Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On May 2, 2013, Spirit AeroSystems Holdings, Inc. (the Company) and its wholly-owned subsidiary Spirit AeroSystems, Inc. (Spirit) entered into a Retirement and Consulting Agreement and General Release with Jeffrey L. Turner (the Retirement and Consulting Agreement). As previously announced, Mr. Turner had resigned from the position of President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Spirit, effective April 6, 2013, and Mr. Turner will retire from the Company and Spirit, effective June 30, 2013 (the Retirement Date).

The Retirement and Consulting Agreement provides that, for a period of two years starting on the Retirement Date, which may be renewed or extended by the Company's Chief Executive Officer (the Consulting Term), Mr. Turner will provide consulting and transition services to the Company and its Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Turner will receive annual compensation of $335,000 for the provision of such services (Consulting Fees). The Retirement and Consulting Agreement also provides that, if Mr. Turner is compensated for his services on the Company's board of directors (the Board) in an amount less than $165,000 per year, whether in the form of cash or equity, his annual Consulting Fees will be increased to an amount such that the total annual Consulting Fees and director fees will not be less than $500,000 in the aggregate.

The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Turner will receive an annual award under the Company's Long Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP) of $1,540,000 of restricted stock for 2013, which award will be granted at the same time and on the same terms as the LTIP awards granted for 2013 to the Company's other executives. Grants previously received by Mr. Turner under the LTIP will continue to vest during his two-year consulting term and the two-year period thereafter. The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Turner will receive an annual award for 2013 under the Company's Short-Term Incentive Plan (the STIP), paid fully in cash, in an amount equal to 50% of the STIP award that he would have received had he remained employed by the Company through December 31, 2013. Mr. Turner's STIP award of 10,962 shares of restricted stock in respect of 2012, which was granted on February 22, 2013, will become fully vested on the Retirement Date. In addition, in accordance with the terms of the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, Retirement and Savings Plan and Pension Value Plan, Mr. Turner will be entitled to his account balances and accrued benefits, as applicable, following the Retirement Date.

Under the Retirement and Consulting Agreement, Mr. Turner is entitled to continue his health insurance coverage, as mandated by COBRA, to the extent required by applicable law, and is entitled to participate in the Company's retiree medical insurance plan.

The Retirement and Consulting Agreement contains covenants for the benefit of the Company and Spirit relating to non-competition during and for an extra two years following the Consulting Term, non-solicitation of Company and Spirit employees during and for two years following the Consulting Term and protection of the Company's and Spirit's confidential information.

The preceding discussion of the Retirement and Consulting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Retirement and Consulting Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated by reference herein.

On April 30, 2013, the Board approved the modification of the compensation arrangements for David M. Coleal, the Company's Executive Vice President/General Manager for Fuselage Segment, Oklahoma Operations and John A. Pilla, the Company's Senior Vice President/General Manager for Propulsion & Aerostructures, effective as of May 3, 2013. The decision to modify Mr. Coleal's and Mr. Pilla's compensation was made to reflect certain changes of job scope and to ensure alignment with the Company's pay philosophy, framework and retention plans. The decision is also the result of an extensive review by the Board's Compensation Committee (the Compensation Committee) of the compensation of senior executive officers of the Company's peer group of several aerospace and other industrial manufacturing companies included in a benchmarking analysis conducted by Towers Watson, the Company's compensation consultants.

Commencing May 3, 2013, (i) Mr. Coleal will receive an annual base salary of $585,000 and (ii) Mr. Pilla will receive an annual base salary of $350,000. In addition, the percentages of Mr. Coleal's annual base salary for which he will be eligible to receive awards under the Company's STIP, and the percentages of Mr. Coleal's and Mr. Pilla's annual base salaries for which they will be eligible to receive awards under the Company's LTIP, will be increased from the percentages under their existing compensation arrangements. Under the STIP and LTIP, participants are eligible to receive annual awards based on a stated percentage of their annual base salaries. Under the modified compensation arrangements, Mr. Coleal will be entitled to receive an award under the STIP (in cash and/or Company common stock) with a value equal to 100% of his annual base salary (increased from 90%) if target performance goals are reached and 200% of his annual base salary (increased from 180%) if maximum performance goals are reached. For 2013, annual base salary will be determined on a prorated basis to reflect the increased annual base salaries. If target performance goals are not reached, Mr. Coleal will only be entitled to incentive compensation (if any) otherwise provided to the Company's executives under the STIP and the Company's policies. The actual amount payable to Mr. Coleal under the STIP will continue to be dependent upon the achievement of the Company's performance objectives, which are the same as the objectives established under the plan for other executive officers of Spirit and certain other employee groups. Depending on performance, the actual amount payable to executive officers under the STIP may be less than, greater than or equal to the stated target bonus (and could be zero). The portion of the STIP award that Mr. Coleal receives for 2013 will be prorated based on the portion of the year for which his new compensation arrangements apply.

Under the LTIP, (i) Mr. Coleal will be entitled to receive an award with a value equal to 170% of his annual base salary (increased from 120%) and (ii) Mr. Pilla will be entitled to receive an award with a value equal to 190% of his annual base salary (increased from 170%). The award under the LTIP will continue to be subject to the terms and provisions of the LTIP and terms and conditions (including vesting conditions) established by the Board and the Compensation Committee. In addition, Mr. Coleal and Mr. Pilla will each be granted an additional LTIP award in 2013 of an amount equal to the aforementioned increased percentages of their respective prorated 2013 base salaries.

Other than as set forth herein, Mr. Coleal's employment agreement with the Company will continue in full force and effect on its current terms, and Mr. Pilla's employment arrangements with the Company will continue in full force and effect on their current terms.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders
