Vale contracts a US$ 2 billion revolving credit facility

Rio de Janeiro, July 4, 2013 Vale S.A. (Vale) announces that it has entered into a contract for a five-year revolving credit line facility of US$ 2 billion in a best effort transaction.

The revolving credit line was arranged by a bank syndicate comprised by 16 global commercial banks. The syndicate includes the following banks: Barclays, Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, BNP Paribas, Crédit Agricole, Citibank, Deutsche Bank, HSBC, Intesa San Paolo, JP Morgan, Mizuho, Natixis, Royal Bank of Canada, The Bank of Nova Scotia, Société Générale, Standard Chartered and Sumitomo.

Vale and some of its wholly-owned subsidiaries can draw funds over the five-year tenor of the facility.

With this facility the total amount of revolving credit lines is US$ 5 billion, as we already have an existing US$ 3 billion line, which will mature in 2016. The revolving credit lines work as a short term liquidity buffer that enhances our liquidity and allows more efficient cash management, consistent with Vale's strategic focus on cost of capital reduction.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
