Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On May 27, 2010, at the 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the 2010 Annual Meeting) of Alexandria Real Estate Equities, Inc. (Alexandria), Alexandria s stockholders approved the amendment and restatement of the Alexandria Real Estate Equities, Inc. Amended and Restated 1997 Stock Award and Incentive Plan (as amended and restated, the Restated 1997 Plan). Alexandria s Board of Directors (the Board) approved the Restated 1997 Plan in April 2010, subject to, and effective upon, approval by Alexandria s stockholders at the 2010 Annual Meeting. The primary purposes of the amendment and restatement are:

- (i) to increase the aggregate number of shares of common stock available for issuance under the Restated 1997 Plan to a total of 3,629,896 shares of common stock, which represents an increase of 3,000,000 shares over the aggregate number of shares of common stock available for issuance as of January 1, 2010;
- (ii) to implement a fungible reserve so that, effective on or after January 1, 2010, the number of shares of common stock available for issuance under the Restated 1997 Plan is reduced by (a) one share for each share of common stock issued pursuant to a stock option or stock appreciation right, and (b) two shares for each share of common stock issued pursuant to a restricted stock award, other stock-based award or award of stock in lieu of cash compensation;
- (iii) to establish responsible share counting, so that shares subject to a stock option or stock appreciation right that are not delivered to a participant because (a) the award is exercised through a reduction of shares subject to the award (that is, net exercised) or through the participant s tender to Alexandria of previously acquired shares, (b) the appreciation distribution on the award is paid in shares of stock, or (c) Alexandria retains those shares to cover the participant s tax withholding obligation, will not again become available for issuance under the Restated 1997 Plan;
- (iv) to increase Alexandria s flexibility to design equity and cash incentives that can satisfy the requirements for performance-based compensation within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), consistent with market expectations on pay for performance and tax deductibility of compensation by establishing additional performance criteria upon which the performance objectives of other stock-based awards and other cash-based awards are based; and
- (v) to extend the term of the Restated 1997 Plan until May 2020.

As a result of grants of stock options and restricted stock awards prior to adoption of the Restated 1997 Plan, the number of shares of common stock available for future grants had been reduced to 576,426 shares as of March 31, 2010. The Board approved the increase in the number of shares of common stock available to help Alexandria achieve its goals by keeping its incentive compensation program competitive with those of comparable companies. The Board approved the implementation of a fungible share reserve and responsible share counting provisions to maximize Alexandria's flexibility to choose the appropriate mix of equity awards from year to year.

Section 162(m) of the Code denies a deduction to any publicly held corporation for certain compensation paid to covered employees in a taxable year to the extent that compensation to a covered employee exceeds $1 million. However, some kinds of compensation, including qualified performance-based compensation, are not subject to this deduction limitation. For the grant of awards under a plan to qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m), among other things, the plan must provide a per-person limit on the number of shares subject to stock options, stock appreciation rights and performance-based stock awards, and on the amount of cash that may be subject to performance-based cash awards, granted to any employee under the plan in any year. In addition, certain awards may qualify as performance-based compensation only if the awards are granted, vest or are settled based upon performance goals that are consistent with one or more pre-established criteria enumerated under the plan.

Accordingly, the Restated 1997 Plan establishes (i) an annual limitation on the number of shares subject to stock options, stock appreciation rights, stock and other stock-based awards granted to any individual during any calendar year of 500,000 shares, (ii) an annual per-person limit of 500,000 shares and $5,000,000 on the maximum number of shares and the maximum amount of cash that that may be subject to other stock-based awards and other cash-based awards, respectively, intended to qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code, and (iii) certain performance criteria upon which the performance objectives of other stock-based awards and other cash-based awards may be based. Alexandria is required to seek stockholder reapproval of such limitations and criteria at the first meeting of Alexandria's stockholders that occurs in 2015.

A more detailed summary of the changes adopted in the Restated 1997 Plan is set forth in Alexandria's definitive proxy statement for the 2010 Annual Meeting, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) on April 27, 2010 (the Proxy Statement). The foregoing summary and the summary contained in the Proxy Statement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Restated 1997 Plan, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated into this Item 5.02 by reference.
