage of Ordinary Shares outstanding owned by the Reporting Persons set forth in this Statement is based on this number.

As of such date Clal Industries directly owned 10,526 Ordinary Shares, and by reason of control of CBI, may be deemed to share the power to vote and dispose 3,056,274 Ordinary Shares, constituting approximately 11.68% of the Ordinary Shares

As of May 19, 2003, IDB Holding, IDB Development and the Reporting Persons who are natural persons may be deemed to share the power to vote and dispose of the 3,056,274 Ordinary Shares, held directly by CBI and Clal Industries, constituting approximately 11.68% of the Ordinary Shares.

None of the Reporting Persons purchased or sold any Ordinary Shares from the date of the IPO.

Mr. David Haselkorn (an officer of Clal Industries) is a director of the Issuer. Mr. Haselkorn owns options to purchase 15,915 Ordinary Shares that are exercisable within 60 days of April 30, 2003, and owns 3,000 Ordinary Shares. Mr. Haselkorn has given notice of retirement as of July 1, 2003.

The Reporting Persons have been informed that none of the executive officers and directors of IDB Holding, IDB Development, Clal Industries and CBI have purchased or sold any Ordinary Shares during the period since the IPO.

Item 6.

Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Except as described herein and in Items 2 and 5 hereof, none of the Reporting Persons has any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with respect to any securities of the Issuer, including but not limited to transfer or voting of any securities of the Issuer, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies.

Under the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement dated July 16, 2000 among the Issuer and certain purchasers of Ordinary Shares, including CBI (the "Agreement"), at any time when the Issuer is eligible to register securities on Form F-3, subject to specified exceptions, the purchasers are entitled to request that the Issuer shall effect the registration of their Ordinary Shares under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("the Securities Act"). At the request of any holder of demand registration rights, the Issuer must use its best efforts to register at least 20% of the shares held by that holder if they are not freely tradable under the Securities Act. The minimum aggregate offering price of the securities to be registered is at least $500,000. The demand rights may be exercised at least six months following any other registration of the Ordinary Shares. CBI may only make one demand for the Issuer to register its Ordinary Shares. The Agreement attached as exhibit 12 and incorporated herein by reference

The holders of registration rights also have the right to include their Ordinary Shares in any registration statements filed by the Issuer for purposes of a public offering, subject to specified limitations. The Issuer will pay all expenses in connection with any registration, other than underwriting fees or discounts. These registration rights are transferable under specified circumstances and may be amended or waived only with the Issuer's written consent and a specified number of the affected holders.
