Merger Update

Merger approval process continues forward

- Merger proxy filed with SEC on June 23, 2006; comments received on July 21, 2006
- FERC extended date by which they must issue an order to February 2, 2007
- Expect Maryland approval process to be critical path to closing the merger

Implementation of rate stabilization plan clears one obstacle for Maryland PSC to consider merger

- Filed new merger application with the Maryland PSC on July 21, 2006 to address new statutory standards of Senate Bill 1
- PSC scheduled prehearing conference for August 9, 2006, to rule on interveners and set a procedural schedule for merger review
- Requested a November 2006 decision, but depending on procedural schedule published by the PSC, closing could be delayed

Uncertainty surrounding closing of the merger remains

- Integration activity remains on hold until companies have more clarity on timing and economics
- If risks to closing the merger or economics become unacceptable, Constellation Energy and FPL Group could agree to terminate the merger

Constellation Energy remains committed to the merger with FPL, but not at the expense of shareholder value
