Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2006, Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc. received notice of termination from McDonald's Corporation of the benefits and insurance services provided to Chipotle by McDonald's under a Services Agreement dated January 31, 2006. The notice of termination specifies that the benefits and insurance services will terminate effective at the time McDonald's ceases to own, directly or indirectly, shares of common stock of Chipotle representing more than 80% of the combined voting power of Chipotle's outstanding common stock (the Disposition Date). McDonald's has previously announced that it expects to complete its disposition of its interest in Chipotle no later than the end of 2006, subject to market conditions.

In addition, certain accounting services provided to Chipotle by McDonald's under the Services Agreement have also been terminated by mutual agreement of the parties, effective as of July 1, 2006.

Chipotle does not expect that the termination of the services provided by McDonald's under the Services Agreement will have a material impact on Chipotle.

McDonald's will provide certain internal audit services to Chipotle under the Services Agreement, which are expected to be completed in August, 2006, and which will terminate in any event on the Disposition Date. McDonald's will also provide certain IT systems and facilities services to Chipotle under a Transition Services Agreement. These services are expected to conclude not later than October 30, 2006, and will terminate in any event on the second anniversary of the Disposition Date.

McDonald's, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, McDonald's Ventures, LLC, is Chipotle's largest shareholder, and currently holds shares of Class B Common Stock representing approximately 51% of Chipotle's outstanding common stock and approximately 82% of the voting power of Chipotle's outstanding common stock. Mats Lederhausen, Managing Director of McDonald's Ventures, serves on the board of directors of Chipotle.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this report, including Chipotle's expectations regarding the impact of the termination of services provided by McDonald's, are forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as anticipate, believe, could, should, estimate, expect, intend, may, predict, project, target, and similar terms and phrases, including references to assumptions, indicate forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained in this report are based on information available to Chipotle as of the date of this report, and we assume no obligation to update these forward-looking statements. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the statements. These risks and uncertainties include difficulties Chipotle may face in replacing services McDonald's has provided to it, as described in Item 1A, Risk Factors, in Part II of Chipotle's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2006, as well as the other risk factors described in such Form 10-Q, and in Chipotle's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Additional Information

In connection with the proposed disposition by McDonald's of its interest in Chipotle, Chipotle will file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement that will include a prospectus. The prospectus will contain important information about the disposition and related matters. Investors and security holders are urged to read the prospectus, and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, when they become available and before making any investment decision. Investors and security holders will be able to obtain a free copy of the prospectus (when available) and other related documents filed with the SEC by McDonald's and Chipotle at the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov.
